marriage is expected in this mahadasha of Mars.

Running Bhukti was Venus which as discussed above is also a strong significator of marriage. Venus Bhukti was from 18-11-2005 to 18-01-2007. As we see this Bhukti indicates marriage during this period i.e. before Jan 2007. Saturn Antara was running from 18-08-2006 to 25-10-2006. Saturn is in the star of Mercury which is placed in 7th. Saturn is in the sub of Mars which strongly supports marriage. Hence Antara lord Saturn also supports marriage.

Prediction

So I predicted that marriage would take place before 25th Oct 2006 after checking the Ruling Planets and transit as shown under.

Ruling Planets at the Time of Judgement:

Lagna	Mars Ketu Rahu
Moon	Ven Mars Venus
Daylord	Moon

Most of the Ruling Planets are fast moving planets, So the event is likely to happen soon. Actually nobody was expecting that this can happen. Even my friend who asked me this question was unsure, but as this was his destiny, his girlfriend left her home on 10th Oct 2006. He was left with nothing to choose but only to marry her after they both left Bhopal as 9th and 12th houses were involved. They married on 18-10-2006, Wednesday, in court at Mahu near Jhabua in MP .

Transits of Dasha Bhukti & Antara Lords

First of all Mars the mahadasha lord was in Libra in its own star Chitra. Bhukti lord Venus is also in the star of Mars but it was in Virgo. Antara lord Saturn was placed in Cancer sign in the star of Mercury in the sub of Saturn itself. Looking at the transit of luminaries which is very essential to time the event, Sun was placed in Libra whose sign lord is Venus, in the star of Mars, in the sub of Mercury. Moon is in Leo in the star of Venus. All are strong significators of 7th house. Thus one can identify how the destiny unfolds clearly only through Krishnamurti Padhdhati.

My pranams to Guruji and Lord Ganesha.

One of my astrology colleagues asked me last month "what about my auntie's health"? regarding his mother's younger sister admitted to hospital.

Horary No : 49

Date :30/5/2009

Time :8:59:57 AM

Place :Surat, Gujarat, 21N10, 72E50

Moon

Moon is in the constellation of Ke and sub of Ven. Ke is aspected by Mar in 11 lord of 6, 11. The signification of 6 (house of auntie-masi-mother's younger sister) and 11 (house of auntie's sickness, 6th to 6) is a clear indication of her health and so further analysis was done with confidence.

KP Rules

Death: in the DBA signifying Badhaka (11, 9, 7 depending on Lagna), Maraka (2, 7) and Moksha (12), along with 4 (end of every thing), 10 (retirement from this world)

Recovery of Health: in the DBA signifying 1 (health), 5 (absence of sickness, 12th to 6) and 11 (absence of hospitalisation, 12th to 12)

Back Home from Hospital: in the DBA signifying 2 (family), 4 (home) and 11 (discharge from hospital, reunion with kiths and kin)

Analysis:

For the auntie the chart is rotated to 6th cusp-Vrishchik lagna.

1st CSL Ve

Ve is in the star of Me and sub of Sa. Ve is in 5, lord of 7, 12. Me is in 6, lord of 8, 11. Sa is in 10, lord of 3, 4. A favourable signification of 5, 11, 8, 3 for longevity, along with negative houses 6, 7, 12 without Bhadaka, is a clear indication for living longer.

6th CSL Mo

Mo is in the star of Ke and sub of Ve. Mo is in 10, lord of 9 (Badhaka). Ke is in 9 and aspected by Ma in 6, lord of 1, 6 and in the star of Sa in 10, lord of 3, 4. Ve is in 5, lord of 7, 12. The signification of 1, 5, 4 houses shows recovery of health and the possibility of discharge from the hospital.

D/B/A

Ke Dasa is up to 12/4/2015.

Dasa lord Ke is in the star of Sa and sub of Ve. Ke is in 9 and aspected by Ma in 6. lord of 1, 6 and in the star of Sa in 10, lord of 3, 4. Ve is in 5, lord of 7, 12. So this dasa of deadly significators would be dangerous to her health. But it could give her some relief to go back home in favourable subs because of 1, 5, 4 signification.

Ve Bhukti is up to 10/11/2009.

Bhukti lord Ve is in the star of Me and sub of Sa. Ve is in 5, lord of 7, 12. Me is 6, lord of 8, 11. Sa in 10, lord of 3, 4. The signification of 5, 11 indicates recovery of health and 4, 11 back home from hospital.

Ju Antara is up to 8/6/2009.

Antara lord Ju is in the star of Ma and sub of Ve. Ju is in 4, lord of 2, 5. No planet is in Ju's star and it is a strong significator of 4. Ma is in 6, lord of 1, 6. Ve is in 5, lord of 7, 12. The 1, 5, 2, 4 signification denotes recovery of health to go back home from hospital.

I had told my friend with confidence that she would be back home before 8/6/2009 with confidence. He had no hope for her to be back home.

A reader asks about rulership of sports which is not included in the KP House Grouping articles published in this magazine.

5th house governs sports.

If 5th cusp sub lord signifies 6, 11, 5, 10, one can be successful in sports.

11th cusp sub lord signification of 6, 11, 5, 10 is also important, especially in Horary.

6 is for success in competition and profits from sports.

4 (12th to 5 or 10th to opponent 7) is for losses in competitive sports.

Here 2 (10th from 5) also indicates one's reputation regarding sports, in addition to monetary gain.

General karaka for sports is Sun; karaka for competitive sports is Mars; and karaka for non-competitive sports is Jupiter.

The author, a well known experienced KP astrologer, appropriately begins with “What is Muhurat?” and “Rules for KP Muhurat” and then gives the detailed “Examples of Muhurat Calculation”. In the next twelve chapters “Fixing Muhurat- Matters Pertaining to I to XII Bhava” has been thoroughly explained.

This book moves the readers cogently, clearly and step-by-step through the process of calculating the most astrologically auspicious time for a particular occasion or commencement of an activity on the basis of a good longevity and the required significators of the concerned cuspal sub-lords and running Dasa-Bhukti-Antra-Sookshma lords.

Through this book, both KP lovers and practitioners will gain a thorough understanding of the author’s new concept and confidently learn to select the most favourable time to begin an activity such as swearing in, marriage, purchase or construction of property, starting a new business, joining a new job, applying for Visa, filing a legal case or any other important occasion.

Though this book deals with Muhurat, it has also significant principles of choosing the required cuspal sub-lords and house grouping for around 80 events and activities according to the matters of I to XII Bhava which are useful in prediction by natal or horary chart.

In summary, the author has made a valuable contribution to the evolution of the Muhurat method for the benefit of KP learners.

One senior citizen from Gujarat was worried for his 2 sons, as the elder was not allowing the younger one to flourish in the joint business and was coming his way. The father was too worried and he telephoned me to look if there could be a solution to this stalemate between his sons, as this was affecting his peace of mind.

He had sent his birth chart only to me to examine the compatibility issues between his 1st son (2nd issue) and the 2nd son (3rd issue).

The birth chart of the father is presented as follows. The chart was rotated to 7th house to represent the 2nd child (1st son). From this chart, the 3rd house would represent his 2nd son.

The Query

The chart was taken up for study on April 29, 2009 when Moon was transiting the Rahu's star (Aridra). Considering that Rahu disposes Saturn and Moon, the planets disposed by Moon were considered as Rahu, Saturn and Moon.

It was noticed that Rahu was the cuspal sub-lord of lagna (1st son's), Moon was the cuspal sub-lord of 3rd cusp (2nd son) and Saturn was the cuspal sub-lord of the 11th cusp (harmony).

With the above, I took the query to be genuine and proceeded for further analysis.

Analysis of the chart

1. Look from the 1st son's side

In the rotated chart, lagna (Aries 29-15-47) represent the 1st son and the 2nd son is represented by the 3rd cusp (Gemini 29-48-29).

Various aspects between them are analysed as below.

a. Rahu is the lagna sub-lord of 1st son, which decides the primary drive of the native. Rahu placed in 2nd house falls in the star of Jupiter placed in 9th house as 11th lord, thus Rahu signifies 9-2-11th houses and is very good for the native to advance well in the business and earn heftily.

b. The 3rd cuspal sub-lord Moon (indicating his younger brother) is strong as it does not have any planet in its star, thus its placement will matter the most. Note that Moon is placed in 12th house, indicating that his younger brother's presence in the business would mean loss to him. This is exactly the perception (Moon), which is registered in his mind.

c. Examine 3rd cuspal sub lord Moon at the stellar level, where Moon falls in the star of Venus placed in 2nd house with its sub lord Saturn placed in 6th house as 10th lord. This makes the 1st son to get benefited by the professional involvement of his younger brother. Thus, he may have wanted his younger brother to be hanging with him for his own professional ongoing (2-6-10th house) whereas not considering his worth by way of the pre-conceived notion (Moon in 12th house as cuspal sub-lord of 3rd cusp).

d. Looking to the 10th cusp, the cuspal sub lord is Ketu, which falls in the star of Venus (signifying 2-6-7th house) and sub of Saturn (signifying 6-9-10-11th houses), thus promising him luck of professional success. The placement of Ketu in 8th house could have given him the hold on father's business as inheritance.

e. Thus, it is observed that the 1st son had a good luck for advancing in the business.

In the Saturn dasha, which had been running since 19 years, he must have progressed well in advancing the business and earning heavily, as Saturn lords the 10th house, gets placed in the star of 11th lord Jupiter with the support of sub lord Venus placed in 2nd house as 6th lord. Thus, Saturn dasha must have been a boon to him.

2. Look from the 2nd son's side

3rd cusp (Gemini 29-48-29) is being considered as the Lagna of the 2nd son and the delineation in this section is worded accordingly (Lagna means 3rd cusp) and all other cusps are seen with reference to this lagna cusp.

Non coherence between brothers

KP appraisal

Vijay Kumar
Senior Manager, C-DOT

a. Lagna sub lord is Moon is a strong planet, as there is no planet in its star. Moon's placement in 10th house could mean to be gainful in the business by way of the placement of Moon.

At the stellar level, Moon falls in the star of Venus falling in 12th house, making him feel lost. Moon falls in the sub of Saturn that as 8th lord gets placed in 4th house, thus giving a complete stuck over, despair and lost peace of mind.

Note that the Saturn (sub-lord of 3rd cuspal sub-lord Moon) deteriorates the promises of the Moon even by way of its better positional status in 10th house.

b. Examine how the efforts of the native confer fruits to him. For this the 3rd cuspal lord Saturn is to be examined.

Saturn as 3rd cuspal sub lord is the 8th lord placed in 4th house, thus the efforts do not bring fruits.

At the stellar level, Saturn falls in the star of Jupiter, which as 9th lord gets placed in 7th house and does some promise of luck. Saturn's sub-lord Venus falls in the 12th house as 5th lord, which does not allow the poorva-punyas (5th house) to be dispensed for advantage, thus causing blockage to his advancements in professional life.

In a business environment, the 7th house is important as all the dealings in partnership do take place through 7th house, which is also weak as the 7th cuspal sub lord Rahu gets placed in 12th house.

c. Examine how would he fare in business.

Consider 10th cuspal sub-lord Moon that as a strong planet is placed in 10th house, giving some solace. At the stellar level, Moon in star of Venus placed in 12th house promise losses and the sub lord - Saturn placed in 4th house dictates the life stuck by hard luck.

d. In the Saturn dasha running since 19 years, he had undergone a serious turmoil, as Saturn cause hardships and does not support him to advance in his professional pursuits.

3. Look to the present dasha

Mercury dasha started since January 2009 and let us examine what is in store for both the brothers.

- Mercury is in its own star and is placed in 3rd house, which is the house of efforts of 1st son and is the lagna of the 2nd son. Since, this dasha represented the 2nd son, perhaps, his father got too concerned for him as the dasha commenced.

- Mercury falls in the sub of Jupiter, which is as usual strong for the professional progress of the 1st son, as Jupiter as 9th and 11th lord gets placed in 9th house.

For the 2nd son, the sub lord Jupiter gets placed in 7th house as 7th and 9th lord giving marginally better prospects only.

Conclusion

It was communicated to the gentleman on phone about the findings as above and also that even in the current Mercury dasha, the professional prospects of his 2nd son do not look bright, though the 1st son may sail through well.

Prof. Krishnamurthy has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

Editor's Note: Harmony between brothers is not indicated as the significator of 1 is also significator of 6 and 8 and the significator of 3 is not a significator of 11 and 1. (KP Reader VI page 229/ Old Edition Part 2 page 71)

A General Rule for Twin Birth : if 5th CSL (11th CSL in male chart) is connected with Mer or Dual sign, and signifies house 2,5,11.

My observation: if 5th CSL (11th CSL in male chart) signifies house 7 and also 2 or 5 or 11 and connected with Mer or Dual rasi, it can be a Twin Birth during DBAS signifying house 7 along with 2,5,11.

- A) In female charts, 11 out of 11 cases under study, 5th CSL signifies 7 or Dual Rasi or Mer. (100%)
- B) In male charts, 8 out of 9 cases under study, 11th CSL signifies 7 or Dual Rasi or Mer . (89%)
- C) In 18 cases, DBAS signifies 7 along with 2,5,11. (90%)
- D) Out of 11 female charts, 9 charts indicate 12th (Hospitalization) during DBAS(82%).

Which Team Will Win the T-20 World Cup 2009? a KP Numerical Horary Appraisal

I had made an attempt to get the answer for this query with the inspiration of Shri Kanak Bosmia, who had shared his practical experience with Rajiv Khattar ji in KPE-zine Sept 2007 called "How many sticks in the match box ?". That was an interesting KP numerical test.

The query came on my mind on the world-cup opening ceremony day.

Group A : India, Bangladesh, Ireland

Group B : Pakistan, England, Netherland

Group C :Australia, Sri Lanka,West Indies

Group D : New Zealand, South Africa, Scotland

I wrote them in serial.

(1)India, (2)Bangladesh, (3)Ireland, (4)Pakistan, (5)England, (6)Netherland, (7)Australia, (8)Sri Lanka, (9)West Indies, (10)New Zealand, (11)South Africa, (12)Scotland

RPs :-

Asc Lord: Me

Star of Asc Lord: Ju

Star of Moon: Ju

Sign lord of Moon :Ve

Day lord:Ve

To find out fruitful planets, I have to check all nine planets.

Body:-

Lagna :	Me sign-Ju star-Ve sub
Sun :	Ve sign-Mo star-Ve sub
Moon :	Ve sign-Ju star-Ju sub
Mars :	Ma sign-Ke star-Ju sub
Mrcry :	Ma sign-Su star-Ra sub
Jptr :	Sa sign-Ma star-Ve sub
Venus :	Ma sign-Ke star-Ma sub
Sturn :	Su sign-Ve star-Ju sub
Rahu :	Sa sign-Su star-Ve sub
Ketu :	Mo sign-Sa star-Ve sub

When the sign, star and sub lords of above planets were checked with the RPs, I found only one plant's body which is in RPs by its sign, star and sub and it is MOON.

In the table of KP Horary subs I-249 (KP Reader VI pp 89-97), Moon comes as sub serial number 4 and 12. In the above serial list of countries, no 4 is Pakistan and no 12 is Scotland. There is nothing to say about Scotland. So the result will be for No.: 4 - Pakistan. We all know the result.

Honourable Kanak has humbly requested the readers to experience this method whether it is working or not because they failed in their second attempt. So I made an attempt by following this method and I got an amazing success.

Much gratitude to Shree Kanak .

India Feels Changes in the new Sun Dasa?

On 27th July 2009 Sun dasa starts in the chart of India, I think this would be useful and interesting to check the effects of this new dasa.

Sun Dasa runs from 27 July 2009 to 27 July 2015.

Sun is in the star of Mer and sub of Sat.

Sun is in 4, lord of 5, Mer is in 3, lord of 2-3-6, Sat is in 4, lord of 10-11.

This Sun dasa signifies 2,6,10,11 which indicate during this Sun dasa economic growth of India will be in the upward trend. We have also found 4,5,3 along with 2,6,10,11. But 8,12 are not signified at all and so it indicates only the upward progress in economical condition of India.

Now we will check Bhuktis of Sun dasa.

First Sun Bhukti is up to 15 Nov 2009

We have discussed about Sun above.

Second Moon Bhukti up to 15th may 2010

Moon is in the star and sub of Sat.

Moon is in 3, lord of 4. Sat is in 4, lord of 10-11.

During this period we can see some changes in the telecom sector, due to the signification of 3.10.11. We will see a big upward movement in telecom industries. We will also see major changes in the Indian Rail. We will definitely see overall changes in these two sectors.

Third Mar Bhukti up to 12th Sep 2010

Mar is in the star and sub of Rahu.

Mar is in 2, lord of 7, in the star of Rah is in 1, Rahu is in the sign of Ven. Ven is in 4, lord of 1, no planet in the star of Ven and Ven is the cuspal sub lord of 1,2,3,10

During this period the opposition party will face some trouble. In Mundane opposition is 4th house and if we check from 4th house of Indian chart, Mar indicates 10,11,4,1,7,12. Here 11th is Badhaka, 12 Moksha and 7th is Maraka. Indications are not good for opposition party.

This period will not be good enough for economy of the country.

Fourth Rahu Bhukti up to 15th Aug 2011

Rahu is in the star of Sun and Sub of Mer.

Rh is in 1, Rahu is in the sign of Ven Ven is in 4, lord of 1, no planet in the star of Ven and Ven is the cuspal sub lord of 1,2,3,10, in the star of Sun in 4, lord of 5, in the sub of Mer in 3, lord of 2-3-6. Rahu Bhukti signifies 2,6,10 and 1,3,4,5.

1st house signifies the country's identity and 6,10 combination with 3rd indicates some major achievements in the space program, and this space program will give a very good reputation in the world.

Currency value is shown from the 5th cusp, with 2,6,10 combination and we will see a strong upward movement in value of Rs against US $ or any other currency.

Again this period will very good for economy, when Sat signifies 2,6,10,11.

During this period we can see some changes in the telecom sector, due to the signification of 3,10,11. We will see a significant progress in telecom industries. We will also see major changes in the Indian Rail. We will definitely see overall changes in these two sectors.

For the opposition party this period will be very difficult period as Sat signifies 7(Maraka),8,12,11 (Badhaka), from 4th house.

Seventh Mer Bhukti up to 21st Mar 2014

Mer is in the star of Sat and sub of Rahu.

Mer is in 3, lord of 2,3,6, in the star of Sat in 4, lord of 10,11, in the sub of Rah in 1. Rahu is in the sign of Ven. Ven is in 4, lord of 1, no planet in the star of Ven and Ven is the cuspal sub lord of 1,2,3,10

Mer signifies 2,6,10,11 and 3,10,11 and so economically it will be good and telecom, rail and highways are getting height. From 4th house we have found Sat's signification of 7(Maraka),8,12,11 (Badhaka), which indicate it will be a bad period for oppositions.

Eighth Ketu Bhukti up to 27th July 2014

Ketu is in the star and sub of Sat.

Ket is in 7, Ketu is in Mar sign, Mar is in 2, lord of 7, in the star of Sat in 4, lord of 10,11.

Economically this period is good,

Ninth Ven Bhukti up to 27th July 2015

Ven is in the star of Mer and sub of Moon.

Ven is in 4, lord of 1, no planet in the star of Ven and Ven is the cuspal sub lord of 1,2,3,10 in the star of Mer in 3, lord of 2,3,6, in the sub of Moon in 3, lord of 4.

Economically this period is good, also in roads, rail, telecom; a boom will be seen during this Ven Bhukti.

General:

During Sun dasa India is going to achieve a very high gain and reputation in economy, rail, space program, and telecom sectors.

Introduction

One of my friend's son is studying in a lycée, appeared for the French diploma Baccalauréat. Himself and his friends expecting "Mention Bien" and were curious to know the result early. So, I have applied the K.P. Horary techniques to study and told them the result in advance. I would like to present the process I have used together with the results in this paper. In addition to astrology, I am presenting the additional information for the readers who are not familiar with the French education system.

French education system

The French diploma Baccalauréat created in 1808 is the final examination at the end of the high school education and also an entry into higher studies in the university. The school where the students study is called lycée and first started in 1802 by Napoléon Bonaparte. The French education is free and open to all.

In 2009, 622322 candidates from 4537 lycées appeared for the examination and about 78.6% got their diploma. Each candidate has to write the examination in 9 subjects and the scores are averaged to 20 (like 100 in India). One has to obtain 10 over 20 (50%) to have the diploma. Different ranks are given based on the score obtained:

- Mention « Assez bien » (Fairly well) : Average superior or equal 12 and inferior 14;
- Mention « Bien » (Good) : Average superior or equal 14 and inferior 16;
- Mention « Très bien » (Very good): Average superior or equal 16.

One of my friend's son is studying in a lycée in the city of Versailles very close to the Château (Palace) de Versailles (The Palace is one of the most beautiful achievements of 18th-century French art. The site began as Louis XIII's hunting lodge before his son Louis XIV transformed and expanded it, moving the court and government of France to Versailles in 1682. The palace attracts more than 10 million visitors per year). My friend's son and his friends know me as studying astrology and they are eager to know their result through astrological techniques.

Almost 100% of the students from this lycée pass the examination and so they are more interested if they obtain the result with Mention Bien (more than or equal to 14). All the five students asked me the question, are expecting Mention Bien.

Data for the analysis

Query: Will I obtain "Mention Bien" in my Baccalauréat examination?

Horary Number (between 1 and 249) and Date and Time of analysis:

Student 1: 62 (of 249); 4th July 2009 at 09:48:33 (+ 2 hrs UT)
Student 2: 7 (of 249); 4th July 2009 at 09:54:36 (+ 2 hrs UT)
Student 3: 131 (of 249); 4th July 2009 at 09:58:16 (+ 2 hrs UT)
Student 4: 15 (of 249); 4th July 2009 at 10:03:12 (+ 2 hrs UT)
Student 5: 198 (of 249); 4th July 2009 at 10:12:16 (+ 2 hrs UT)

Place: Antony, France (48°44'51" N and 2°17'50" E; +2 hours UT)

Rules

- Horary Number: I have used the number between 1 and 249.
- Place of Judgement: I have done the analysis and the judgement from Antony, France and so I have taken this as place. My PC has a GPS connected and the latitude and longitude are taken dynamically from the GPS.
- Date and time: Each chart is analysed at different timings, each chart has its date and time depending on when it was generated and analysed. Each chart was generated just before the analysis.

- Casting the chart: I have used KP Ayanamsa, Placidus house system, Mean Node and Geographic latitude of place of judgment for casting the chart.
- Rotation of the chart: The horary number is given directly by the student, so the chart is not required to rotate.
- Is Question Genuine: First verify if the question is genuine. Moon represents mind and hence Moon must signify the cusps related to the question for the question to be genuine. The question is genuine if there is any relation (better if same) between Lagna star lord or sub lord and Moon star lord or sub lord.
- Honour by getting Rank: If 1 (Competitive Posture) CSL signifies, 10th (Honour/Success), 3rd (Examination test), 6th (Ordering Rank), one can success with good rank in exam. (This rule given by Sri Kanak Bosmia).
- Honour in High school education: If 4 (high school education) CSL signifies, 10th (Honour/Success), 3rd (Examination test), 6th (Ordering Rank), one can success with good rank in exam. (This rule given by Sri Kanak Bosmia).
- Significators: For each prime cusp, the significators (Ref. 2) of the Cuspal sub lord (CSL), star lord of the CSL and sub lord of the CSL are used. In case of Rahu/Ketu, the node rules are used to get additional significators (Ref. 5).

Analysis

For each student the corresponding chart together with semi-automatic analysis is generated using the open source software “KP Horary Astrology” by AstroOpenSource (astroopensource@gmail.com). The event corresponding to the question is: “01. Rank in High school education”. The analysis and the results are given at the end of this paper.

Results

The students were surprised initially for the astrological analysis as they are expecting the result differently. After getting results on 7th July 2009, it was confirmed predictions and all of the above predictions made using the new rules given by Sri Kanak Bosmia, came true. The students 1 and 2 did not get their rank; the student 4 had just missed his rank by 0.3 and the students 3 and 5 got their rank.

My sincere thanks are due to Sri Kanak Bosmia ji for his encouragement, guidance and for providing the new rules, during this first astrological prediction. My respects are due to Sri Krishnamurtiji for the great invention of KP Horary astrology with more scientific and easy to use rules.

Om Gan Ganapataye Namah

Krishnamurti Padhdhati has proved itself to be a scientific and logical astrology. As an astrologer, I have found its utility in each and every field that one can ever imagine. June is the month of promotions in BHEL and so most of my clients asked me to predict their fate. I basically use Horary method for such queries and have been quite successful. Here I would like to present two examples with totally opposite results.

Query : Promotion ?
Horary : 73 [1 – 249]
Date : 21-03-2009
Time : 19:53
Place : Nakshatra Jyotish Sansthan, Bhopal 77 E 27 23 N 16
Ayanamsa : KPNA 23:53:44

Rules :

1. Cuspal Sublord of 10th must signify 2,6,10 and 11th house.
2. Cuspal Sublord of 11th house i.e house of fulfillment of desire must also signify 2,6,10 and 11th house.
3. Ruling Planets are also to be considered to check the strength of significators.

Analysis :

First of all one needs to look at the Moon and its significations to know about the genuinity of the querist. In this case Moon itself is placed in the 6th house (competition, success). Hence the query was genuine. Now we can analyse the chart.

2nd Cusp : Leo 8:6:12 (Su Ke Ju) – Sublord of 2nd cusp is Jupiter which is in the star of Moon in 6th house. Hence Jupiter is a strong significator of 6th house. Jupiter's sublord Sun is placed in 9th house. But it is in the star of Saturn which is placed in 2nd (finance).

6th Cusp : Sag 13:24:59 (Ju Ve Ve) – Ve is the sublord of 6th house and placed in 9th house as lord of 11th house. Venus is in the star of Mercury which is placed in 8th house. Hence Venus is signifying 11th house related to promotion.

10th Cusp : Aries 09:11:20 (Ma Ke Ju) – Jupiter, as discussed in 2nd cusp analysis, is a strong significator of 6th house. Hence 10th cusp sublord indicates success.

11th Cusp : Taurus 12:4:42 (Ve Mo Ra) – Rahu is placed in 6th house with Moon. It is in the star of Moon which is placed in 6th house. Rahu is in the sign of Saturn which is placed in 2nd house. Hence Rahu is a strong indicator of success.

Ruling Planets at the time of judgement

Lagna - Me Ma Ju
Moon - Sa Su Ve Day - Saturn

Prediction

Looking at the strength of the cuspal sublords of 2,6,10 and 11th houses which indicates success and fulfillment of desire i.e promotion, I predicted success and promotion for the querist.

Result

The querist was promoted on 24th June 2009 to the rank of DGM.

Now looking at another example,

Query : Promotion
 Horary : 160 [1-249]
 Date : 19-06-2009
 Time : 18:29:17
 Place : Nakshatra Jyotish Sansthan, Bhopal 77E27 23N 16
 Ayanamsha : KPNA 23:53:56

Rules :

Same as discussed in the above example.

Analysis :

To go ahead with the analysis one must look at the strength of Moon and Ascendant sublord. Moon is in the star of Venus and in the sub of Rahu. Moon is placed in 5th house in conjunction with Mars and Venus. Mars is lord of 1st and 6th house. Hence the query is genuine. Now let us analyse the chart.

2nd Cusp Sag 20:00:44 (Ju Ve Ra) – Cuspal Sublord Rahu is placed in 2nd house . It is the star of Sun which is placed in 7th house. Hence Rahu is strong significator of 7th, 2nd houses. It is in the sub of Venus which is placed in 5th house. It is also in its own star. Hence it strongly signifies 5th house which is negative house for success and promotion.

6th Cusp Aries 25:21:55 (Ma Ve Me) – Cuspal sublord Mercury is placed in 6th house. It is in the star of Moon which is placed in 5th and also in the star of Venus which signifies 5th house strongly. Hence it does not indicate success.

10th Cusp Leo 27:24:48 (Su Su Mo) – Cuspal Sublord Moon is placed in 5th house and also is in the star of Venus, hence signifies 5th house strongly. So Moon is not good for success and promotion.

11th Cusp Virgo 28:32:46 (Me Ma Sa) – Cuspal sublord Saturn is placed in 9th house i.e 12th from 10th and it is in the star of Venus which is placed in 5th house. Hence Saturn also signifies 5th and 9th houses which are not good for promotion.

Ruling Planets at the time of judgement

Lagna - Ma Me Ju
 Moon - Ma Ve Ra
 Daylord - Venus

Prediction :

Looking at the analysis of cuspal sublords of the related houses, it was predicted that he would not be promoted. Also look at ruling planets, all the ruling planets were signifying 5th house.

Result :

The querist name was not among the list of promoted official of BHEL on 24th June 2009

Background

1. Since its discovery in 1930, Pluto has been a bit of a puzzle because of its small size, far distance and irregular orbit. Pluto cannot be seen without a telescope. On August 24, 2006, Pluto was stripped of his planetary distinction and formally classified as a dwarf planet at the meeting of the International Astronomical Union, the recognized authority in naming heavenly objects, attended by the 2,500 astronomers from 75 countries in Prague.

2. Indian mathematical astrologer Mangal Prasad said the decision to drop Pluto as a planet had endorsed the mathematical and astrological treatises written by Aryabhata and Varahamihira in the sixth century during the golden period of the Guptas. However, astrologers like Robert Hand, Madalyn Hillis-Dineen, Dave Roell, Bejan Daruwalla and Ravi K Goyal were unfazed by the news of that decision.

3. The limited information on Pluto has delayed a realistic understanding of its characteristics. The Pluto is not mentioned and not applied at all in the KP Readers.

Western Experience

4. Largely thanks to the books of Jeffrey Green, his daughter Deva Green and their spiritual mentor, Paramahansa Yogananda, Pluto is known as the evolutionary engine in the astrological chart. Jeffrey Green said that Pluto was where astrologers could begin to manage the mystery of soul, appreciate the sense of journey within evolution. A positive side of Pluto found by Robert Hand is that a fairly common Plutonian profession is physical therapy or psychotherapy. (Essays on Astrology, page 46)

5. The nature of Pluto is similar to that of Hindu god Shiva, the creator and destroyer. As Pluto transits a house, it begins to bring deep transformation to that house and its issues and the first step is destruction of anything that needs it. One can expect vast changes in that area of life and it is important not to try to prevent the energies of transformation as it is a part of our evolutionary growth. (Planets in Transit, page 477) A Pluto transit of the 2nd house has the possibility of changing one's entire perception of material possessions as well as the spiritual values and the deeper meaning of life.

6. In the lives of individuals Pluto transits will bring up issues that have long been buried or repressed, providing an opportunity for resolution and release, and – ultimately – for healing and transformation. Pluto brings us face to face with our obsessions and compulsions. Carl Jung said that when an inner situation is not made conscious, it happens outside as fate ie. a description of how Pluto transits work in the lives of the great mass of humanity.

7. In the birth chart, Pluto shows the area of life where one will personally face the intense powers of creation and destruction. The house position of Pluto is key to understanding which area of life will enact the most dramatic transformation. Natal Pluto in the 10th house indicates someone who has leadership potential, ambition and is likely to have transformative career changes that seem in hindsight to be completely new chapters.

8. As an outer planet, Pluto's influence is generational, transiting a sign about every 13-1/2 years. For an individual chart, Pluto signifies generational tendencies and must be considered in its relation to the chart holder's other signs and planets. Pluto's transit is immensely powerful within an orb of 0- 1° and may be negligible otherwise. (Judith Hill, page 59)

9. Pluto's sign, position and astrological aspects give clues to a person's destiny. Individuals with a well-placed Pluto can exercise power over others, or enjoy great wealth. A badly aspected Pluto can cause misery and torment. But destiny is still an issue. Great goodness and great evil live under Pluto's influence. Its two extremes are best symbolized by Hitler and Gandhi, each man possessed of a vision that he manifested in physical reality. Both men had a mission, a sense of destiny; but one caused massive destruction and the other elevated mass consciousness.

10. Mahatma Gandhi had a powerful Pluto-Jupiter conjunction where favorable Jupiter ruled the third house of courage and initiatives. Through his decades-long struggle against British rule, his energy and will never faltered. The t-square with Pluto-Jupiter conjunction in Taurus, Moon in Leo in 10th house and Venus-Mercury conjunction in Scorpio indicates his powerful motivation for reform and his capacity to inspire public. (Donna Cunningham, page 48) http://www.astro.com/astro-databank/Gandhi%2C_Mohandas

11. In Adolf Hitler's chart, Pluto in the 8th house, conjunct Neptune, quincunx or inconjunct (150) the Moon and Jupiter in the 3rd house, quincunx to the 10th Saturn. He was able to communicate his ideas forcefully and effectively by his oratory and communication skills to achieve his power by manipulative and divisive means. (Jeff Green, pages 251-256) http://www.astro.com/astro-databank/Hitler%2C_Adolf

12. In Paramahansa Yogananda's chart, Pluto is in Gemini in the 10th house retrograde, conjunct Neptune retrograde, which indicates that he is accepted as a spiritual authority. Pluto is opposing Venus and Mercury in the 4th house and this re-emphasizes the need to internalize emotional security, and to eliminate all forms of emotional dependencies and expectations. The grand trine, formed by Venus and Mercury in Sagittarius in the 4th house, Moon in Leo in the 12th house and Jupiter in Aries in the 8th house, denotes an incredible evolutionary growth potential to understand the evolutionary intentions for the life. (Deva Green, pages 113-154) http://www.astro.com/astro-databank/Yogananda%2C_Paramahansa

13. In Richard Nixon's chart, the triple conjunction of Mars, Mercury and Jupiter in the fourth house opposition to Pluto in the 10th house gives the native the sound Plutonian energies for his political career and he was forced to resign because of the peculiarly relentless, Plutonian style of pursuing his ends, which is reflected in the numerous stressful Pluto aspects. (Robert Hand: Essays on Astrology, page 47; Deva Green, pages 202-212) http://www.astro.com/astro-databank/Nixon%2C_Richard_M.

Observation of AA Charts

14. First of all, the Placidus house-wise appearance of Pluto and Neptune in the 100 unmarried AA charts of AstroDatabank 4.0 are checked and found as given under.

Appearance of Ne and Pl in Houses

H	Ne	Pl
1	11	9
2	12	15
4	10	4
7	7	15
8	6	15
9	11	9
10	10	8
12	9	9

15. The average appearance in a house is $(1/12 =)$ 8%. The house-wise appearance of Neptune is not significantly different from the average of 8%, except 12% in the 2nd house. For Pluto, the house-wise appearance is significantly higher than the average of 8% for the 2, 7 and 8 houses by appearing 15% each. However, it is still far below to be the cause of no marriage by Pluto's placement in any of 2,7 and 8 houses. Hence Pluto or Neptune cannot be a cause of no marriage by mere appearance in the 7th (marriage) house.

Pluto is Not Always Malefic

Tin Win

16. Now let us look at 121 AstroDatabank AA charts with Neptune and Pluto in the Placidus 7th house. Out of these 121 AA charts, 51 charts are found to be married, 6 charts unmarried and the rest unknown whether married or not. Here also it is found that mere appearance of even both Neptune and Pluto in the 7th house cannot be a cause of no marriage.

17. From another point of view of control charts of married natives, out of 1057 AstroDatabank AA charts with Pluto in 7th house, 180 married charts are easily found by using filter. So the mere appearance of Pluto in 7th house cannot be a cause of no marriage and consequently it would be the same for the Pluto's connection to 7th house in any manner.

Findings

18. In the Western literature on Pluto and Relationships or Synastry (Eastern Matching) given in the references, Pluto is not wholly malefic or benefic depending Pluto's sign, position and astrological aspects. Rahu and Ketu are given an important role in eight points specific procedure followed by Jeff Green in Pluto Vol I, page 239. Pluto is supposed to magnify the planet it contacts but not to change the results of that planet always for bad. In Noel Tyl's experience, the Pluto-Saturn connection carries heavy loss and the Pluto-Jupiter connection provides success and wealth. (Noel Tyl, pages 92-93) In KP, no planet is wholly malefic or benefic.

19. Moreover, Pluto in 7th generally indicates power struggle between the native and the other person with possible undesirable consequences, but not outright no marriage at all. Similarly Neptune in the 7th is not doomed to disappointing relationships, not condemned by karma to relinquish them altogether. (Liz Greene, page 386) An observation of the AA charts also shows that Pluto in 7th house cannot be the cause of no marriage.

20. The bottom line that it is therefore undesirable to senselessly make a client or hapless friend upset with Pluto's adverse effects, which are not backed by cited research, requiring a minimum of one hundred carefully documented case studies, as mentioned by Judith Hill in Medical Astrology, page 58.

OM Gajaanam Namamhyam

During the KP Astrologers Forum's fortnightly meeting conducted on 12-July-2009 chaired by Sri Rajendra Nimje IAS., some charts on Medical Astrology were taken up. Three natal charts regarding Epilepsy were discussed in detail.

Most astrologers consider Epilepsy a mental disease, as many of the same planetary influences which cause Insanity also this disease. Medical authorities class it as a nervous disease, with loss of consciousness, and with tonic and clonic convulsions. Some writers say that Epilepsy is due to abnormality of one of the Ductless glands, the Pineal gland.

Epilepsy is best regarded as the symptoms of some underlying brain dysfunction, which causes gross misbehaviour of brain cells, either at a specific place (focal epilepsy), or more widely (generalised epilepsy).

This misbehaviour causes physical consequences, like the loss of consciousness, or loss of muscle control. These physical consequences are called epileptic fits (aka seizures or convulsions).

In Medical astrology Ascendant (health, head), 5th cusp (house of mind), 6th cusp (disease), Mercury (consciousness) and Moon (karaka for mind) are analysed for Epilepsy/ Fits. ("Astrological Diagnosis of Diseases" by Sri K Hariharn S/o Sri KSK Guruji pp 95-101)

It was also brought by Sri T Seshagiri Rao, Vice President of KPAF Hyderabad that any affliction of Venus would also lead to the above disease as Bharani star in Aries head is connected to Epilepsy n Fits.

ANALYSIS:

Chart 1 – Sri Mani, (Fits)

(Date 23/05/1948 Time 09:34:00 Place Vizianagaram, AP Day Sunday, Lat: 18:07:00N Long: 83:25:00E. KPNA 23-02-47, Birth Star: Anuradha-3 Rasi: Scorpio Asc.: Cancer).

The native lagna is occupied by Saturn as l/o 7n8 in Mer-Ma; Mercury is l/o 3n12 in 11 (Badhaka). 6th cusp co-rulers are Ju-Ke-Ra. 5th sublord is Mercury. Moon, the karaka for mind, is in 5th in star Saturn l/o 7,8 supporting the same. During Venus major period where Venus is l/o 4n11 (both are occupied) in 12, in Rahu star and own sub, connected to Aries Bharani star and sublord of 6th through Rahu, the native underwent mental tensions and Fits. Whenever he took head bath the fits used to appear as Aries indicates head in Kalapurusha and Rahu connected to Venus in 12th by signlord. During Sun major period the native got complete cure and medication has been still continued. Here the adverse effect of Badhaka 11 is supposed to be reversed by the starlord Mars of 11th cuspal sublord Mercury by lordship of 5,10 (12th to 11).

Chart 2 – Sri Balu (Head Injury n Fits)

(DOB: 12.03.1981, TOB: 22:13:00, POB: Bagh Amberpet, Hyderabad, AP. Lat. 17.23.00N Long. 78.30.00, KPNA 23-30-16 Thursday, Birth Star: Mrigasira-1, Rasi: Taurus, Asc. Libra).

The native's chart was referred in the previous Medical article on Mental Retardation. The boy was born in Libra lagna and the lord Venus is in 5th house (by orb) and in Ju-Sa; Lagna sublord Saturn l/o 4n5 in 11 in Moon's star who is in 8th. 6th cusp co-rulers are Ju-Me-Ra. Rahu is in Sa-Ju both are in 11 as lords of 5n6. Both Mercury and Moon in Mars star has made the native a victim of Fits/epilepsy due to head injury. The boy while walking in the house was hit by a Cradle which is in swing by another boy. The boy met with an accident by hitting the head to skirting of the wall. Mars Dasa during childhood had given a permanent damage to the head as Dasa lord Mars is in Jup-Rahu (one is 6th cusp sublord and another is 6th cusp signlord). Since then the Boy is under medication for the disease.

The native was born in Kataka lagna. 1st/5th cusp sublord Rahu is in Ma-Ra where Ma is lord of Aries in 10th bhava. 6th sublord Venus is in Aries in his own star indicated the disease of fits. Jupiter Dasa at the time of birth where Jupiter is lord of 6n9 in 12, in Ra-Me had given high fever and consequently fits. However 8th sublord happens to be Jupiter had given congenital health problem. During the advent of Saturn Mahardasa where Saturn is l/o 7 n 8 in 11th in the star of moon had given relief due to regular medicines. Here again the adverse effect of Badhaka 11 is supposed to be reversed by the repeated strong signification of 10 (12 th to 11) by the 11th cuspal sublord Rahu through the conjoined and starlord Mars and signlord Venus.

OM TAT SAT

Question:

On July 10, 2009 one more property (office space) was purchased by the person who asks this question. As per his chart (25 Feb 1961, 4:22 IST, 21N37, 71E14), there is no 4, 11, 12 indication at all by the running Dasa lord, how it is possible?

Period DBAS lords are Me-Me-Sa-Mo.

Me(2, 7-9), in the star of Ra(8), in the sub of Ra(8). Rahu is in the sign of Sun, Su(2),

Me(2, 7-9), in the star of Ra(8), in the sub of Ra(8).

Sa+(1, 2), in the star of Su(2), in the sub of Ju+(1, 1-3).

Mo+(6, 8), in the star of Ra(8), in the sub of Sa+(1, 2).

As per 4 step:

Planet Me:

Starlord of Me is Ra: 8; Sgl Su(2); Stl Ke(2, Sgl Sa[1, Cnj Ju{1, Asp 5, Asp 9}, Asp 3])

Sublord of Me is Ra:

Starlord of Ra is Ke: 2; Sgl Sa(1, Cnj Ju[1, Asp 5, Asp 9], Asp 3); Stl Ra(8, Sgl Su[2])

Running Dasa lord does not signify 4, 11, 12. How he is able to buy property?

Answer:

1. In this case, the general rule of 4, 11, 12 to purchase or construct a property is found not working.

2. If the purchased property is not a new building, 6 and 9 are also to be judged as 6 is 12 for 7 which stands for the seller, and 9 is 12 to 4 counted from 7. So it is necessary for 6 and 9 to operate for taking possession of the property purchased. (KP Reader III, New Edition page 242, Old Edition Practical Part page 83; KP & Astrology 1996 page 105, Astrosecrets & KP Part I page 142 and Part III page 46; K Hariharan: A New Light on Jyothisha page 83) In this context, 9 is signified by Dasa lord Mercury.

3. 2 is possession or acquisition of property. (KP & Astrology 1996 page 105; Sublord Speaks-2 page 29; Sublord Speaks-3 pages 29 and 85; 2, 4, 11 to own a house in KP Reader VI page 272) Dasa lord Mercury signification of 2 is in line with this view.

4. It may therefore need to consider 6, 9 and 2 along with 4, 11, 12 in the purchase of property already constructed.

(Other two books in English by Chandrakant R Bhatt are:
'Horoscopes and Diseases' and 'Nirayan Horoscopes and Western Aspects')

1. The 'Nakshatra Chintamani' and 'Further Lights on Nakshatra Chintamani' are the clearly and systematically written excellent KP study books. The Nakshatra Chintamani was dedicated to Gururji KSK by mentioning in the Gujarati edition of this book like this, "To Jyotish Mratand Shri K.S. Krishnamurti Who Rendered Yeoman Service To The Realm of Stellar Astrology By His Contribution known as "Ksishnamurti Padhdhati".

2. In the Nakshatra Chintamani, the principles and guidelines for interpretation and prediction methods have been explained in precise and easy-to-understand manner with 36 example charts. Further Lights on Nakshatra Chintamani throws more light on the principles of predicting, enunciated in the Nakshatra Chintamani, with 59 example horoscopes. This is the supplementary book to the practical part of the Nakshatra Chintamani with more topics.

3. As seeing is believing, some salient points of the Nakshatra Chintamani are available at the following links.

<http://astrobook.blogspot.com/2005/01/nakshatra-chintamani-part-5.html>

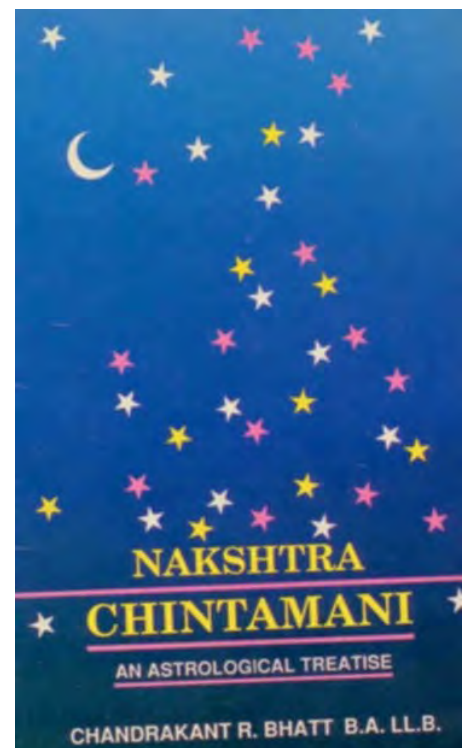

4. The many examples and cases in these two books are very helpful on how to approach and start a chart interpretation and prediction. They include the most important key points that a KP learner should know. It is easy to look up something in these reference books that are well organized by topics and cases.

5. These two books are therefore a must study for any KP learner.

Shradhanjali

Shri Suresh Ramchandra Shahasane

Date of Birth: 30th May 1949

Reached Heavenly Abode: 26th July 2009

About Sri Suresh Ramchandra Shahasane

Late Shri Suresh Ramchandra Shahasane was one of the prominent astrologers who contributed a lot to impart knowledge of astrology. He was a wonderful astrologer, teacher and writer. His two books on KP-Jyotish Rahasya: Krishnamurti Padhati in two parts, published in Hindi are asset for astrologers. He defined every rule with simplicity and in such a manner that anyone who wants to learn astrology, especially KP astrology in Hindi can become confident astrologer by reading his books.

In Ludhiana, we invited him to conduct a workshop on KP astrology. He was here for three days, in those three days he delivered lectures on different topics and everyday he spoke 10 hours continuously in perfect manner, explaining the charts, applying the rules. The proof of his expertise was that no listener got tired during his lectures. He explained everything in such an interesting and scientific manner that even after listening him for 10 hours, persons who were attending workshop wants more from him. I also learn many things from him. Whenever I ask for help, he was always available. I am grateful for everything he had done for me in understanding astrology.

Now Suresh ji have been passed away, it is a big loss for astrology. Though he is not with us, his published work will always show the path like light house to learners, researchers and astrologers.

H S Nagi

A Humble Tribute

My Guruji, Param Pujya Shri Suresh Sahasneji (A Humble Shradhanjali)

Shri Suresh Sahasne ji as we all know has been one of the great exponents of KP (Krishnamurti Padhdhati) astrology today in India. He was born in 1949 in Maharashtra, Thane district. He had developed keen interest and started learning astrology since the days he was in service from his days of early youth. He learnt KP from his Guru Shri Pandit Jyotindra Hasbe whom he met in 1982-83, who was himself a direct student of the originator of KP, Shri Krishnamurti ji himself. In his journey of astrology Shri Sahasneji had taught about 10000 students all over Maharashtra and India and done many workshops too which have been remembered with awe and respect. In 1992 he published his great book “KrishnaMurthy Jyotisha rahasya” in Marathi (and now in Hindi and Gujarati too) which is like a Bible for beginners and experts alike, to the lovers of the KP system. He has also written “Bhavasdhan, Ephemeris, Krishnamurthy Jyotish Ved, which have reached the corners of Maharashtra to all those serious learners of this Padhdhati.

Sadly for us, he had left us for his heavenly abode now, on the 26th of July 2009 leaving a huge legacy of his knowledge and thousands of students who will carry forward his teaching for the welfare and good of the mankind around us. A very short age for him to leave us but even God needs good men over there, near Him.

I relate below now, my personal experiences with him.

My first encounter with Him

It was someday in the month of March 2006 and I was awake at mid night casually surfing the net for some KP astrologers from whom I could learn to predict through KP system. I got an entry with Shri Sahasne's name, along with his telephone number on some websites, which I wrote on a slip of paper and kept for future use. Next day at office I called him and he spoke very warmly and re-assured me not to worry about his fees etc. but to join the course. From then on my journey of association with this great man began.

Admission to English Class

He was running Marathi class which I was not interested in joining and so I asked him to take a class in Hindu-English which he readily agreed. But we had only 5 students for the same. Shri Sahasneji was accustomed to 50 students at a time in his Marathi class, but I must say with all credit to this master that he did not care for the number of students, did not care for the paltry sum of fees he received which was barely able to cover his monthly expenses of traveling to the class from his home. He did not care for the time he spent on us, but he surely cared for the imparting and sharing of knowledge to eligible students, which is why he came regularly to teach us privileged few. Privileged because he could have easily opted out of this with any number of excuses but he did not, rather did his work most enthusiastically.

My Experience in his Classes

We used to meet every Saturday evening for 2 hours near Dadar station in a school class room booked for that purpose. I must say that we 5 students and our experience with this Great Master had given me the best memories of one full year of Saturday evenings spent in learning and enjoying the knowledge imparted to us by this gentle Teacher. I remember he was always in time for the class, came in heavy rains or any rough train schedules. He was always cheerful whenever communicating with us, always allowing us to ask questions whenever we had any doubts. But this does not mean that he was not strict when required. I remember he had asked us to purchase a Panchang from outside which was costing just Rs 30. He got angry after two weeks of instructing still it was noticed that 3 of the students had not done so, and were sharing from others during the class. He was blunt in saying that next time if he did not see their own Panchangs, they could leave the class, and he was not interested with those non serious students. He was a complete practical Teacher and not just theoretical. In a span of 2 hours he would take up 3 charts, himself draw all of them one by one, noting the cuspal positions along with their sublords, planetary positions too along with their sublords, and he never tired of taking 3 charts per class and discussing on same. Within 5 minutes he could put the whole chart along with the positions on the black board. We had interactive sessions in our learning. After teaching us the basics, it was all total a great learning process for us. He would put a chart and ask us to locate the profession of the native or predict the marriage date or the divorce date etc. And the "why" of the answer was discussed of, eventually. We had certain Saturdays just for discussions unlike in other institutes of astrology where the professors shy away from too much of questioning.

His astrological prowess

This was unmatched to any one as far as I know among the astrologers using certain forms of astrological traditions and not into spiritually sought predictive inputs. He could tell within seconds the sublord of any Horary number between 1-249. He taught us certain techniques wherein one does not have to even erect a chart, but just tell the answer from the number chosen by the querent. He was an expert in the qualities of the nature of the answer given, in so far as explaining the predictions were concerned. For instance if a marriage was predicted, he could tell from the planets appearing in the equations what quality of marriage could be expected, the nature of the spouse, the characteristics to be expected, and almost every minute details too. He was an expert in the Ruling Planets theory and taught us to predict again without the use of paper and pencil, how to predict with the Ruling Planets. One of his classes was a heavenly event to watch, because with just one set of Ruling Planets he rectified 5 birth times with just a chalk and the blackboard with no use of calculator or any such means or access, and they were live predictions given on the birth times of the students present in the class. So one had to believe and marvel at his class. One just had to tell him that a person was born on so and so date in the evening or in the morning, and that was enough for him. With the Ruling Planets at time of judgement he could come out with the correct Lagna, Star Lord, Sub Lord and also the SubSub Lord. This is something which has to be seen to believe, which now unfortunately we cannot witness again.

Humility personified.

I have never seen such a wise astrologer but yet a humble man. During the days we were associated with him and learning, certain facets opened up before us, of his great personality and character which we try as hard to emulate, would still not be able to come up to his levels. I remember at times when students could not pay the paltry sum of fees which was Rs. 200 per month, he never asked for the same, instead told them not to bother but just continue learning and pay whenever they could. He never charged us for the Xerox copies of notes he used to give us frequently. Whenever he could not reply to a certain query which was very rare, he would say "I do not know, when you find out let me know". He never said that he had the perfect learning, instead he told us, students to always consistently check the results and the analysis and keep on studying where we had made a mistake and try to correct it the next time. He explained that the more number of charts one takes for study; the better he gets to learn. He did not believe much in the mathematical or theory part, though himself an expert in same, but laid emphasis on the practical day to day astrology. He said that most of the Softwares were giving the proper calculations, and a student must spend more time on learning how to evaluate and analyze a chart, and then check the predictions. He also taught us certain techniques on predicting for share markets, lottery and such, but forbade us never to use this for earning money. He himself used these techniques a few times but always donated the money earned from such use of astrology. Another important point he taught us was - an astrologer should never rely only on just his astrological income to run his home, but should know through his own horoscope what are the areas through which he can earn, and use those areas for further wealth creations through the proper knowledge and use of transits. Further he taught us never to waste time on controversies or try to explain to non believers. He said just leave them to their theories and work upon one's own learning. Our last Saturday of learning at the end of the year was an emotional one. After the class got over, I asked him to please take another Year of Advanced KP or whatever he preferred. He replied "I do not want to give spoon feeding to my students. I want them to learn how to swim in the water. I would always be there. But they should themselves be able to solve problems on their own". (I realize the words of the Great Guru today, for we have certainly managed to keep ourselves afloat on water, if not swim.)

As a professional astrologer

He was the only astrologer whom I have seen up till date who never cared for the fees but always cared for the contentment of the person coming to him for consultations. On few occasions when I visited him with problems of my own, or took along with some relatives for consultations, and if ever I offered him a Rs. 500- note or a Rs. 1000- note and left, he would call me back immediately in a stern voice, and return me back 80% of the fees paid to him, with a smile and a small reprimand. And if I hesitated to take it back, he would insist and reprimand me again. Such a great person was he.

When our learning with him got over and he invited us for the ceremony for the handing over to us of the "Nakshatra Jyotish Ratna" certificate, it was a great day for us, students. He had arranged for snacks, tea and a CD with some Softwares for us. We enjoyed seeing the crowd of the students as there was a mix of students from both his English and Marathi classes. I was the only student from the English class present that day, and when my turn came and had to say some words on the podium I welled with emotions and offered my tribute to this great man with gratitude in my heart and tears in my eyes. For I knew, I would never be allowed to associate in the same manner with him again, and we had to part ways in our respective paths in this world. (I can write a thousand pages on him, but this is not the place and time to do so.)

His smiling and cheerful countenance I could never forget, for that is not possible. He is too much ingrained in our psyches now. It is just a matter of time, and an "n" number of years before we meet on the heavenly paths again. But till then, I promise to carry out my Guru's work and share his knowledge to those who require it, and with the same spirit of always "Giving" and "never holding back knowledge".

May the Great Lord grant My Guruji the everlasting peace he richly deserves, and may My Guru bless me and the thousands he had taught, to carry out our duties with honesty, integrity and faithfulness which he himself possessed and shared in abundance with us, fortunate.

With Pranams, fond remembrances, and a heart full of gratitude to one of the Greatest Masters.

A humble shishya,

Bhaskar Jyotish.

Shradhanjali

Shri A.R. RAICHUR, B.E., F.I.E.

Date of Birth: 16th Aug. 1923

Reached Heavenly Abode: 26th Aug. 2009

Sri Raichur ji was a very senior and knowledgeable KP astrologer. As far as I know, he was the first KP software developer. His long term service dedicated to KP community is unforgettable.

We lost a very valuable KP senior. I don't think anyone can take his place in the KP community.

First time I meet him at his home in 1996 and got very impressed with his cooperative nature, as I got many good tips within an hour. After that I had met him 3-4 times personally and we talked on phone very frequently.

When I thought to start the KP-Ezine, he is one of my close wellwisher who encouraged me and helped me a lot. He was an advisory member of the KP-Ezine, but due to his poor health he resigned from advisory member only a few months ago.

Let us pray to God for his soul to rest in peace.

- Kanak Bosmia

I have just heard the terrible news that Shri Raichur is no more with us. Although he was not in good health for a couple of years now, we never missed him because he was actively participating in many KP forums. That we will not hear from him in future is something that is hard to digest. I believe he was the first to develop a software program for KP astrology. Even though he wrote it several years ago for DOS, it is still widely used by many persons across the world.

May his soul rest in peace! May he guide us all from his heavenly abode!

- Dr K Rangarajan

I was shocked to hear the sad news that Shri A R Raichur ji is no more with us at the age of 86 years and 10 days. He was our guardian, guide and great KP scholar, co-author of the Universal Table of Houses and Krishnamurti's Prediction by Horary Astrology: Scientific Tables of Houses for All, and first KP SW developer. He had also supported K. Baskaran's Principles of Cuspal Interlinks (KB) book by his KP SW and advocated the Four Step Theory in English.

He had dedicated his long term service to KP till the last moment, he could operate the internet a few months ago, in the KP & Astrology magazine, the KP discussion groups, KP-Ezine magazine etc. He was a sincere and honest man by saying that the Lahiri Ayanamsa was used in the UTOH while controversy of ayanamsa was going on, and he was not so good in prediction, and recommending to use a specialised KP SW like KPAstro, if one wants to work with sub-sub lords.

I am grateful to him for his sharing of KP knowledge, guidance and encouragement for research on KP rules that helped me a lot to learn KP. I ask for his forgiveness from his heavenly abode for having different views in some issues. We will miss him. But let me quote Mr. Atal Behari Vajpayee that the sun has set, by yet the shadows of the stars we must find out our way. The concepts, which he created, will be still guiding our study of KP.

Most heartfelt condolences to his bereaved family! May his soul rest in peace!

Nepal is our neighbor. Our relation with Nepal is very good since past long time. We can travel to Nepal without Visa – Passport and Nepali people can travel to India without Visa – Passport. But now a day there is a political uncertainty in Nepal. Only Hindu Rastra in world is now non-secular country. In the first the election Maoists party gain more seats than the democratic party, due to this situation I am curious to know what is the fate of Nepal.

Details:

Name of Country: Nepal

Date: 28 May 2008

Time: 11.25 PM

Place: Kathmandu

Lot/Lat: 27 N 43, 85 E 19

Time Zone: 5.45 East

Who will rule the country?

There are many possibilities, and so I fixed some rules for the Rulers which are as under.

As per my Rules,

- 1) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 6(Military Dictatorship), 11(gain), then the power comes in the hand of Military or a Dictator.
- 2) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11(gain), then power comes in hand of a Democratic Government.
- 3) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 9(Religious leader), 11(gain), then power comes in hand of Religious leaders.

My Analysis:

- 1) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 6(Military Dictatorship), 11(gain), then the power comes in the hand of Military or a Dictator.

Asc sublord is Ven.Ve+(4, 4-5-9), no planet in the star of Ven and Ven is CSL of 1, in the star of Mo(1, 7), in the sub of Mo(1, 7). No 6, 11 signification by Asc Sub lord, so no chance of Military or Dictator ruler.

- 2) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 4(Democracies, Democratic Government and movements), 11(gain), then the power comes in hand of a Democratic Government.

Asc sublord is Ven.Ve+(4, 4-5-9), no planet in the star of Ven and Ven is CSL of 1, in the star of Mo(1, 7), in the sub of Mo(1, 7). Asc Sub lord signifies 4, so the power comes in hand of a Democratic Government.

- 3) If Asc Sub lord (Tendency of people of country) signifies 9(Religious leader), 11(gain), then the power comes in hand of Religious leaders.

Asc sublord is Ven.Ve+(4, 4-5-9), no planet in the star of Ven and Ven is CSL of 1, in the star of Mo(1, 7), in the sub of Mo(1, 7). Asc Sub lord signifies 9, so there is a chance of Religious leaders.

Now we check the running dasa:

Ju(12, 2-12), in the star of Su(4), in the sub of Mo(1, 7).

No 6 and 9 but 4 signification in dasa shows only chance for democratic government in Nepal.

My opinion:

There is no chance of Maoists rule in Nepal. And democracy will be continued.

Prospects of Getting Apex Position

This case belongs to one of my friend from Delhi who was working in a management position in Government and was aspiring for the top post of the company. His application for this post was put on hold by the inimical action of one of the contender for the same post who was all set to get the post by hook or crook through ministerial influence. The native had floated a representation for the administrative injustice happening to him.

I received a call from him on Feb 11, 2009 at about 2 PM who was curious to know bluntly whether he would become the MD of the company. The post was to be finalized by July 04, 2009.

I casted the time chart to assess the outcome of his query.

Coordinates of judgment

Lagna in this chart represents the native and 7th the competitor. 3-9th cusps indicate the initiatives/representations floated by the native/competitor.

The prospects in a horary chart relating to the profession are primarily governed by the 10H, as this house decides the way the flow of karma takes place for matters relating to profession. The 6th house indicates the inimical action and the litigation raised thereby.

It may be noted that the analysis of cusps of various houses along with the planetary significations represent the fixed promises of the chart but the results are dispensed by the suitable dasha-bhukti in consonance with the transits.

The Query

In the time chart, Moon is lord of 3rd house and placed in 3rd house but almost conjoined with 4th cusp within 16 minutes. 3rd house signification indicates the matter pertained to some sort of initiative/action/representation by the native. Moon is placed in the star of Venus placed in 10th house indicate the matter of the query to be related to professional concern.

With the above, I took the chart OK to proceed for further analysis.

• Look at the promise indicated by the lagna.

Saturn is the lagna sub-lord, which falls in the star of lagna lord Venus placed in the 10th house indicating the desire for the native (Lagna) to seek the desired job position (10th house). Saturn is a weak owner of 9-10th houses while the star lord Venus lords 1-6th houses. Thus sub-lord Saturn practically signifies 10-4-1-6 houses and 4th signification is not for gain. Saturn falls in the sub of Ketu placed in 2nd house, which seems a favorable bid but Ketu is aspected by Mars, Mercury and Jupiter from 8th house.

Sub-lord Ketu disposes Moon (sign lord) and Saturn (star lord). Moon signifies 10-3-6th houses whereas Saturn, as described above, signifies 10-4-1-6th houses.

In short, the indications of Lagna have some hope of the job position subject to other factors.

• Look at the indications of 10th cuspal sub-lord.

10th cuspal sub-lord is retro-Saturn and as per the analysis above, though it does signify 10-1-6th houses, it yet does not show a definitive promise to get the position because of the planetary retrogression.

• Look at the 6th cusp

In the scenario of some inimical action against native's interest, 6th cusp may be evaluated for the outcome of the litigation caused thereby.

Sun is the cuspal sub-lord of the 6th cusp, which falls in the star of Mars placed in 8th house causing an impediment to the native, thus the inimical action was too strong. Sun falls in the sub of retro Saturn which suggests that the competitor's action plan neither would cause the impediments to the native nor allow the competitor himself to succeed. Note that a planet in the sub of a retro sub may not fructify its significations.

Prospects of Getting Apex Position

• Look at the 3rd cusp

This cusp indicates the initiative by the native to stall the inimical action against his interest.

3rd cuspal sub-lord is Moon, which falls in the star of Venus as 6th lord placed in 10th house. If you look this combination from the 7th house (competitor), the initiatives of the native would cause the competitor to get stagnated (4th house) and also would cause him to lose (12th house).

Thus, the representation from the native was very apt to stall the damage.

• Look at the Fortuna

Fortuna falls in the 7th house (competitor) at its face value but very close to 8th cusp within 2deg:26min. Fortuna falls in the star of Venus placed in the 10th house, seemingly benefiting to the native. Since Fortuna falls in the sub of retro Saturn, the fructification of fortune would not get realized. Since retro Saturn is the sub-lords of the 1 (native)-7 (competitor)-10 (job position) cusps, neither of them may materialize to its fruition ultimately.

• Look at the 11th cusp for the overall fructification of the query.

Rahu is the 11th cuspal sub-lord. It falls in the star of Moon, lord of 3rd house and placed in 3rd house but almost conjoined with 4th cusp within 16 minutes. 3rd house signification prompts the native to represent for the injustice and 4th signification is not for gain. Rahu is placed in the sub of Jupiter placed in 8th house, no planet in Jupiter's star, and this seals the opportunity for gaining anything.

Thus, it was assessed that neither the native nor the competitor was to gain the access to the job position in view.

• Look at the dasha breakup.

Venus dasha was running till 2015.

Incidentally, Dasha lord Venus is also the sub-lord of 9th cusp, which indicates the game plan of the competitor.

Dasha lord Venus falls in the star of retro Saturn, hence may not be fruitful for the competitor to achieve his desires. Venus falls in the sub of Mars, lord of 12th house placed in 8th house causing the native to loose on his desires too.

No analysis was done further to it.

Conclusion

It was communicated to my friend that he may not aspire for the job position in view, though his initiative of a representation for the malpractices may bring rewards to him in stalling the proceedings and the competitor also may lose on this account.

Some facts of the case

Over the few months, the facts are collected as follows.

- The competitor was native's own colleague who was contending for the post even though he was much junior to the native. A lot of ministerial staffs were involved to goof up the case.
- The strong representation by the native to the minister ultimately abolished the top post and the interview was cancelled.
- The native continues on his position without elevation.

Conclusion

Prof. Krishnamurthy has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

I had seen Samajwadi party Gen. Secretary Shri Amar singh ji at a news channel giving interview after his successful kidney transplantation. His closest the Bachchan and the Anil Ambani families had stood by him for his operation at Singapore. They were aware of his critical situation and told the media that there was not much hope of success. I had checked his natal chart described as under.

Birth Details

TOB: 6:40 am

POB: Aligarh, U.P.

Rule:

(1) When there is the influence of Venus, Tula rashi and 7th cusp predominantly in the DBAS, one has to face kidney related problems.

(2) When there is influence of watery sign on planet itself, star lord & sub lord, one has to face major kidney problem.

(3) When there is 8, 12th house signification along with Mar's influence in the DBAS, one has to go for transplantation or operation.

Rule for Success in Transplantation

When the donor's blood (Karaka Ma and Mo) and bonemarrow (Karaka Ma) accept native's 1st (self) and 5th (immune system) cusps, then there is dawn of hope for success. We need not to forget the two leaders, the Dasa-Bhukti, which can drive the doctors to the way for either success or failure of the operation.

Dasa Lord: Venus (up to 14/9/2016)

Ve is in the star of Ra and sub of Mo. No planet is in Ve star and it is a strong significator 3rd house by lordship of this cusp. Ve (2,5-10) signifies both Maraka (2nd house) and improvement from illness (5th house). Ve itself is a watery planet. Ve is aspected by Ma (cause for operation, transplantation and 11th Badhaka lord). Ve is in star of Ra in 11th Badhaka house, also signifying 9th house by its star lord Me. Star lod Ra is conjoined by 11th Badhaka lord Ma. Ra is in the watery sign. Sub lord Mo (7,7) is Maraka and an indicator of kidney problem, Mo itself is a watery planet and also situated in the watery sign. Hence Dasa lord Ve indicates the kidney trouble and going abroad for possible successful operation.

Bhukti Lord: Jupiter (up to 14/7/2009)

Ju is in the star of Ke and sub of Ra. No planet is in Ju star and Ju is the sub lord 4,5,6,10,11 and 12 cusps. Thus Ju (7,3-12) indicates hospitalization, going abroad for medical treatment, anxiety and misery. Star lord Ke is in 5th house for success of operation. Ke's sign lord is Ve as discussed above. Ke is aspected by Ma (lord of Badhaka, operation). Sub lord Ra is as discussed above. So this Bhukti lord Ju had taken the native abroad for operation and given success in kidney transplantation.

Longevity

1st CSL Sa (10,1-2) is in own star Sa (10,1-2) and sub of Ke (5) as discussed above. The longevity is expected to be middle age up to 66 and the native was at the age of 53 when he underwent the operation. Hence it indicates the survival of the kidney operation whatever it may be critical.

Conclusion

In combination of Dasa-Bhukti and longevity indicators, it was concluded that the native would survive the miserable kidney transplantation.

Lot of namashkars to the lotus feet of late Shri Suresh Sahasane ji.

Om Gan Ganapataye Namah

Krishnamurti Padhdhati (KP) has time and again proved to be accurate when the rules are applied and used logically. It can be used to solve any sort of query and at anywhere you want. KP Muhurat as developed by Shri Kanak Bosmiaji is a new revelation for astrology enthusiasts. I have applied it on many occasions and found it very accurate. One of my friends approached me to know about the condition of his friend who had an accident the day before and was in coma at the time of query. Let us see how I approached in solving the query.

First of all I didn't take any horary number from him; I just prepared the time chart at the time of query and applied the KP rules.

Query : Friend survival?
Date : 07-08-2009
Time : 13:50:58
Place : BHOPAL, MP - Longitude 77 E 24 - Latitude 23 N 16
Ayanamsha : KPNA 23:54:03

First of all let us look at the Moon and its significations at the time of judgment. The ascendant is Scorpio; Moon is in Dhanishta star whose lord is Mars. Mars is lord of first and sixth house and is placed in seventh house which is Maraka house. Similarly Moon is lord of Badhaka ninth house and is placed in third house. Moon is also a strong significator of Maraka seventh house by occupation of its star lord Mars; hence query is justified as most houses signify the concerned houses for longevity. Also the ascendant sub lord Ketu is placed in 8th house, which is considered for accident, longevity etc.

Now looking at the RULES for longevity:

1. For a native's longevity we consider 1, 3 and 8th house, and twelfth house to these 12, 2 and 7 are Maraka sthana.
2. Consider the houses 8th and 12th for accident; Mars, Saturn, Rahu and Ketu may cause accident.
3. For chara sign ascendants 11th house is Badhaka sthana, for fixed sign 9th house is Badhaka sthana and for common sign 7th house is Badhaka. In this case under consideration, the ascendant is in fixed sign, and so 9th house is Badhaka.
- 4 If the sub lord of the ascendant be the significator of the Badhaka and Maraka houses, then it is not considered good for longevity of the native.

Analysis

1st Cusp :Ma Sa Ke (Sgl, Stl, Sbl)-- Ascendant sub lord Ketu itself is placed in 8th house, which is house of accident and danger. Ketu is conjoined with Sun in Badhaka 9th house. Ketu is aspected by Jupiter, lord of Maraka 2nd and 5th houses. Ketu's star lord Saturn is in 10th house (retirement from this world) and lord of houses 3rd and 4th (end of everything including life especially in accident). Ketu's sign lord Moon is placed in third house and lord of Badhaka 9th house. Ketu's sub lord Mercury is in 10th house (retirement from this world) and lord of 8th and 11th house. Hence 1st cusp sub lord Ketu is a significator of houses for Badhaka, Maraka, accident, retirement from this world houses and end of everything, to be not good for longevity of the native.

2nd Cusp :Ju Ke Ra -- Sub lord Rahu itself placed in Maraka 2nd house. Rahu is conjoined with Jupiter, lord of Maraka 2nd and 5th houses. It is in the star of Sun which is placed in Badhaka 9th house and lord of 10th house (retirement from this world). Rahu's sign lord Saturn is in 10th house (retirement from this world) and lord of houses 3rd and 4th (end of everything including life especially in accident). Rahu's Sub lord Mercury is in 10th house (retirement from this world) and lord of 8th and 11th house. It is also not good for longevity of the native.

8th Cusp : Me Ra Ra -- Sub lord Rahu as discussed above is not good for longevity of the native.

Running Dasa-Bhukti: Mars-Sun up to 20 Aug 2009

Dasa lord Mars (7,1-6) is in own star and sub Mars (7,1-6), to be a very strong significator of 7th Maraka and 6th injury.

Bhukti lord Sun (9,10) in the star of Mercury (10,8-11) and sub of Venus (8,7-12), and it indicates 7th Maraka, 9th Badhaka, 12th Moksha, 10th retirement from this world, and 8th danger, accident.

Prediction

On the basis of above analysis, I predicted that the native would not survive the accident. Moon next day transits in Rahu's star which is a strong significator of Marakasthana and Badhakasthana. The native died the next day i.e. 8-8-2009 around 13:30.

I got a phone call from my cousin's wife. She told me that my cousin left Kullu for Fortis Hospital in Mohali (Chandigarh), in the morning at 7 am but did not reach there; he was bringing money to deposit in hospital, so every one was worried about his whereabouts. The reason of worry was that his mobile was switched off and he also didn't inform anyone about his situation.

I received the call on August 23rd, 2009 at 20-10 IST in Ludhiana.

I asked a number from my cousin's wife, and she spoke 208 (between 1 to 249).

I calculated the horary chart at 20-13 IST, on August 23, 2009, at Ludhiana.

The ascendant of number 208 confirmed the query, as its sub lord Mercury is in 7 and query is related to her husband.

I rotated the chart, and took 7th cusp as ascendant of her husband. (Rotated chart is attached)

It is owned by Sun sign, Ketu star and Ketu sub. In the case of missing person one should check longevity first.

Ascendant sub lord Ketu is in 12. Ketu is in conjunction with Venus, lord of 3 and 10, which indicates no danger to longevity. Ketu is in Saturn star, and Saturn is in 1, indicating no danger to longevity. Ketu is in sub of Saturn; Saturn is in star of Sun, and Sun in 1 confirmed it.

Then I made judgment that he is safe.

After that the question is when he will reach hospital or when one will know about his whereabouts?

For that I checked the Ruling Planets at the time of judgment and I moved the Ascendant as the event was expected to take place within a day.

Ascendant star	- Saturn
Ascendant (Pi) Lord	- Jupiter
Moon Star	- Moon
Moon Rasi	- Mercury
Day Lord	- Sun

Since Saturn is in the RPs, the matter will be delayed to materialize.

After Pisces next sign is Aries. Sign lord Mars is not in the RPs, and so I left Aries.

Next is Taurus and sign lord Venus is not a RP, so it was left.

Next is Gemini, and sign lord Mercury is a RP. In Mercury sign Gemini we have Mars, Rahu and Jupiter stars.

Here Rahu (for Capricorn sign lord Saturn) and Jupiter qualify for this sign.

But since RP Ascendant is in dual sign Pisces, I opted to go for next selection.

Next is Cancer, ruled by Moon.

We have Jupiter, Saturn and Mercury stars in Moon sign.

I looked at local panchang and it would be between 3-5 am to 5-27 am.

I left Jupiter star since it is retrograde, and told them that he would be found between 3-30 to 5-30 am on the next morning.

Next morning at 6-30 am I asked them about him, and they told me that he made a phone call from Chandigarh bus stop at 5 am on 24-8-2009, and said that his belongings, mobile and money were snatched by someone.

But accuracy of KP has been proved again.

OM Gajaanam Namamhyam

During the KP Astrologers Forum's fortnightly meeting conducted on 09-August-2009 chaired by Dr.VVK Mohan, Secretary KPAF, charts on Medical Astrology were taken up. Six natal charts regarding Ear, Nose & Throat were discussed in detail.

In medical astrology of natural zodiac (Kalapursha), 2nd house rules speech, nose/throat and 3rd/11th houses rule right and left ears respectively. These are Taurus & Gemini/ Aquarius ruled by Venus, Mercury & Saturn. Any unfavourable effects on these houses from natural zodiac/ Ascendant would lead to speech/hearing problems. Mercury, Karaka for speech and hearing, 3rd and 11th houses from Lagna are affected by unfavourable significations and connected to evil houses 6-disease, 8-chronic, 12-hospitalisation would lead to dumb and deaf.

Mute signs in Kalapursha, watery signs – Cancer, Scorpio & Pisces, would lead to deaf and dumb problems when it is connected to 8th it is congenital otherwise it would impair during DBA of the planets of unfavourable significations.

Planets Kethu and Rahu connection would lead to defects in the speech and hearing. 3rd house governs right ear and 11th house indicates left ear of the native. Any affliction to 2nd / Venus would lead problems of nose in the ENT, as Venus is Karaka for beauty, nose is one among the face which adds beauty. Bharani Venus star indicates about nose, Rohini Moon star indicates about Larynx, throat, Arudra Rahu indicates ear/hearing in the natural zodiac.

Pisces Mutable	Aries HEAD	Taurus NOSE THROAT Speech	Gemini R t. EAR Hearing
Aquarius L t. EAR	Mercury Karaka for Speech Hearing	Watery Signs Mute	Cancer Mutable
Capricorn	Venus Second Lord Face & Nose	Gemini /Aqua Ears Taurus Throat	Leo
Sagittarius	Scorpio Mutable	Libra	Virgo

Sri R Balaji, member of KPAF, Hyderabad who is an expert in Nadi astrology had given the rule in his article Duff and Dumb published in Astrovision e-zine of Sri MK Vishwanath given as follows:

If the cuspal sublords of 2nd & 3rd become significators of 6,8,12 houses and are connected to the mute signs i.e., Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces, it would lead to defective speech and hearing.

ANALYSIS:

Chart 1 – ENT1 Varun, (Impaired Speech/ Hearing)

(Date: 17/10/2001 Time: 14:09:00 Place: Bhimavaram, WG Dt. Day: Wednesday Lat. 16:32 N, Long. 81:32 E, KPNA23:47:31, Birth Star: Swathi-1, Rasi: Libra Asc.: Cap 26:32:11)

The 1 CSL Jupiter in his own star and sub in Gemini, VI CSL Venus who is in the star of Sun in 8th house and 2/3 CSL Rahu in 5th house, in Mars star who is l/o 3rd n 10th in 12th house had given problems relating to ENT. At the time of his birth Moon was in Ra-Ra-Me (Sgl, Stl, Sbl). Rahu connection to 2nd and 3rd houses and Mercury in 8th house in Moon's star indicate congenital defects. The Dasa lord Rahu at the time of his birth is placed in Gemini.

Present major Dasa lord Saturn, lord of Badhaka 9 in 6, in star of Jupiter l/o of 8 n 11 in 4th and sub of Rahu indicates continuous medication without much relief.

(Date: 07/05/1968 Time: 01:29:00 Place: Vijayawada, Krishna Dt. Day: Tuesday Lat. 16:31 N, Long. 80:37:00 E, KPNA 23:19:30, Birth Star: Makha-2 Rasi: Leo, Asc.: Aqu 6:09:09)

Present major Dasa lord Jupiter till 2011 is connected with Sun in 7, in the star of Kethu conjoint with Saturn of 7 significator, indicates chronic disease. Saturn major Dasa period from 2011 also is not promising well for getting the relief.

(Date: 08/05/1974 Time: 11:46:00 Place: Hanamkonda, Warangal Dt. Day: Wednesday Lat 18:01 N, Long: 79:38 E, KPNA 23:24:31, Birth Star: Anuradha-4 Rasi: Sco, Asc.: Can 19:10:36)

Chart 6 – ENT6, (Nose unable to smell, Throat Diphtheria)

(Date: 29/09/1956 Time: 14:20:00 Place: Bapatla, Guntur Dt. Day: Saturday Lat. 15:54 N, Long. 80:28 E, KPNA 23:09:47, Birth Star: Pushyami-2, Rasi: Kataka, Asc.: Cap 09:48:56)

Introduction

1. This part is to present the original 5 Ruling Planets and basic ideas only. The additional Ruling Planets by taking sub lords and aspects etc, different views of KP practitioners and some controversies like retrogression will be discussed in the next part to try to determine which works the best for an astrologer.

Original Five Ruling Planets

2. The Ruling Planets are the planets which rule the moment at the time of judgment of any query. The original 5 Ruling Planets given by Guru ji KSK are listed below in their order of preference or strength (Original KP Vol 2, Sagar Publications, 1965 pp 273-4, 412; KP Reader VI p 123, RP & KP pp ix, xvii, 32; Dr. Satya Prakash Chowdhary: Ruling Planets in KP):

- 1) Ascendant star lord
- 2) Ascendant sign lord
- 3) Moon star lord
- 4) Moon sign lord
- 5) Day Lord (Hindu Day from sunrise to next sunrise)

3. Further Rahu and Ketu are to be included in the list, if they are in the signs of these Ruling Planets. Actually being stronger, they would replace the planets, in whose signs they are.

Ruling Planets at the Time when the Urge is There

4. It is to work out the Ruling Planets at the time of judgment when the urge is there to find out the result of query at the place where an astrologer is examining the Natal or Horary or Time chart. The Ruling Planets are the divine guide to an astrologer and their help should be sought only when there is an urge to decide the significators who can bring out the event queried. (KP Reader VI pp 88, 129, 130) The real Ruling Planets would work and mysteriously God would help an astrologer only when there is a real urge on both sides of the querist and the astrologer.

Retrogression

5. The Ruling Planets in retrograde do not prevent the event to take place but will only give the result when they become direct in motion. Reject the ruling planets which are posited in the star or sub of retrograde planets. (KP Reader VI pp 167, 171, 176, 187, 202, 224, 274)

Ways of Using the Ruling Planets

6. As a method of choosing the fruitful significators, the Ruling Planets are to assist in timing of the events. The Ruling Planets at the time of judgment of query would be the same Ruling Planets at the time of fructification of the event in question. The Ruling Planets will agree fully with the DBA periods in operation, and so the significators which are in common with the Ruling Planets are to be selected as the fruitful significators for the event in question. (KP Reader VI pp 274, 138, 141, 200)

7. In the birth time rectification, in case of the querist's doubt about the accuracy of his or her own birth time, the Ruling Planets of the time of judgment would agree with the Ruling Planets at birth time.

8. Fast predictions can be given just based on the Ruling Planets directly. A timing of an event can be fixed by using only the Ruling Planets calculated at a particular moment of time without resorting to the Natal or Horary chart as follows (KP Reader V p 163, Reader VI p 131, RP & KP p 69-72):

1) If an event is likely to take place within a few hours, move the Ascendant counting from the Ascending degree of the moment of judgment to the sensitive zone where one ruling planet becomes the sign lord, second ruling planet becomes the star lord and third ruling planet become the sub lord;

- 2) If the event is expected to happen within some days, move the Moon to such a sensitive zone; or
- 3) If it is to take place in some months, move the Sun; or
- 4) If it is to happen in some years, Jupiter should be moved to find out the time of event.

Food for Thought

9. There is no KP without any of the following 3 KP pillars:

- 1) Hindu constellational Zodiac;
- 2) Division of the constellation in the unequal Vimsottari dasa proportion;
- 3) Western Placidian cusps.

10. There is also no KP without application of the following KP basic rule:

"Planet is the source, constellation indicates nature of the result and the SUB is the deciding factor whether the matter is favorable or not."

11. Since the Ruling Planets are not related to the above three pillars and the basic rule, KP can be practiced without the Ruling Planets by using other methods of selecting the fruitful significators other than the Ruling Planets method.

12. By using the Ruling Planets, the following significators can be selected as the fruitful significators:

- 1) Significators which are common with the Ruling Planets, and
- 2) Significators appearing many times amongst the Ruling Planets.

13. Without using the Ruling Planets, the following significators can be selected as the fruitful significators:

1) Significators of planets without having any planet in their stars, which are strongest to give the results of the houses by being the sub lord to them. (KP Reader III p 309, KP & Astrology 1991 July p 1 & November p 8, PS Rao, Vikari Ramamurthi, R. Mukunda Rajan, Kuppu Ganapathi, Kanak Bosmia and others) (Golden Rule: Take the planets which are posited in the sub of the significators whose constellations are not tenanted, explained in Astrosecrets & KP, Part II, 2003, pp 194-199)

2) Significators which are posited in the stars of the cuspal sub lords of required houses for a matter under consideration, for instance 2,7,11 houses for marriage,

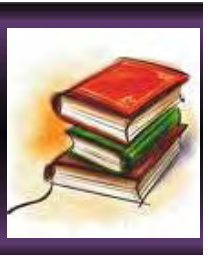

3) Significators which are the cuspal sub lords of the required houses.

14. In the case when all 9 planets appear as the Ruling Planets, those significators posited in a sub which is the significator of the main house of the matter under consideration can be selected as the fruitful significators. For example if marriage is being looked into, the main house is 7.

15. Moreover, the different astrologers, tackling the same problem under the different urge, at different places at different times may get different Ruling Planets, and consequently different answers.

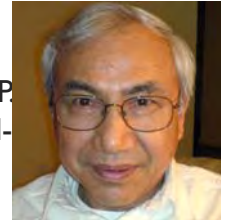

16. By the experience of KP Kuppu Ganapathi, AR Raichur and D. Santhil (KP discussion group), Sunil Gondhalekar (Four Step Theory), Baskaran (Secret of RP & the Birth Time, pp 64-65), Narhari Khake (KP & Astrology Year Book, 1998, p 31) and mine (Will the Same Horary Number Give the Same Result? in Astrovision November 2008), it has been found that there is no such common solution for different astrologers. Here please note that it's enough to show '2 different cases only' to say the result cannot be the same but one may have to go on up to the 'same 100 cases' to show that the result will be the same.

Astrosecrets & Krishnamurti Paddhati, 3 Volumes Set Vol I by M P Shanmugam; Vol II & III by K Subramaniam (Editor)

<http://www.webspawner.com/users/astroclinic1/astrosecretskri.html>

1. The Vol. I (378 pages), a fairly straight-forward exposition of KP, was written by the late Sri M.P. Shanmugham and the Vol. II (320 pages) & Vol. III (272 pages) are the collection of KP articles edited by K Subramaniam

2. These books are recommendable and useful for study of KP together with the late Sri Bhatt's books as they cover almost all kinds of topics as shown by the contents below. For example, the KP house grouping can be found under "16. The 12 Houses" in pp 101-209 of the Vol. I, under "33. Guidelines for Professional Astrologers" in pp 222-228 of the Vol. II, and under "6. Principle of Sublords and Relevant Houses" in pp 35-59 of the Vol. III. The rule "The planets without having any planet in their stars are the strongest signifiers of the houses for which they are the cusp sub lords. (KP Reader III p 309)" is explained under "29. The Golden Rule in KP" in pp 194-199 of Vol. II.

3. The difference with the late Sri Bhatt's books is that these three volumes are to be used with caution in some issues as KP scholars' own views expressed there may not be in line with the original KP.

Question - 1

Your tabulation of grouping of houses seems excellent.

I would like to have little more information. For example (taken from Dec 2007)

9th House event: Further studies (Master, Ph.D.)

(1) Houses to be signified by cusp Sbl(CP): 4,9,11

Does this mean:

- (a) 9th Cuspal Sub lord should signify 4, 9, 11
- (b) Is it enough if 9th CSL signifies atleast one of the cusps 4, 9, 11 or it should signify all 4, 9 and 11?
- (c) Is it required to test also 4th cusp signifies 4,9,11?
- (d) Is it required to test also 11th cusp signifies 4,9,11?

(2) DBA jointly signifying houses 4,9,11

Does this mean:

The DBA lords must be the strong fruitful signifiers (A, B,C,D,E)?

(3) Also to check 11th Sublord's signification of 4,9,11,6.

Does this mean:

Is this special only for this rule to verify with 11th CSL?

Is this already covered in (1) Above?

Why 6th cusp added here in addition to 4,9,11?

(4) What about negative houses?

In the grouping, rarely mentioned about negative houses.

Do we take 12th to the cusp as negative by default?

In the above case, the cusps 3, 8, 10 will be the negative houses?

If so, How can 10th cusp (Reputation) can be negative to the Ph.D studies?

Answer - 1

1. It is enough, if 9 CSL signifies any of house 4, 9, 11, preferably 11 (gain, success, fulfillment of desire), and better and the best if all 4,9, 11 are signified. It is required to cross check the signification of house 4,9,11 by 4 CSL (main house for education). It is also required to cross check the signification of house 4,9,11 by 11 CSL 11 (house for gain, success, fulfillment of desire) and it is a must in a Horary analysis.

2. The DBA lords must be the strong or fruitful signifiers of house 4,9,11, out of overall signifiers (A, B,C,D,E).

3. It is required to cross check the 11 CSL's signification of 4,9,11,6. House 11 is for gain, success, fulfillment of desire and house 6 is for success in competition or gain of financial support.

4. It is true that negative houses are rarely mentioned in the KP House Grouping and those detrimental houses are to be considered as required. In this case, houses 3,8 indicate suffer in education or end of education without getting a degree. It is good point that house 10 is good for name, fame, reputation but it could cause difficulties in achieving the goal of getting Ph.D. etc by being 12 to 11.

Question - 2

Can you please clarify the following:

1.2. Getting Passport, Visa, Green Card

4. If 3rd and 11th cusp sub lords signify 3,9,11,12, one can get passport, visa, green card or permanent resident card to go foreign during the DBA signifying 3,9,11,12. (KP Reader VI pp 320-1; Further Lights on Nakshatra Chintamani pp 86, 95) If the querent has already been abroad for several years, houses 4, 11 in place of 3, 12 are to be considered to stay on there.

I understand like this:

(a) The rule is:

3 CSL signify 3, 9, 11, 12

11 CSL signify 3, 9, 11, 12

DBA lords must be the strong and fruitful signifiers (A, B, C, D, E) of 3, 9, 11, 12

(b) houses 4, 11 in place of 3, 12

After this modification of the rule, it will be like:

3 CSL signify 4, 9, 11

11 CSL signify 4, 9, 11

DBA lords must be the strong and fruitful signifiers (A, B, C, D, E) of 4, 9, 11

Is this correct?

I got this doubt, because you said 4, 11; but 11 is already there.

Answer - 2

1. The rules in (a) & (b) are correct.

2. House 4 is to stay on at the same place, here abroad and house 11 is for gain and fulfillment of desire.

Question- 3

Will you kindly clarify the following point? In traditional Astrology system, while reading the transit result of planets or when the movement of slow moving planets such as Jupiter or Saturn from one Rasi to the other, the Moon Rasi of the natal chart is taken and from that Rasi to the other Rasi, where these two planets are moving is considered from sign to sign, irrespective of the exact longitude of Moon's placement in Moon Rasi in the natal chart. Suppose Saturn is going to move from the present rasi Leo to Virgo in about next month. Then for Taurus Rasi (Moon's placement), it is read as Saturn is going to move from 4th to 5th and the result is offered by the traditional system. Irrespective of Moon, whether it is in 1 degree or 29 degrees of Taurus.

But in K.P. system, Lagna of the native is given importance and not Moon for the transit result. In Placidus system, the point at which the cuspal degree falls to the next point where the cuspal point falls is taken as lagna cusp. Suppose Lagna is Leo, cuspal point is 15 degrees and the second bhavam is 15 degrees. In the above example case, Saturn may be entering into Virgo in Sun's star uttaram 2nd pada. should we say Saturn in 2nd from Lagna Rasi Leo or Saturn will move to 2nd Bhavam after it enters 15 degrees above. In other words we should treat Lagna Rasi as starting point or the exact degree as starting point and go on for taking other Bhavas for transit. If we take Lagna Rasi and treat the other Rasi as 1st, 2nd etc., I doubt whether we will get the correct result. The above is example of one case. I would like to the reading of all other planets with particular point in the other Bhavams. This we may require to consider whether favorable planets are transiting in 7th bhavam for marriage. etc. Otherwise we will see the favourable planets are in either 6th or 8th, if we do not consider the exact longitude of planets. I have not seen clear explanation about this either in K.P. Readers or examples. I request your clarification on this point.

1. The current trend in Vedic is found to read the transit result from Lagna other than from Moon.

<http://www.lightonvedicastrology.com/dailyjyotish-030706.htm>

<http://astrologyforthesoul.com/vp/jupitersaturntransits.html>

<http://www.lightonvedicastrology.com/articles-doubletransit.htm>

<http://www.rayduastrology.com/> (article V life pattern)

2. In KP, it is always to count from the Lagna... In the research after 1967 it was found that we have to take always Lagna alone... The main reason is that in a twin birth, only the cusps of the house including the ascendant change whereas Moon is in the same position. What we had been following in the Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2, 1966, Sagar Publications, is to be given up. (P Reader III, New Edition pp 243-4; Old Edition, Practical Part, p 85)

3. In KP transit, the source is indicated by the transiting planet and what will happen is shown by the lord of the constellation; whether it will materialize or not, whether it is favorable or not is indicated by the sublord according to the houses signified by the sublord. (KP Reader V, pp 161, New Edition 265; Old Edition pp 153, 228). Here the starting and ending points of the houses are according to the Placidian cusps.

Editor, KP-Ezine

2nd October, 2009, Ahmedabad – Gujarat – India

This case belongs to one of my friend from Delhi whose deputation in a government department was to be over by Aug 31, 2009 and he was to go back to his parent organization. Being comfortable in Delhi, he was aspiring if he could be posted to a suitable position in Delhi only instead of being posted outside.

He posed a clear question to me "Will I be posted in Delhi or outside?" with horary number 155 and I took up the case for scrutiny on Aug 27, 2009 at 17-15-06 Hrs at Bangalore. The query chart is attached herewith:

Coordinates of judgment

Lagna in this chart represents the native.

The prospects in a horary chart relating to the profession are primarily governed by the 10H, as this house decides the way the flow of karma takes place for matters relating to profession.

It may be noted that the analysis of cusps of various houses along with the planetary significations represent the fixed promises of the chart but the results are dispensed by the suitable dasha-bhukti in consonance with the transits.

The Query

In the horary chart, Moon is placed in 12th house indicating that the mindset of the querist pertained to some sort of hopelessness and depression (feeling lost). Moon placed in the star of Saturn placed in 10th house pointed the query to the professional concern.

With the above, I took the chart OK to proceed for further analysis.

• Look at the promise indicated by the lagna.

Mars is the lagna sub lord and is placed in 7th house, indicating that the native had influence on the other side to pursue his objectives of being placed in Delhi. Being fairly senior in position in the government sector, he had already known that there was hardly any possibility of seeking posting within Delhi, as neither was there any vacant post nor was it seeming justified because the native was always posted in Delhi since he joined service.

Mars is placed in the star and sub of Rahu placed in 2H, thus the lagna at the first place had some promise for the native to remain with his family (2H) and negating the possibility of his moving out of Delhi (2H negating 3H).

Thus, the indications of lagna had the fair promise of the job position in Delhi as desired.

• Look at the indications of 10th cuspal sub-lord.

10th cuspal sub-lord is Venus which is a strong planet as there is no planet in its star, thus its placement would have some definite say. Note that Venus is placed in 8th house which shows that there could be some serious tension prevailing with respect to his posting issue, but 8th being a good house from the 4th house (place of present stay – Delhi) does pose relief as well.

As per stellar signification, Venus falls in the star of Saturn placed in 10th house with its sublord Mercury (11th lord) placed in 10th house. Since, the sub-lord does not signify the 3-9-12th house, it does promise a high scope of his professional placement in Delhi only.

• Look at the 4th cusp

This cusp indicates the present place of stay – Delhi and should not signify 3rd house if the native has to remain in Delhi. 4th cuspal sub-lord is Mercury (11th lord), which falls in the star of Sun placed in 9H and sub-lord Ketu placed in 8th house. With this combination, it was aptly clear that the native was to have his posting in Delhi only, as the posting at far-off places (9H) was denied by the sub-lord placed in 8H.

• Look to the fortuna

Fortuna falls in the 6th house (struggle) at its face value. Fortuna falls in the star of Sun placed in 9th house and sub of Saturn (4th lord) placed in 10th house. This further affirmed that there could be initial struggle in persuasion to the higher authorities but there was a fair chance that the native would win over (6H) on the prevailing clouds of transfer outside.

• Look at the 11th cusp for the overall fructification of the query.

Saturn is the 11th cuspal sub-lord. Noting that it is Saturn lording it, it occurred to me that the matter may not get finalized soon and it may take a few rounds of thinking for deciding his placements. But, in order that he is not posted outside Delhi, this sub-lord should not signify 3rd house.

Note that Saturn falls in the star of Sun placed in 9th house which may allow the considerations of his posting at far-off locations (9H) but its sub-lord Mars placed in 7th house does not seem to be agreed by the native.

To have more clarity, note that Saturn is a strong lord of 4th house and his 3rd house lordship is very weak, as 3rd house is occupied. Thus Saturn as 4th lord would favor his posing in Delhi only, though there could be simultaneous talks of his posting outside also (weak 3H). Mars is a strong lord of Lagna and thus may decide in favor of the native or what is desired by the native (lagna).

Thus, it was assessed that the native would ultimately be posted in Delhi amidst enough tension and possibilities of posting outside.

• Look at the dasha breakup.

Saturn-Sun-Rahu-Rahu dasha was running till Aug 31, 2009. where DBA lords are favourable to be posted in Delhi. Since, the native's service term was ending on Aug 31, 2009 he had to face the following sookshma dashas after Aug 31.

Jupiter sookshma upto Sep 7, 2009

Saturn sookshma upto Sep 14, 2009

Mercury sookshma starting from Sep 16 and upto Sep 23, 2009

Jupiter (strong planet) falls in 3rd house thereby maintaining the clouds of posting outside Delhi. Retrogression of Jupiter may not materialize anything.

Saturn falls in the star of Sun in 9H, making it to promote his transfer outside and that too at far off locations, though sub-lord Mars blocks it by way to its placement in 7H.

Mercury is a strong planet placed in 10th house. It falls in the star of Sun placed in 9H but its sub-lord Ketu gets placed in 8th house, blocking the indications of far flung transfers. In this way, Mercury would turn out to be the favorable planet, more so because it has the lordship of the 4th cusp.

Conclusion

In view of the analysis as above, it was communicated to the native that

- o His posting shall take time and may involve multiple thought process
- o Higher authorities may like to post him away from Delhi but his pursuance (lagna) would matter to achieve his goals
- o Chances of posting in Delhi were bright, almost certain
- o Posting after Sep 15, 2009 was likely.

Some facts of the case

The facts of this case are as follows.

- The native was due for promotion and in the next cadre, there was no vacancy in Delhi; hence his posting outside Delhi was in active consideration.

- The pursuance of the native to the officials deciding for the posting did influence him but the option was yet closed because of no vacancy.
- Out of many options, one option was to defer the promotion for a few months so that he may be posted in the same grade in Delhi for which one vacancy was available. Native agreed for the same.
- Native received posting order for Delhi based post on Sep 16, 2009.
- He is likely to join on Wednesday, Sep 23 2009 at Delhi.

Conclusion

Prof. Krishnamurthy has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

Marriage and Death within three weeks

Tin Win
tw853@yahoo.com

Case Background

1. Stephane and Martine, both at the age of 24 years, had married on 22 July 1995. Three weeks later on 14 August 1995 their apartment was on fire. Both of them jumped out of a window of their third floor apartment in Agnes, France, and crashed to the ground some 30 feet down. Husband died on impact at 9:40 PM and wife a few hours later.

2. Their AA rated charts given below per courtesy of the AstroDatabank 4.0 are attached herewith.

Husband Stephane, 23 June 1971, 04:35 MET (-1), Cholet, France, 47 N 04, 00 W 53

Wife Martine, 24 Jan 1971, 18:55 MET (-1:00), Redon, France, 47 N 39, 02 W 05

Analysis of Husband's Chart

3. The running DBAS at the time of marriage on 22 July 1995 is Ju-Mo-Mo-Me, which signify 11, 7, 2 marriage houses as shown below, and Dasa lord Ju was transiting in the star and sub of Ma, Bhukti and Antra lord Mo in own star and sub of Mo, Sookshma lord Me in the star of Su and sub of Bhukti and Antra lord Mo, and Su in the star of Bhukti and Antra lord Mo and sub of Ra.

Dasa lord Ju+ is in 6 l/o 8; no planet in star Ju, which is sub lord of 4, 10; in star and sub of Sa in 12 l/o 9 (Badhaka)-10-11

Bhukti and Antra lord Mo in 1 l/o 3-4; in star Ra in 9, conj. and star lord Ma in 9 l/o 7-12, sign lord Sa in 12 l/o 9-10-11; in sub Sa in 12 l/o 9-10-11

Sookshma lord Me in 1 l/o 2; in star Ra in 9, conj. and star lord Ma in 9 l/o 7-12, sign lord Sa in 12 l/o 9-10-11; in sub Ju+ in 6 l/o 8, no planet in star Ju, which is sub lord of 4, 10.

4. When he and his wife died together by accident on 14 August 1995, the running DBAS was Ju-Mo-Ma-Ju. As discussed above the Dasa lord Ju and Bhukti lord Mo signify the primary death inflicting houses 9 (Badhaka), 7 (Maraka) and 12 (Moksha), and also secondary houses of death, trigon for accident 4 (end of everything), 8 (accident, danger) and 12 (hospitalization, end of life), and 6 (injury) and 10 (retirement from this world).

5. The Antra and Sookshma had changed to the accident causing and deadlier Ma-Ju as shown Antra lord Ma below and Sookshma lord Ju as discussed above.

Antra lord Ma is in 9 l/o 7-12; in own star in 9 l/o 7-12; in sub Ju+ in 6 l/o 8, no planet in star Ju, which is sub lord of 4, 10.

6. At the time of death on 14 August 1995, Dasa and Sookshma lord Ju was transiting in the star and sub of Antra lord Ma, Bhukti lord Mo in own star and sub Mo, Antra lord Ma in the star of Dasa and Sookshma lord Ju and sub of Ve, and Su in the star of Bhukti lord Mo and sub of Sa.

7. Ju aspect on Lagna in natal and transit could not save the native from the fatal accident. Life saving or remedy 1, 11 signification was also overwhelmed by the signifiers of death.

8. The 8th cuspal sub lord signification of Badhaka, Maraka and 12, and 12th cuspal sub lord Me signification of Badhaka, Maraka, 6, 8, 12 and the connection of these cusps with Ma and Sa through the star lord Ra indicate the accidental death.

9. The 1st cuspal sub lord Sa signification of Badhaka, Maraka and 6, 8, 12 especially through the sub, as shown below, denotes the short life up to 33 years.

Sa in 12 l/o 9-10-11; in star Su in 1 l/o 5; in sub Ke+ in 3, aspected by Ju+ in 6 l/o 8, Sa in 12 l/o 9-10-11, Ma in 9 l/o 7-12, star lord Me in 1 l/o 2

10. In addition, his 7th cuspal sub lord Sa also indicates the short life of his wife, as shown below by rotating the chart to 7th.

Sa is in 6 l/o 3-4-5; in star Su in 7 l/o 11; in sub Ke+ in 9 (Badhaka), aspected by Ju in 12 l/o 2, Sa in 6 l/o 3-4, Ma in 3 l/o 1-6 and star lord Me in 7 l/o 8.

11. His 7th cuspal sub lord Sa signification of 5 indicates love marriage as commonly found in the Western charts.

12. The running DBAS at the time of marriage on 22 July 1995 is Su-Sa-Ve-Ra, which signify 2,7,11 houses as shown below, and Dasa lord Su was transiting in the star of Mo and sub of Sookshma lord Ra, Bhukti lord Sa in Dasa lord Su star and sub of Ju, Antra lord Ve in own star Ve and sub of Mo, and Sookshma lord Ra in Dasa lord Su star and sub of Ju.

Dasa lord Su+ is in 6 l/o 2; in star and sub of Mo in 5 l/o 1.

Bhukti lord Sa in 10 l/o 7-8; in star Ve in 5 l/o 4-11 (Badhaka); in own sub Sa in 10 l/o 7-8

Antra lord Ve in 5 l/o 4-11; in star Me in 5 l/o 3-12; in sub Ma in 4 l/o 5-10

13. The running DBAS at the time of death together with her husband on 14 August 1995 was Su-Sa-Ve-Sa. In the case of chara lagnas, house 11 becomes Badhaka, and all 2,7,11 marriage houses become death inflicting significators. Only Sookshma had changed from Ra to more deadly Sa. As discussed above the DBAS lords Su-Sa-Ve signify all houses of death 11 (Badhaka), 2-7 (Maraka) and 12 (Moksha), and trigon for accident 4, 8 and 12, and 6 (injury) and 10 (retirement from this world).

14. At the time of death on 14 August 1995, Dasa lord Su was transiting in the star Mo and sub of Bhukti and Sookshma lord Sa, Bhukti lord Sa in Dasa lord Su and sub Ju, Antra lord Ve in own star Ve and sub Mo, and Mo in own star and sub Mo.

15. Like in the case of her husband, Ju aspect on Lagna in natal and transit could not save her from the fatal accident. Life saving 1,5 signification was also not strong enough to encounter the all round significators of death.

16. The 8th and 12th cuspal sub lord Sa signification of Badhaka, Maraka and 84,10 and the Sa connection with Ma in the Sa star indicate the accidental death.

17. The 1st cuspal sub lord Mo is in 5 l/o 1; in star Ke in 1, sign lord su in 6 l/o 2; in sub Sa in 10 l/o 7-8, which is supposed to be the indicator of the short life up to 33 years by the star and sub level negative signification.

18. In addition, her 7th cuspal sub lord Ve also denotes the short life of her husband, as shown below by rotating the chart to 7th.

Ve is in 11 (Badhaka) l/o 10-5; in star Me in 11 l/o 9-6; in sub Ma in 10 l/o 11-4.

19. Her 7th cuspal sub lord Ve signification of 5 shows love marriage as commonly found in the Western charts.

Observation

20. In the cases of such combined significators of marriage and death, a thorough and all round scrutiny of the chart and the running DBAS is required, and the longevity of the native and the life saving significators of 1,5,11 houses (to exclude Badhaka 11 for chara lagnas) should be checked whenever the native life is found in danger.

21. The 7th cuspal sub lord of the native is found dependable to check the longevity of the spouse.

22. The Jupiter aspect on Lagna cannot be supposed to save the native from danger to his or her life depending the signification of Jupiter.

OM Gajaanam Namamhyam

The Thyroid is one of the largest endocrine glands in the body. This gland is found in the neck inferior to (below) the thyroid cartilage (also known as the Adam's apple in men) and at approximately the same level as the cricoid cartilage. The thyroid controls how quickly the body burns energy, makes proteins, and controls how sensitive the body should be to other hormones.

The thyroid participates in these processes by producing thyroid hormones, principally thyroxine (T4) and triiodothyronine (T3). These hormones regulate the rate of metabolism and affect the growth and rate of function of many other systems in the body. Iodine and tyrosine are used to form both T3 and T4. The thyroid also produces the hormone calcitonin, which plays a role in calcium homeostasis.

The thyroid is controlled by the hypothalamus and pituitary. The gland gets its name from the Greek word for "shield", after the shape of the related thyroid cartilage. Hyperthyroidism (overactive thyroid) and hypothyroidism (underactive thyroid) are the most common problems of the thyroid gland.

Anatomy

The thyroid gland is a butterfly-shaped organ and is composed of two cone-like lobes or wings: lobus dexter (right lobe) and lobus sinister (left lobe), connected with the isthmus. The organ is situated on the anterior side of the neck, lying against and around the larynx and trachea, reaching posteriorly the oesophagus and carotid sheath. It starts cranially at the oblique line on the thyroid cartilage (just below the laryngeal prominence or Adam's apple) and extends inferiorly to the fourth or fifth tracheal ring. It is difficult to demarcate the gland's upper and lower border with vertebral levels because it moves position in relation to these during swallowing.

In Medical astrology Natural Zodiac (Kalapursha) 2nd House Taurus represents Speech, Throat & Thyroid Gland in endocrinology. Venus is Karaka and Lord of Taurus represents Thyroid Gland.

The native underwent thyroid problem and treatment during Jupiter major period and sub periods of Sun and Moon. Jupiter being 6 cuspal sublord in his own star and sub in 3rd house, Sun in star Venus who is in 8th house, lord of 6 created here ditary thyroid problem. Moon, l/o 8th in 2nd house, in star Mars lord of 5th, 12th has given radio active iodine treatment. In this chart Kethu in 6th house which is Taurus sign, Jupiter, Sun, Moon, Venus connection to 2,3,8,6,12 and Taurus of the Kala Purusha has been found.

Chart 2 – Thyroid 2, Female (Thyroid Problem):

The native has suffered from hyper thyroid. Jupiter as 6th cuspal sublord is in star Mercury lord of 7th Badhaka, Taurus sign along with Kethu. Karaka Venus is in star Mercury and again connected to Taurus. The native is regularly taking medicines for the thyroid problem. `

Chart 3 – Thyroid 3 Nataraj, (Thyroid lead to death):

The native had suffered from thyroid problem. The 1st cusp sublord Moon as l/o 12th in 2nd in star Mars who is 9th lord in 9th Bhadhaka house had given him medium life. Current major period lord Saturn (6th CSL) l/o 6 n 7 in 6th, in star Rahu who is in turn conjunction with Venus, had given serious thyroid problem. During Venus sub period it had proved fatal.

Chart 4 – Thyroid 4, Rama Devi (Hypo Thyroid):

The native is suffering from hypo thyroid (deficiency) during major period of Jupiter who is lord of 6 in his own star and sub Moon in 12 lord of 2. Karaka Venus is 6th CSL and in the star and sub of Saturn who is in 12 lord of 7,8. In this chart also Kethu has figured in Taurus.

Chart 5 – Thyroid 5, Dinakar (Hyper Thyroid)

The native has recently detected his thyroid problem during his Sun major and Rahu sub period. In this chart also we could find similarities that Jupiter as 6th CSL is in 2 lord of 2 and in star Venus lord of 9 Badhaka. Karaka Venus is in conjunction with Rahu. Sun Major lord Sun is in Taurus in star Moon who is lord of 6th in Scorpio opposite to Taurus.

Chart 6 – Mrs. Thangam, (Hyper Thyroid, underwent Radio Active Iodine treatment for thyroid):

(Date 19/12/1943 Time 19:25:00 Place: Vigoda, West Province, Sri Lanka. Day: Sunday, Lat:7:08:00 N, Long: 80:01:00E, KPNA: 22:59:05, Birth Star: Uttaram-2 Rasi: Kanni, Asc.: Gem 10:47:46)

The native has been suffering from hyper thyroid since Ju-Me-Sa-Ve (23/12/1989). 6th CSL Moon is lord of 2, in star Sun in 6 and in the sub Rahu in 2, indicates congenital thyroid problem. Kethu is in 8, in star Moon who is l/o 2. Kethu's sign lord Saturn is again connected with Taurus by placement there with Mars lord of 6. Jupiter in Kethu-Moon strongly indicates the same. The native underwent radio active iodine therapy during Ju-Mo-Sa-Ma (April 1995). As we have already discussed, Jupiter, Moon and Saturn are connected to the thyroid problem. Present major period lord Saturn who is in Mars star has given medical treatment.

Conclusion: From the above 6 charts for thyroid problem we can conclude that the following connections are strongly indicating the above disease.

6th CSL Jupiter prominently and also Venus, Rahu; in zodiac Taurus, 2nd house connection to 6,8,12; Kethu in Taurus; Moon, planet for obesity, is involved in many cases of thyroid. The role of Moon, Jupiter, Venus, Rahu, Kethu is very significant.

Question: - Whether Mr.Y.S.R Jagan will become the CM of AP or not.?

Horary Number = 89/249.

DOJ = 9-9-2009.

TOJ = 12-10-14.PM.

POB = Kurnool

"If the sub lord of the 11th cusp is in the constellation of the planet who is the significator of the 9th, 10th, and 11th and also in any manner connected with Mars and Jupiter, you can become the premier.

This rule is applicable to get any position which one wants to have. We have to take that the 9th house represents the kingdom, Mars and Jupiter indicate a high political power and the 11th house shows that the ambition will be realized." (KP 6th Reader page no. 321 of the 6th edition)

(I) In this horary chart 11th cuspal sub lord Moon is in the star of Venus and in its own sub, Moon (9, 12), in the star of Venus (12, 3&10), in the sub of Moon (9, 12).

9th house represents the kingdom.

11th sub lord Moon is in 9th.

9th lord Mars aspects Jupiter with his 8th special aspect.

11th house shows the realization of ambition.

Mars (9th lord) is stationed in 11th.

It was stated by our Guruji Late Sri KSK ji that we have to consider 1st, 6th, 9th, and 10th also along with 11th success in politics.

1st = the native himself enjoys the benefits

6th = failure and loss to the opponent thereby victory over enemies

9th = bank position of the meritorious deeds done in the previous birth, thereby there is the bhagya, the providential help etc.

10th = name and fame, reputation, popularity and profession

11th = success in election, realization of ambition and fulfillment of one's desire,

Sun = King of the Planets, Moon = queen of the planets; So these two are to be considered as royal planets (which indicate Government).

Saturn indicates the mass, and holds the position of trust. Mars stands for courage, leadership qualities, empowered with power and authority. Mercury and Jupiter are favourable to a politician as he needs mostly oration, convincing tactics, popularity and mainly fortune to come out successful.

(II) 1st and 5th CSL Rahu is in the star of Sun and in the sub of Saturn. Rahu at 6 by orb in the star of sun at 1 and the owner of Lagna. Saturn strongly signifies 1st, and 6th and 7th weakly.

(III) 6th and 10th CSL Mercury is in the star of Moon and in the sub of Rahu.

Mercury (2, 11) in the star of Moon (9, 12), in the sub of Rahu (1, 6).

Readers are requested to observe the following key points to make him CM as given under:-

10th sub signification for the houses are 9, 2, 12, 2&11 strength wise respectively. And sub lord of Mercury's signification for the houses are 1 and 6. It is crystal clear.

9th = not only Kingdom but also father (Late Dr.YSR)

12th = Moksha, paralokaprapti, accidents (expiry of Mr.Y.S.R Jagan's father in accident)

11th = fulfillment of desire to become CM

1st = honor, dignity, glory, comfort and happiness, self enjoyment (if he is appointed as CM, he will enjoy)

6th = winning over the enemies (some politicians are giving troubles and also complaints to the higher authority in Delhi not to be nominated as CM; if nominated as CM, not to win over the opponents)

After the death of Smt. Indira Gandhi ji, Rajiv was nominated as PM. Now also, Mr. Jagan's father expired accidentally. So, plenty of chances are there to elect/nominate him as CM of AP even though so many are opposing. But this is only an astrological analysis.

(IV) 9th CSL is Mars in the star of Rahu and in the sub of Ketu. Mars (11,4&9) in the star of Rahu (1,6), in the sub of Ketu (1, 12, 6&7).

By taking into consideration the above mentioned points, I have come to a conclusion that Mr. Y.S.R Jagan will become the CM.

Pranams to Sri.K.S.K.

My daughter in the advance stage of pregnancy i.e., about to deliver within few days; my wife was very anxious to know the sex of the child, also the date of delivery and to know the results through K.P. system; she pursued my daughter repeatedly to tender a number between 1 to 249. But my daughter somehow was reluctant to give the number for the reasons unknown. My wife finally approached me and raised a query on behalf of our daughter.

Query: Date of delivery and sex of the child of my second daughter? And nature of delivery? The number given was 125.

I had taken up the case for analysis on 22-07-2008 at 8-24-44 PM at Nellore, A.P. As per the above number 125, the Lagna was Thula Rasi at 00-00-00. As the query relates to our second daughter, the Lagna of my daughter will be the 7th house from Thula Rasi.

The birth lagna of my daughter is Mesha Rasi at 00-00-00 and the delivery relates to the 2nd issue of my daughter, so the 7th house from Mesha Rasi should be taken for consideration regarding the 2nd issue of my daughter.

VII House: Tula Rasi at 00-00-00

Sign lord Venus, Star lord Mars, Sub lord Mercury

The ruling planets are Mars, Saturn and Jupiter ®

Analysis

For child birth (for second issue) houses 2nd, 7th and 11th should be judged.

As the pregnancy is confirmed and the delivery expected within few days I ignored to find out the significators of the above houses and my aim is to know sex of the child, date of delivery and also the nature of delivery. So I have also ignored to follow the Dasa period, which is in progress at present and I mainly relied on the transit of Moon, because the event will take place within days. So, I have firmly decided to know the date of delivery of the child with the help of the transit of the Moon, Lagna and the Ruling Planets at the time of Judgment.

First I want to know the sex of the child. For this we have to examine the sub lord of the 7th house. As said above, the 7th house falls at Thula Rasi at 00-00-00 and the sub lord is Mercury. So the sub lord Mercury will give the clue about the sex of the child.

Mercury is in the star of Punarvasu and the lord of the constellation is Jupiter, a male planet, in the Dhanur Rasi a male sign. Further, the sub lord Mercury is in Mithuna Rasi a male sign. Moreover, the Jupiter, the governor of children (Puthrakaraka) is also aspecting the Mercury with his 7th aspect from Dhanur Rasi. So, without any doubt or dilemma I boldly declared that my daughter was going to be blessed with a male child.

Now, I want to know the nature of the delivery i.e. whether it will be a normal one or requires Suzerain operation. For this I had examined the 7th house (7th house represents the 2nd issue) and noticed there is no influence of the Mars on the 7th house, only the Saturn is aspecting this house with his 3rd aspect from Simha Rasi. Further, the Jupiter from his own Rasi viz., Dhanur Rasi is aspecting the 1st house i.e., Lagna Bhava, the querent, with his 5th aspect and more particularly aspecting Mercury, the sub lord of the 7th house and also Saturn and Mars with his 9th aspect. So the Mars, the Karaka for surgical instruments and operation is receiving the beneficial aspects from Jupiter and as a result there is no chance for the Suzerain operation and the delivery will be the normal or natural delivery.

Now, I want to find out the date of the delivery of the child. As mentioned earlier, I had relied on the transit of the Moon and Ruling Planets to know the exact date of the delivery of the child, and I had worked out the position of the Ruling Planets on 22-07-2009 at 8-24-44 P.M at Nellore and the position is as follows:

Casting Birth Chart of Child well in advance before delivery.

M R Prasad

3	Moon Rasi Lord	:: Saturn
4	Lagna Lord	:: Saturn

So, the Ruling planets are (1) Mars (2) Saturn (3) Jupiter (R).

Both the Mars and Saturn are very strong and fruitful Ruling Planets by holding two portfolios each ie., Mars as Lagna star lord and Day lord and Saturn as Lagna lord and Moon Rasi lord. So the Mars – Saturn – Jupiter are going to play vital role to give the clue to know the date of delivery (But as the Jupiter is under retrogression, so his role is limited).

In my observation I came to a conclusion that the Saturn is going to play very important role, because in the chart Saturn is in Simha Rasi in the 5th house along with Mars and aspecting the 7th – 11th – 3rd houses with his 3rd – 7th and 10th aspects respectively. Further, Jupiter from the Dhanu Rasi is aspecting the Saturn and Mars with his 9th aspect. As a result the Saturn being an outer planet has taken the Mars and Jupiter under his control and both the Mars and the Jupiter should act as per the directions of the Saturn only.

As mentioned above the Ruling Planets are (1) Mars (2) Saturn (3) Jupiter (R). So, I have found the following combinations for the transit of Moon between (1) Mars, (2) Saturn and (3) Jupiter (R):

So, when the Moon transit in the above combination that will be the date of the delivery of the child and after a

Name of the Rasi	Sign Lord	Star Lord	Sub Lord	From			To
				D	M	S	D	M	S
Vrichika Rasi	Mars	Jupiter	Mars	00	33	00	01	20	00
	Mars	Saturn	Mars	12	06	40	12	53	20
	Mars	Saturn	Jupiter	14	53	20	16	40	20
Makara Rasi	Saturn	Mars	Jupiter	26	06	40	27	53	20
	Saturn	Mars	Saturn	27	53	20	30	00	00
Kumbha Rasi	Saturn	Jupiter	Saturn	21	46	40	23	53	20

brief scrutiny and exercise I have selected the Vrichika Rasi. The sign lord is Mars and in the star of Jupiter Visakha is the correct one, because Moon is in the 11th house in Kumbha Rasi being a fast moving planet owning the 5th house is being aspected by the Saturn. So the Moon will come under the control of Saturn and the Saturn being the sub lord of the 11th house should yield the result of the Moon ie., fulfillment of desire as early as possible.

Considering the above fact and as per the K.P. Ephemeris 2001-2010 on 09-08-2008 at about 4.20 P.M. the Moon will enter into the Vrichika Rasi, the sign lord is Mars, in the star of Jupiter Visakha. So, the said delivery should take place on 09-08-2008 night or 10-08-2008 early hours. Accordingly I advised my daughter to get admitted in the nursing home only on 09-08-2008 i.e., on Saturday evening, even though the doctor had already advised my daughter to get admitted in the nursing home on 07-08-2008 i.e., on Thursday itself.

Subsequently in the scanning it is known that the sex of the child is a male.

Important References

Our beloved Gururji Sri.K.S.K. had predicted not only the date of birth of the child, but also cast the birth chart of the Child well in advance in the KP 6th Reader, Horary Astrology, pages 204-209 under the caption of “When is the Child Birth”. In this connection, it is worthy to note the golden words stated by late Sri. M.P. Shanmugam, a learned K.P. Astrologer, in his book Astrosecrets and Krishnamurti Padhdhati Part-I in pages 275-276 (4th Addition 2003).

Conclusion

On 10-08-2008 at about 02-15 AM I received a phone call from my wife stating that the child birth took place around 02.00 AM, and the delivery was normal. After receipt of the message I was surprised with a sweet shock and wondered how accurate the KP system is in predicting the events and thanked our Gururji Sri. K.S.K. in my heart. While discharging my daughter from the Nursing home, the Doctor has issued a Discharge Certificate in which the time of delivery was mentioned as 02-04 AM on 10-08-2008.

Om Gan Ganapataye Namah

Miracles don't take place that often. But for those who use Krishnamurti Paddhati astrology miracles are part of their life. This case I had also put up in the KP astrology yahoo group with the file name child birth. Last year a couple in distress came to me and asked me about when they would get first issue. Doctors had given them negative answer. I don't know any medical reason but as an astrologer I thought to solve it. The client came with her husband who doesn't seem to believe in astrology much.

Child birth is something which even science using the best of equipments and pathology tests is unable to predict accurately. I have come across such cases where the native or the client was going to adopt a child and somehow as last resort they came up to me. Now they have a baby girl. I haven't prescribed any Shanti or Upayas. I just told them to wait for three months and they would get the result. The lady conceived. I was unable to keep any record of that case. But I kept the record of this case as I had posted it in KP Astrology yahoo group. Last month ie. August 2009 the client's husband came to me and told me about my successful prediction regarding child birth. I became very happy as all the predictions I had given her came true.

Now let us see how I had analyzed the case.

Query : Child Birth?
Horary : 117 [1 – 249]
Date : 15-06-2008
Time : 19:54:21
Place : Bhopal, 77 N 27, 23 E 16
Ayanamsa : NKPA

First of all let us find out whether the client's query is justified or not? If Ascendant sublord and Moon signify the relevant houses for child birth, then the query is justified. Ascendant sublord is Mercury. Mercury is retrograde and in the star of Moon which is placed in the 2nd house and owns 11th house. Moon is in the star of Jupiter which is natural Karaka for child birth although Jupiter is retrograde. Moon's sublord is Venus which signifies 11th and 9th house strongly. Hence the query is justified.

Hints or Rules for Analysis

- 1. Fifth cuspal sublord must not be retro nor in the star of any retro planet.
- 2. Fifth cuspal sublord must signify the relevant houses i.e 2nd, 5th and 11th and also not to be placed in any barren sign.
- 3. Dasha, Bhukti and Antara of the signifiers of 2nd, 5th and 11th are to be favourable for child birth
- 4. Ruling Planets are to be considered to check the fruitful signifiers.

Analysis as per KP

2nd cusp (Libra -16:49:30, Ve -Ra -Ve) Venus is lord of 2nd and 9th house and placed in 9th house. Venus is placed in the star of Mars which is owner of 3rd and 8th, placed in 11th house. Hence Venus is a strong signifier of 11th house which is house of fulfillment of desire. Venus itself is in the sub of Venus. Thus it gives support in child birth i.e. addition in Kutumba.

5th Cusp (Capricorn -18:52:32, Sa- Mo- Me) Mercury is lord of 1st and 10th house; it is also retrograde and placed in Taurus which is a semi fruitful sign. Mercury is in the star of Moon which is placed in 2nd house. Hence

(A) - Planets in Occupant's stars (B) - Occupant of house (C) - Planets in Owner's stars (D) - House Owner

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars

Mercury is a strong significator of 2nd house i.e. house of kutumba, family. Mercury even though being retrograde is in the sub of Ketu which is placed in the 11th house. Hence retrograde motion does not affect the chances of child birth.

11th Cusp (Cancer – 18:52:32, Mo – Me – Ke) Ketu is placed in 11th house in conjunction with Mars which itself is a very strong significator of 11th house by placement. Ketu is in the star of Mercury which is retrograde but signifies 2nd house strongly. 11th house is occupied by Mars, Saturn and Ketu. Sun Venus and Rahu are in the star of Mars. Saturn is in the star of Ketu. Hence Sun, Venus, Rahu and Saturn are the strong significators of 11th house with Mars, Saturn and Ketu.

Hence looking at the significators for 2,5 and 11 houses, we get almost all the planets with the exception of Jupiter but Jupiter is also signifying 9th house strongly which is 5th from 5th house although we will not consider 9th house here in this analysis. But we must consider Jupiter as it is the natural putrakaraka planet and is placed in the star of Venus which as we know is a significator of 11th house, and also Jupiter is in the sub of Ketu which also is a strong significator of 11th house.

Ruling Planets:

Ascendant Sublord	– Mercury
Ascendant Starlord	-- Ketu
Ascendant Signlord	– Jupiter
Moon Sublord	-- Venus
Moon Starlord	-- Jupiter
Moon Signlord	-- Venus
Daylord	-- Sun

DBA Analysis

Running Mahadasha is of Jupiter which is in the star of Venus and sub of Ketu, both strongly signifying child birth as discussed above. As Jupiter is retrograde at that time and would turn direct on 08-09-2008, I told them that the native would conceive only after that period. Bhukti was of Venus which as we know is favourable for progeny in this case. Venus appears twice in the Ruling Planets as Moon's sublord and signlord. Hence this Bhukti which is till November 2010 is fruitful for child birth. Then it was to find out which Antara would be fruitful. There also Jupiter was found twice in the Ruling Planets. It is much stronger than Venus as it is Ascendant signlord and Moon's starlord. Jupiter itself is not a strong significator for childbirth. However, as Jupiter is in the star of Venus and in the sub of Ketu which are significators of childbirth. That Antara therefore would be fruitful for childbirth. 5th cuspal sublord Mercury is placed in Taurus which is female sign. So I predicted that girl will be born next year i.e. between July to September 2009.

Result

On 12th Aug 2009 the client gave birth to a baby girl at 01:30 AM in Bhopal. The girl was born in Ashwini star whose lord is Ketu. Ascendant is Taurus rising whose lord is Venus. Moon sign is Aries whose lord is Mars and day lord according to Hindu Day is also Mars. Look how beautifully every significator is combined here in this case.

My pranams to Lord Ganesha and Guruji.

Auspicious 9 - an appraisal for the new born babies

The Sanatan Hindu dharma has its own assumption about the number 9.
The sages had recognized it as an auspicious number.
That is not just a hypothesis but has its supplementary gesture and logic.
Let's illustrate it.

- 1) Our Astrological base made of 9 planets.
- 2) The Nakshatras are 27 which have the total of 9.
- 3) The Puranas are 18 which have been totaled 9.
- 4) The Reciting mala has 108 pearls which total 9.
- 5) The Prudent Sadhu's creed (Akhada, Maha-mandaleshwar) put before their names is the number of 108 or 1008.
- 6) The Geeta has its 18 adhyayas.
- 7) The Upnishads are 108. And further is a lot of examples on the number 9.
- 8) The sum of the two-digits resulting from nine multiplied by any other single-digit number will equal nine. So $9 \times 3 = 27$, and $2+7=9$.
- 9) Multiply nine by any two, three or four-digit number and the sums of those will also break down to nine. For example: $9 \times 62 = 558$; $5+5+8=18$; $1+8=9$. And many more are unknown.

By this Hindu faithful heart, some has held their confinement on this day moreover at 9 hours 9 minutes and 9 seconds. Logic is not working when religion, faith and perception matter. But it is needful to scrutinize at the born baby's whole body of the fate. The born baby's whole Vimshottari Dasa body's description is as given under. We'll start it with Venus because the babies are born in the Venus Dasa. Albeit by the cause of change of the places of the world's born baby of this moment, the cusp sub lords would be changed definitely. Here in Surat, 2 mothers had given birth of their babies by caesarean.

Rules for Strength of the Chart:

(1) It is necessary for the Lagan lord and its sub lord to be connected to 2,6,10,11 bhavas for name, fame and gain. 1 and 5 should be connected for health only.

(2) The 11th bhava is not good for the Chara Lagna native's health/longevity as the 11th is Badhaka for the Chara Lagnas.

In the above chart, the Chara Thula Lagna's lord Venus is placed in 10th house for name and fame but its star lord Mercury is in the 12th cusp which is not generally so good. The Lagna sub lord Mercury is in 12th but in the star of Moon which is lord of 10th. So we can say the chart is in the middle class of strength.

Points being Scrutinized:

- (1) The Lagna lord Venus is also Maraka by lordship of 2nd house.
- (2) All the planets, except Lagna lord Venus, are influenced by 11th (Badhaka) by any way either planet itself or its star lord or its sub lord.
- (3) The lord of danger 8th – Mars and the lord of ailment 6th- Jupiter aspect entire planets , except Sun and Moon, which are also the lord of Badhaka and occupant of Maraka.

Conclusion:

Here it is not the scene of the blessings of an auspicious 9. The babies will not get the healthy life to live. The other earning of substance will be fulfilled there by the middle level.

We do not find any articles on KP Weather Astrology, some article published in KP & astrology but they are not 100% KP based.

Many times I thought to write on this subject, because we find many articles on various subjects on our daily life routine problem and event. Also most of the articles are not on advanced prediction.

The inner planet weather mapped by astrological positions has an influence on all earthy things and enterprises.

Weather Astrology

Weather has been in existence as long as there has been earth. But during different period we feel change in weather. Main three factor of weather are 1) Temperature 2) The Air movement 3) Moisture.

We don't have weather starting time so we need chart of each period affecting the temperature i.e chart of each period affecting the precipitation of moisture, Air, Temperature.

Now let us go into the details of above three charts:

Temperature Chart:

We cannot consider that a given weather period has a long span of life compared to the life of man. The life of a weather period is short duration. To fix duration of above three weather, we have spring, summer, autumn & winter, each long recognized as a separate, distinct and well defined weather period.

Our first step in weather predicting chart for the moment the sun enter each of the movable signs at the place where the weather is to be considered. Hot or Cold all are depend on Sun's temperatures so each time when Sun enter in Movable signs times chart help us in predicting weather astrology.

The sun is ruler of temperature, sun change polarity four times a year in its influence on the weather. When it enter in the sign Mesha at the commencement Spring. Day light become longer. When sun enters in Karka at the commencement of summer, the day started to shorten. When sun enter in tula at the commencement of night become longer. When sun enter in Makar at the commencement of winter.

The most important is when Sun moveing in to a movable sign A temperature chart is erected and we call it temperature chart. For place, our analysis is based on state's capital. Or district headquarters of town or for any specific town/city.

Air movement Chart

Temperature only is not connected with weather but Air movement also play important role. Because the air movement effect on temperature changes. Not in temperature but also effect on moisture too.

Mercury is Karaka for Wind. like wind, Mer is so changeable more readily than any other planet. every planet has a different significations in each of the defferent signs; and the air is so susceptible of being influenced by slight change, & Mercury so readily changes to the quality of the sign in to which it movers.

Both air movement chart and the moisture chart are subsidiary to the temperature chart of the Sun during the same period. But a new air movement chart is erected when mercury enter a new sign even by direct motion or by retrograde motion. Place of chart which it is desired to forecast. duration of chart it till Mercury enter in new sign only. Generally Mercury change Sign 18 days to 60 days depending how fast or slow movement of Mercury.

Moisture Chart

Moon is Karaka of Moisture. Moon is karaka of liquids of all kinds. the precipitation of moisture such as fog, rain, snow and hail is so dependent upon temperature change the moisture chart must always be considered subsidiary.

For Moisture chart we take for chart of Moon, Sukla Paksha Ekadashi (First Quarter), Poonam, (Full Moon) Krishna Paksha Ekadashi (Third Quarter), and lastly Amas (New Moon). This four chart.

For Moisture chart we erect a chart at the place which we want to predict weather.

How to predict weather chart

We have now three type of chart 1) when Sun enter in Movable sign. 2) When Mer enter in sign 3) four type of Moon chart. Chart base on Sun position we check temperature, Chart base on Mercury position we check Air movement, and lastly Chart base on Moon position we check moisture, Planetary position(by sign and aspect) for all over world remain same but Asc will be change place to place, so we will give more important to Asc and Bhava in above mention chart. Also we have to check all three charts for giving forecast of weather. Without cocktail of these three charts we can't predict correctly. the temperature chart is the most important chart to for temperature but also in regard to indicating the general conditions of weather for three month of period. because temperature is also important in rain and wind too. For example in Air movement chart indicate much wind during the period, but temperature chart not indicate same we can predict Wind storm, but we predict balance season.

One more and important point is before an astrologer can predict successfully what weather is; he must familiar with the normal weather condition at that place during time of year. In short we can't predict snowfall in Ahmedabad or 480 Hot in San Francisco.

Some sign are dry and other sign are wet. Some planet are dry and some are wet, when we found in temperature chart indicate wet and also moisture chart indicate wet, we can predict more them normal wet. Like this we have to analyze weather chart.

The temperature chart not indicate only temperature for all three month but the general tendency of both wind and moisture also. But it does not indicate dates on which there will be change in wind or moisture precipitation. Like this Air movement chart does not indicate temperature or Moisture precipitation. To find out change we take help of Vomshiotry dasa. For Temperature chart we calculate three month dasa, for Air movement chart we calculate dasa for how long Mer stay in sign and for moisture chart we calculate dasa for 7 days.

For those who use KPastro3.1 or 3.5 can change dasa days as bellow:

For temperature chart

Setting > Vomshottari Dasa > Total Duration (in year)> 00.25 > Ok press F5

For Air movement chart

Setting > Vomshottari Dasa > Total Duration (in year)> Mer change sign with no fix days we can fix as below:

Vomshottari dasa is for 120 year. For 1 yeas we enter only 1 but for one month we divide $1/12=0.083333$ this is for one moth now if we want for 7 day we need to divide again by 30 and then multiply by 7= 0.0194444. if we enter 0.0194444 and press F5 we get dasa for 7 days. Like this one can use any days or moth or year dasa .

For those who use Raichur's software and have DASADET.EXE can found dasa for any year, month or days. The 4th house signifies weather in weather chart. 4th house is most important house in weather chart but also three other factor work in weather chart.

4th House : half an wightage goes to 4th house in prediction part. The Sublord of 4th house and its signification play very important role in weather prediction.

1st House: $\frac{1}{4}$ important given to Asc. The Sublord of Asc house and its signification play very important role in weather prediction.

The Planet for which the chart is erected: $\frac{1}{4}$ important given to Sun in temperature chart, Mer in Air movement and Moon in Moisture chart. The Sublord of Sun, Mer and Moon and its signification play very important role in weather prediction.

As in medical astrology we have to give weightage to Rasi and Planet. In next month I will discuss each planet and Rasi in details.

Accurate Predictive Methodology (Nadi Astrology) by Umang Taneja

Book Review
by Tin Win

<http://www.webspawner.com/users/astroclinic1/accuratepredict.html>

1. In this book the signification of planet, its star and sub at all three levels are simultaneously considered to make the accurate prediction as done by Shri Bhatt in his books and his follower Mr. Kanak Bosmia. The comprehensive house grouping for all kinds of events is provided there with rationale. The methods of prediction and timing of the event have been explained by dasa and transit with support of the various practical illustrations for each topic.

2. As shown in the Index, this book also covers a wide range of topics to help the readers capable of handling almost all the events of life. Therefore this book can be practically useful for the KP learners.

3. It is to note that the cuspal sub lord is not considered in this book to check the promise of the matter for some reason, and the signification of the required house grouping by most of the planets is applied for that purpose. The 5th and 9th aspect of Rahu/Ketu, as mentioned there, is not applied in KP. In the chapter of notable horoscopes, Mahatma Gandhi went to England, not to South Africa, to study law. Only after his return from England, he went to South Africa for one-year law work for Indian workers; but he stayed there for 21 years working to secure rights for Indian people.

Calculation of the AstroDatabank Charts

QUESTION

Can u kindly let me know that, is there any short cut method to convert the charts appear in Astro Data bank, to our usual chart system, which shows all Sg/L, St/L, Sb/l etc.

Practically I am not with a sufficient knowledge in making charts for the places with Summer Time and unusual T/Zones, like Northern Hemisphere.

ANSWER

AstroDatabank (ADB) Data

1. The ADB chart details with the name, gender, date of birth, time of birth, place of birth, latitude and longitude and time zone are as given under.

http://www.astro.com/astro-databank/Gandhi%2C_Indira

Name: Gandhi, Indira Gender: F, Birthname Nehru, Indira born on 19 November 1917 at 23:11 (= 11:11 PM)

Place Allahabad, India, 25n27, 81e51 Timezone IST h5e30 (is standard time)

2. If the natal chart (Placidus) option under the chart on the top right hand side is clicked, the Indira Gandhi's chart in sayana (tropical) positions is found, Asc Le 20-05-15, Moon Cp 28-18-10 etc. By subtracting the KP New Ayanamsa of 2003 (KPNA) from those cuspal and planetary positions, the nirayana (sidereal) chart can be obtained, and then star lord and sub lord can be looked at the star and sub table.

3. The KPNA is easily available by the KP New Ayanamsa Calculator at the link - -

<http://www.astrosage.com/kpastrology/>

for instance the KPNA is 22:37:12 for Indira Gandhi's DOB 19 November 1917.

Shortcut Method

4. For the KPAsro (3.1 or 3.0 etc) users who own the ADB 4.0 data SW, a converter program of the ADB chart details into the KPAsro is available to download at this website of the Free KPE-zine – <http://kpastrologer.com>.

5. However, for the ADB chart data, which are now available at the following link, --- http://www.astro.com/astro-databank/Main_Page are to be manually entered into any KP chart making SW as explained below.

SWs with ACS Atlas

6. The SWs equipped with the Astro Communications Services (ACS) atlas usually will show the relevant latitude and longitude and time zone, after manually entering the name, gender, date of birth, time of birth and place of birth. Any other SW will also show the relevant latitude and longitude and time zone, if the place of birth (city) is in the SW's built-in atlas. (For US cities it is necessary to choose the relevant state.) Any slight difference in the latitude and longitude can be adjusted as required or preferred. If there is a doubt, it can be checked with the Google Earth map, if the place under consideration is there.

7. In order to get the accurate positions of cusps and planets, it is better to directly enter the preferred ayanamsa value, for instance the KPNA, before calculation (other than adjusting the cuspal and planetary positions by the difference of ayanamsa value used in calculation and the KPNA value).

Check Points

8. The check point figures for the correctness of the data entry are at the top right hand side of the natal chart (Placidus), i.e.

Time (of birth) 23:11
Universal Time 17:41
Sid. Time 03:01:06

and Ascendant Le 20:05:15 (in sayana) at the bottom left hand side of the chart.

9. If the chart details are correctly entered, the SW is to provide more or less the same Sidereal Time 03:01:06 and Ascendant position Cn 27:28:01 (= Le 20:05:15 minus KPNA 22:37:14).. If the Sidereal Time or Ascendant position is significantly different, it is required to check the data entry and make the necessary correction.

Any SW

10. In the cases where the place of birth (city) is not found by the SW's built-in atlas, whether ACS or any other, the latitude and longitude of the city and time zone are to be entered manually, for example:

http://www.astro.com/astro-databank/Krishnamurti%2C_Jeddu

Name : Krishnamurti, Jeddu Gender: M, born on 12 May 1895 at 00:23 (= 12:23 AM) Place Mandanapalle, India, 13n33, 78e30 Timezone LMT m78e30 (is local mean time)

11. The Time Zone for the Local Mean Time (LMT) can be calculated from the time figures given at the top right hand side of the natal chart (Placidus) i.e.

Time (of birth) 0:23
Universal Time 19:09, 11 May
Sid. Time 15:40:15

TZ = 0:23 (12 May) minus 19:09 (11 May) = 5:14
(OR long. 78.5 multiply by 4 min = 314 min = 5h:14m)

12. Here it is to note that the TZ 5:30 East (5:30 East of GMT, i.e. GMT + 5:30) is shown with minus sign (-) 5:30 in the Western ADB 4.0 SW but in our Eastern practice it is shown with the plus sign (+) 5:30. and the TZ 5h West (5h West of GMT, i.e. GMT – 5h) is shown with plus sign (+) 5:00 in the Western ADB 4.0 SW but in our Eastern practice it is shown with the minus sign (-) 5:00.

13. Another thing to note is that the TZ 5:30 is shown as 5:30 (in hour and minute) in some SWs like Sri Raichur's SW, JHora, Astraura, Smart Horary (KP) Astrology but 5.50 (in full hour and decimal hour) in some SWs like KPAs-tro, AstroSage or MyKundli, KPStarOne. So it should be careful to enter the minute portion of the TZ correctly, depending on the SW used. Here TZ 5:14 East is to be converted to 5.2333h East, if necessary.

Easy and Safe Way

14. For any Time Zone, LMT or TZ East or TZ West or TOB Standard Time or Day Light Saving Time (DST) whatever it may be, the easy and safe way is to enter the "Universal Time" (here GMT) and "TZ GMT" or Zero into the SW. The Universal Time is shown in the second line at the top right hand side of the natal chart (Placidus), in the Indira Gandhi's chart, i.e. 19:09 of 11 May 1895.

15. Another way is to use IST derived from the Universal Time plus 5:30 with TZ 5:30 East or 5.50 East, in our example 19:09 of 11 May 1895 plus 5:30 = IST 0:39 of 12 May 1895.

Some Notes

16. It is to enter the latitude and longitude what is given with East or West, North or South, for instance West longitude for the US cities, South latitude for African cities, South latitude and West longitude for Latin American cities etc.

17. It is to note that the Day Light Saving Time is already adjusted in the chart details, for example:

http://www.astro.com/astro-databank/Blair%2C_Tony

Name : Blair, Tony Gender: M, Birthname Blair, Anthony Charles Lynton born on 6 May 1953 at 06:10 (= 06:10 AM) Place Edinburgh, Scotland, 55n57, 3w13 Timezone GDT h1e (is daylight saving time)

Time (of birth) 6:10, Universal Time 5:10, Sid.Time 19:52:12

Note: The standard TZ is GMT, i.e. h0w but here the TZ is given as h1e because of 1 h adjustment for the DST, which is 1h ahead of the standard time. In the SW TZ, the TZ GMT with DST 1h (as automatically shown by the ACS atlas) and TZ h1e with the Standard Time (which can be entered manually) are the same. Such kind of the correct TZ combination is required to get the correct Sid.Time of the check point.

http://www.astro.com/astro-databank/Bush%2C_George_W

Name: Bush, George W. Gender: M, Birthname Bush, George Walker born on 6 July 1946 at 07:26 (= 07:26 AM) Place New Haven CT, USA, 41n18, 72w55 Timezone EDT h4w (is daylight saving time)

Time (of birth) 7:26, Universal Time 11:26, Sid.Time 1:29:42

Note: The standard TZ is h5w but here the TZ is given as h4w because of 1 h adjustment for the DST. In the SW TZ, the TZ h5w with the DST 1h (as automatically shown by the ACS atlas) and TZ h4e with the Standard Time (which can be entered manually) are the same.

18. In the case of only one TZ countries, if the required city is not found by the SW's built-in atlas, the capital of the country or another well known city can be entered to apply the built-in TZ system and then to adjust the latitude and longitude and the name of city as required, for example:

<http://www.astro.com/astro-databank/Pele>

Name: Pele Gender: M, Birthname do Nascimento, Adson Arantes born on 21 October 1940 at 03:00 (= 03:00 AM) Place Três Corações, Brazil, 21s42, 45w16 Timezone BZT h3w (is standard time)

If Três Corações is not found, enter Brasilia or Rio de Janeiro and then make an adjustment for 21s42, 45w16 and Três Corações.

1st November, 2009, Ahmedabad – Gujarat – India

This case belongs to one of my acquaintance who was worried about his mother's health. I got a call from him on March 31, 2008 who indicated that his mother was not well and I need to look at the prospects for her well-being.

Out of curiosity, I casted a time chart immediately to find what the trouble was with his mother, her recovery issue and survival etc.

The time chart prepared on March 31, 2008 at 14-49-19 Hrs at Bangalore. The chart is rotated to 4th house to represent his mother and the rotated chart is given below.

Coordinates of judgment

Lagna in query chart for disease represents the native and 6th house represents the disease. The star lord of the 6th cuspal sub-lord represents the body part where the disease infects. 5th and 11th cusps indicate the possibility of cure. In case, if the 6th house has linkage with the 8th house, the disease could be a chronic one and difficult to get cured. The linkage to the 12th house makes a case for hospitalization.

If the 6th cuspal sub-lord indicating disease links itself with the badhaka and maraca houses, the chances of cure seem difficult and the patient may succumb to the disease.

It may be noted that the analysis of cusps of various houses along with the planetary significations represent the fixed promises of the chart but the results are dispensed by the suitable dasha-bhukti in consonance with the transits.

The Query

In the rotated chart, Moon is placed in 3rd house indicating that the stage was already set for the patient (mother) to be moved out of house to the hospital and tallied with the state of affairs as indicated by her son on phone to me. With the above, I took the chart OK to proceed for further analysis.

Analysis of the chart

• Look at the promise indicated by the lagna.

Lagna would indicate the state of the patient. Mercury is the lagna sub-lord and is also the sub-lord of the 3-7-9th cusps. Mercury being the dual natured planet enabling the requisite relatives such as the patient (lagna) and husband (7th) deliberating if the patient was to be moved to the hospital or be kept at home etc.

Lagna sub-lord Mercury falls in the star of Jupiter placed in 3rd house making the movement of the patient out of the house as an issue in active discussions. The sub-lord of Mercury is Rahu placed in 4th house ultimately decides her to be kept at home till the emergency arises. Since, Mercury is the strong lord of the 12th house, her admission to the hospital was inevitable at some point of time.

• Look at the 6th cusp

6th house/cusp defines the disease.

6th cuspal sub-lord is Mars and having been placed in 8th house indicate the disease as inflammatory in nature (Mars) and chronic and difficult to be cured (8th house). Mars falls in the star of Rahu placed in 4th house gives the idea of disease located in chest area. Rahu is malignant in nature (carrying poison), thus it was inferred that there could be a malignant problem in the breast of the patient, typically some sort of cancerous in nature.

Mars is the strong lord of 2nd and 7th house placed in 8th house, thus signifying 8-2-7th houses. Mars in the star of Rahu placed in 4th house signify 4th house at the stellar level. Thus, the Mars signifies 4-8-2-7th houses in all.

Note that all the houses are very bad houses signifying maraca (2-7) houses possibly threatening the longevity of the patient (8th house).

• Look to the fortuna

Fortuna falls in the 7th house (maraca house) and thus shows the fortune of the patient in liberation from the mortal coils. Fortuna is placed in star and sub of Moon placed in 3rd house as 10th lord (denying cure represented by 11th house).

- Look at the 5-11th cusp for the cure and overall fructification.

Incidentally, Saturn is the sub-lord of the 5-11th cusps. Saturn falls in the star of Ketu placed in the 10th house (denying cure) and its sub-lord Jupiter (6th lord) placed in 3rd house indicates movement out of house to hospital. Thus, the cure is denied and the patient may likely collapse in the hospital because of no cure scenario.

- Look at the dasha breakup.

Sun-Saturn dasha was running till Oct 17, 2008.

Sun is the badhaka lord of the chart. Retrogression of the Saturn at the outset alarms us of no possibility of cure. Saturn is already analyzed. It was quickly inferred that the patient might not survive beyond Sun-Saturn dasha.

No analysis was done further to it.

Conclusion

It was communicated to my friend that the disease is expected to be located in breasts perhaps of cancer nature in advanced stage. The indication for the threat of life was also mildly indicated.

Later, I lost contact for some time and I was reminded of the demise of the patient in the hospital towards the end of May-2008.

Conclusion

Prof. Krishnamurthy has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

Medical Astrology - Part 9 - Cervical Spondylosis

During the KP Astrologers Forum's fortnightly meeting conducted on 11-October-2009, Charts on Medical Astrology were taken up. Six Natal Charts regarding Cervical Spondylosis were discussed in detail.

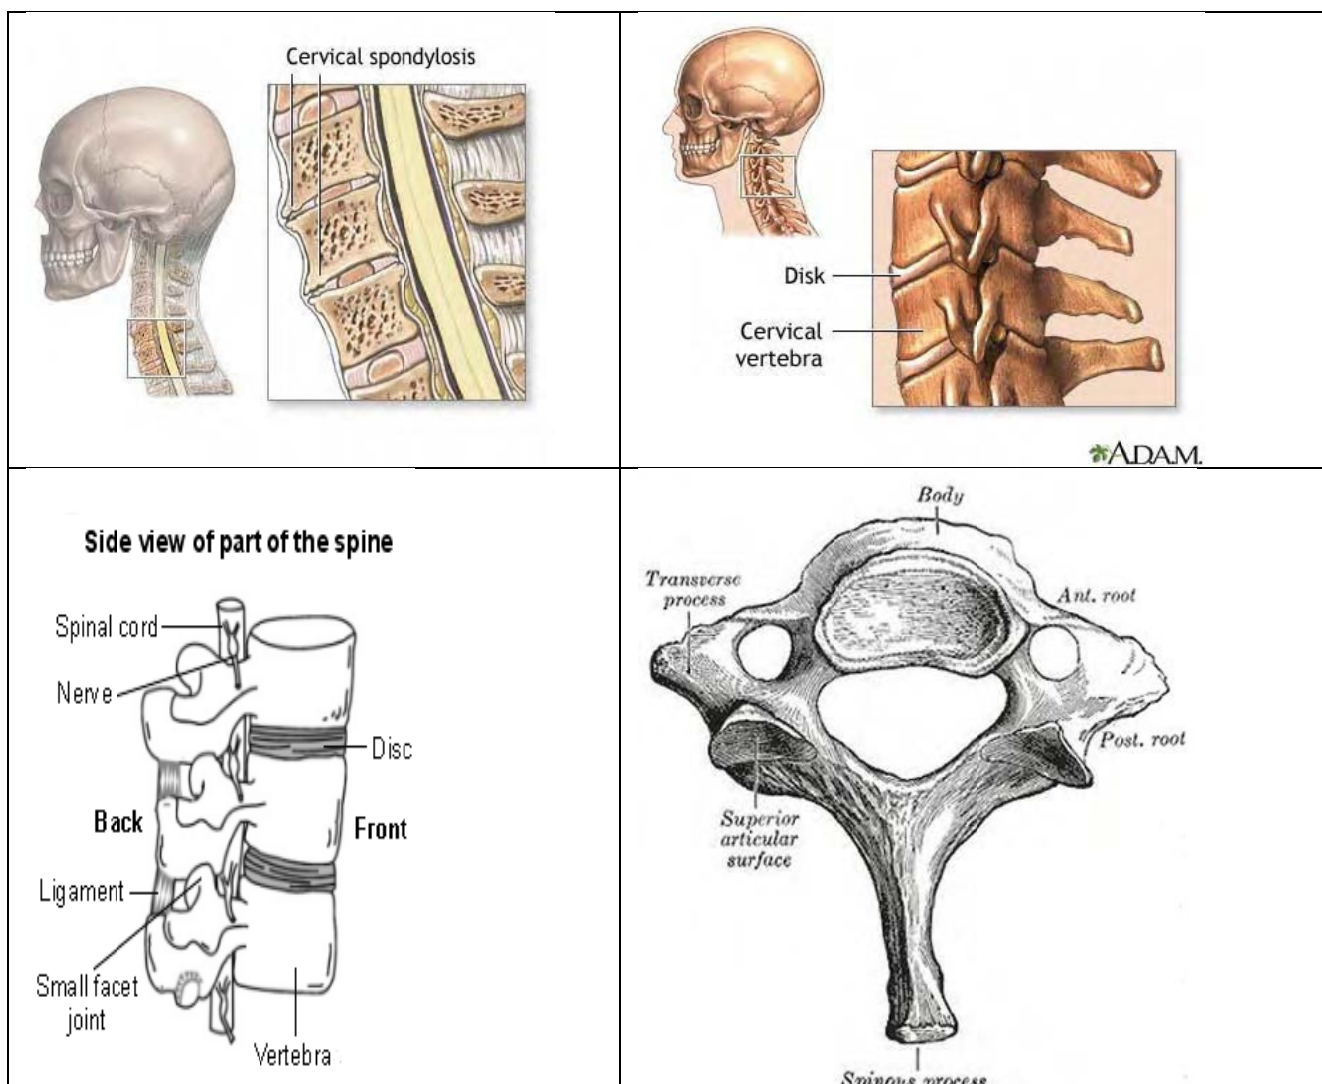

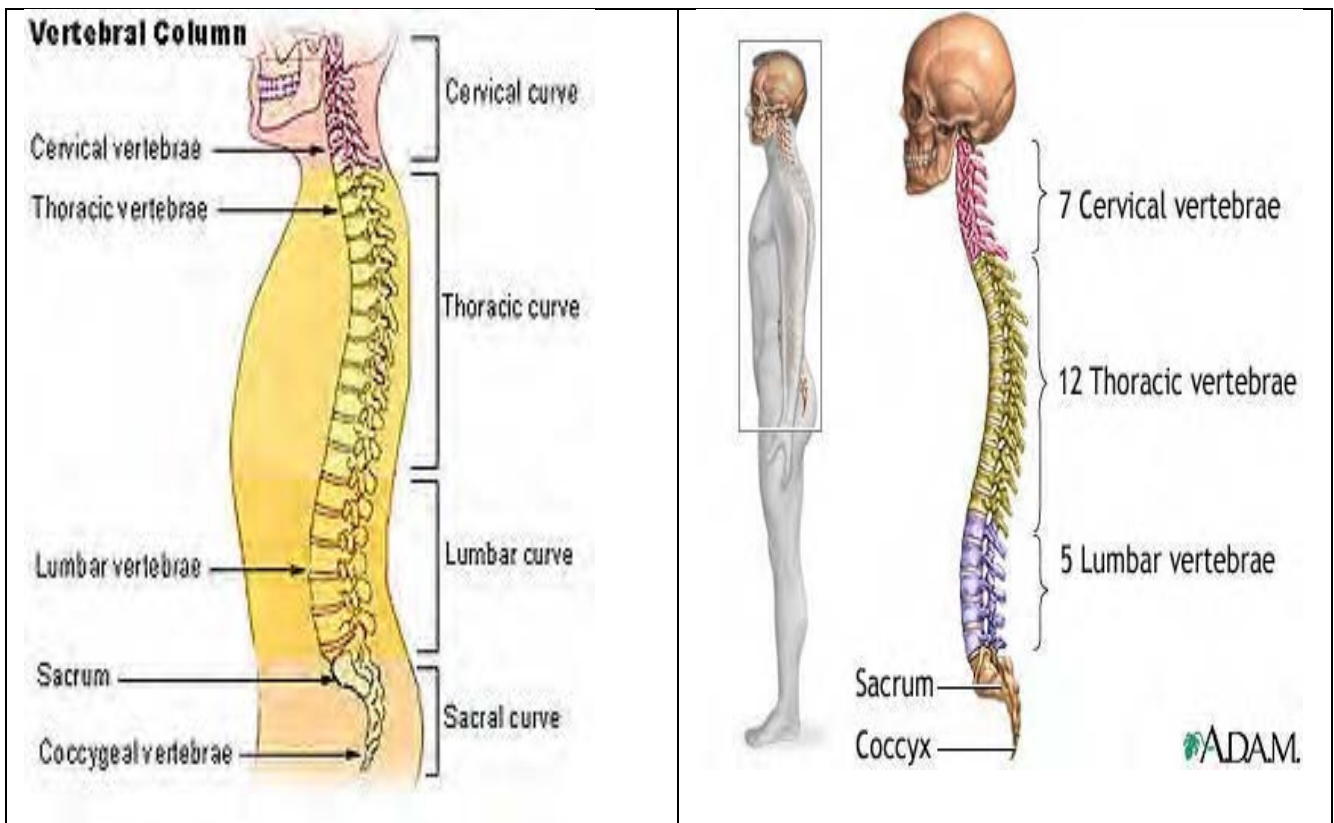

Cervical Spondylosis can lead to chronic pain and stiffness in the neck that may also lead numbness of the upper extremities. Well the most common symptoms with which these patients approach the doctor are:

- 1- Pain and stiffness in the neck.
- 2-The pain and stiffness could be confined to the neck alone
- 3-There could be radiation of the pain from the neck to the right hand
- 4-There could be radiation of the pain from the neck to the left hand
- 5-There could be radiation of the pain from the neck to the back of the head
- 6-There could be giddiness associated with pain and stiffness
- 7-There could be only pain in the upper arm
- 8-There could be numbness in the tips of the fingers
- 9-These above symptoms could all suggest that you could be suffering from a condition known as -

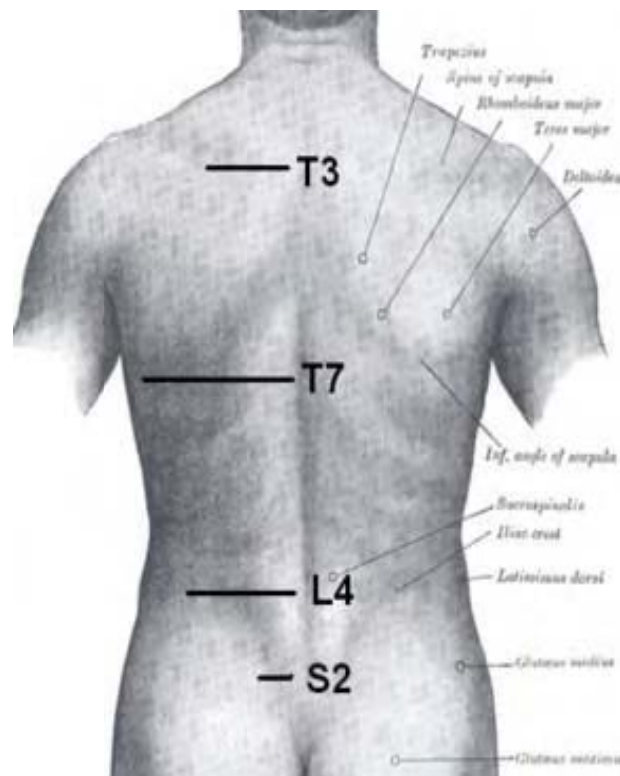

Cervical Spondylosis

Neck stiffness and pain may be worse with upright activities.

Numbness and weakness may appear in the arms, hands, and fingers, and weakness in the legs.
 May feel or hear grinding or popping in the neck when you move.
 Muscle spasms or headaches.
 May feel irritable and fatigue, disturb sleep and impair your ability to work.

Cervical vertebrae

These seven (7) bones are generally small and delicate. Their spinous processes are short (with the exception of C2 and C7, which have palpable spinous processes). Numbered top-to-bottom from C1-C7, atlas (C1) and axis (C2), are the vertebrae that allow the neck and head so much movement. For the most part, the atlanto-occipital joint allows the skull to move up and down, while the atlanto-axial joint allows the upper neck to twist left and right. The axis also sits upon the first intervertebral disk of the spinal column.

Thoracic vertebrae

The twelve (12) thoracic bones and their transverse processes have surfaces that articulate with the ribs. Some rotation can occur between the thoracic vertebrae, but their connection with the rib cage prevents much flexion or other excursion. They may also be known as 'dorsal vertebrae', in the human context.

Bodies are roughly heart-shaped and are about as wide antero-posteriorly as they are in the transverse dimension. Vertebral foramina are roughly circular in shape.

Lumbar vertebrae

These five (5) vertebrae are very robust in construction, as they must support more weight than other vertebrae. They allow significant flexion and extension, moderate lateral flexion (sidebending), and a small degree of rotation. The discs between these vertebrae create a lumbar lordosis (curvature that is concave posteriorly) in the human spine.

Sacral vertebrae

There are five (5) vertebrae (S1-S5) and they are fused in maturity, with no intervertebral discs.

Coccygeal vertebrae

There are usually four (4) and rarely 3-5 vertebrae (Co1-Co5), with no intervertebral discs. Many animals have a greater number of "tail vertebrae" and, in animals, they are more commonly known as "caudal vertebrae." Pain at the coccyx (tailbone) is known as occydynia.

In Medical astrology Natural Zodiac (Kalapursha), taken Cervical Vertebrae as a whole these Vertebrae are ruled by the Taurus sign which rules the throat and neck. Also planets and affliction in the opposite signs, Scorpio and Libra tend to affect the Cervical Vertebrae. The Taurus and Scorpio signs, being opposite and supplemental to each other, both strongly influence the throat and sex organs. (HL Cornell: Encyclopaedia of Medical Astrology pp 906-7) The 2nd house Taurus represents throat & neck where the Seven Cervical Vertebrae are existing (C1-C7) which are representing Spondylosis. Saturn is Karaka for bones & Mercury represents nervous system. Discs are soft jelly made lubricant organs which makes vertebrae to be flexible for movement any direction. Moon and Venus are karakas for these Disc formation and maintenance.

Lumbar Spondylosis is 6th house Virgo & Libra of kidney region represents Lumbar and Abdomen region where the five Lumbar Vertebrae are existing (L1-L5) which are representing Lumbar Spondylosis.

Saturn is Karaka for bones, Taurus/Vir / Lib & 2nd/6th/7th houses from Lagna if afflicted and connected to evil houses 6-disease, 8-chronic, 12-hospitalisation would lead to Cervical Spondylosis problems.

If marriages are really made in heaven, is love affair should be a product of planet earth? Yes, it appears to be so.

The parents of Miss Ragini Sushama were actively pursuing the marriage proposals of her with various prospective bridegrooms one after the other for the last two years, but the marriage was not settled at all. Some of the credentials placed before her was rejected by her promptly also.

Later she opened up her mind to her parents saying that she was in love with someone.

The subject is marriage, which could be inferred from 7th house (legal bondage) from lagna.

Additional houses to be considered are 2 (addition of a family member) and 11 (permanant tie of partnership in life). Since the marriage issue is involved with romance and love, 5th house are required to be considered as per some astrologers.

The sub lord of the 7th cusp will determine and decide the result.

The chart of the native is appended, duly erected as per KP principles for the native born in Hyderabad Deccan (Longitude: 78-27-0 East Latitude: 17-26-0 North) on: 10-03-1978, Friday at 10-32 am.)

Taurus is rising, and the 7th cusp falls in Scorpio at 6 deg. 49 min in mars sign, Saturn star and Mercury sub. 5th cusp falls in Leo at 26 deg. 49 min in Leo in Sun sign, Sun star and Sun sub.

There are no occupants of 7th house. Rahu is the occupant of 5th cusp in cusp in Virgo at 13 deg. 29 min in Mercury sign, Moon star and Rahu sub.

7th bhava lord Mars is posited in Gemini.

Rahu signifies Mercury, Venus and Moon since is aspected from Pisces by them and Mars from Gemini. So Rahu=Mercury, Venus, Moon, Mars. Ketu is posited in Pisces.

Out of which, Mars is lord of 7th bhava.

Hence Rahu being its position in 5th cusp and under aspect from these above planets, has become strong significator to give result of 2, 7 and 5 and 11th houses involving all houses of marriage and romance.

Rahu signifies a person from outside community and indeed the girl fell in love with a person from other community.

Native is running Ketu dasha, Saturn bhukti and Saturn antara upto 3rd week of Nov 2009.

Ketu will give result of Mercury, Venus and Moon, besides Jupiter (since posited in Pisces). Jupiter is posited in 7th Bhava lord Mars star (7). Hence the dasha lord agrees for marriage. Bhukti and Antara lord Saturn is posited in 4th cusp in Ketu star, while Ketu is occupant of 11th cusp.

The marriage is slated to be solemnized during 3rd week of November 2009. Events like the one mentioned above, cannot be easily diagnosed by normal method of Astrology. Unless the issue of sub lord is brought to notice of the Astrologer, probably one cannot find out the truth in these cases.

Case History

The coconut plucker of my gardens did not arrive at time for the harvesting last March, and suddenly he came on 14 March 2009 for excuse on not attending at the due date and informed me that his wife was badly sick and wanted to analyze her Kendra.

According to him his wife had been experienced with some Oedema and pain in lower abdominal and joints since the mid of 2008. In the early days of Feb. 2009 she had swelling in the face and had more abdominal pain.

She had been admitted to hospital on the 8th Feb, 2009, after consultation with a physician. There she has been undergone a Scan test of the Kidney and have transfused some blood. The patient has been discharged from the hospital with some medical advice and drugs.

Natal Chart Analysis

DOB - 29.09.1952

TOB - 7.00.30 am

POB - Veyangoda- Western Province-Sri Lanka 80.E 03 / 07 N 09

As it was for a sickness, I had checked the chart as per KP Rule for sickness

On the date of her first visit to the physician for Oedema, ie 15.03.2008, it was running Sa - Ke - Ke - Me as DBAS.

Dasa lord Sa+ is l/o 5,6 (sickness), in 12 (hospitalization). No planet is in the star of Sa, which is the sub lord for 1, 7 (Badhaka) cusps and is in the star and sub of Ma, which is l/o 3, 8 (danger), in 3.

Bhukti and Antra lord Ke+ is in 11, the house of Mo in 4, l/o 11, and Mo also aspects Ke. Ke is in the star of Me in 12 (hospitalization), l/o 1, 10, and in the sub of Ra in 5, sign lord Sa as discussed above.

Sookshma lord Me is in 12, l/o 1, 10, in the star of Mo in 4, l/o 11 and in the sub of Sa in 12, l/o 5,6.

Dasa lord Sa is also the Ascendant sub lord and Sa indicates sickness by signifying houses 6 & 1 as mentioned in the Astrosecrets and KP Part I page 153 by Sri M.P. Shanmugam.

In checking the disease, the 6th CSL Ve+ is l/o 2, 9, in 2 by closed orb, in the star and sub of Ra in 5, whose sign lord Sa is in 12, l/o 5, 6. No planet is in the star of Ve which is the sub lord of 2, 6 cusps. Further no planets is in the star of Sa which is the sub lord of 1, 7 (Badhaka) cusps. The Sa connection to 6th cusp is a sign of chronic disease.

As the native had an Oedema in the lower part of abdomen, it looks like a typical case of kidney troubles as the 6th cusp sub lord happens to be Venus and connected to the kidney rulers Libra and house 7. Venus, also a ruler of kidney, is in the Star of Swathy, which governs kidneys, urethra and bladder.. Venus is deposited in Libra, another kidney ruler. (Medical Astrology for All by K.Subramaniam; Dictionary of Significators in Astrology by Umang Taneja)

In addition 7th bhava, Maraka & Bdhakasthana for Virgo, is in the sign of Pisces, which is a watery sign responsible for Urinary diseases. Ju, the lord of this 7th cusp is also placed in the same bhava with a strong signification for such kind of diseases. By the placement of Ju in Aries owned by Mars, there is a connection of Mars with the kidney ruler 7th bhava and consequently as per medical astrology there is a tendency of inflammation of the kidney.

As the condition of the native looked to be dangerous, the longevity of the native was checked as per KP House Grouping: Part - I, by Shri Tin Win Ji, in KPE-zine. The Ascendant sub lord Sa signifies 1,5,3 along 6,8,12, Badhaka, indicating the middle life up to 66 years. The native was already at the age of 56 with unfavourable prospect.

Hence I told the husband of the native that she was suffering from a serious sickness of kidney and it would be a danger to her life and I advised him to seek further medical treatment for his wife.

Later on I came to know that she was under local treatments and taking remedial supports through some Poojas, Yantra and Mantra, instead of proper medical treatment.

End of the Case

The native was seriously ill in July 2009, and she was again admitted to hospital on 20th July 2009. The medical investigations had revealed that there was an inflammation of kidneys and it was beyond redemption.

Panchathantra says, "These five are fixed for every man, before he leaves the womb - His length of days, his fate, his wealth, his learning and his Tomb". As allotted by Karma, she passed away at 10 AM on the 05th of Aug. 2009. The cause of death is "Chronic Renal Failure complicated by cardiac failure" as per the verdict.

Significators of Death

At the time of exhalation of her last breath, the DBAS was Sa-Ve -Ve-Sa. Among the significators of death inflicting houses 2, 7, 12, Ve is found to be the most powerful planet for house 2 (Maraka) by being the sub lord of cusp 2 without any planet in its star, and Sa for house 7 (Maraka & Badhaka) and 12 (Moksha) houses by being the sub lord of cusp 2 and placement in house 12 respectively without any planet in its star. This cuspal sub lord rule or Golden Rule is working in this case of death up to the 6th level dasa periods as given under.

Sa-Ve-Ve-Sa-Sa-Ve (from - 00.40.18 Hrs to 20.34.24 Hrs on 2009.08.05)

At the time of death (05-08-2009; 10 AM), the transit Ascendant was back to the natal Ascendant. Dasa and Sookshma lord. Sa was transiting in the star of Bhukti and Antra lord Ve, and Ve in the star of Ra, which is agent of Sa and in the sub of Sa, showing how the transit agrees with the dasa.

I bow my head to Maha Guru Prof. K. S. Krishnamurti for his great invention of the accurate prediction method of KP.

SUN

By nature Sun is 'hot', in relation to Temperature chart if Sun gives hot weather.

We cannot predict from Temperature chart only; we have to also consider Air-movement chart. During this period when Mer enters in new sign to present sign, we have to mix results of both the Temperature and Air- movement charts. Additionally, we have to consider Moisture chart too. Sun is a Dry planet, its influence is to bring dry weather and thus prevent rain.

MOON

In the relation to Temperature chart, Moon is 'Cool'. It does not give excessive cold like Saturn, but temperatures are chilly. Where rain is concerned, Moon is the wettest of all planets.

MERCURY

Mercury's influence is 'Cold'; Mercury is the chief ruler over winds. Mercury is inclined towards dry weather; if it becomes a CSL of 4th cusp, tends to prevent rain. When the charts indicate 'wet and violent', Mercury adds the wind element to storm, without moderating in any degree the amount of rainfall.

VENUS

Venus has a moderating influence. If the previous weather was hot, Venus tends to cool it, if the previous weather was cold, Venus tends to warm things up. In Weather Astrology, we can consider Venus as a violent planet. Commonly Venus indicates mild and pleasant temperatures.

Venus's influences on wind is similar, Venus encourages mild movement of the atmosphere, but discourages wild movement and storms. In respect of rain, next to the Moon, Venus is consistently the wettest planet, Saturn may give floods or drought but Venus consistently gives beneficial rains.

MARS

Mars is 'Hot' planet and tends more towards hot weather than any other planet. When Mars becomes 4th CSI, generally brings warm weather. However, if Mars a member of violent and destructive combinations in the Temperature chart, there is likely to be extremely hot days followed by a sudden fall to unusually low temperatures. In relation to wind, Mars indicates some movement. Mars is not a windy planet, but assists action. Mars has a dry influence. He may in a Moisture chart release rain.

JUPITER

In relation to temperature, Jupiter is Warm. He is not so hot as Mars, and not quite as heating as the Sun. His is pleasantly Warmth, and this Warming influence is consistent.

Where Wind is concerned, he tilts towards pleasant breezes, Jup not a still planet like the Sun but Jup is not violent. Because his influence is so powerful, his own influence is toward mild breezes.

Where moisture is concerned, Jupiter tends to dryness. he is neither so dry as Mars nor the Sun, but he tends to drive away dark clouds, and to bring fine, clear, warm weather of the kind that makes us being out of doors agreeable. Even in a rather wet Moisture Chart, where some rain is not shown, during this period it will be pleasant and joyful. But under such a Moisture Chart if, instead of Jupiter, Saturn is the main planet, the days on which it does not rain, will be dull and disagreeable.

SATURN

Saturn is the storm planet. Where temperature is concerned his influence is toward cold. Sat is the planet which brings terrible 'freezes'. However, in summer, if other indications point to a drought and extreme heat, his influence when prominent, will not then reduce the temperature, but will increase the severe heat to a destructive point. in winter. Saturn has a similar extreme influence on the wind. He is a still planet, tending normally toward cold, damp weather without breezes. But in a chart showing storm, or showing excessive wind, his importance in it tends to cause the winds to reach destructive violence. More than any other planet, he signifies storm and destruction.

Floods are usually due to the prominence of Saturn in the weather charts. Sat is a wet planet. The blizzards in winter in which cold and driving snow do so much damage are directly under his influence. But in a real drought period, do not look for Saturn by position in the Moisture Chart, while normally wet, it is best to consider him the planet most favoring destructive and disagreeable weather, whes, whatever kind the charts as a whole and the seasons indicate. Because of his chilling influence, hailstorms are chiefly under his dominion.

ARIES

The sign Aries in its influence on temperature is hot. Scorpio, the other Mars sign, gives extreme weather conditions which usually are hot but which may tend to extreme cold. The other hot sign is Leo. These two signs, in so far as the temperature chart and temperature influences are concerned are the signs of high temperatures.

Because Mars and Aries are both so restless and active we need not be surprised that this movable sign gives some wind. We may consider it only fairly windy, however, in comparison with Gemini, Virgo, Libra and Capricorn, which are windier, and in comparison with those signs which are calm.

Of all the zodiacal signs Aries and Leo are the most dry. Aries is prominent in a chart that shows much rain, when the Moon is become a CSL of fourth or the first in Aries, it brings violence along with the rain. But when it is prominent in a dry chart in summer it brings dry, hot winds which tend to desiccate the vegetation and scorch the leaves of growing crops.

TAURUS

In its influence upon temperature Taurus, like its ruling planet Venus, has a moderating influence. If the preceding weather has been unusually cold, the influence of Taurus is to warm things up. But if the preceding weather has been extremely hot, the influence of Taurus is to bring cooler temperatures. Its general influence is toward those temperatures which are best for growing crops, during the times crops are in the field, and toward those temperatures which favor domestic stock at other times of the year. more than any other sign, Taurus is the farmer's friend.

Taurus is a fixed sign, the most fixed of all the signs. This stabilizing influence marks its effect in an Air Movement Chart. More than any other sign, Taurus tends to calm weather in which not a breath of air stirs. Therefore, Taurus is main sign in an Air Movement Chart, it tends to stop winds. Just as its opposite sign, Scorpio tends to produce extreme weather conditions, so Taurus tends to produce moderate weather and a still atmosphere.

Taurus tends toward wet weather. But this weather is not of the nature indicated by Capricorn, for example, in which cold rains delay the planting and growing of crops. The typically Taurus weather gives what the farmer calls growing rains. They are not floods, but of generous quantity that benefit crops. Steady rains. For a day or two, just enough falling that it has time to soak into the ground, and does not run off so quickly as the more copious downpours of Cancer.

GEMINI

Gemini is a cold and drafty sign. Its influence in the temperature Chart may be considered as favoring cold weather. However, it may also be considered to favour rapid changes and variable temperatures. It does not give extreme cold like Capricorn and Aquarius, but tends to real cold rather than the cool weather of Pisces. But in addition to the cold, when it has influence, look for fluctuations in temperature.

No other sign is as windy as Gemini, although Virgo makes it close to it. Libra is windy, but not as windy as Gemini and Virgo. In so far as this sign has influence in the season's, Temperature chart and Air Movement chart, you may expect lively winds without (surcease????). In weather charts which indicate storm, it shows that wind will be an addition.

Gemini is bone dry, even though cold. It does not favor rain, and even tends to blow fog away.

KP - Weather Astrology

Planets and Signs on Weather - Part 2

Kanak Bosmia

Even if the rest of a weather chart shows rain, does it play any part with precipitation. Rather it indicates that it will be a driving rain, or rain which is part of a wind storm.

CANCER

Cancer is also a cold sign, but not drafty. Nor is the cold as intense as that given by Capricorn and Aquarius. It is colder than Pisces, however, and the coldness frequently is accompanied by rain in summer and snow in winter. In so far as it has influence on the Temperature Chart it tends to give low temperatures.

Although Cancer is ruled by the Moon, which tends to restlessness and breezes, its influence is toward silence. It is the only one of the movable signs having such an influence, as Aries gives some wind, Libra is windy, and Capricorn gives wind and storm. The silence is not so evident as that of Taurus and Leo, but enough so that it can be considered as a sign tending toward calm weather.

Of all the signs, Cancer is the wettest, although Scorpio, because of its extreme tendencies may, at times, give more violence to the downpours. Cancer, in its effect upon the Moisture Chart, and to the extent its influence becomes dominant, tends to steady and huge rains. It does not bring the cloudbursts, nor the sudden squalls; neither does it bring drizzles, nor just a few rainy hours. When it has power, it brings the kind of weather when it rains and rains some more, the water coming down in full force for several days at a time.

LEO

We all know Leo is hot sign. Dry and hot. Under its temperature control often not a breath of air stirs. The rays of the Sun bear down with a heavy hand, and the land swelters. Even in winter time, in so far as this sign has dominance of the Temperature Chart, warm weather may be expected; those bright, sunshine days that tend to melt the snow and drive the snow clouds from the sky.

Next to Taurus it is the stillest sign of all. In so far as it has power to do so it stifles wind. Thus it is a fine influence in winter, warming the atmosphere and quieting the breezes. But in spring it may, when it is the dominant influence in the Temperature Chart, bring such fine warm days that the buds and blossoms of fruit may open prematurely, and the sap start running; to be followed, Aries tending to dry the earth. Uniformly, its importance in a Moisture Chart tends to delay rain and to prevent cloudy weather. Bright, clear, sunshiny days are typical of its influence. Yet it does have an influence when related with storms. Next to Aquarius it is the most electrical sign. When, as a result, there is a storm and the planets indicating it are in Leo, or the wet conditions are so evident as to bring rain in spite of Leo's importance in the chart, lightning and other violence may be expected.

VIRGO

Virgo, while not as cold as Capricorn and Aquarius, is yet a cold sign. And the Winds it Causes are cold winds. In so far as it has influence over the temperatures, either in winter or summer, it tends to cold, dry, windy weather. is typical.

Its influence on the Air Movement Chart is regularly in the direction of wind. These winds are changeable, both w.r.t force and direction; but not so changeable as those of Gemini; for under Gemini it may blow a gale from one direction, and quickly change around and blow a gale from exactly the opposite direction. Cutting winds, such as to penetrate clothing and chill one to the bone, are quite characteristic.

It is also regularly dry. It tends to discourage wind and fog; but when the wet influences are strong enough to override this tendency, it adds wind to the storm.

LIBRA

Libra cannot be classified as cold, in the same sense that Capricorn and Aquarius, or even Virgo and Cancer, are cold. It is more correct to say that its influence is cool; a milder influence than those mentioned, but in the direction of lower temperatures rather than heat.

That it is an airy sign, and a movable sign, is fully natural out by its influence in producing wind. It does not just produce breezes, but those stronger air currents which are commonly called wind. In this respect it is not so evident in its influence as Gemini and Virgo, but nevertheless it contributes clearly to the wind tendencies in any chart in which it is unusually prominent. Even though it is a Venus sign, it contributes to, rather than detracts from, the wind tendency of a storm chart, and may be one element in a tornado or hurricane. When the chart is not otherwise violent, the wind it brings is cool and refreshing, and not cutting and disagreeable like Virgo wind.

On moisture it has a drying influence. Uniformly, in the Moisture chart its influence should be read, in so far as it is main, as favoring dry weather. It tends to drive the clouds from the sky and to give clear sunshiny days which, except for considerable wind, are enjoyable and favorable for outdoor work.

SCORPIO

Of this sign it may be said that it, more than any other, tends to extremes. Being very constructive or very destructive. In so far as Scorpio has dominion in a weather chart, there is either plain cold or extreme heat. Its influence seems never to be toward moderate temperature.

In regard to its influence over the Air Movement Chart, however, its authority, if the chart as a whole shows violence, is always to increase the violence shown. If the chart show wind, Scorpio inclines the wind to be destructive in force. If the chart does not show wind, but heat, it gives still, airless days, in which the moisture and oppressiveness carrying into the night, making sleep difficult or impossible. Its power is often felt in storm charts which give rise to winds which reach the proportions of tornadoes and hurricanes.

Scorpio is a wet sign, but not one which will break a drought. In weather charts which otherwise indicate dry weather, a dominant Scorpio merely makes the lack of rain continue and the dryness more extreme. But in a rain chart, or a storm chart showing rain, its influence is toward extreme rainfall. Thus it frequently is a noticeable influence in the cloudbursts and in the terrific downpours that sometimes come with the more violent storms.

SAGITTARIUS

Sagittarius, in its influence over temperature, is not hot like Aries and Leo, but is decidedly warm. In so far as it is an important factor in the Temperature Chart the weather to be expected is bright, clear, sunshiny and warm. It favors neither clouds nor fog, but tends to make visibility very good.

The wind it brings is of moderate force and has an invigorating quality. Although giving some air movement, it neither favors nor discourages storm winds to any appreciable extent.

It is a dry sign, and tends to dissipate clouds and prevent rain. To sum its general and consistent control up, it tends to fine, pleasant weather, such as favours outdoor work and outdoor sports.

CAPRICORN

This is the sign of storms, of extremes, of extreme cold, and of destructive floods and droughts. Its influence commonly is toward low temperatures and in winter to temperatures so low as to be destructive of life. But in a period of excessive summer heat, do not look for Capricorn to make it reasonable. Instead, it will make the heat even more disagreeable.

It is the sign which, more than any other brings blizzards. It increases the wind force when dominant in an Air Movement Chart. When the temperature drops to below zero, and the wind rises to a gale, driving sleet and snow before it, is typical Capricorn weather. And, at any time of year, when storm is indicated of any kind in a chart, such influences as it has are toward increasing the destructiveness.

It is the detriment of the Moon, and is not only a wet sign, but tends toward floods and detriments of the Moon, and is not only a wet sign, but tends toward floods and destructive snowstorms and hailstorms. In a drought period, however, it cannot be counted on to bring rain. It just tends to increase the drought. And in so far as it is dominated on to brings rain. It just tends to increase the drought. And in so far as it is dominant it brings disagreeable conditions, such as dark, damp, cold days, and cold drenching rains when rains are not needed. 'Unseasonable' weather of all kinds comes under its rule.

KP - Weather Astrology Planets and Signs on Weather - Part 2

Kanak Bosmia

AQUARIUS

Next to Capricorn this is the coldest sign, and a drop of temperature may constantly be expected under its influence. Dry, crisp, cold weather, such as often occurs in February is typical of its influence. Only when other influences are violent does it participate in storm, but when such conditions exist, it tends to increase the fury of a blizzard.

Although it is a fixed sign, it tends to some movement of the air. Moderate breezes are characteristic of it, except when the chart is a violent one otherwise in which case, as mentioned, it makes for excessive cold and driving wind that drifts the snow in blinding clouds.

It consistently favors dry weather, but when the other parts of the Moisture Chart and Temperature Chart indicate rain, it adds to them the electrical element. Of all the signs, it tends most to give lightning. Whenever, therefore, in a chart for a region where lightning occurs, this sign is important in a rain chart, look for electrical pyrotechnics.

PISCES

Pisces is not so evident in its influence as to be called cold, but is rather cool. Its influence in the Temperature Chart is consistently toward somewhat lower temperatures, but not of an extreme nature. In influence in general, it is not violent, but mild.

Where the Air Movement Chart is concerned, it tends toward calm weather. In this respect it is not so powerful as Taurus and Leo but, nevertheless, it tends to moderate whatever windy influences are present.

It is consistently a wet sign, but not given to the downpours that Cancer occasions, nor to the floods and disagreeable storms indicated by Capricorn. In a chart which shows storms, if important, it merely indicates that much rain will accompany the violence shown. But when free from extreme influences, it causes those rains which are 'seasonable' and of marked benefit to the crops.

In all its weather influences, next to Taurus, Pisces is most moderate, and produces conditions favorable to crops and to livestock. It also, therefore, like Taurus, only in a less degree, is the farmer's friend. But do not plan a picnic when its influence is dominant; for the rain it brings is sufficient to discourage outdoor pleasures.

From next month we will discuss practice chart.

Om Gan Ganapataye Namah

Krishnamurti Paddhati astrology has proved itself to be a scientific and logical astrology. Marriages are made in heavens, So as an astrologer I have to deal with many cases regarding marriage. This case was recent one but here the client did not disclose anything about his affair and just asked me about his marriage. Let us have a look at how Krishnamurti Paddhati Astrology helped me in getting the correct prediction.

Query : Marriage ?
Horary : 50
Date : 25-10-2009
Time : 19:00 hrs
Place : Bhopal - Latitude 23 N 16 - Longitude 77 N 27

ANALYSIS

Moon's Placement & Significations

As the client was quite apprehensive, I looked at the position and significations of Moon. Moon is placed in the 7th house. Moon is placed in the star of Sun which is placed in the 5th house. Fifth house is the house of affairs. So Moon is the very strong significator of the 5th house. So I concluded that the client must be interested in the Love Marriage. Later on the client confessed having affair and also being interested in marrying his loved one. Hence the Moon really showed the way.

Rules applied

1. For Marriage 7th Cuspal Sublord must signify 2,7 & 11th house.
2. For Love Marriage 7th Cuspal Sublord must be connected to 5th house or 5th Cusp sublord must signify the houses 2,7 & 11.
3. Ruling Planets could be considered to rule out unnecessary significators and also to time the event.

Cuspal Analysis

According to Krishnamurti Paddhati, when the query is regarding marriage one must consider the houses 2,7 and 11 but when the 7th cuspal sublord is related to fifth house by placement or by signification then there is Love Marriage. Here we will consider the possibility of Love Marriage as we had seen earlier the Moon signifying 5th house also.

2nd Cusp (Cancer 6:18:50 – Mo Sa Me) Mercury is the sublord of the 2nd house, it is placed in the 4th house, it is placed in the star of Mars which is placed in the 2nd house, hence Mercury is the strong significator of 2nd house. 2nd house signifies Family, hence growth in Kutumb is indicated here.

7th Cusp (Sagittarius 12:33:20 – Ju Ke Me) 7th Cuspal Sublord is Mercury, which is, as discussed above, the strong significator of 2nd house.

11th Cusp (Aries 06:14:21 – Ma Ke Ra) 11th Cuspal Sublord is Rahu which is placed in 7th house, it is placed in the star of Sun which is placed in the 5th house, Hence Rahu is the strong significator of 5th house which is house of love affairs. So Rahu being 11th cuspal sublord is likely to give marriage with the desired girl. Involvement of Rahu also indicates that the girl belongs to the different caste.

As it is now established that the client is interested in love marriage with a desired girl, which is very much likely to happen as 11th house is the house of fulfillment of desires. 11th house never acts independently. It always acts by linking itself to the desired houses. So now we will look at the 5th cusp also.

5th Cusp (Libra 06:14:21 – Ve Ma Mo) 5th Cuspal Sublord is Moon in 7th house and placed in the star of Sun in 7. As we have discussed earlier, Moon is the significator of 5th and 7th houses. Therefore the client will marry with a desired girl.

Ruling Planets At Time of Judgement

Name	SgL	StL	SL
Lagna	Ve	Su	Ra
Moon	Sa	Su	Sa
Day Lord	Sun

Looking at the Ruling Planets, Sun which is very strong significator of 5th house. With the Sun being quite prominent it is likely that the marriage will take place soon.

Dasha Bhukti Antara Analysis

Running Maha Dasha is of Sun which as we have seen is the strong significator for love marriage as it signifies both 5th and 7th house strongly. So the Maha Dasha supports the marriage.

Running Bhukti is of Saturn which is till Aug 2010. Saturn is in the star of Sun, hence it strongly signifies 7th house also it is in the sub of Mercury which is strong significator of 2nd house, hence it also lends support for marriage.

Running Antara is of Mercury which will be till Dec 2009 but it is not amongst the Ruling Planets. So we don't consider this Antara. Next Antara is of Ketu which is also not amongst the RPs. It also acts as agent of Moon but Moon is also not the Ruling Planet, so we neglect this Antara. Next Antara is of Venus which is strong significator of 7th house, also it is in the sub of Mercury which signifies 2, So we will consider this Antara is fruitful for marriage. This Antara will run till 1-3-2010. So I predicted that the client will get married between 1-1-2010 to 1-3-2010. Later on the client informed that he has planned his Marriage on 12-02-2010.

My Pranamms to Guruji and Lord Ganesha.

Sree Mahaganapathaya Namaha

Pre-Natal means before birth and EPOCH means beginning of an Era

So, this is the beginning of a birth and it is the actual moment in which human generation commenced is to say the moment of the conception itself. The conception in fact can be said to be the generation of near human seed but the birth is that of man oneself

Our beloved Gururji late Shri K.S.K. had invented the theory of Ruling Planets for birth rectification and also timing of an event.

Myself and my uncle late Shri K.M.S. had an occasion to discuss with our Gururji why and how he had developed the Ruling Planet to 5 numbers as the Western astrology has taken only one i.e., Asc lord only as R.P.

He told us that he got inspiration only through pre-natal Epoch to form these R.Ps and also explained about the same, in a short way as he had given importance to Star Lord (Stellar theory) and he had taken both the Star Lord of ASC as well as Moon; these two are very important in a birth chart. He also advised to include Day Lord of that day. The lagna Star is the strongest and the day lord is the weakest R.Ps.

That is why he used to advise us while checking the birth chart for rectification to see the Moon star lord or rasi lord, corroborate with lagna and the lagna star lord or Rasi lord at the moment of birth with the Moon possession as it was his personal experience.

So is perfectly admissible that it is committent with reason that the configuration of the R.Ps, as they exist at the time of birth fully agreeing with a configuration of R.Ps. found at the time of conception (PNE).

As per Llewellyn George in his book A to Z Horoscope Maker and Delineator, the possession of Moon at the time of pre-natal Epoch represents the degree, minutes and seconds to put on the ASC of the birth chart to find out the day of pre-natal Epoch (conception date). We have to count ten Lunar months or 273 days backward from the date of birth of a child.

Count backward of number of days this found and it will bring you to approximate day of conception. And so the actual moment in which human generation commences is by nature of the moment of conception itself. In this article I want to make an attempt to prove that the RPs found at the time of birth are the same, as figured at the time of EPOCH, and then to explain how our beloved Gururji had found and was correct to tell that the RPs alone can be well used for the rectification of birth time in charts.

The days of EPOCH can also be less than 273 and more number of days also, say between 250 to 281 days backward of a child birth as per my research study.

According to our ancients who planned the conception of great man like king knew well that women can conceive during a certain time approximately. Two hours period Lunar Months when Sun and moon or exactly the same number of degrees apart as they were at the time of birth which may be discovered from the nativity of the female chart (Horoscope). The above information is found in “Santhana Deepika”, an old ancient Hindu text.

The Natal Epoch which is merely an astrological method of counting back from the exact birth time of infants to the true and precise time of conception which will invariably and infallibly, reveals that a Sun – Moon relationship to match that of mother's at her birth and will also match the sex of the child by the sex of the astrological sign in which Moon's Sign lord or Moon's Star lord was deposited at that time.

I am going to discuss an example chart of a mother to find out the Pre-Natal EPOCH using Sun-Moon relationship from the mother's chart in terms of what is told in “Santhana Deepika” as to how our great Gururji's RP theory finds a place in the PNE and infant's birth chart.

The Sun-Moon relationship is nothing but actual Thithi of the mother found in the birth chart of MOTHER.

With the above information in mind I am going to discuss a mother's chart born on 20-06-1969, 9.45 AM at Mayuram, Lat 11.06 N, Long 79.40 E. The Horoscope is enclosed at the end of this article.

Pre-Natal Epoch and Conception Moment of a Birth (case study)

Prof. Vaikari Ramamurthy

The woman has a Son born on 8-6-1993, 8.48 PM at Chennai, 13-04 N-Lat / 80-17. E-Long. The birth chart also can be found at the end of this article.

Now we will review the horoscope of the mother and look into the position of the Luminaries (SUN and MOON) .

In terms of the above saying and also as per the theory of Santhana Deepika, we have to find out the difference between Sun and Moon from the mother's chart (FEMALE).

This is the Thithi of the Mother's birth day .

The difference is	56-59-51
Moon's Longitude is	122-19-05
(-) Sun's Longitude is	65-19-14
Difference	56-59-51

From Sun to Moon it is 56-59-51 apart. So the thithi is up to 48 Chathurthi and then up to 60 Panchami thithi.

So the Mother's THITHI is Sukal paksha PANCHAMI thithi on her birth day.

Now we have to explore the P.N.E. near about as on 7-9-1992 which is less than 273 days from the date of the birth of the child (Boy) i.e., on 8-6-1993.

The female married on 3-9-1992, Anusham Star day.

So while doing so, we can find out 30-9-1992 is the proper date on which date the Sun and Moon difference is corroborated and maintained, and that date being the same thithi of the mother's birthday (Suklapaksha Panchami thithi) .

By further going deeper, it was found as 6.40 AM on 30-9-1992 at Chennai 13-04 N Lat / 80-17 E Long, duly the distance of 56-59-51 having been formed.

This 56-59-51 is the same distance between Sun & Moon as you have already seen in the mother's chart.

So with this data 6.40 AM, on 30-9-1992 at Chennai 13-04N/ 80.17E the PRE-NATAL EPOCH chart is made out and is also attached (PNE-I).

Now we have arrived at the time of Pre-Natal Epoch of this child (Boy) by the procedure as already told.

With this P.N.E. chart in hand, now you note the PNE chart is controlled by the ruling planets as detailed here-under.

- 1) Day Lord – MERC
- 2) Lagna Rasi Lord – MERC
- 3) Lagna Star Lord – Moon
- 4) Moon Rasi Lord – MARS
- 5) Moon Star Load – JUP

In the birth chart of the Boy you will note that the child born in Dhanur Lagna (Sagittarius) ruled by JUP. The Lagna degree is 266-08-56, Moon in Capricorn 14-00-13 is in the own star of Moon which is SRAVANA Star.

So at that time of PNE chart, the Lagna Star Lord of PNE is Moon. The Moon finds a place as SRAVANA star ruled by the Moon as his birth star.

The Moon star Lord of P.N.E. chart is Jupiter which is corroborated as Lagna lord of the boy's chart with Sagittarius Lagna.

In the PNE chart Moon is 01-37-43 in Scorpio ruled by Mars a male planet and Mars is posited in a Male sign

Gemini. So the sex of the child is also confirmed as MALE CHILD.

So once again the theory of Ruling Planets is tested and proved correct, as the RPs found in the PNE chart are also found in the birth chart of infant.

Will Sri Vilas Rao Deshmukh be selected as CM of Maharashtra?

Kanak Bosmia

Sahakar-2, Flat No: 28, Jagabhai park, Ram baug
Maninagar, Ahmedabad 380 008,
Phone 079- 2543 1165 Mobile: 98251 31165

Just now I saw news on TV that Deshmukh is trying to join in the race for CM of Maharashtra. I am going to try with my Rules.

Question: Will Sri Vilas Rao Deshmukh be selected as CM of Maharashtra?

Horary details;

Date: 24/10/09

Time: 13.03.52

Horary No: 93/249

Place: Kankariya- Ahmedabad

Long/Lat: 23 N 00, 72 E 36

I applied my Rules as under:

Who will become a Chief Minister?

If 10th (One's position in politics) sublord signifies, 10 (One's Reputation), 3 (One's ability), 11 (One's reputation as a Winner) in the DBA of 3, 10, 11 one can win Elections.

My Analysis:

In this chart 10th CSL is Rahu, Rahu is in the star of Sun and sub of Jup.

Ra(5), Ra is agent of Ju(6, 5-8), in the star of Sun(2, 1), in the sub of Ju(6, 5-8).

Rahu does not signify 3, 10, 11 houses, so, in my opinion, there is No Chance for Vilas Rao Deshmukh.

For Opponent:

10th CSL is Rahu is in the star of Sun and sub of Jup.

Ra(11), Ra is agent of Ju(12, 2-11), in the star of Su(8, 7), in the sub of Ju(12, 2-11).

Opponent's 10th CSL signifies 11 A positive Bhava so now picture is very clear that Vilasrao Deshmukh have No Chance to become a CM of Maharashtra. Because 10 CSL clearly indicate result we do not need to check DBAS.

Actual Outcome: Prediction comes correct.

Transfer from a far away place to home area

My daughter was working in a far away place from our home area and has requested the authorities for a transfer to a station close to home place, in the month of August 2009.

This was a mutual transfer with one of her colleagues, who wanted to join his wife.

On the 5th of October, she called me and informed that her transfer application has been accepted by the authorities and the papers would be received by her on the following day. On the 6th she informed that she had received the papers, but the transfer would not get processed soon as there were formalities to attend.

So I wanted to work out her date of transfer by using the accurate Krishnamurthi Paddhathi propounded by the Late Gururji, Jeotish Marthand, Soditha Mannan, Professor K. S. Krishnamurthi.

The number taken was 86 and the analysis commenced at 8.06 p.m. in Galle, Sri Lanka. (The KP chart prepared for the horary number and time is attached.)

The first item to be investigated is the position of Moon in the chart. He is the lord of 12th, deposited in the 9th bhava. Moon is deposited in a star of Venus, who owns 3th and 10th and deposited in 1st bhava.

10th bhava for profession; 9th is for a difficult and long distance away from home. 12th reveals the difficulties and some problems. 3rd is change of the place of work or/and residence.

Next we need to check whether the expectation of the querent can be fulfilled or not.

10th bhava for employment and 11th shows the fulfillment.

10th is in Taurus owned by Venus in a star of Sun and a sub of Mercury. This cuspal sub lord Mercury owns 2nd and 11th and deposited in the first house. Mercury is deposited in a star of Sun, who owns the lagna and deposited in the 2nd. As the cuspal sub lord is connected to her employment, it is sure that her expectation will be fulfilled.

11th is in Gemini, owned by Mercury in a star of Mars and the sub lord is Venus. This cuspal sub lord Venus also owns 3rd and 10th and deposited in the first.

Bhava Significators

Bhava	Planets in the stars of the depositor	Planets deposited in the bhava	Planets in the stars of the owner.	owned
II	Me, Sa, Ra	Su	--	Me
VI	Ma, Ke	Ju	--	Sa
X	--	--	Mo, Ve.	Ve
XI	--	Ma, Ke	--	Me

Accordingly, bhava significators are Me, Sa, Ra, Ma, Ke, Su, Ju, Mo and Ve. Ra is aspected by Ma and conjoined with Ju. Ma and Ke are in conjunction. So all the nine planets have appeared as sinificators.

Now it is necessary to find the most fruitful planets or beneficial planets to the query. This could be done with the help of Ruling Planets.

Ruling Planets are considered as the Golden Rule in Krishnamurthi Paddhathi. At the time of judgment, they are as follows:

Day Lord	Tuesday	Mars
Rasi Lord	Aries	Mars
Star Lord		Venus
Ascendant Lord	Taurus	Venus and
Ascendant Star Lord		Mars.

The most powerful planet is Venus and next Mars. Mars is conjoined with Kethu in the 11th bhava. Thus Kethu is more powerful to give the expected result.

Dasa balance at the time of query is 10 yrs, 8 months and 6 days for Venus. Accordingly, Venus Dasa, Rahu Bukthi and Venus Antara commenced on 16th July 2009 and runs till 16th January 2010. So this period is favourable for her to get the transfer.

Sun is in transit in Libra from 18th October 2009 to 16th November 2009. Again he is in the star of Rahu from 24th October 2009 to 06th November 2009.

She reported for work in the new station on the 26th Monday, October 2009, when Moon is transiting in the 6th bhava.

This is one of more than hundreds of examples which show the accuracy of KRISHNAMURTHI PADDHATHI.

GOOD LUCK.

On Ayanamsa

I follow only Newcomb. The Ayanamsa which I follow and which is followed by Mr. Lahiri or late C.G. Rajan and Mandathu Panchangam are more or less the same.

Which Ayanamsa am I to follow?

Follow Krishnamurti Ayanamsa. Forget all others. When Krishnamurti Ayanamsa is used and by using the subdivision of a constellation you come correct in minute details, it goes without saying that the other ayanamsas are not to be followed, especially if it varies by degree? Follow only mine.

On Astrologer's Quality

(He) who is honest, who is sincerely devoted to God, who does not speak ill of others --- It is Devine Grace.

Analytical study, correct intuition, good judgment are needed for successful astrologers. Good astrologers will have in their horoscopes strong and favorable Mercury.

On Karma, Destiny

Chances, luck or misfortune are governed by the law of Causation or Karma. God is neither partial or unjust, and everything happens according to one's action in the past birth.

When we think we understand that the theory "Karma and Incarnation" alone can convince.--- what we have to enjoy is undoubtedly predestined. I cannot understand how the judgment of God can be, in any manner, modified or nullified by our efforts.---

Everything is predestined.---None can dodge fate.--- If one can change the event by one's will, then astrology has no place.

Karma can be divided broadly into three kinds:

Dhruda (fixed) Karma that one has committed an inexcusable mistake or crime in the previous birth, Dhruda - Adhruda (fixed/non-fixed) Karma that one would have committed an excusable mistake in the previous birth, and Adhruda (non-fixed) Karma that the crime committed may be negligible...

The majority of people commit excusable mistakes called Dhruda –Adhruda Karma. Therefore Shanti will be done by them with or without their knowledge and they will not ultimately suffer... Just like one has no choice about his birth time, place and his parents, so also there is nothing left in one's hands. Everything is pre-destined. None can change it. Then only one can use this science... Astrology is a science. It needs further research and confirmation. There is no use for the word "Likely". Everything is a certainty... It may be said, more as a compromise, that man is both a slave of the effects of his past deeds and is a free agent as regards his deeds which are in no way directed to thwart, arrest, alter or in any way modify or remold the effects of his Karma.

On Research

My Friends, we have come up to this- you should continue the research and you may reach to further truth.

What we want is research for truth: Open mind to investigate---- Let them (students) also carry out further research--- It is for you--- to further study and make (KP) more useful, more simple----

Post-mortem alone will correct one. Ignorant people may say, "What is the use of post-mortem?" Such people do not want to keep a record of success and failure in their attempts and try to improve all or learn improved methods.

On Remedies

Anyone, putting on the gems of the strongest significators of the beneficial houses is lucky. Only when luck is to be enjoyed shortly, he will or she will acquire this color; we attribute the luck to the gem.

Truth is this: Acquisition of any Gem is indicated mostly by a benefic. So one acquires when the period of that

Guruji Prof. K S Krishnamurti Speaks (Quotations of KSK)

Tin Win

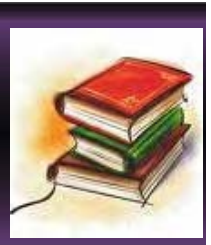

planet operates. So, when you put the gem, that good period operates and so you enjoy and you attribute to the gem.

On Ruling Planets

We must take only the time of judgment.--- When the urge is there, note the Ruling Planets,---- Note the time when the urge is there ----- immediately work out --- the Ruling Planets.

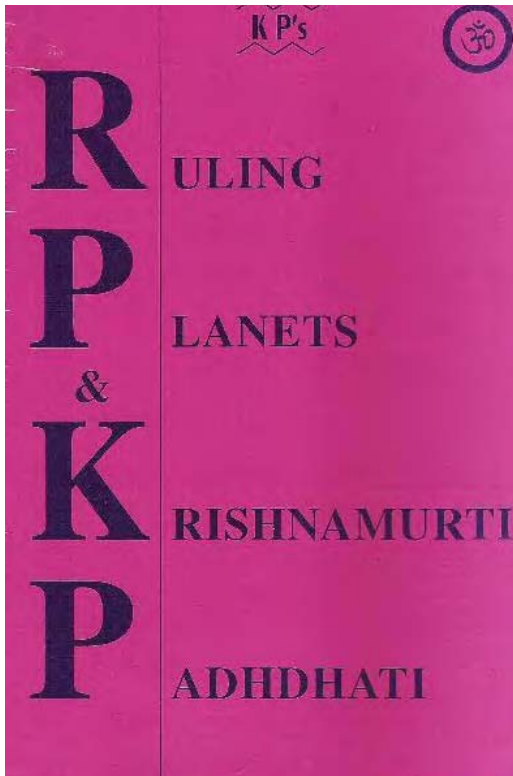

To find birth time--- only the Ruling Planets at the moment of judgment will be useful and innumerable instances are given in the magazine “Astrology & Athrishta.”

R.P. & K.P., Ruling Planets and Krishnamurti Padhdhati compiled by K. Subramaniam and K. Hariharan, 132 pages

<http://www.webspawner.com/users/astroclinic2/rulingplanetskr.html>

This book R.P. & K.P., first edition published in 1985, is a collection of 41 articles by 24 authors, including KM Subramaniam, KC Subramaniam, KR Kar, N Moham. In almost all of those earlier research articles, only the original 5 RPs, mentioned by Guruji KSK have been used, and only a few authors had considered the sub lords of Ascendant and Moon as ruling planets at that time, for example in pp 65, 79, 108 of this book.

RPs which are deposited in the sub of a planet in retrogression, or of a planet signifying houses detrimental to the matter in question, and are also not any way connected with the house relevant to the matter in query are left out of consideration. It is mentioned that after thorough research it has been established that a RP fails to offer results only when it is in a sub of the lord which is retrograde. (p xvi).

It is to note that the ruling planets in retrograde do not prevent the event to take place but will only give the result when they become direct in motion. Reject the ruling planets which are posited in the star or sub of retrograde planets. (KP Reader VI pp 167, 171, 176, 187, 202, 224, 274)

There has been a lot of discussion on the Ruling Planets, and there are very divergent views on the RPs usage among the KP followers.

Any way this book may help the KP learners in using the Ruling Planets for birth rectification and also timing of an event as Guruji KSK said that the RPs alone can be well used for the rectification of birth time in the charts. (Prof. Vaikari Ramamurthy)

The final note is that everything can not be predicted by using the RPs because they are supposed to be only the selective tool but not predicting tool. The success of RPs may depend on the urge of both the consultant and astrologers.

QUESTION-1

Implications of the Same Cuspal Sub-Lord for Different Cusps?

I have a chart, where the Cuspal Sub-lord of:

- 1) 1st, 2nd and 8th cusps is Venus in 5 l/o 4,9;
- 2) 3rd and 9th cusps is Mercury in 5 l/o 5,8;
- 3) 5th and 11th cusps is Rahu in 8 etc.

Note: (1) Jupiter and Saturn are 'Retro'; (2) Sun, Mer & Jup are in Sat star.

I would like to know whether the same sub lord for 2/3 cusps will act harmoniously for those cusps or differently. For example, whether the same sub lord for cusps 5 and 11 it will give the good result in the matter of child birth or not? Will the same sub-lord of 3rd and 9th cusps be good for higher studies in professional subject, and success in competition?

ANSWER-1

A general rule is that if the cuspal sub-lord is the same for more than one cusp, these cusps are deemed to be connected. The connection of 1st, 2nd and 8th cusps (houses) may be helpful for unearned money but may not be good for health. 5th and 11th connection may be helpful to get the child, if it is promised. 3rd and 9th connection may be good for higher education and foreign going, if they are promised. A connection of agreeable houses may act harmoniously, otherwise a favorable result may not be expected. It is still a general view but not yet supported by sufficient research evidence.

Such connection would be more effective when the same cuspal sub-lord does not have any planets in its star, and consequently it is self strong planet and also becomes the very strong significator of the houses for which it is the cuspal sub-lord.

Retrogression effect may not need to consider in the natal chart.

QUESTION-2

Geographic or Geocentric Latitude for KP Horary Analysis?

For doing KP horary analysis, which Lat do you suggest:

- 1) Geographic Lat
- 2) True Geocentric Lat
- 3) Apparent Geocentric Lat

I am finding that using Geocentric Lat, majority of the times the main house CSL is missed by one planet up or down from those that appear in RP. For example if there is Mer in RP then let say the main house CSL is 10th house then the 10th house CSL is either Sat or Ket.

ANSWER-2

The Geographic latitude may be preferable for doing KP horary analysis because of the following reasons.

- 1) KP Horary is Gururji KSK's brain child born on Geographic.
- 2) KP Horary Ascendant is according to the 249 sub table and other cusps are calculated on the basis of that Asc. position.
- 3) Not yet sufficient research evidence that Geocentric can give better accuracy, as discussed in the Geographic or Geocentric article.
- 4) Not yet widely used as Geocentric option is not yet supported in the mostly used Western Astrodiest (www.astro.com) and Vedic JHora.

Dear Shri Kanak Bosmia Ji,

Uncountable words and sentences and phrases are glittering in my mind to make my sincere thanks to YOU and your Board of EDITORS

Being a traditional student with limited Astrological scope in my country, I was in some difficulties in erecting the charts for some countries specially Far East.

In the Question and Answer column in last issue, Shri TW ji had made a fine and valuable interpretation for the above question, which is understandable even for a student in kindergarten.

This is not adulation at all. KPEZine is a University for KP Astrologers.

My humble thanks to you all.

This case from my file of records belongs to a bright student who passed graduation in medicine and on the occasion of convocation (due on 13-03-2003), one of the prestigious awards of Best Outgoing Student was to be decided by the managing committee of the college. Since, there were a few who were extremely jealous of the merits of this student, the question came in despair from the student "Whether I would get the award" and she furnished me the horary number 79 for assessment. The horary chart was analysed by me at 19:47:30 Hrs on 09-03-2003 at Bangalore. The horary chart is attached.

This case is analyzed as follows.

The Query:

Lagna Sub-lord and Moon reflect the query and the mindset of the querist. Moon is the sole planet, which dominantly signifies the prestige of the querist (10-1H) placed in 10th house as lagna lord.

Thus, the question gets indicated in the chart and it was comfortable to proceed further.

The co-ordinates of judgment:

In order to acquire the award, the other contestants are to be defeated and so the 6H comes into picture. Since, the matter relates to the prestige and honor of the querist, the 10H gets the attention.

The ultimate acquisition of the results is to be judged by the 11H in any prashna chart. Thus an amicable connection between 6-10-11H would matter for acquisition of a prestigious award, subject to the favorable dasha sequence.

The analysis:

1. Analyse Lagna

The lagna falls in an emotional sign Cancer with the Lagna-lord Moon ruling the lagna-sbL indicating that the querist must have been extremely emotional and could have made the acquisition of award as a prestigious issue by way of the placement of Moon in 10th house.

Moon falls in the star of Sun placed in 8th house (signifying 8H) is closely conjunct with Rahu who signifies 8H again, thereby making the matter grave in concern. The manipulative nature of Rahu could influence the matter to settle either way.

Moon falls in the sub of Mercury which is strong by way of having no planet in its star. Its placement in 7th house indicates the decision in other's hands (7H). Mercury falls in the star of Rahu placed in 10th house (dominantly signifying 10H and providing saving grace for the question in view).

2. Analyse 9th cusp

9th cusp indicates the views of the opposition (3rd from 7th).

Sun is the sub-lord of the 9th cusp. Sun falls in the star of retro-Jupiter which suggests that the dictates of the judges who matter for the decision may not materialize ultimately. Sun falls in the sub of Mercury and as said in the previous para, Mercury strongly signifies 10th house and the opposition may have to revert in favor of the native. Thus, it provided high hopes to the ambitions of the native.

3. Analyze the 6th and 10th cusps

The 6th cusp would matter for the winning of the native and 10th cusp would matter for achieving the honor.

Incidentally, Saturn is connected to the cusps of 4-6-10-12th cusps as sub-lord. Thus, Saturn exerts its full influence on the matter relating to the acquisition of award (6-10H) which needs a connection with the 11H for fructification. While Saturn gets placed in 11th house, it falls in the star of Mars who owns the 5th and 10th houses, thus signifying 11-5-10th houses dominantly. The Saturn being in its own sub affirms the indications to almost a certainty.

Saturn as 12th cuspal sub-lord signifying 11th house even turns the adversaries in the favor of the querist.

4. Assess 11th cusp

Mars, owner of 5th and 10th houses, is the sub-lord of 11th house. Mars also shares the sub-lordship of 5th house which signifies spontaneous gains when seen in connection with the 11th house. At the stellar level, Mars falls in the star of Ketu placed in 4th house and aspected by Moon in 10th house thus signifying 4-5-10th houses, and it paves the way for fulfillment of desire because of the connection of 11th sub-lord with 10H.

5. Assess dasha sequence

The analysis so far vouchsafed the fulfillment of desire of the querist. After largely concluding on the positive outcome of the prashna chart, the ruling planets were taken at 20:22 Hrs IST which came out to be Mars-Mercury-Sun-Venus.

At that point of time, the dasha sequence was examined. Horary dasha of Sun-Mercury-Moon was running on the day of analysis and Mars Antara was to run from 12-03-2003.

It may be of interest to note that the award was to be announced on the day of convocation (14-03-2003) but the necessary pamphlets for the convocation were to be sent for printing about 2 days in advance (12-03-2003). Thus, the period from 12-03-2003 onwards was very critical.

The Dasha lord Sun was outwardly not supporting as it was signifying 12-8th houses. However, the Sun was in the sub of Mercury which signified 10H dominantly which did support the desire of the querist. The favourable Mercury Bhukti in Sun Dasha was in progress. The prevalent period of Moon Antara was not conducive to offer the results because Moon signified 8th house and it did not appear in RPs as well.

Take a note of the sextile aspect of Mars (Mars being beneficial as discussed above) to Mercury within an orb of 5 degrees thereby connecting Mars to Mercury by way of Western aspect. Thus, the beneficence of Mars influenced Mercury to deliver favorable results to the querist.

The awaited period of Mars Antara starting from 12-03-2003 was very favorable and it was indicated to the querist that she would certainly gain the desired award.

6. Assess fortuna

Fortuna falls in the star of 10H lord Mars and sub of 11th house occupant Saturn, indicating the success of the query in its first place.

Conclusion

As the study revealed, the award was conferred to the student after a high internal drama. It may be noted that the dasha sequence for fructification fully matched with the RPs.

The facts of the case:

- In the chart given above, Moon takes over Lagna as its sub-lord causing despair and frustration to the querist through its 8th house signification. The student was undergoing the toughest time of her educational career as her prestige was at stake and was extremely concerned for it.
- The question was analyzed on a Sunday and incidentally Sun had signified 12-8th houses indicating that the Sun was not favorable to the querist. The Sun by its natural attributes points fingers to the person-in-charge of the committee to decide for the award. Note that the dual natured Mercury was the sub-lord of Sun, indicating that the person originally in opposition could as well be having double thinking on this issue and was ultimately to budge to the influence of Mars (through someone dictating the issue).
- The matter was finalized in favour of the querist in the dasha of Sun-Mercury-Mars. The dasha lord Sun was in control of Mercury by way of its sub-lordship, the Bhukti lord was Mercury in its own sub and the Antara lord was Mars who beneficially aspected Mercury. Thus, Mars influenced both the Dasa and Bhukti planets and had a strong role to decide the matter.

• The fact which came to light later was that the person-in-charge of the committee did not favour the querist and had decided in negative internally. In the meeting on 12-03-2003, another member of the committee (a female) strongly highlighted the merits of the querist and forced the award to be given to her.

Here, the role of Mercury is clearly seen. Mercury as sub-lord of Sun made the person-in-charge to have double mind. Mercury gathered a set of officials of the college in the meeting and caused deliberations. Another member of the committee who was very assertive and dictative (influence of Mars on Mercury) salvaged the situation in favour of the querist. Thus, the dasha-bhukti-antara planets controlled the situation in totality.

The KP principles are always reliable and crystal clear, although they require genuine efforts for understanding and application. Prof. Krishnamurti has devised a pioneering predictive model in astrology which deserves sincere appreciation.

"One who neither hates nor desires the fruits of his activities is known to be always renounced. Such a person (Sannyasi), free from all dualities, easily overcomes material bondage and is completely liberated, O mighty-armed Arjuna."

-Bhagavad Gita V-3

Sannyasa

1, Sannyasa is frequently translated as renunciation. One within the sannyasa order is known as a sannyasi who renounces all worldly thoughts and desires, and spends the rest of his life in spiritual contemplation.

Sannyasa KP Rule

2. If 1st cuspal sub lord signifies main houses 3,10,12 and connected with Saturn in any manner, one can become sannyasi, during DBAS jointly signifying 3,10,12, and preferably connected with Saturn in any manner.

3= mental trend, ability, forsake home forever

10= Parlok Sadhna, Karmasthana, regular practice of spirituality, action, name, fame

12= directed towards Moksha or salvation, worships, emancipation, renunciation, service to others

Saturn= inasoonuh, seclusion, penance, renunciation, concentration, meditation, karaka for sannyasi

3. In addition to the main houses 3,10 & 12, supporting houses 9 & 5 are also to be considered in checking 1st CSL signification, and then especially house 11 is to be considered in the timing of attainment of sannyasi or spiritual advancement.

9= tapas, karmic influence, divine worship, moral, higher knowledge

5= poorva punya, spiritual transformation on initiation

11= siddhi, attainment in spiritual mind

1st Cuspal Sub Lord Signification

4. The 1st cuspal sub lord (CSL) signification and connection to Saturn, and Moon-Saturn connection have been studied for forty charts as shown in Table 1 below and a list of forty charts is attached at the end of this article.

5. It has been found in the above table as follows.

- 1) Out of 40 charts, 3rd house signification is 25 times (62.5%), 10th house is 30 times (75%), 12th house is 23 times (57.5%) , 5th house is 29 times (72.5%) and 9th house is 29 times (72.5%);
- 2) 1st CSL connection to Saturn in any manner is found in 36 charts (90%);
- 3) Gnanakaraka Ke is found connected to the 1st CSL in any manner in 32 charts (80%);
- 4) Moon and Saturn connection in any manner (concentration, meditation) is found in 24 charts (60%);
- 5) All 3,10 & 12 houses are significant in 13 charts(32.5%).
- 6) Any two of 3,10 & 12 houses are significant in 13 charts(32.5%).
- 7) So all three or any two of 3,10 & 12 houses are significant in 26 charts(65%).
- 8) Only one of 3,10 & 12 houses are significant in 14 charts(35%).
- 9) All two of 5 & 9 houses are significant in 20 charts (50%).
- 10) Only one of 5, 9 houses is significant in 18 charts (45%).
- 11) So any one of 5, 9 houses is significant in 38 charts (95%).
- 12) None of 5, 9 houses are found significant in 2 charts (5%).
- 13) Hence the above said Sannyasa KP Rule is generally found working.

* from col. 5 of Table I

7. It has been found from the above table as follows.

- 1) The same house (out of 3,10 & 12) is generally signified in 12 charts (85.7% of 14 charts), except chart no 8 & 35, by most of 1st, 5th, 9th & 11th CSLs;

- 2) The signification of 3,10 & 12 houses has improved by signifying more than one house (out of 3,10 & 12) in 13 charts (92.8%), except chart no 30;
- 3) So it would be helpful to analyze the supporting 5th, 9th & 11th CSLs other than 1st CSL.

OM GAJAANANAM NAMAMHYAM

During the KP Astrologers Forum's fortnightly meeting conducted on 08-November-2009 chaired by Sri Rajendra Nimje, IAS. President, Spinal Curvature Disease was discussed in detail and 3 practical charts were taken up.

Although Spinal Curvature (or curvature of spine) can refer to the normal concave and convex curvature of the spine, in clinical contexts, the phrase usually refers to deviations from the expected curvature, even when that difference is a reduction in curvature. Types include Kyphosis, Lordosis, and Scoliosis.

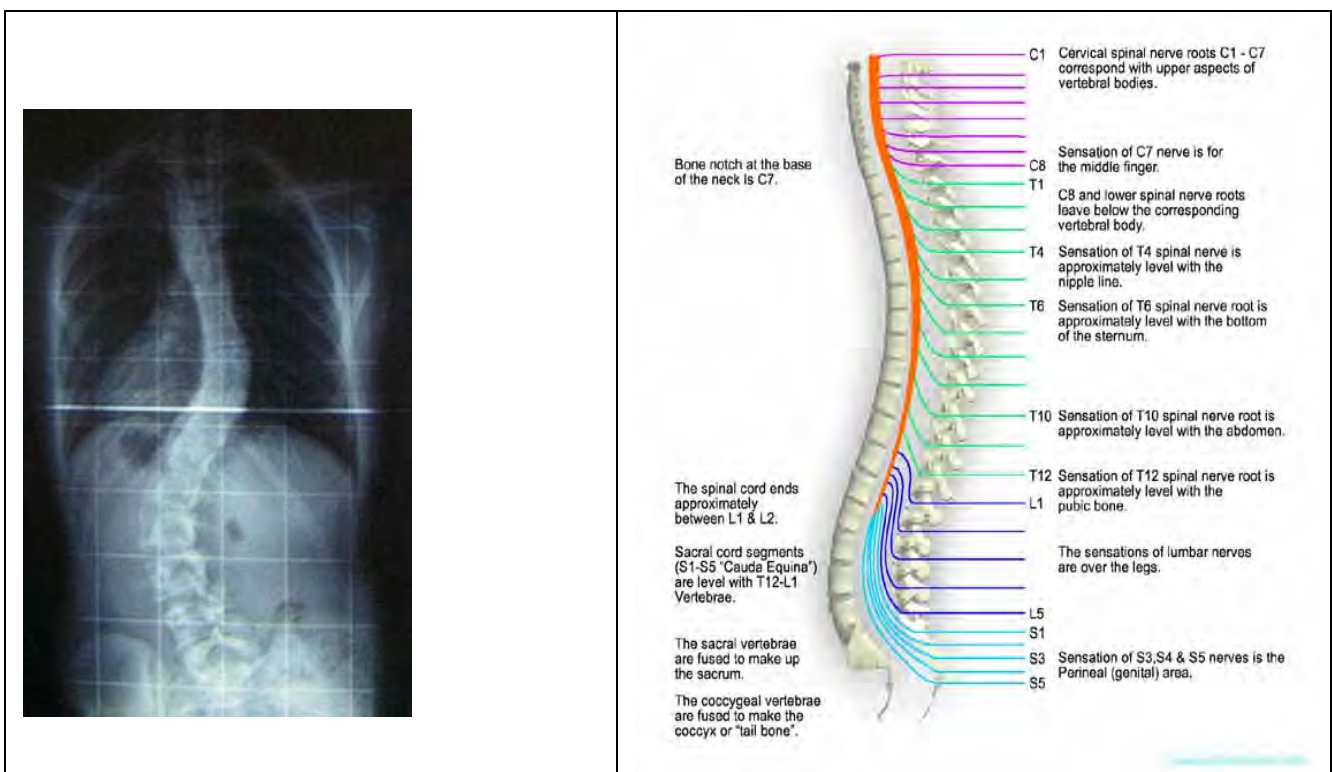

Thoracic vertebrae:

The twelve (12) thoracic bones and their transverse processes have surfaces that articulate with the ribs. Some rotation can occur between the thoracic vertebrae, but their connection with the rib cage prevents much flexion or other excursion. They may also be known as 'dorsal vertebrae', in the human context. Bodies are roughly heart-shaped and are about as wide antero-posteriorly as they are in the transverse dimension. Vertebral foramina are roughly circular in shape.

Scoliosis is an abnormal curve of the spine, with the spine curving to the side, according to the American Academy of Family Physicians (AAFP). Depending on the extent of the curvature, one shoulder may be lower than another and the ribs or hips may stick out more on one side. AAOS says only 2 percent of the population is affected by scoliosis, which tends to be more common in girls, and runs in families.

While scoliosis usually develops during childhood, it can also affect adults, according to AAOS. Actually, adult scoliosis may be the progression of a condition that began in childhood, and was never diagnosed or treated. AAOS says adult scoliosis can be caused by changes in the spine that occur as we age. AAOS says, as more people age in this country, the incidence of adult scoliosis will probably increase.

In most cases, AAFP says scoliosis causes few problems. Usually the curve of the spine is small, and rarely is there any back pain. (Read about "Back Pain") Cosmetics are a prime concern of many patients. However, according to AAOS, there could be some long-term effects if scoliosis is left untreated. AAOS says the condition can worsen.

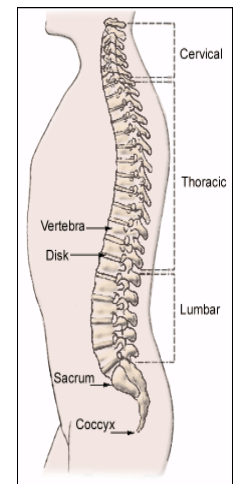

Kyphosis

An exaggerated curve of the back that looks like a rounded or hunched back could be Kyphosis, according to AAOS. Kyphosis might develop as a result of slouching. Poor posture can stretch spinal ligaments and according to AAOS, increase the natural curve in the spine. It is more common among females than males. Luckily, kyphosis is rarely painful and AAOS says strengthening exercises may even help correct the problem.

Congenital Kyphosis however is more serious. This occurs in some infants whose spinal column does not develop properly. AAOS says this type of Kyphosis will worsen as the child grows, but can be helped with surgery. Kyphosis or round back is also a common problem among those suffering from osteoporosis. AAOS says, as more people age in this country, the incidence of adult Kyphosis will probably increase. Other conditions which can cause curvature include spinal problems such as arthritis and ankylosing Spondylosis - and connective tissue disorders such as Marfan syndrome.

In Medical Astrology Natural Zodiac (Kalapursha) 5th sign Leo represents Spine & Makham Star where the Twelve Thoracic Vertebrae are existing (T1-T12) which are representing Spinal Curvature. Sun is karaka for spine. Some are taking Mercury as karaka for spine. Any affliction to Leo, 5th house from Ascendant & Makha Star in Leo, thru 6th cuspal sublord connection and Karaka Sun would lead to Spinal Curvature problem. (HL Cornell: Encyclopedia of Medical Astrology; Judith Hill: Medical Astrology and discussed by Sri S Kalyan, KP Astrologer, Sri Lanka). In this regard three types of curvature are indicated, including Kyphosis, Lordosis, and Scoliosis.

ANALYSIS:

Chart 1 – Sri Apple (Spinal Curvature Kyphosis)

(Date 31/12/1975, Time 04:44:00 Place: SriDeviNursingHome, Warasiguda, Hyd. Day Wednesday Lat 17:23:00N Long 78:30:00E KPNA 23:25:54 Birth Star: Jyesta-3 Rasi: Scorpio Asc.: 16:42:39)

The native was born in Scorpio Lagna. 6th CSL Jupiter (lord of 2-5) is on 5th cusp orb in Me-Su. Mercury as l/o 8-11 in 2nd cusp and Sun (Karaka for Spine) aspected by 6th lord Mars from 7th are indicating spinal problem from childhood as the involvement of 8th lord Mercury. Leo is also aspected by Mars as l/o 1n6 in 7. 5th CSL Sun (Karaka for Spine) is in star & sub Venus as l/o 7n12 in 12. All these malefic combinations and connections to Leo, 5th and Sun have not given any relief.

Chart 2 – Sri Jaya Simha CI Clock (Spinal Curvature)

(Date: 16/06/1984 Time 20:10:00 Place Secunderabad AP * Day Saturday Lat 17:25:00N Long 78:30:00E KPNA 23:32:59 Birth Star: Uttarashada-4 Rasi: Capricorn Asc.: 21:12:33).

The native was born in Sagittarius Lagna; 6th sublord Rahu is in 5th house along with Mercury as lord of 7th (Bhadhaka). Rahu is in Mo-Ra. Star Moon is lord of 8th in 1st house and unfavourable Rahu own sub is repeated at the sub level also making Rahu to be strong. Now look at 5th sublord who also happens to be Rahu as described above. Mercury is also placed in 5th house as l/o Badhaka 7. No planet is in star of Jupiter who is sublord of Badhaka 7th cusp, and Jupiter aspects Leo sign. Sun (Karaka for Spine) is conjoined with Venus as l/o 6 and aspected by Badhaka significator Jupiter. Thus the native has been suffering with Spinal Curvature since his childhood with no relief through any medication.

(Date: Date 04/07/1983 Time 12:47:17:40 Place Guntur AP * Day Monday Lat 16:18:00 N Long 80:27:00 E KPNA 23:32:12 Birth Star: Revathi-4 Rasi: Meena Asc.: Vir 27:06:10)

The native was born in Virgo Lagna. 6th sublord Venus is l/o 2-9 in 11th cusp (Leo in Makha star) Ke-Ve. Kethu is starlord of Makham in Leo 5th sign of Zodiac and in his own star Kethu and sign lord Jupiter is Bhadhaka lord (lord of 4n7 in 2) and own sub Kethu reflects the above signification only. 5th cuspal sublord Jupiter is Bhadhaka 7 lord and in Sa-Ve represents chronic problem thru Saturn who is lord of 5n6 in 1st house and sub Venus who is l/o of 2. Sun is conjoined with Mars as l/o 8. 12th cusp sublord and Ve is placed in Leo. Such adverse effects on

Leo, Sun and 5th house indicate spinal problem. As there is no planet in star of Venus who is lord of 2n9 in 11, it gives relief thru medication.

Conclusion: From the analysis of above 3 charts for Spinal Curvature problem we can conclude that 6th CSL connection to 5th house, Leo sign and Sun through signification of negative houses would strongly indicate this disease.

"Delay, dejection, disappointment, denial, etc. are caused by Sani, and strongly so if Sani occupies the 5th house where from it will aspect the 7th, 11th and 2nd houses by its third, seventh and tenth aspects respectively. Whenever Sani happens to be a significator of a particular matter, it will not deny but will cause delay. If it is connected with houses 2, 7 and 11 by occupying the house or owning it or situated in the constellation of the planet posited in any of these houses it will cause delay at every time- in fixation of marriage, celebration of marriage, etc. It will not deny marital happiness. But if Sani has no connection with houses 2, 7 and 11 but only throws its aspect, this portends denial and even disappointment. Generally, all those in whose chart Sani is placed in the 5th house will have their marriage, delayed and delayed till the very end."

Colombo, 28 November, (Asiantribune.com):

Sri Lanka's Election Commission on Friday announced that the Presidential elections will be held on 26 January 2010.

Nominations will be accepted from 9.00 a.m to 11.00 a.m on December 17, Elections Commissioner Dayananda Dissanayake announced yesterday.

This will be the country's fifth Presidential poll to elect the sixth Executive President.

President Mahinda Rajapaksa, the incumbent in office decided to go for a Presidential election though his term of office expires on November 2011. The announcement came four days after President Mahinda Rajapaksa decided to advance the polls by nearly two years. Objections against nominations can be raised from 9.00 am to 11.30 on the same day. Objections to the nomination papers could be raised by any of the rival candidates or by persons who had signed the nomination paper, the official release said.

All candidates of recognized political parties should make deposits of Rs 50,000 and independent candidates Rs 75,000 before noon on the day of the nominations with the Accountant (Finance) of the Department of Elections.

It is mandatory that a candidate other than those of recognized political parties should confirm that he/she had been elected a member of the legislature by a letter signed by the Secretary-General of Parliament, the official release said. The 2008 electoral register will be used for the election with a total number of 14,088,500 persons eligible to vote. So far except for President Mahinda Rajapaksa no one else has announced their candidature to contest in the forthcoming Presidential election. It is reliably learnt that the former Army Commander General Sarath Fonseka is expected to announce his candidature shortly.

Mo+(2, 6), in the star of Ve(9, 3-4-8), in the sub of Su(9, 7).

Bhukti & Antra lord Signifies 3 = OkK

Ju(12, 11), in the star of Ma(6, 2-9-10), in the sub of Ju(12, 11).

Sookshma lord Jup signifies 11, 10.

All DBAS signification is Positive,

For opponent:

Ve(3, 2-9-10), in the star of Sa(1, 6-7), in the sub of Sa(1, 6-7).

Dasalord Signifies 3, 10 = OK

Mo+(8, 12), in the star of Ve(3, 2-9-10), in the sub of Su(3, 1).

Bhukti & Antralord signifies 3, 10 = OK

Ju(6, 5), in the star of Ma(12, 3-4-8), in the sub of Ju(6, 5).

Sookshama lord signifies 3 = OK.

Both indications are positive, so we have to look again both sides.

For President Mahinda Rajapaksa:

10th CSL is JUP.

Ju(12, 11), in the star of Ma(6, 2-9-10), in the sub of Ju(12, 11).

10th CSL Jup signifies 10, 11 so chance is there.

For opponent:

10th CS is JUP.

Ju(6, 5), in the star of Ma(12, 3-4-8), in the sub of Ju(6, 5).

10th CSL Jup signifies 3 only.

We found that 10th CSL for current President Mahinda Rajapaksa signifies 10, 11 and for opponent only 3rd. so in my opinion President Mahinda Rajapaksa will win this election, but it will very close fight between both candidate.

As already discussed in last two chapter, temperature is the most important influence both in air movements and in the precipitation of moisture, not only the temperature, but much about wind and moisture in their general effect on the season can be learned from the Temperature Chart. But the days during the season when such wind and moisture, are to be determined from the Air Movement Chart and the Moisture Chart, respectively.

In its timing of weather conditions, the Temperature Chart is to be used exclusively to indicate changes in temperature. Temperature Charts are erected for the place where the weather is to be ascertained, at the exact moment the Sun enters Aries, enters Cancer, enters Libra, and enters Capricorn. As discuss in Part I.

The chart for the time the Sun enters Aries indicates the temperature, and its changes, until the Sun enters Cancer. The chart for the time the Sun enters Cancer indicates the temperature, and its changes, until the Sun enters Libra. The chart for the time the Sun enters Libra indicates the temperature, and its changes, until the Sun enters Capricorn. The chart erected for the time the Sun enters Capricorn indicates the temperature, and its changes, until the Sun once more enters Aries.

Thus do the four charts cover the temperature for the year. And time and amount of temperature changes will be check from DBAS.

In the various ephemerides you will found table which shows the "Time when the Sun and Moon enter the Zodiacal Signs., in my analysis, I have used KPAstro 3.5™ and KP new Ayanmasha.

For 2009 as per KPAstro 3.5™ I found Sun enters the Zodiacal Signs as bellow:

Sun Enter in Aries on 13/Apr/2009 at 22:28:40, the chart for the time the Sun enters Aries indicates the temperature, and its changes, until the Sun enters Cancer.

Sun Enter in Cancer on 16/Jul/2009 at 12:45:08 the chart for the time the Sun enters Cancer indicates the temperature, and its changes, until the Sun enters Libra.

Sun enters Libra on 17/Oct/2009 at 09:03:43 the chart for the time the Sun enters Libra indicates the temperature, and its changes, until the Sun enters Capricorn.

Sun enters Capricorn at 14/I/2010 at 10.23.45 the chart erected for the time the Sun enters Capricorn indicates the temperature, and its changes, until the Sun once more enters Aries.

I am from Ahmedabad so I will discuss all the chart for Ahmedabad. If someone wants to check weather for his/her city he can use website: <http://www.wunderground.com/> for current and past data.

First we discuss 13th April 2009 chart with compare to 13th April 2008.

In 2008 Chart 4th CSL is Moon. Moon is in the star of Sat and sub of Ven.

Moon is in Karka rasi, in temperature chart Moon is cool, but not like Sat. Moon is in Karaka rasi, Karka rasi is also cold sign, but not drafty, in temperature chart it tends to give low temperature.

Starlord Sat give cold in temperature chart, but in summer other indication point to a drought & extreme heat. Sat is in Simha Rasi, we know this rasi is hot.

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars

Sublord is Ven, Venus has a moderating influence. If the previous weather was hot, Venus tends to cool it, if the previous weather was cold, Venus tends to warm things up. In Weather Astrology, we can consider Venus as a violent planet. Commonly Venus indicates mild and pleasant temperatures. Ven is in Meena Rasi, Its influence in the Temperature Chart is consistently toward somewhat lower temperatures, but not of an extreme nature. in influence in general, it is not violent, but mild.

After above Analysis we can see hot temperature but not too much hot, bcoce main 4th CSL Moon does not indicate too much hot, but hot is there. If we look bellow data of temperature show us that on 13th temperature was 37° and day by day hot was increase up to 42° on 26th-27th.

We have to give important to Sun too for temperature chart. Sun in this chart is in the star and sub of Ketu.

Sun is in Mesh A Hot rasi, Sun also Hot so Tempurature was hot during this 4 month, but because 4th CSL is Moon too much. Ketu Conj with Sat and we discuss sat above, Ketu is in Simha and we know Simha is hot rasi.

After all this indicate hot but not extreme.

Now let us check 13th April 2009 chart in details:

In 2009 Chart 4th CSL is Mer. Mer is in the star and sub of Ven.

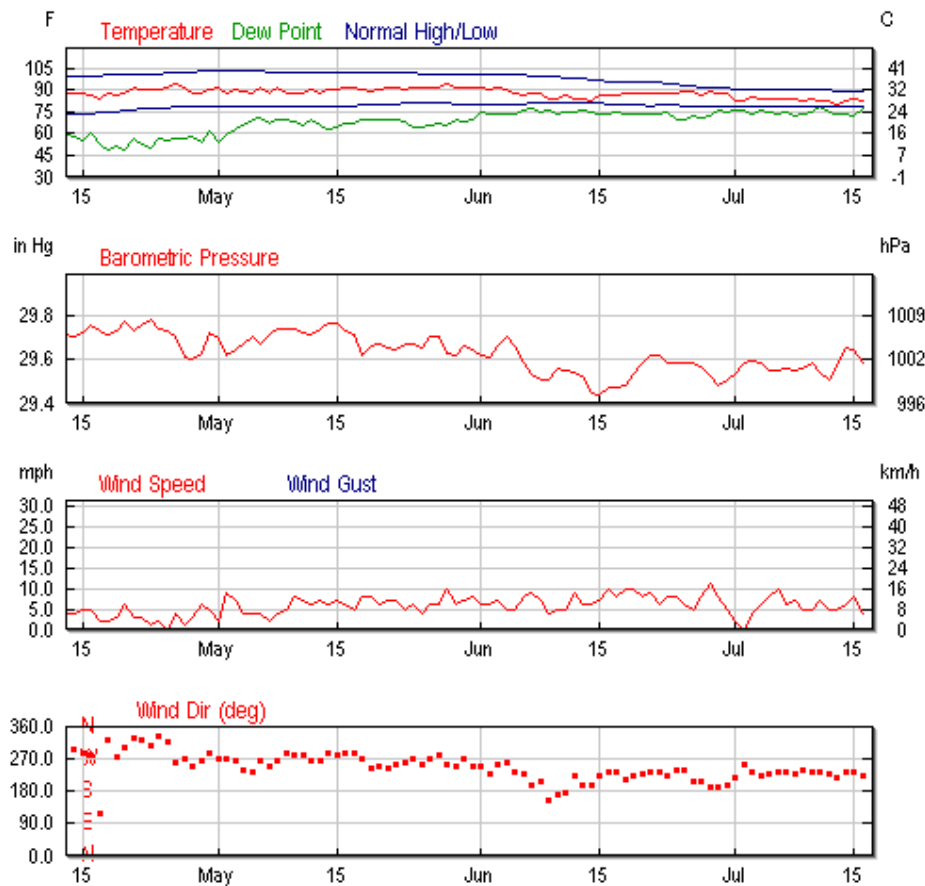

Mer is Chief ruler over wind. Mer adds the wind element to storm. Mer is in Mesh rasi. The sign Mesha in its influence on temperature is hot. The other hot sign is Leo. These two signs, in so far as the temperature chart and temperature influences are concerned are the signs of high temperatures.

Mer is in the Star and Sun of Ven. Venus has a moderating influence. If the previous weather was hot, Venus tends to cool it, if the previous weather was cold, Venus tends to warm things up. In Weather Astrology, we can consider Venus as a violent planet. So Last year(2008) we found that hot but not extreme, but here Ven indicate extreme hot condition this year. Ven is in Meena Rasi. Pisces is not so evident in its influence as to be called cold, but is rather cool. Its influence in the Temperature Chart is consistently toward somewhat lower temperatures, but not of an extreme nature. in influence in general, it is not violent, but mild.

After considering both chart we can come to conclusion that camper to 2008, 2009 is too hot. But still we have to check more two charts.

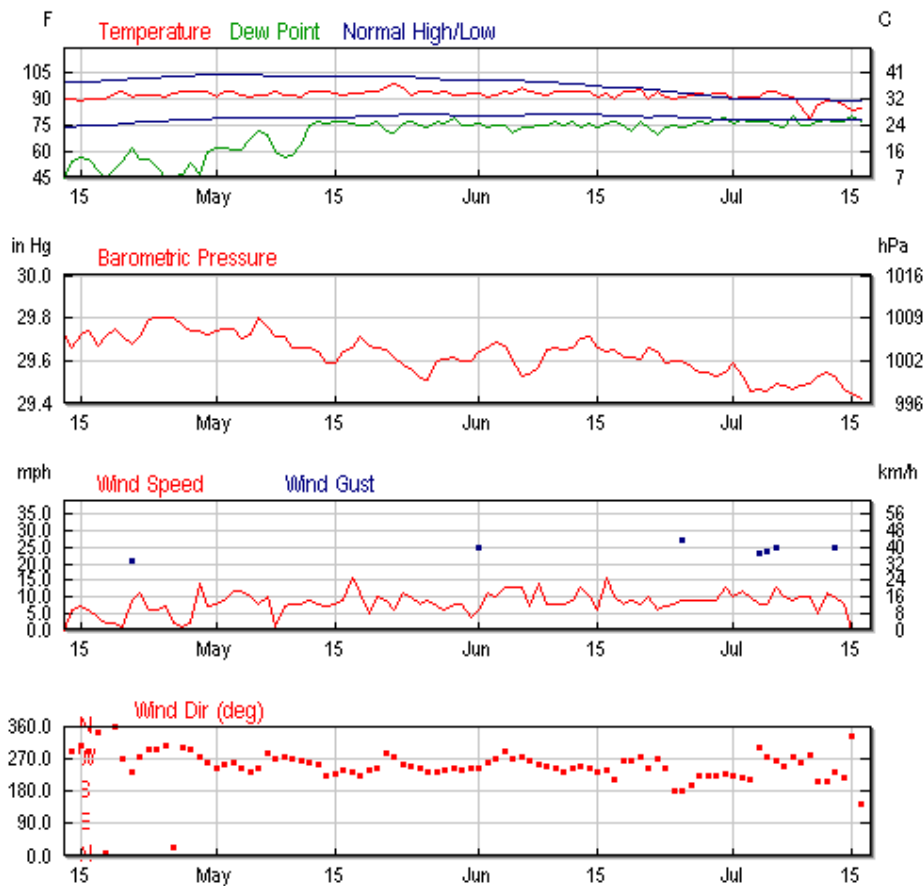

13/Apr/2008 to 16/Jul/2008

Temperature:	Max	Avg	Min
Max Temperature	43 °C	38 °C	31 °C
Mean Temperature	36 °C	31 °C	26 °C
Min Temperature	31 °C	24 °C	18 °C

13/Apr/2009 to 16/Jul/2009

Temperature:	Max	Avg	Min
Max Temperature	44 °C	40 °C	28 °C
Mean Temperature	35 °C	32 °C	28 °C
Min Temperature	28 °C	24 °C	21 °C

If you look above data for 2008-09 we found that Max temperature for 2008 is 43 and in 2009 it was 44. This is an average figure. I will discuss more clear and nerro this temperature figure with help of Air movement chart.

At the evening of 15 oct,I had finished my article for our KP e-zine and decided to submit it to Shri Kanak ji on the next day 16 oct.By cause of some technical,an internet couldn't start.It was very frustrating and anxious moment for me to face,then I decided to solve this matter from horary.

Horary No:221,Date-16/10/2009,Time-11:55:01 am,Place-Surat,Gujarat

Platform:E-Kundli 2002

Rule for Internet: An internet will be start When 3rd (communicative matters) & 11th (getting desired) cusps signify mutually, with the significator of these both at the transit of ascendant, asc star and asc sub.

RPs:

Asc Star lord:Ke,Asc lord:Ju,Mo Star lord:Su,Mo lord:Me,Daylord:Ve

Significators:

3rd Cusp:Su,Ma AND 11th Cusp:Ra,Ke,Ju

Rule for getting an internet:

Any kind of mutual or supplement connection with one human to another or any lifeless matter will be scrutinize by 3rd cusp and for fructification of the matter will be seen by 11th cusp. In the DBAS of the significators of these two cusp will tell the "when".

Moon as 3rd CSL:Mo is in the star of Su and sub of Sa. Mo(7,L/o 6) has rapt conjunction with Sa(L/o 7&12,1-karaka for anxiety).Su(L/o 7,8) has occupied 8th cusp(frustration & anxiety).We can see there is no clearcut amicable connection of 3rd & 11th cusps overhere, though Ju(L/o 11,12) aspects these three of above and giving proximity to go further.

11th CSL:Ra is the constellation of Su and sub of Ju.Ma(L/o 3) has its 7th aspect on Ra(11,12,7,1,8) and Ju(L/o 11) has conjunction with it.Star lord Su is again seems frustrating for me towards its 8th placement.Ju is a S/I of Ra and has its influence with Ra and its star lord Su by aspects.

On the day of judgement,Star lord Su is in RP and significators both.So I got some confidence for getting internet on the same day.But when,to determine the same we'll scrutinize on Ascendent,its star lord and sublord.Genrally this kind of technical fault would cracked on the same day by complaining to ISP(Internet Service Provider).

At the time of judgement at 11:55:01 am,an asc of Sagittarius was running on 10d-05m-33s and would end at 13:16:44 pm.Sagittarius have its star of Mula, Purvashadha and Uttarashadha which have the lordship of Ke,Ve and Su.We have 2 of these 3 which are Ke and Su's constellation in RPs and Significators both.So it looks beneficial to go ahead.Let see.

Asc star lord Ke was running at the time of judgement and has sublord of Sa and Me will remain.Sa has nothing to run more so I had ignore it.Me is not coming at its role of signification here.Therefore in this all constellation of Ke would be ignored.Next star is Purvashadha of Ve,but it is not coming in significator.We will go ahead without its consideration.

The star lord of Purvashadha is Ve and it appears as one of an RP but not as significator.That's why it's time to move further without taking it.

The next star lord is Su of Uttarashadha appears as an RP and strong significator of 3rd cusp.Star lord Su will start after 8d-26m-40s till the end of rashi Sagittarius.Now it is time to determine one of sub between 3d-20m-00s.

- (1)1st sub of Su start at 13:03:37 pm to 13:06:15 pm.Su is been already choosen as stellar level.
- (2)2nd sub of Mo start at 13:06:16 pm to 13:10:38 pm.Mo has not any contribution as a significator.
- (3)3rd sub of Ma start at 13:10:39 pm to 13:13:41 pm.Ma is not appearing as an RP but coming as one of the significator.
- (4)4th sub of Ra start at 13:13:42 pm to 13:21:29 pm.Ra is coming as an agent of Ju in RP and significator.

After the sub of Ra Sagittarius would end. So it's time to end these speculations of beyond Sagittarius. By the grace of divinity, I scrutinized these subs once again and got some gesture of the infinite. Ke has its 1st level placement in RP and coming as a significator too. Ke is not in above appeared subs, but Ma has its conjunction with Ke within 5 degree.

Fact of this matter:

I had determined that between 13:10:39 pm to 13:13:41 pm of getting an internet will take place. My concentration focused in this time and I put a clock at the desktop. I had constant tried to click the mouse and connect an internet between this time. Suddenly at the moment of 13:12:09 or 10 pm the internet was connected. It was an amazing moment and cannot be expressed.

Our pioneer author of KP e-zine Shri Vijay kumar ji always conclude their articles with some deep meaningful quote as I mentioned under and I couldn't control myself to follow them.

"I conclude herewith with my sincere thanks to Prof. Krishnamurthy, who has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation."

SECRETS OF R.P. & THE BIRTH TIME

(A Research in K.P. System)

by K. Baskaran, Krishman & Co, 1999, 98 pages

<http://www.webspawner.com/users/astroclinic2/secretaofrptheb.html>

In this book, Secrets of RPs & the Birth Time, the author has explained the various methods to rectify birth times (known & unknown) based on the different types of questions raised by the client by using the Ruling Planets at the moment of judgment.

This approach is in the right path of KP, as mentioned in the KP Reader VI, "To find birth time--- only the Ruling Planets at the moment of judgment will be useful and innumerable instances are given in the magazine "Astrology & Athrishta."

The general rule according to the basic KP guide line is that the present (RP) Moon will indicate the birth Ascendant and the present Ascendant (RP) will indicate the Moon's position at the time of birth.

The author says in this book, "Unless the client raises specific doubts in his birth-time, we need not attempt unnecessarily to correct the birth-time at all. However, it is better to check his birth-horoscope by taking the RPs.....Like this we should practice the art of relating all the twelve bhavas with the present position of the Moon.....Only because our predictions fail often, it is not reasonable to jump to the conclusion that the birth time is wrong".

Although there are so many birth time rectification methods, the author's approach based on his research work may be helpful for KP learners in deriving the accurate birth time which is the prime requirement for correct predictions.

QUESTION-1

Implications of the Same Cuspal Sub-Lord for Different Cusps? (continued from last month)

There are some articles in KP & Astrology Annuals by different authors. I am unable to locate the year of the book readily. In that one author does not prefer the same S/L for different cusps. Another author has stated that it will create enmity between the relationship concerning the bhava. e.g. 3rd and 11th house CSLs are same for the native of Movable sign Lagna, 11th being Bhadhakastana; there will be enmity between elder brother & the native. In the case I referred to you, 7th and 10th CSL both are same viz. Moon. Moon is friendly to Sun, the sign lord of 7th and also friendly to Mars sign lord of 10th. In such case I presume that connection to 7th and 10th may not affect the normal principle of denial of marriage (because of 10th signification). Here Moon is with self strength planet i.e. no planet is in its star. This may kindly be confirmed. I forgot to add this point in my previous mail.

ANSWER-1

1. In KP Badhaka applies to only longevity and health as per references given under.

...even though it is Badhakasthana Athipathi which may affect only the health, if its Dasa or Bhukti is operating or the Dasa or Bhukti is ruled by the planet in the constellation of Saturn (Badhakasthana). Excepting that, Saturn has to necessarily do good to Mesha rasi borns.....

In Jataka Chandrika, it has been declared that the 11th house is the bhadhakasthana for persons born in movable sign (chara rasis).....One should not go by the literal meaning of the 'bhadhakasthana' and conclude that it is evil in every aspect, 'Bhadhakasthana' applies only to longevity and health..... -KP Reader II page 222 last para

2. In KP friendship of planets cannot change the effects of bhava signification, i.e. the detrimental effect of 10th on marriage (12 to 11th). However, connection of 7th and 10th may not be considered to be denial of marriage as long as 7th is signified.

QUESTION-2

Which house is to be considered for girl friend?

ANSWER-2

1. For girl friend, lover, 7th, 5th house (Bill's Rulership Book; Umang Taneja's Dictionary of Significators in Astrology) seems reasonable as girl friend, lover is a candidate to marriage and 5th is love affair.

2. In fact, the lover is more accurately ascertained from the 11th house, as the 11th house stands for lasting friendship and intimacy that may end to marriage.

-KP Reader II, page 220 last para

QUESTION-3

Can cuspal sub lord divert the dasa lord?

ANSWER- 3

The CSL can divert the dasa lord in some cases when the CSL is a strong significator opposite to the signification of dasa lord, for examples:

a) If the 8th CSL gets strong signification for any one of (improving or favorable) houses 1,2,3,6,10, a person need not at all worry about, whatever may the Dasa is on or to come. In this particular chart 11th Badhaka bhava sublord is Jupiter, which is in 10th. Therefore Badhakasthana loses its strength. - Astrosecrets & KP Part II, 2003, pp 53 & 56 under 'Sub-Lords who Diverts the Dasa Lords'

b) Rahu- X cusp sublord is Rahu. No planet in the star of Rau. Therefore Rahu is a strong significator of the X house, even though he occupies the IX.....
- Astrosecrets & KP Part II, 2003, p 197 under "The Golden Rule in KP"

c) The cuspal sub lords become the strongest significators of concerned houses, if there is no planet in their stars. -KP Reader III page 309 (Old Edition, Practical Part page 145, KPA 1991 July & November , PS Rao, Vikari Ramamurthi, R. Mukunda Rajan, Kuppu Ganapathi, Kanak Bosmia etc.

Dear Shri Kanakji,

E-Zine November, 2009 issue contains gems of articles, medical as well as non-medical subjects, authored by varioua ex-ponents. In short your E-zine is shining more and more every month.

Sri Vaikari Ramamurthy's article on 'Pre-natal epoch and conception, moment of birth with a case study is fine. This subject has rarely been discussed in the forum. He has proved sex of the child

And comparing birth chart of infant with that of PNE's RP chart. This is a good lesson to K.P. learners. Incidentally, he is a close associate with our late Guruji. Medical subject is dealt with nicely with Photos of the parts of body is a novel idea & admirable one and Kudos to Sri. O.V.N.Murthy. The article on 'Renal failure' by Sri Sunaparatha Kalyanji is an- other valuable one on medical subject. It is one more feather to your cap in your correct prediction of Maharashtra Govt. formation. Wishing you more and more success to your magazine under your Editorship. Mr.Tin Winji's new column 'Question & Answer' reflects his wide knowledge in K.P. As- trology. My sincere thanks to all the all the Authors for their valuable contribution to the E-Zine.

Thanks & Regards.

This case is from my file of records. A native approached me on 01-07-2005 to ask me whether there are some prospects for him to have a job change. I later learnt that he had a job offer in hand and was internally targeting at it.

The matter was taken up for scrutiny at 12:09:07 Hrs on 01-07-2005. There was no urge to take any horary number from him and the chart was prepared for the time, the native approached me and asked the query.

The Horary time chart is as follows :

Co-ordinates of judgment:

The prospects in a horary chart relating to the profession are primarily governed by the 10H, as this house decides the way the flow of karma takes place for matters relating to profession. The indications of 10th cusp are then verified by the examination of 6th cusp as it indicates the job in hand. In case if the ambition of the native under the framework of prashna is to be realized, the 11th cusp should support the matter in full.

In this query related to a job change, it is evident that the querent has already a job from where the change is sought, thus the 6th cusp in such a prashna chart relates to the present job.

In case, if the job has to be changed, the 5H should operate to leave the present job (6H) and 9H should operate to indicate the disruption of the already existing flow of Karma. Thus, in principle, the 10th sub-lord should signify 5-9H to leave the job and 2-6-10-11H to get a new job simultaneously. These indications shall fructify to realization in proper spread of dasha-bhukti in line with the transits.

In this case study, the 10th and 6th house refer to the present job in which the native is placed.

The Query:

Fundamentally, in any prashna, the lagna indicates the query, while the Moon indicates the status of mind and the matter on which the querist dwells about.

Look to the lagna SbL-Rahu, which is placed in the star of Mercury (1-10L) placed in 10H. Mercury as 10L placed in 10H establishes that the query relates to the profession.

Moon itself gets placed in 8H indicating a sense of choking and frustration. Moon falls in the star of Venus, which is placed in the 10H again establishing the frustration relating to the present profession.

Thus, the question is taken as well indicated in the prashna chart and it was comfortable to proceed further.
Analysis :

1. Examine the clustering of 10H by way of the placement of 10th lord Mercury, 9th lord Venus, 5th lord Sat and 12th lord Sun. This, in principle, indicates focus on the professional domain and some scope of change in profession. Let this be closely looked at.

2. Examine the 10th cusp to delineate the professional indications. In case, if the native has to change the job, the 10th sub-lord should signify the 5-9H.

Saturn is the 10th sub-lord, which is placed in its own star and sub. The Saturn is the strong lord of 5th and 6th house and by its placement in 10H means that the 10th sub-lord signifies 10-5-6H. Till now, the situation seems encouraging due to some possibility of leaving the present job (5H) and get into a new job (6-10H). Saturn being in its own sub affirms it.

3. Look to the 6th cusp, which refers the present job. In case if the native has to leave the present job for another one, the 6th cusp should signify 5-9H (to leave the present job) and 2-6-10H (to get a new job).

In this case, the 6th sub-lord is Mercury. Mercury (lord of 1-10th houses) is in the star of Saturn (lord of 5-6th houses) and both Mercury and Saturn are placed in 10H. Thus 6th sub-lord Mercury signifies 10-5-6-11H that also keeps open the possibility of a job change (5H) and get into a job (6-10H). However, the 6th sub-lord Mercury falls in the sub of Sun, which as 12L gets placed in 10H, meaning that the job change either could take place in a totally new environment or could be in a foreign land or it may not be beneficial to him or may not happen.

4. Just to cross check whether the job-change would be possible, examine the 5-9th cusps. Incidentally, Rahu happens to be the sub-lord of both these cusps.

Since, Rahu is a node, it is advisable to examine Rahu by itself, then by Mars with whom it is conjunct, by its start lord- Mercury and by the house lord Jupiter in whose house it is placed.

Rahu in 7H, in the star of 10L-Mercury placed in 10H does not support the job change. Mars as 8th lord and Jupiter as 7th lord make the Rahu to be yet an difficult planet for a job change. Since, Rahu falls in its own sub, it gets more firm in its decisions.

Mercury is already analyzed above which presents some hopes.

Thus, the 5-9th cusps by the consensus of majority do not support a job change.

5. Even though, the 10th and 6th Cusps have shown the possibility of a job change, but yet both the cusps have not shown any linkage to the 11th cusp without which, the desire of job change cannot be fulfilled.

Now, take a look at the 11th cusp, which rule the overall prospects of the prashna (in this case, a job change).

The 11th sub-lord is Moon. The Moon falls in the star of Venus, which gets placed in 10H as 2-9L. Since, both 2nd and 9th houses are vacant, the Venus would have strong lordship of these houses. Moon through stellar significations of Venus keeps the options of a job change open because of its significations of 9H.

Incidentally, Moon falls in its own sub, which has a purview to decide whether the matter indicated by 11th sub-lord Moon through its star-lord Venus would materialize or not. Note carefully that Moon in the capacity as a sub-lord strongly signifies 8H by its placement in 8H and being in its own sub, thereby negating the indications of 9H given by Venus as well as causing a lot of frustration (8H). Here, the supremacy of sub level signification is proved beyond doubt.

6. Take a look at Fortuna, which falls in 11H in the star of Saturn and sub of Rahu.

The stellar indications of Fortuna through Saturn do promise for a job-change similar to what has been discussed at #2 above.

Rahu as sub-lord has the purview to over-rule the stellar significations of Fortuna, as detailed in #4. Thus, Fortuna would not be able to favor the fructification of job change.

7. Take a look at dasa sequence. Venus-Moon-Moon was running at the time of prashna. Dasha lord Venus is aptly justified to signify the matter of job-change as analyzed above. The bhukti and antara of Moon was conducive of building hopes for a job change as discussed, although not fructifying ultimately.

Some facts of the case :

- Take a close look at the onset of Moon bhukti in the dasa of Venus on 15-05-2005. Since, Moon is 11th sub-lord and signifies 2-9-10H by stellar signification through Venus, it might create an opportunity for a job-change. On enquiry from the querent, it was learnt that the job offer had been obtained about a month back.

- The querent submitted a formal resignation on 15-07-2005 when the dasa of Venus-Moon-Mars was operative. Since, resignation is a document relating to leaving the job, the 7th house may be considered to operate, as it is the 3rd house from the 5th.

It may be noted that both bhukti lord-Moon and antara lord Mars were transiting in the star of Mars and Rahu respectively but both the planets were placed in 7H in the prashna chart, thereby giving no result.

- The querent had withdrawn the resignation on 10-08-2005 within the dasa of Venus-Moon-Mars. It may be noted that the bhukti lord-Moon was transiting in the star of Moon on that day, placed in 8H in the prashna chart putting the native to disgust and dishonor when he took back the resignation. Mars was transiting in the star of Venus placed in 10th house as 9th lord and the native kept on mentioning his credentials of his leaving the job for a long time.

Conclusion :

The KP principles are always reliable and crystal clear, although, it requires genuine efforts for understanding and applying. Prof. Krishnamurthy has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

KP Rule for Imprisonment (KP Reader VI pp 313-314)

3. It is to judge the 12th cusp and find out whether the following three conditions are simultaneously satisfied:-

- 1) The sub-lord of 12th cusp should be Rahu;
- 2) It should not be deposited in the constellation whose lord is retrograde; and
- 3) It should be a significator of either 2nd or 3rd or 8th or 12th house.

4. If any one of these conditions is not satisfied, one will not be imprisoned. For imprisonment all the above three conditions must necessarily be satisfied simultaneously.

5. Note:

- 1) The second condition is for horary analysis only.
- 2) The first condition of karaka Rahu to be the 12th CSL is not significantly found satisfied in "A Study of 100 Prisoner Charts" (KPE-zine March 2009) i.e. one may be imprisoned without the 12th CSL Rahu.
- 3) The third condition of signifying 2,3,8 or 12 house is the really necessary condition to be satisfied in the analysis of a natal chart.

- 1) 12th cuspal sub lord (CSL) is Rahu;
- 2) Ra+(5) is the 8, 12 CSL, Aspt by Su(11,11-12), Sgl Sa(4,5-6); in star Ma(1,3-8) and sub Mo(10), signifying 3,8 and 12 houses.

7. Polanski was arrested on 11-03-77 (Ke-Ra-Ju-Sa), signifying 12,8 by Dasa lord Ke, 8,12,3 by Bhukti lord Ra and 12 by Antara lord Ju, for having unlawful sex with the 13-year old girl Samantha Gaimer on the previous day of 10-03-77..

Dasa lord Ke(11), Sgl Su(11,11-12) is in own star Ke(11), Sgl Su(11,11-12) and sub Ra+(5) being the 8, 12 CSL, Aspt by Su(11,11-12), Sgl Sa(4,5-6).

Bhukti lord Ra+(5) is the 8, 12 CSL, Aspt by Su(11,11-12), Sgl Sa(4,5-6); in star Ma(1,3-8) and sub Mo(10).

Why Polanski was arrested after three decades?

Tin Win

Ra signifying 3,8,12 made him to be arrested, although he used to travel to Switzerland where he has a luxury chalet. It happened at the same time he was awarded a lifetime achievement "Golden Icon Award" by the Zurich Film Festival, as indicated by the strong signification of 11 and 10 houses.

Rulers of Diabetes

1. The commonly accepted rulers of diabetes are Jupiter, Venus and Libra sign by Dr. C N Cornell (encyclopedia of medical Astrology), Dr. William M. Davidson (medical astrology), Rex Bills, J. Lee Lehman, Noel Tyl and J.N. Bhasin (Medical Astrology). Diabetes is listed under Jupiter, Venus, Libra (Virgo/Mars by some) in Rex Bills's encyclopedia of medical astrology. J. Lee Lehman, Ph.D, in encyclopedia of medical astrology lists Venus for diabetes, with Lilly and Ramesey as the historical sources. Sugar is ruled by Jupiter, according to Dariot and Lilly. Noel Tyl, in his Astrological Indications of Physical Illness noted that among several thousand clients, over 80 % of diabetics had strong Venus and Jupiter aspects.

2. Analysis of diabetes indications is based on the rulers of diabetes, Jupiter, Venus and Libra sign and the 6th cuspal sub lord (CSL), and done on twenty diabetes charts.

Common Indicators of Diabetes

3. The following common indicators have been found as shown in the attached table:

- 1) 6CSL connection with Maraka, Badhaka, 6,8,12 houses and also with Jupiter and Venus in 17 charts, out of 20 (85%);
- 2) Jupiter-Venus connection in any manner in 18 charts (90%); The rationale is that the pancreas produces hormones essential to the digestion of food and the hormones regulate how we use glucose. Insulin is one of the hormones produced by the pancreas when the concentration of glucose (Venus) in the blood increases. Surplus glucose is stored by the liver (Jupiter). Diabetes results when there is an imbalance of insulin supply from the pancreas causing a tension between Venus and Jupiter. Thus Venus and Jupiter are diabetes indicators.
- 3) Connection of Jupiter, Venus and Libra sign to unfavorable Maraka, Badhaka, 6,8,12 houses.

Timing of Ailment

4. For timing, ailment has been found starting during DBA signifying Maraka, Badhaka, 6,8,12 houses in connection with Jupiter and Venus in 16 charts (80%).

5. The 1,5,11 signification indicates medication and 12,4,10 (12th to 1,5,11) signification is detrimental to cure.

Caution

6. Research studies have indicated that diabetes is a precursor to most major diseases. So check the family history. If there is diabetes on both sides of the family with the Venus and Jupiter connection, the potential rises.

7. In most cases, the Metabolic Syndrome (TMS) and the onset of diabetes is reversible. Diagnosis of TMS requires that at least three of the following be present:

- 1) Excessive waist circumference (more than forty inches for men and thirty five Inches for women)

- 2) Serum triglyceride (blood fat) be greater than 150 mg/dL or tenth of a liter.
- 3) Good cholesterol (D\HDL-C) less than 40 mg/dL in men and less than 50 mg/dL in women.
- 4) Elevated blood pressure higher than 135/85.
- 5) Fasting blood glucose over 99 mg/dL.

Om Gan Ganapataye Namah

Krishnamurti Paddhati astrology has proved itself to be a scientific and logical astrology.

So as an astrologer I have to deal with variety of cases e.g. reunion with wife, divorce, recovery from disease etc. This case was a recent one. A Person who appeared in 3rd sem exam of MBA asked me to tell the result using astrology. He was expecting result within few days. Look at how Krishnamurti Paddhati Astrology helped me in getting correct prediction.

Query: Success in Examination
Horary: 64
Date: 09-11-2009
Time: 15:23 hrs
Place: BHOPAL
Latitude 23 N 16
Longitude 77 N 27
Ayanamsha : KPNA 23:54:16

ANALYSIS

Moon

First of all Moon and Ascendant Sublords must be checked to see whether the query is genuine or not. Moon is placed in the star of Mercury which is lord of the Fourth house i.e. house of education, Mercury is placed in 4th house and Moon is in Mercury's star so Moon is strong significator of 4th house. Ascendant Sublord is Mars which is also placed in the star of Mercury. Hence both Moon and Ascendant Sublord signifies 4th house. So the query is genuine.

Hints and Rules

1. If the sublord of the 4th cusp is the significator of 4,9 and 11th house, the success in examination is promised.
2. Sublord of the 11th cusp when connected to the houses under consideration will give positive result; here in this case it needs to be connected to 4th & 9th house.

Cuspal Analysis

4th cusp (Virgo : 24:15:58 -- Me Ma Ra)

Rahu is 4th cusp Sublord which is placed in 6th house. It is in the star of Sun which is placed in the 4th house. Hence Rahu is strong significator of 4th house.

9th cusp (Aquarius : 22:32:29 -- Sa Ju Sa)

Saturn is the cuspal sublord of 9th house. It is lord 7th 8th and 9th house signifying that he had some apprehensions about his result and also his lack of confidence. It is in the star of Sun which is placed in 4th house. So it is strongly signifying 4th house. In addition it is also a strong significator of 9th house by being its cuspal sublord without having any planet in its stars.

11th cusp (Aries 27:59:15 – Ma Su Mo)

Moon is cuspal sublord of 11th house, the house of fulfillment of desires. Moon as discussed earlier is placed in the star of Mercury which is placed in 4th house. So Moon signifies 4th house strongly. Moreover it is also a strong significator of 11th house by being its cuspal sublord without having any planet in its stars.

Dasha Bhukti Antara Analysis

According to horary calculations as the star on that day is Ashlesha whose lord is Mercury which is placed in 4th house and signifying success. So Mahadasha is favorable. Bhukti is of Venus which is placed in 4th house so it also signifies success. Antara is of Mars lord of 11th which is also placed in the star of Mercury signifying 4th house strongly. So Dasha Bhukti and Antara all were signifying the required house for success in examination.

Conclusion:

Even dasa indication is good for both side but 10th CSL indicate chance for JMM chief Shibu Soren, In my opinion JMM chief Shibu Soren will be next CM of Jharkhand.

Note: This astro analysis was made and sent for digital publishing on 25th Dec. 2009. While the KP-Ezine, Jan. 2010 issue was under digital process, news appeared in dailies that Shibu Soren took oath to become the seventh CM of Jharkhand on Wednesday, 30th Dec. 2009.

This Birth Chart was analyzed to find whether the native is destined to get married and if so when she is getting married. The KP birth chart is attached.

For marriage, we need to analyse the seventh bhava of the native first. According to Krishnamurthi Paddhati, sub lord of the seventh cusp plays an important role. This planet will indicate whether the native is destined to get married. If this is positive, this planet indicates all the details by his positioning in the birth chart, such as conjunctions, aspects etc;

This planet will further give the details of marriage, nature of the would be partner and the period of marriage.

In this birth chart, the 7th cusp falls in Capricornus, owned by Saturn and deposited in the 12th bhava. Sub lord of this bhava is Venus. This sub lord is the owner of 11th bhava and deposited in a star of Jupiter.

According to Krishnamurthi Paddhati, if the sub lord of the 7th cusp is a significator for 2nd or 7th or 11th, marriage is promised. 7th bhava for partner, 2nd for the development of the family by marriage etc; and 11th for fulfillment of the expectation.

As the sub lord of the 7th is a significator for 11th, the marriage is promised. The 7th bhava is owned by Saturn. The nature of Saturn is delaying. But not deny. Therefore we could say that the marriage is promised, but delayed. This marriage will be celebrated in the conjoined period of the significators of 2nd, 7th and 11th.

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars

A number of planets are appearing as significators. We could select the most powerful planets by using the Golden Rule of Krishnamurthi Paddhathi, the RULING PLANETS.

Ruling planets are Venus, Mars, Mercury and Jupiter.

She was under the influence of Mars as Dasa lord and Saturn as Bukthi lord from 27th February 2008 to 6th April 2009. Antara of Jupiter was running from 13th February 2009 to 6th April 2009.

Marriage took place on 27th March 2009, a day owned by Venus in Ma-Sa-Ju-Ma DBAS.

Dasa lord Mars is transiting in Aquarius in Rahu star and Venus sub with a beneficial trine aspect to her natal position. Bukthi lord Saturn is transiting in Venus star and own sub Saturn, also with trine aspect to the natal position. Antara lord Jupiter is transiting in the 7th bhava, in the star of the Dasa and Sookshma lord Mars.

Luminary Sun in star of Bhukti lord Saturn and sub of Dasa lord Mars, Moon in Mercury star and Venus sub are together in Pisces in conjunction with the Sun natal position.

GOOD LUCK.

WISH YOU ALL A HAPPY NEW YEAR 2010.

On the morning of 23rd July my father lost my bike's key with some speculative mind. He was quiet confused for where the key he had put whether in the shirt or cupboard and so many alternatives was told. I decided to solve this speculation by horary and was guided by the almighty.

Rule for getting the Key of a Bike:

(1) Any kind of stable or immovable things will be scrutinized by for 4th cusp. As far as concerns to this matter of key which belongs to the vehicle, we are well aware that 4th cusp will take place for further assessment. I 1th cusp will tell whether it will be yes or no.

(2) These two (4H & I 1H) should be supplement to each other. For the matter which is going to fructify within a quick or an hour or a day, it will be assessed by sublord, star lord and ascendant lord respectively which are coming as its signification.

Horary No: 123, Date: 23/7/2009, Time: 10:26:40, Place: Surat

Platform: E-Kundli 2002

RPs: (1) Asc Star Lord: Su (2) Asc Lord: Me (3) Mo Star Lord: Me (4) Mo Rashi Lord: Mo (5) Daylord: Ju

Significators: 4th cusp: Ra, Ju & I 1th cusp: Su, Ke, Sa, Ma, Mo

Ascendent & Mo represents entire circumstances. Let's assess them.

Scrutiny of an Ascendent: An ascendant shows the present situation of the querent and the picture of the query too. 1st CSL Ju is in the constellation of Ma. Ju owns 4th cusp of vehicle. Star lord Ma owns an 8th of anxiety & hesitation.

Scrutiny of Moon: Mo (10, l/o I 1) is in the constellation of Me (10, l/o I) and sub of Su (10, l/o I 2). The missing of any living or lifeless things will be described by I 2H and we can see clear it by the Su which is lord of I 2.

- I 1th CSL: Ju is I 1th CSL and it is in the constellation of Ma and sub of Me. No planet in the star of Ju and so it is strong significator of 4 (key of the bike), 5 & CSL of I, 5, 7, I 1 also. Here Ju's 1st CSL tells my own physical and mental effort to pursue it. The getting of the key is now confirmed. Though Ju is retrograde at its path therefore the fructification would not be done within once or an hour.

- 4th CSL: Ke is 4th CSL and it is in the star of Sa and sub of Me. Ke is been elaborated with I 0, I 2, I 1, I 5, 6 cusps by its conjunction, stellar level and rashi lordship. Star lord Sa is in I 1 alone and it is lord of 5 & 6. So 4th cusp is also describing the matter in the favour of getting the key by its signification to I 1th. Sub lord Me placed I 0 and owns an ascendant.

- On the day of judgement, Sub lord of Mo (for today's timing of event) is Su in RP and significators both. So I got some confidence for getting the key on the same day. But when, to determine the same we'll scrutinize on Ascendent, its star lord and sublord by looking respective transit.

- From here, first we will determine an ascendant by its stellar level. At the time of judgement at 10:26:40 am, an asc of Kanya was running on 4d-18m-23s. Me (Lord of Kanya) has nothing to do by its contribution because of my previous saying in I 1th cusp that the matter of fructification would not be done within once or an hour. Upcoming Ve (lord of Tula) & Ma (lord of Vrishchik) have also the same role to do in this picture.

- Next coming rashi for an ascendant is Dhanu which has a lordship of Ju. If Dhanu rashi found with its fruitful stars we would stop here to crack the sub. Dhanu rashi have nakshatras of Mula, Purvashadha and Uttarashadha and these stars have lordship of Ke, Ve and Su respectively. Now we will determine which star has a role of fructification. Star lord Ke seems just in significators not in RP. Ve has no role in RP & significator both.

- Next constellation coming of Su which is top & strong in RP & significators respectively. Star lord Su will start after 18:37:48 with its own sub at 26d-40m-01s till the end of rashi Dhanu.

- Now it is time to determine one of a sub between 3d-20m-00s. Sub of a Su will at 18:40:26. Su has been already chosen at constellation, consequently it would be left. Upcoming Mo has its 4th number placement in RP and signification role too. Sub of Mo has its duration till 18:40:26 to 18:44:49 and it was the right time to get the key.

• Fact of this matter: When I came to home at about 10 pm, I asked about the key to my mother. My mother replied affirmatively. I asked curiously "when"! The time was told my father to my mother was about 6:45 pm. Of course they couldn't tell the specific time that I had predicted but I got my gift from our beloved Shri KSK. I took the breath of satisfaction and confidence.

Our pioneer author of KP e-zine Shri Vijay Kumar ji always concludes the articles with some deep meaningful quote as I mentioned under and I could not control myself to follow them.

"I conclude herewith with my sincere thanks to Prof. Krishnamurthy, who has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation."

New Timings of BSE & NSE - an assessment by KP Muhurat Technique

Indian stock market has two different platform where (1)ventures(national or foreign), (2)investors and (3)brokers are meeting and fulfilling their ambitions. These two are NSE(National Stock Exchange) & BSE(Bombay Stock Exchange). The SEBI(Stock Exchange Board Of India) has power to control both of these by favouring the profit of above mentioned three. Now SEBI is deciding to coordinate BSE with an american and another foreign market for definite profit. BSE & NSE is opening from 9:55 am but SEBI had decided to change the timings of BSE from 17th Dec 2009,at 9:00 am for testing the circumstances. "BSE Brokers Forum" have 550 member and from them 79% members are opposing the timing change at 9:00 am. Now SEBI has put new timings start from 4th Jan 2010, at 9:00 am in front of the forum and request them to wait & watch. Forum president Shri Bhanubhai Fojdaar has told that the market fraternity will not get straight profit by this 9 am timings, but SEBI is adamant.

Shri Kanak Bosmia is a one who has revealed a new, unique and novel technique for Muhurat in KP. The book has inspired me to assess Muhurat of BSE & NSE's new timings whether it will be auspicious or not.

New Timings For BSE's Trading:4/1/2010, 9 am, Mumbai(18-57 N,72-49 E)

Muhurat Rule For Start An Auspicious Trading: (KP Muhurat,page No:124)

- (1) Asc sublord should signify 1,5,9,11 for long life of event
- (2) 10th CSL should signify 2,10,11.
- (3) 11th CSL should signify 2,10,11
- (4) 2nd CSL should signify 2,10,11
- (5) Do not select Chara Lagna
- (6) Dasa & Bhukti should signify 2,6,10,11.

Note:In Chara lagna 11th cusp(most auspicious bhava) plays the role of Badhaka, so it will negate the long life of event. We will find a chara lagna in this particular event.

Rule-1: Asc sublord should signify 1,5,9,11 for long life of event.

Rule-5: Do not select Chara Lagna

1st CSL: Sa(8,1/o 1,2)-in star Mo(7,1/o7)-sub Mo(7,1/o7)

(1) An ascendant sign is chara(movable) by being Makara and its sub lord signifies maraka repeatedly. From here, it is good enough to take u-turn for not getting an auspicious lagna for long life of event, although we will assess the entire soil of this lagna whether it is good or not.

(2)First of all, event should be healthy & pleasant by its origin. The origin is Sa, no planet in the star of Sa, its placement in 8H signifying down graph of sensex, long term investment, destructive loss, loss to investors & brokers & infamy to Indian market & SEBI. Sa is CSL of 1H, 2H & 8H, consequently it would give unfavourable results strongly. 2H & 7H are maraka for the long life of event.

5th CSL: Ma(7,1/o 4,11)-in star Me(12,1/o 6,9)-sub Ra(12,8,6,9,5,11)

5th cusp shows how immunity & harmony will be occur in the event. The scrutiny of Ma at the stellar level apparently indicate the event will be done without 1st cusp (self) and it places in 7(Maraka), owns 11(Badhaka) for short longevity of event & 4. Star lord Me is close to Su(12,1/o 8 -damages). No planet in the star of sub lord Ra which places in 12(Loss, expenditure) and moreover Ra is in Su star(8,12), therefore Ra is strong a significator of 8 & 12.

Rule-2: 10th CSL should signify 2,10,11

10th CSL:Ve(11,1/o 10,5)-in star Ve(11,1/o 10,5)- sub Ma(7,1/o 4,11)

The big motto or a hard line of any business is to get profit. In this particular, 10th cusp would signify 2(Monetary gain) & 10(being active in business). Ve is in self constellation being a strong significator of 11 for gain and profit but badhaka for longevity of event, and 10(good for business work), along with 5 (unfavourable in the sense of profit), moreover it is close to 12th cusp. Sub lord Ma places in 7 (maraca for longevity of event), owns 11 (badhaka for longevity but gain, profit for business) & 4.

Rule-3: 11th CSL should signify 2,10,11

11th CSL: Ma(7,1/o 4,11)-in star Me(12,1/o 6,9)-sub Ra(12,8,6,9,5,11)

We have already discussed Ma as above. Ma is badhaka for longevity of event but its signification of 6 & 11 houses would be beneficial for business.

Rule-4: 2nd CSL should signify 2,10,11

2nd CSL: Sa(8,1/o 1,2)-in star Mo(7,1/o 7)-sub Mo(7,1/o 7)

The flow of money (2nd cusp) will continue only when one will active in work (10th cusp), consequently it will appreciated if 2nd cusp would signify 10th. Ventures, investors and brokers are shaking hands only for what? "Money". By being 2nd CSL, Sa has no planet in its star and placed in 8 (sudden loss, infamy in business, sticking of money, scandal). Its star and sub lord Mo owns/places in 7 (Maraka) unfavourable for longevity of event.

Rule-6: Dasa & Bhukti should signify 2,6,10,11

Dasa-Bhukti (Soil for Event)

Dasa Lord Ke(1,2,3,5,6,8,9,10,12)-in star Ju(1,3,12)-sub Ve(11,10,5)

Ke signifying 6th, which is affirmative for competition gain, but being an agent of more negative planets, a little affirmation transforms in negation. Its constellation lord Ju signifying 1 (12th to 2nd) & 12 (expenditure), moreover sublord Ve has mixed nature of giving results.

Bhukti Lord Ra(12,8,6,9,5,7,11,1,3)-in star Su(12,8)-sub Mo(7)

No planet is in the constellation of Ra signifying 12 (money loss, expenditure of investment) strongly. Star lord Su places in 12 and owns 8 (sticking of money, death profit, benefit to others). Sub lord Mo is signifying 7 (Maraka) and moreover Bhukti lord Ra is 12th cuspal sublord.

Conclusion:

(1) All the rules for Muhurat of the event at stellar level and dasa-bhukti are not much beneficial.

(2) The event would not be auspicious at all for the entire platform (BSE & NSE) and SEBI may have to change it anytime without waiting.

I am expressing my gratitude and Namashkaras to Shri Kanak Bosmia ji who has revealed really a novel technique in KP Muhurat.

Air Movement Chart

During 13/Apr/2009 to 16/Jul/2009, Mer changes sign, giving the moving Air Movement Charts as bellow:

- 1) Mer Enter in Mesha on 06/Apr/2009 at 20:17:46, the chart for the time the Mer enters Mesha indicates the Air Movement chart, and its changes, until the Mer enters Vrushabha.
- 2) Mer Enter in Vrushabha on 24/Apr/2009 at 03:50:20, the chart for the time the Mer enters Vrishabha indicates the Air Movement chart, and its changes, until the Mer enters Mithuna.
- 3) Mer Enter in Mithuna on 25/May/2009 at 21:06:45, the chart for the time the Mer enters Mithuna indicates the Air Movement chart, and its changes, until the Mer enters Vrishabha.
- 4) Mer Enter in Vrishabha on 05/June/2009 at 13:04:10, the chart for the time the Mer enters Vrishabha indicates the Air Movement chart, and its changes, until the Mer enters Mithuna.
- 5) Mer Enter in Mithuna on 15/June/2009 at 07:21:01, the chart for the time the Mer enters Mithuna indicates the Air Movement chart, and its changes, until the Mer enters Karka.

Mer Enter in Mesha on 06/Apr/2009 at 20:17:46

The 4th CSL of the moving Air Movement Chart and Mercury will be checked in relation to changes in temperature of heat.

In the 1st chart, 4th CSL is Rahu. Rahu is in the star of Moon and sub of Rah.

Rahu Conj with Jup so Rahu give result of Jup. Where Wind is concerned, he tilts towards pleasant breezes, Jup not a still planet like the Sun but Jup is not violent. Because his influence is so powerful, his own influence is toward mild breezes. Rahu is in Makar Rasi, It is the sign which, more than any other brings blizzards. It increases the wind force when dominant in an Air Movement Chart. When the temperature drops to below zero, and the wind rises to a gale, driving sleet and snow before it, is typical Makara weather. And, at any time of year, when storm is indicated of any kind in a chart, such influences as it has are toward increasing the destructiveness.

Starlord is Moon, In the relation to Temperature chart, Moon is 'Cool'. It does not give excessive cold like Saturn, but temperatures are chilly. Where rain is concerned, Moon is the wettest of all planets.

Moon is In the sign of Meena, Where the Air Movement Chart is concerned, it tends toward calm weather. In this respect it is not so powerful as Vrishabha and Shimha but, nevertheless, it tends to moderate whatever windy influences are present.

Sublord is Rahu and we discuss above.

In this chart we have to check Mer also, Mer is in the star and sub of Ketu.

Mercury's influence is 'Cold'; Mercury is the chief ruler over winds. Mercury is inclined towards dry weather; Mer is in the sign of Mesha, Because Mars and Mesha are both so restless and active we need not be surprised that this movable sign gives some wind. We may consider it only fairly windy, however, in comparison with Mithuna, Kanya, Tula and Makara, which are windier, and in comparison with those signs which are calm.

Star and Sublord Ketu represent Karka as a sign lord, Karka is ruled by the Moon, which tends to restlessness and breezes, its influence is toward silence. It is the only one of the movable signs having such an influence, as Mesha gives some wind, Tula is windy, and Makara gives wind and storm. The silence is not so evident as that of Vrishabha and Shimha, but enough so that it can be considered as a sign tending toward calm weather.

All sinario give us clear picture that temperature will not be too hot, but very average and pleasant. Let us check temperature during 06/Apr/2009 to 23/Apr/2009.

Its look that as we seen in last chapter hot will be average 44°C, but in above chart we can see that average is between 42 to 35 which is low then average temperature.

Mer Enter in Vrushabha on 24/Apr/2009 at 03:50:20

In the 2nd chart 4th CSL is Jup.. Jup is in the star of Mar and Sub of Sat.

Where Wind is concerned, he tilts towards pleasant breezes, Jup not a still planet like the Sun but Jup is not violent. Because his influence is so powerful, his own influence is toward mild breezes. Jup is in the sign of Makar, It is the sign which, more than any other brings blizzards. It increases the wind force when dominant in an Air Movement Chart. When the temperature drops to below zero, and the wind rises to a gale, driving sleet and snow before it, is typical Makara weather.

Star lord is Mar, In relation to wind, Mars indicates some movement. Mars is not a windy planet, but assists action. Mars is in the sign of Meena, Where the Air Movement Chart is concerned, it tends toward calm weather. In this respect it is not so powerful as Vrishabha and Shimha but, nevertheless, it tends to moderate whatever windy influences are present.

Sublord is Sat, Saturn has a similar extreme influence on the wind. He is a still planet, tending normally toward cold, damp weather without breezes. Sat is in the sign of Mesha, Next to Vrishabha it is the stillest sign of all. In so far as it has power to do so it stifles wind. Thus it is a fine influence in winter, warming the atmosphere and quieting the breezes.

In this chart we have to check Mer also, Mer is in the star of Sun and sub of Rahu Mercury's influence is 'Cold'; Mercury is the chief ruler over winds. Mercury is inclined towards dry weather; Mer is in the sign of Mesha, Because Mars and Mesha are both so restless and active we need not be surprised that this movable sign gives some wind. We may consider it only fairly windy, however, in comparison with Mithuna, Kanya, Tula and Makara, which are windier, and in comparison with those signs which are calm.

Starlord Sun, During this period when Mer enters in new sign to present sign, we have to mix results of both the Temperature and Air- movement charts. Sun is in the sign of Mesha and we discuss about Mesha above. Rahu represent Jup,

In the 3rd chart 4th CSL is Mer. Mer is in the star of Sun and sub of Rahu.

Mercury's influence is 'Cold'; Mercury is the chief ruler over winds. Mercury is inclined towards dry weather, Mer is in Mesha, Because Mars and Mesha are both so restless and active we need not be surprised that this movable sign gives some wind. We may consider it only fairly windy, however, in comparison with Mithuna, Kanya, Tula and Makara, which are windier, and in comparison with those signs which are calm.

Starlord is Sun, By nature Sun is 'hot'. Sun is in Vrishabha, Vrishabha is a fixed sign, the most fixed of all the signs. This stabilizing influence marks its effect in an Air Movement Chart. More than any other sign, Vrishabha tends to calm weather in which not a breath of air stirs. Therefore, Vrishabha is main sign in an Air Movement Chart, it tends to stop winds.

Rahu represents Sat as sign lord, Saturn has a similar extreme influence on the wind. He is a still planet, tending normally toward cold, damp weather without breezes.

In the 4th chart 4th CSL is Jup. Jup is in the star of Mar and sub of Ven.

Where Wind is concerned, Jup tilts towards pleasant breezes, Jup not a still planet like the Sun but Jup is not violent. Because his influence is so powerful, his own influence is toward mild breezes. Jup is in the Sign of Kumbha, although it is a fixed sign, it tends to some movement of the air. Moderate breezes are characteristic of it, except when the chart is a violent one otherwise in which case, as mentioned, it makes for excessive cold and driving wind that drifts Starlord Mar In relation to wind, Mars indicates some movement. Mars is not a windy planet, but assists action. Mars has a dry influence. Mar is in sign of Mesha, Because Mars and Mesha are both so restless and active we need not be surprised that this movable sign gives some wind. We may consider it only fairly windy, however, in comparison with Mithuna, Kanya, Tula and Makara, which are windier, and in comparison with those signs which are calm.

Sublord is Ven, Venus has a moderating influence. If the previous weather was hot, Venus tends to cool it, if the previous weather was cold, Venus tends to warm things up. Venus's influences on wind is similar, Venus encourages mild movement of the atmosphere, but discourages wild movement and storms. Ven is in sign of Mesha, and about Mesha we discuss above.

In the 5th chart 4th CSL is Sat, Sat is in the star of Ven and sub of Sat.

Saturn has a similar extreme influence on the wind. He is a still planet, tending normally toward cold, damp weather without breezes. Sat is in the sign of Mesha, Next to Vrishabha it is the stillest sign of all. In so far as it has power to do so it stifles wind. Thus it is a fine influence in winter, warming the atmosphere and quieting the breezes. Of all the zodiacal signs Mesha and Shimha are the most dry. Mesha is prominent in a chart that shows much rain.

Starord Venus's influences on wind is similar, Venus encourages mild movement of the atmosphere, but discourages wild movement and storms. In respect of rain, next to the Moon, Venus is consistently the wettest planet, Saturn may give floods or drought but Venus

Dictionary of Significators in Astrology by Umang Taneja & P K Sarna, 235 pages

<http://www.webspawner.com/users/astroclinic1/dictionaryofsig.html>

1. This is a reference book of astrological rulerships or significators, similar to The Rulership Book of Rex Bills. It is limited to the alphabetical listing only and Bill's book is organized by alphabet, by sign, by planet, by house and by anatomy.

2. All astrological rulerships have been brought together on the basis of thoughts of many others and put in a good workable order. It is organized in such a way that one can use the book for quick and easy reference, and it eliminates the need to search through various other volumes.

3. The typical entries are: artistic endeavors, one's- 5, venus, Neptune (p 10); bankruptcy- 5,8, urans, saturn, 12 (p 15); diabetes- jupiter, venus, virgo, saturn (p 53).

4. In some cases, it may be different from KP, for example: love, lovers- venus, libra, 7,5 (p 115) with compared to the following:

In fact, the lover is more accurately ascertained from the 11th house, as the 11th house stands for lasting friendship and intimacy that may end to marriage. - KP Reader II, page 220

Mr.Taneja, pl refer yr book nadi astrology in which u have included the horoscope of Bill Gates under the heading Corporate Astrology by taking the B.T.20-58hrs and interprets his sound financial position.If casts the horoscope with this time,find venus as the 2nd cusp sub lord.Venus lord of 5th and 12th is in 5th in its mooltrikoni sign libra conjoined with saturn.Venus is in the star of Jup,lord 7th in 3rd.It is in sub of his own.Thus venus is connected with houses 3 and 7 through its star lord and 5 and 12 through its sublord.I know that u don't consider the sub lord of houses in yr interpretation,but u also well aware that in k.p.what u say nadi astrology,cuspal sub lord.is key fector in deciding the house matter.Keep it aside.Actually what i want to bring to yr notice is that the same horoscope is discussed by other two k.p.astrologer,one Mr Tin Win and other is mr OVN Murthi.Both of them is writing articles in K.P.Ezine published by shri kanak boscma.Mr tin win has taken the B.T.as 22-00hrs (in k p..Ezine november 2009).According to him 2nd sub lord is also venus.But here Jupiter lord of 6 and 10 falls in 2 house.As per murthi, (B.T.21-15-30hrs in k.p ezine sept 2008)sub lord is mars.Mars lord of 6 and 11 in 4th with lagnesh Mercury.Mars is in star of moon lord of 2nd in 10th.All of u have interpreted BillGates financial position,taking different time,but conclusion is the same.How ?.

Bill Gates and time fector.

Mr.Tin Win, u did not care to reply my mail.yr choice.may i ask u two questions ?

(1) is it true that in k.p.astrology sub lord is the key fector in deciding all matters?

(2)is it true that,the planet in his own sub and no planets in any of his three constellations becomes the strongest significator of the houses its owns ?

2nd cusp sub lord venus is in his own sub and no planets in his stars.it is in 5th in his mooltrikoni sign libra.what this indicates.pl.refer yr article k.p.house groupings.no wealth houses 5,8 and 12.moderate wealth 5,8 and 12 with 2 and 11.

ANSWERS

1. There are different TOBs for the Bill Gates because the AstroDatabank TOB 10:00 PM is only A rated, not AA by BC and BR as provided in the following link, and another floating TOB of after 9:00 PM is also mentioned there.
http://www.astro.com/astro-databank/Gates%2C_Bill

2. In my study 'Why They are Rich?' in KPE-zine Nov 2009, all ten TOBs (10:00 PM for Gates) are taken form the AstroDatabank source for the sake of consistency.

3. In our another study the TOB of 21:15:18 is found to be satisfied with the 2nd cuspal sub lord Mars's favorable signification of 2,6,10,11 houses along with the least unfavorable signification of 5,8,12 houses. It is almost the same as 21:15:30 PM taken by Murthy ji.

4. In the Nadi Astrology, Accurate Predictive Methodology by Umang Taneja, 2002, pp 130-131, Gates' success is justified by the signification of 2,6,10,11 by almost all planets except Venus, other than taking consideration of 2nd or/and 11th cuspal sublord only. Without given the birth details or the Ascendant position there, it is not known how TOB 20-58 PM is got.

5. In the Astrology for Life by David Hawthorne, V.K. Choudhry, 1999, p 170, Bill Gate's chart is analyzed by the SA approach using TOB 9:01:19 PM rectified by V.K. Choudhry and the chart is used on the cover of the book.

6. In the Sanjay Rath's books (for example Collected Papers in Vedic Astrology, 2006, pp 218-219), Gates' chart of TOB 21:21:29 PM is analyzed by Vedic along with yogas.

7. In short Gates's chart has been analyzed by using the different TOBs but the conclusion is found more or less the same because it has been justified by different systems, KP, Nadi, SA, Vedic etc. and by a little different approach or assumption even in the same system.

8. KP is the sub lord theory only. The sub lord is the deciding factor in the signification of a planet as a cuspal sub lord of the concerned house in considering whether an event is promised or not, or as a dasa lord in fixing the timing of event according to the following KP fundamental rule:

"The planet is the source, constellation indicates nature of the result and the sub is a deciding factor whether the matter is favourable or not." -- Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Vol. 2, 1966, Sagar Publications, p 41/ KP Reader III, p 136 (New Edition)/ p 129 (Original Edition)/ KP Reader V p 129

9. A planet in its own sub is strong as the signification at both levels of planet and sub is the same. A planet having no planets in its stars is a strong significator of the house which it occupies and the house(s) owned by that planet, if they are empty. That planet also becomes a strong significator of the house(s) for it is a cuspal sub lord.

10. Generally 5, 8, 12 are supposed to be loss in business. But it is not so conclusive in the findings of the study 'Why they are rich?', especially 5th house signification seems to be positive for having the intelligence to carry out the planning to be rich for those ten self made billionaires. It is open to further research with more sample charts.

Sir, with your help in giving my password I could see the December issue of KPZINE.

All articles in the issue are nice and educative for a new comer and refresher for the K.P practitioners. One small suggestion sir, the titles of the articles and names of authors of the articles may kindly be printed with red colour as the colours used now are not allowing to know the names of articles and their authors with regards,

C.S.Rao (chanduri _sr)

Dear Sir,

Thanks for your mail; there are certain design aspects to be followed while designing an electronic book (eBook) or Digital Book. KP-Ezine is an eBook i.e. meant for reading, enjoying and acquiring knowledge onscreen without a need for print edition / publication.

If it is a print edition, naturally most of the contents will be in black colour, but it is in an eBook format, hence wherever titles appear, use of multi colour style makes reading a pleasant experience and also enhance its aesthetics. In multi colour format, different background and foreground colours gives it colour match.

Main purpose, advantage and feature of an eBook is to eliminate usage of paper, a global eco issue. There are many advantages in presenting it as an eMagazine i.e. portable, shareable, archiving, no need to carry bulk printed books, cuts expenses on paper cost, printing ink cartridge cost etc. While we value your suggestions, certain aspects, if we change, may reduce its aesthetics and elegance. Hope this clarifies font colour issue and you will understand the design requirements.

Warm Regards

Shradhanjali

Dear Kanakji,

I was really shocked to hear the demise of Poojya Hasmukhrai ji. He was not only a book seller but also a great Astrologer. His timely publication of updated events and news about astrology has helped many astrologers like me and he had a treasure of books of all branches of astrology which was very useful to fellow astrologers. His demise is a great loss to the whole astrological community. Please convey my heartfelt condolences to the bereaved family .

Astrologically yours,
D.Krishnamurthy
kizhminal kishmu

Dear Editor,

I am very sad to hear the news of his demise of India's Number One Online Astrological Bookstore owner Shri Hasmukhrai Mehtaji. From my experience I had found him gracious, courteous and a fine person, lovable by all. I procured "Nakshatra Chintamni" book from him, which he promptly sent. On receipt I found about 15 pages were missing in the book. In this regard I still have a record of our e-mail correspondence how he replied very courteously. Later on he regretted his inability to send the photo copies of the missing pages and offered free supply of another book, if I purchased any other book. As I did not want any other book, I thanked him for his efforts. We have lost a great courteous person. I understand that he tried even to get the required books of customers from abroad, if he has no stock of them. Such a helpful nature person, he was.

My deep sympathy and condolence to the bereaved family. May his noble soul rest in peace. It is irreparable loss for the astrological books lovers.

Yours sincerely,
K.S.V. Ramani

Shraddhanjali to late Shri Hasmukhrai Mehta

I am fortunate to know late Shri Hasmukhrai Mehta ji long time ago in the Yahoo KP discussion group as a very knowledgeable KP astrologer and online dealer of books on KP and Vedic astrology. Usually I ordered the Indian astrological books from him and recommended him as a reliable supplier of books on line in the KP group and book review section of the KP-Ezine since I really found him as an honest and reliable gentleman providing excellent service. I remember so well that he always helped me to get any astrology book or magazine available in India .We lost our elder capable KP astrologer and miss his 'Book of the Week' with the interesting articles and new arrivals etc. I will continue to order astrology books from his ' India 's Number One Online Superstore', which is to be carried on by his children.

May his soul rest in peace!

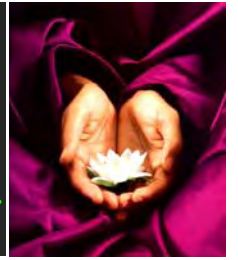

Tin Win

Hasmukhbhai,whom I admired always,was a noble person and also my well wisher.

Many know Hasmukhbhai as a famous Bookseller of Astrology books,but few knew he himself was a very good KP-astrologer. Bad health compelled him to give up astrological services some time ago. When I joined the KP group many years ago,Hasmukhbhai and I got to know each other very closely.He stayed atVadodara,a city very near to Ahmedabad,where I reside.I visited Vadodara quite often and took the opputunity to meet him and discuss astrology and other matters and took valuable guidance from him from time to time.. I remember very well, on Feb 25, 2009, on the occasion of my Book being published, I had invited close and select persons who were my wellwishers.

Hasmukhbhai, was one among them. He came to grace the event, despite failing health and family advice. I will always remember his guidance on important matters pertaining to astrology and other subjects, not because he was an elder but he was very knowledgeable too. He was of my father's age group.

Soon after the demise of late Sri Raichurji, we have now lost Hasmukhbhai, another noble person and an excellent KP astrologer.

Our heartfelt condolences to Hasmukhbhai's family .

MAY HIS SOUL rest in peace.

One of my colleagues had to travel outstation on official trip and he had put up the matter to his management for approval. He indicated to me frankly that he seriously wanted this official journey to happen so that some important personal commitments could also be done simultaneously at the destination planned for official travel. Since, he did not get management approval so far, he was not able to plan the journey and was anxious to know if the travel was possible.

In this anxiety, the native asked me on Jan 07, 2010 if he was to travel within Jan 10, 2010. I did not ask any horary number from the native and just worked on the time chart.

The co-ordinates of judgment

In a horary chart for travel, it is the 3rd house that affects travel by making one get out of the house (4th house). This has to have a linkage to the 11th house for materialization of desire. The dasha sequence and transit enact the event accordingly.

Analysis of the chart

1. Analyze lagna

Lagna being a moveable sign and its lord Mars debilitated in 4th house with retrogression indicated great urge to get out of the house (4th house) for travel. Mars is the sub-lord of the lagna, which as lagna lord falls in the star of Mercury (lord of 3-6th house) placed in 8th house making the native to get frustrated for travel.

Moon was seen placed in 5th house; hence the chances of trip getting materialized were also indicated.

I considered the chart OK and decided to proceed further.

2. Analyze 3rd cusp

This chart was a difficult one. The reason was the 3rd cusp, which is lorded by Saturn as its sub-lord. By conventional norms, the journey was to be delayed against the wish of the querist. At first temptation, I also tended to declare the result in this tone.

I, however, noted that Saturn was a self strong planet, as it did not have any planet in its star. Such planets when become the sub-lord of a cusp do have a dictate in the result of fructification of matters related to that house. Thus, Saturn had to decide the journey. It was noted that Saturn was in the star and sub of Moon (fastest planet) in the 5th house (a promising house). This gave me the inkling that Saturn not only would commence the journey but would also do it soon.

I kept this observation reserved till further analysis.

3. Analyse 10th cusp

This cusp was necessary to be analyzed, as the trip was to be materialized on professional ground. We have to see, if such combination exist.

10th cuspal sub-lord was Ketu, which happens to be a strong planet as there is no other planet in its star. Such planets have a decisive say in the matter under scrutiny. Note that this Ketu is placed in 3rd house meaning that the travel was to be enabled.

At the stellar level, Ketu falls in the star of Jupiter placed in 10th house as 9-12th lord. Incidentally, Jupiter is the 11th cuspal sub-lord, thus linking Ketu to the 11th cusp and tending to materialize the travel without doubt.

4. Look to Fortuna

Saturn happens to be the sub-lord of Fortuna and the analysis done at Sec 2 hold good here. Thus, Saturn promoted the trip in principle.

5. Look to dasha sequence

Since Saturn was found instrumental in effecting the travel and it was an event to happen in a few days, I pondered

As was expected, my colleague received the management approval on the night of Jan 07, 2010 and he had flown to desired destination on Saturday Jan 09, 2010 on duty. He also finished his personal work during the same time. He came back happily and offered me sweets in return.

having Moon in the sub of Saturn can concentrate. This native also will meditate and concentrate. (KP Reader III, page /Original Edition, Practical Part page 238)

3. Tiger Woods' chart is a typical example satisfying the above KP rule, as his Moon in Scorpio at 28:57 is in the star of Mercury and sub of Saturn, His father, Earl Woods, published a book, "Training A Tiger" in 1997. When Tiger Woods practiced golf as a kid, his father would shout, wave things, run around and do whatever he could to distract him, from which he learned to totally concentrate. On the green, he will smile and wave at people, but when he turns his attention to his game, he moves into a zone that is focused. He is a Buddhist and meditates, but not as much as he used to.

4. His high power of concentration in combination of the following athletic talent indicators in his chart would certainly enhance achievement levels through his serious intensity in golf games:

- 1) The 1st (self) , 2nd (money) and 10th (name, fame, reputation) houses ruler Mercury is well placed in the 5th (games and sports) house and in mutual aspect with Saturn in the 11th (gains) house as lord of 5th and 6th (winning in competition) houses;
- 2) 1st and 11th CSL Ra+ is self strong without having any planets in its stars and signifying favorable 1,2,3 (sports, ability),5,6 and 11 houses for success in sports and gain of money. [Ra+(2) is 1,11th CSL (+ planet not having any planets in its stars), Sgl Ve(3,3) and in star Ju(7,4-7-8); sub Ke+(9) bring 4th CSL, Aspt by Sa(11,5-6) and in star Ve(3,3).];
- 3) 3rd CSL Ve signifies favorable 3,5,6 and 11 houses. [Ve(3,3); in star Sa(11,5-6); sub Sa(11,5-6)]
- 4) 5th CSL Ju signifies favorable 1,2,5 and 10 houses. [Ju(7,4-7-8); in star Me(5,1-2-10); sub Su(4-12)];
- 5) 10th CSL Me signifies favorable 1,2,5,6,10 and 11 houses. [Me(5,1-2-10); in star Su(4,12); sub Sa(11,5-6)].

5. His achievements during Venus Dasa and Sun Dasa to date make him the most successful golfer and the world's first athlete to earn over a billion dollars (before taxes), having earned over $100 million annually from winnings and endorsements in recent years.

What Makes Him to fall

6. So what makes him loose the discipline instilled in him by his father to the point that he crashed his car on November 27, 2009 (Su-Ve-Ju-Ke DBAS) and on December 11, 2009 (Su-Ve-Ju-Mo) he had to announce an indefinite leave from professional golf to focus on his marriage after his past infidelities came to light?

Indication of Running DBAS

7. Dasa lord Su(4,12); is in star Ve(3,3); sub Ve(3,3).
 Bhukti lord Ve(3,3); in star Sa(11,5-6); sub Sa(11,5-6).
 Antara lord Ju(7,4-7-8) is 2,5,8th CSL; in star Me(5,1-2-10); sub Su(4-12).
 Sookshma lord Ke(+9) is 4th CSL, Aspt by Sa(11,5-6), sgl Ma(9,9); in star Ve(3,3); sub Me(5,1-2-10). (+ planet not having any planets in its stars).
 Sookshma lord Mo+(4,11) is 9th CSL; in star Me(5,1-2-10); sub Sa(11,5-6).

8. In combination of Su Dasa and Ve Bhukti together with running Antara and Sookshma, 4,6,8,12 signification for car accident, 2,5,8,12 for loss of reputation and financial trouble, and 1,5,9 for a break in golf could be generally found in the above DBAS signification. Natal aspect of Mars from 9th as lord of 9th (12th to 10 house of name, fame, reputation) on Sun and Venus could have changed the positive results of Sun and Venus. Moreover, Venus positive effect may be affected by aspect of transit Saturn as lord of 6th house of conflict and trouble on his natal Venus for a long time.

Transit of the DBAS Lords on the day of Car Accident

(@ 2:30 AM on 27-11-2009 in Jupiter Island , FL)

9. The transit of the DBAS lords was more damaging Woods' reputation and profession by overwhelm signification of 9th (12th to 10) house. Dasa lord Sun, Bhukti lord Venus and Sookshma lord Ketu were transiting in the sub of Moon, which is a strong significator of 9th house by being its CSL without having any planets in its star. Antara lord Jupiter was transiting in the star of Mars, which is in 9th and lord of 9th in natal chart. Transit Saturn, lord of 5,6th houses was aspecting Bhukti lord natal Venus within close orb of 5 deg.

Uranus Factor

10. Furthermore most astrologers would blame the planet Uranus which could cause reckless behavior, surprises and separation. Transit Uranus has been conjunct the 7th house cusp of marriage for the last couple of months and is making challenging squares (ninety degree formations) to his Moon in 4th (by close orb) again and again. The 7th house (marriage) and Moon (women, home, habit and family) could be shaken by transit Uranus, perhaps by turning his personal life pattern upside down. On 27-11-2009 transit Uranus was retrograde in Aquarius 28:48 within 2 deg of 7th cusp in Pisces 00:59.

Question of Marriage

11. On the question of whether he could save his marriage as an upright family man indicated by 7th lord Jupiter in the 7th house by leaving golf and staying home and seeking treatment for possible sex addiction which may be caused by the Venus-Neptune-Moon-Mars complex in his natal chart, Woods' 7th CSL does not reveal an indication of multiple-marriage. There is no clear signal of divorce by the Dasa lords. His 5th CSL denotes love marriage. He may therefore save his marriage despite the circulating opinion of inevitable divorce. [marriage to Elin on 05-10-2004 (Ve-Ke-Ra-Mo), daughter Sam born on 18-06-2007 (Su-Sa-Me-Sa) and son Charlie born on 08-02-2009 (Su-Ke-Mo-Ke)]

- 1) 7th CSL Ma(9,9) is in own star of Ma(9,9); sub Ra+(2) which is 1,11th CSL and in star Ju(7,4-7-8).
- 2) Current Su Dasa is going to end on 01 May 2010 and Mo Dasa is up to 01 May 2020. Dasa lord Mo+(3,11) is 9th CSL; in star Me(5,1-2-10); sub Sa(11,5-6).
- 3) 5th CSL Ju+(7,4-7-8) is 2,5,8th CSL; in star Me(5,1-2-10); sub Su(4-12).

Question of Coming Back

12. The coming Dasa (May 2010 to May 2020) lord Moon would indicate mixed results although his earning capacity may return to some extent since Moon is signifying 2,6 and 11th houses of monetary gain. However, the road would not be the same as before in his endeavor to get back high achievements and respectability for him because of the joint signification of 1,5 and 9th houses. His coming back is possible after entering Moon Dasa Moon Bhukti (May 2010) since his horoscope is basically strong in this aspect.

Sri Lanka Election - Prediction Using Ruling Planet

G Subramanian

19, West Road, West C.I.T. Nagar, CHENNAI 600035

E-mail: gurusubra@yahoo.com

Today being Sunday, I wanted to make use of my spare time for some astrological analysis. The question that came uppermost in my mind was about Sri Lanka elections. As I had a deep urge to know about the outcome of the elections, I decided to solve the question by resorting to the Ruling Planets method, which has already been discussed in the back numbers of the K.P. astrology journals.

I calculated the Ruling Planets as per the following:

Place: Chennai (13N04, 80E17)

Date: 3rd January, 2010

Time: 8-56-11 AM IST

K.P. New Ayanamsa: 23D54M24S

The Ruling Planets were found to be as under:

Ascendant: Capricorn (24-29-58) Saturn-Mars—Rahu

Moon: Cancer (21-35-42) Moon-Mercury-Sun

Day Lord: Sun

I gave horary numbers to the two contestants as they came to my mind, 113 for Rajapakse and 214 for Fonseka.

The sign-star-sub for the above numbers are:

113 Mercury-Moon-Mars

214 Saturn-Rahu-Jupiter

The five Ruling Planets as adopted originally by late Shri. K.S.K are Saturn, Mars, Moon, Mercury and Sun. It may be readily observed that The sign-star-sub of 113 tally exactly with the RPs enumerated and therefore, I arrived at the conclusion that President Rajapakse will come out successful in the elections. Let us wait and see! (Article was prepared on 3rd January, 2010)

Author's (Mr GS) prediction has been proved accurate.

The people of Sri Lanka re-elected President Mahinda Rajapakse as the sixth Executive President of this island republic with a huge majority of 1.8 million votes on Tuesday Source: The Official Government News Portal of Sri Lanka - Thursday, 28 January 2010 - <http://www.news.lk>

Now a days Samajwadi Party (SP), passing through worst period. Mr.Amarsing has full power in SP. and founder of SP, Sri Mulayamsing always gives full support to Amarsing ji. But now a days the gap between both is widening.

Mr.Amarsingh resigned from key post of SP and now he is only an ordinary member of SP. I am very curious to know what is there in store for Mr.Amarsing in SP.

I used my rules as bellow to solve this query:

Who will be in winning position in politics?

If 10th (One's position in politics) sublord signifies, 10 (One's Reputation), 3 (One's ability), 11 (One's reputation as a Winner) in the DBA of 3, 10, 11 one can be as a winning position.

Question:What is the fate of Shri Thakur Amarsing in Samajwadi party?

Horary No: 222 /249(Number taken random generated from KP Astro3.5 Software)

Horary Date:10/01/2010

Horary Time:13:36:39 PM

Horary Place: L.G.Hospital- Ahmedabad

Long./Lat: 23 N 00, 72 E 36

In this horary chart 10th CSL is Rahu. Rahu is in the star and sub of Sun.

Ra+(11), Rahu is Conj with Sun, Mer and Ven. Su(11, 7), Me(10, 5-8), Ju(12, 2-11), Ve(11, 4-9) No planet in the star of Rahu and Rahu is CSL of 4,7,10,11. in the star and sub of Su(11, 7). Rahu signifies 10,11.

Mr.Amarsing has difference of opinion with Ramgopal Yadav. So we need to check for opponent side too.

10th CSL for opponent side is also Rahu.

Ra+(5), Rahu is conj with Sun, Mer, Ven. Su(5, 1), Me(4, 2-11), Ve(5, 3-10) in the star and sub of Su(5, 1), Rahu signifies 3,10,11 all three bhava but for Mr.Amarsing side we get only two. Even to come to final conclusion we need to check DBA.

For Mr.Amarsing:

Period lords are Ju-Ma-Sa-Sa

Ju(12, 2-11), in the star of Ma(6, 3-10), in the sub of Ve(11, 4-9).

Dasalord signifies 3,10,11 =OK

Ma(6, 3-10), in the star of Me(10, 5-8), in the sub of Mo(9, 6).

Bhukti lord signifies 3,10= OK

Sa+(7, 1-12), no planet in the star of Sat, and Sat is CSL of 2,8,12 in the star of Mo(9, 6), in the sub of Mo(9, 6).

Antra lord does not signify required bhava 3,10,11 at all so no need to check sookshma. This Antra ends on 26/2/1010.

For opponent:

Period lords are Ju-Ma-Sa-Sa

Ju(6, 5-8), in the star of Ma(12, 4-9), in the sub of Ve(5, 3-10).

Dasalord signifies 3,10,11 = OK

Ma(12, 4-9), in the star of Me(4, 2-11), in the sub of Mo(3, 12).

Bhukti lord signifies 3,11 = OK

Sa+(1, 6-7), No planet in the star of Sat and Sat is CSL of 2,6,8 in the star of Mo(3, 12), in the sub of Mo(3, 12).

Antra and sookshma lord is Sat, Sat signifies 3=OK

Looking at both sides I found that opponent side is strong and there is no positive development / future in SP for Mr.Amarsing. Soon he will resign from SP or he will shown the way out from the party before Sat Antra, which ends on 26/2/2010.

Will Mr SPS Rathod get arrested?

From last many days' media talking about Ruchika's Case. Due to media's support some truth comes out and now sympathy is with Late Ruchika's family. Even after many talking against Mr. SPS Rathod Police is not yet ready to arrest Mr Rathod. This case was handed over to CBI. Now the question is will Mr. SPS Rathod be arrested?

I am not with any side, I don't know any truth, or I am not interested to go in any more details who is right and who is wrong. My interest is only to check my rules, given below and so I am going to discuss about the query with help of the Rule developed by me.

Arrest of a person:

1) Police in horary chart is 6th Cusp 2) Impersonator is 12th Cusp 3) Law/Court is 9th cusp 4) Court arrest Order is 11th (9th Court and order of court 3rd from 9 = 11th) 5) Runaway person is 7th cusp.

Rules I used:

1) If 6th SL (Police) signifies 1 (self effort) , and 11 (Success), Police can able to arrest runaway person. In the DBA of 1,11

2) If 11th SL (court order) signifies 6 (Victory on enemy), 11 (success). During DBA of 6, 11. One can arrest by Police on court order.

3) If 7th SL signifies 5 (Gain to opponent), 10th (4th from 7th come back home) 6th (12th from 7th Lost reputation.) During DBA of 5,6,10. One can arrest by Police on court order.

Question: Will Mr. SPS Rathod be arrested?

Horary Time: 12:32:06 PM

Form above rule Rule 2nd fits with our question.

2) If 11th SL (court order) signifies 6 (Victory on enemy), 11 (success). During DBA of 6, 11. One can arrest by Police on court order.

In this horary 11th CSL is Sun, Sun is in the star of Ven and sub of Ketu.

Su(11, 7), in the star of Ve(11, 4-9), in the sub of Ke+(5). Ketu is aspected by Jup and Sat. Ju(12, 2-11), Sa+(7, 1-12).

11th CSL Sat signifies 11. So we can say he will be arrested.

Will Mr SPS Rathod get arrested?

Kanak Bosmia

4-9). Antralord is Ketu, signifies 11. Ketu represent Jup and Sat so also in RP = OK
This Antra run up to 28/1/2010 and in my opinion he will arrested up to 28/1/2010.

If we want to go up to Sookshma (which I do not check in my regular practice, I predict up to Antra) Ma(6, 3-10), in the star of Me(10, 5-8), in the sub of Mo(9, 6).

Sookshma is mar and Mar signifies 6 and also in RP but as Node give result first, in this horary Rahu represent Sun, Mer, Ven- Sun and Mer is in RP so Rahu gives result not Mar.

Ra+(11), Su(11, 7), Me(10, 5-8), Ve(11, 4-9) in the star of Su(11, 7), in the sub of Su(11, 7).
Rahu Signifies 11 and also in RP, this Sookshma run up to 11 to 16/1/2010.

So there is a chance of arrest of Mr.SPS Rathod.

Cancellation of Punarphoo

A Magical Unity of Saturn - Moon

On 19th Jan, I had read a beautiful article called “ KP for Beginners-Part:9(KP-Ezine- December, 2008) ” written & compiled by our senior respected author Shri Tin Win ji. The subject of this article is “ Saturn Relevant to Timing of Events ”. I was stuck at a special paragraph on page no-9. I have read it 2 times. The paragraph is

“The experience is that whenever both Saturn and Moon are applying conjunction in the 7th house or 8th house, the date of marriage is postponed and in the latter case, the marriage with the first party breaks off and the marriage takes place with change of partner. But where both the planets are in rapt conjunction (exact degree) in the said houses, the dosha is totally nullified and there is no delay at all. (KP for Beginners, Vol.V, 1994, page 755/Punarphoo, 1999, page 84) ”

On the next day a boy-in-love came to see me and asked whether his married girl-friend could be one once again. Some complications were there in front of him. Girl friend's father filed a police case against him of kidnapping a non adult girl. Now coming to the point, the girl has still 6 months short of being an adult. Here, significant word is “non-adult ”. Let us scrutinize her chart and see how Sa-Mo combination worked at lightning speed which is sent per cent right in this girl's chart. We can call it a definite Cancellation of Punarphoo rule.

Birth Details of the Girl: 20/6/1992, 8 am, Valsad (Gujarat)

First condition is that both Sa & Mo have to be in rapt conjunction.

- In this chart, Sa is retrograde and in orb of about 5 degree with Mo. They both are in a same rashi Makar. So the condition is fulfilled perfectly.

Second Condition is that both Sa & Mo should be occupants of either 7th or 8th house.

- In this chart, Sa is very closed to 8th cusp (within orb of 2 degree) where Mo is placed, and so this condition is also fulfilled.

Third Condition is that the marriage is to break off with 1st party and then settle down with another partner. - I have already mentioned that the boy came to me and asked me whether they can be one once again.

Significators of Favorable Bhavas of Marriage: 2nd - Me, Ju, Mo, 7th - Sa, 11th - Ju, Ve

Significators of Unfavorable Bhavas of Marriage: 1st - Mo, 6th - Ve, Ke, Ra, Me, Ju, 10th - Su, Mo, Sa, Ma, Me, Ju

DBA (Soil of an Event)

Marriage Date of the Girl: 13 December 2009 (DBA-Ra/Ve/Sa)

Dasa Lord: Ra(6,2,12,10,4,11,3) in star of Ke(12,3,11,4,6) & sub of Ra(6,2,12,10,4,11,3)

Dasa lord Ra significantly signifying both favourable and unfavourable bhavas for marriage except 7th (legal bondage). Moreover, Ra appears in both favourable and unfavourable significators of marriage as agent of Su, Me, Ju, Ve.

Bhukti Lord: Ve(12,11) in star of Ra(6,2,12,10,4,11,3) and sub of Ra(6,2,12,10,4,11,3)

Ve has rapt conjunction with Su and Ke. Bhukti lord Ve is also signifying both favourable and unfavourable bhavas of marriage.

Antara Lord: Sa®(7,8,9) in star of Ma(10,5) and sub of Ra(6,2,12,10,4,11,3)

Sa is a strong significator of 7th house having no planet in its constellation.

Conclusion: Sometimes we just have to assume the rule by neglecting special reason to make a conclusion. I don't have any special successful reason which can contribute to drawing conclusion, I just follow the paragraph word by word.

Honourable Tin Win ji has been contributing a lot in this glorious platform of KP-Ezine by his various examined charts and compilations. I can't even think, just can bow down an honest living legend.

Rectification of Birth Time By Prenatal Epoch and Ruling Planets

G.H.W.Silva,
SREEPALEE Astrological Services,
Ketawala – Leula, Sri Lanka

In the past the Birth Time of a native was taken according to the facilities available at the place of birth. Now a days, we have the clock time which is internationally available and the clocks are the time keepers for the nations. Therefore it is not necessary to worry about the accuracy of the time of birth.

However we are not expected to obtain the correct time from the staff in the confinement as all the members of the medical staff are concerned about the safe delivery and also the safety of the mother and the child to be born. Therefore they do not necessarily responsible for giving the exact time of birth.

Generally we get the clock time of birth. This time is used to cast the horoscope of the native. If it is not correct, the horoscope details would not be correct and the predictions given accordingly will not be accurate.

We normally rectify the birth time, when we prepare a horoscope to eliminate all the doubts about the time of birth.

In the rectification of birth time, there are a number of methods according to eastern principles of astrology. Out of all, we, the followers of Krishnamurthi Paddhathi, use the Golden Rule of Krishnamurthi Paddhathi, the RULING PLANETS.

According to the reliable system of Krishnamurthi Paddhathi, the ruling planets activate at the time of birth or any event of the life of the naïve. Even at the time of any post mortem, these ruling planets appear conjointly.

So the RULING PLANETS could be applied to any event of life.

This is an attempt to rectify the birth time using ruling planets and the method of pre natal epoch.

Pre natal epoch is the time of conception of a native. This conception takes place in the mother of the native. Approximately in a period of nine month, the naïve will come out of the mother and start the life separately, in normal births.

There are other abnormal births, where the native will not complete the nine months periods in the womb, in cases such as pre mature births.

In the eastern principles of astrology, the time of conception is used to rectify the time of birth. It states that the time of conception and the time of birth have a very good astrological combination. Therefore we could use this principle to rectify any doubtful birth times.

In the pre natal epoch method, the rule is that Moon and Ascendant of birth has a very good combination with that of the time of conception. Here the Moon and the Ascendant of birth will have an interchange with the Moon and Ascendant of the time of conception.

If the birth occurred in a waxing Moon period, the birth Moon will exchange with the position of the Ascendant at the time of conception. The Ascendant at the birth will exchange with the Moon of the conception. If the Moon at birth is waning, the Ascendant of birth will exchange with the opposite sign of the Moon at the time of conception. In the same manner, waning Moon at birth will exchange with the opposite sign of the Ascendant at the time of conception.

As an example, when moon is waxing at birth,

Natal		Prenatal
Ascendent	=====	Moon.
Moon	=====	Ascendent.

When the Moon is waning at the time of birth;

Natal		Prenatal
Ascendent	=====	Moon + 180
Moon	=====	Ascendent + 180

To explain it further, we could take as follows;

Natal		Prenatal
Ascendent – Aries 15	=====	Moon – Aries 15
Moon – Cancer 10	=====	Ascendent – Cancer 10.

When the Moon is waning at the time of birth;

Natal		Prenatal
Ascendent – Aries 15	=====	Moon – Libra 15
Moon – Cancer 10	=====	Ascendent – Capricorn 10

We have applied this method for a large number of birth charts and found the accuracy. As stated above, in abnormal births or premature births, it did not match. However we are working on a rule to apply for premature births and it is in a state of study.

This is an example chart, where we have used both Ruling Planets for the verification of birth time of a native.

He was born on 6th January 1950 at 5.55 am, h5:30e, in Galle, Sri Lanka, 06N02, 80E13.

We have worked out the Ascendant as Sagittarius 15:05:54 and the Moon was in Cancer 12:45:59.

Mercury

Jupiter

By using Ruling Planets, we have arrived at the following position for the ascendant;

Ascendent	Jupiter	Sagittarius	00:00:00 – 30:00:00
Star	Venus	Sagittarius	13:20:00 – 26:40:00
Sub	Venus	Sagittarius	13:20:00 – 15:33:20
Sub Sub	Saturn	Sagittarius	14:45:33 – 15:06:40

Arrange of this sub sub is taken for the Ascendant of the native according to the Ruling Planets. We consider a date close to nine months as the date of conception. We have to count ten Lunar months or 273 days backward from the date of birth of a child. It will give the approximate day of conception. This date was 7th April 1949. (Llewellyn George in his book A to Z Horoscope Maker and Delineator, Llewellyn Publications, 1997, page 550)

On that day, around 2.00 am, Moon was transiting in Gemini and the Ascendant was in Capricorn. So we selected this was the date of conception.

When Capricorn 12:45:48 was rising as Ascendant, Moon was in Gemini 14.46:25 at 1:51:02 am, 7th April 1949, at Galle, Sri Lanka. Therefore Sagittarius 14:46:25 was taken as the Ascendant at the time of birth. This position was rising at 05:53:36 am. Therefore this time was taken as the corrected birth time.

GOOD LUCK.

OM GAJAANANAM NAMAMHYAM

At the outset I wish everybody a Happy and Prosperous New Year 2010. During the KP Astrologers Forum's fortnightly meeting conducted in Dec-2009 chaired by Sri Rajendra Nimje, IAS. President, Respiratory Disease Pneumonia was discussed in detail and 17 practical charts were taken up (Source: Astrodatbank).

Pneumonia is an abnormal inflammatory condition of the lung. It is often characterized as including inflammation of the parenchyma of the lung (that is, the alveoli) and abnormal alveolar filling with fluid (consolidation and exudation).

The alveoli are microscopic air-filled sacs in the lungs responsible for absorbing oxygen. Pneumonia can result from a variety of causes, including infection with bacteria, viruses, fungi, or parasites, and chemical or physical injury to the lungs. Its cause may also be officially described as idiopathic—that is, unknown—when infectious causes have been excluded.

Typical symptoms associated with pneumonia include cough, chest pain, fever, and difficulty in breathing. Diagnostic tools include x-rays and examination of the sputum. Treatment depends on the cause of pneumonia; bacterial pneumonia is treated with antibiotics. Pneumonia is a common illness which occurs in all age groups, and is a leading cause of death among the elderly and people who are chronically and terminally ill. Additionally, it is the leading cause of death in children under five years old worldwide.

In Medical Astrology Natural Zodiac (Kalapursha), 3rd House Gemini sign (breathing), its lord Mercury (karaka), ruling lungs, Saturn, Jupiter (karaka) indicate respiratory system & pneumonia disease. Cancer sign is for lower lung, 4th Cusp (Lungs) and Moon (depositing of fluids in lower lobes of the lungs) & Sun also indicate lung infection; Rahu is also a significator of lung problems. Star Punurvasu indicates lungs, respiratory system & pneumonia. (Bill Rex's Rulership Book/ Umang Taneja's Dictionary of Significators; Dr. J. Lee Lehman's Rulerships, Judith Hill's Medical Astrology, Dr. Jagannath Rao' Medical Astrology; K Subramaniam's Medical Astrology for All; source & charts courtesy by Sri Tin Win, KP Astrologer).

If 1st CSL promised longevity, the native would recover from the disease.

Raphael's Table of Houses for Northern Latitudes from the Equator to 50 Degrees N.O' Also for Leningrad 59 Degrees N. 56' (Paperback)

W. Foulsham & Co., LTD. 104 pages

1. Raphael's Ephemeris and Table of Houses ruled the astrological world during the period when Gururji KSK was doing research and writing KP. Nowadays the highly accurate Swiss ephemeris dominates the current astrological SWs like KPAstro 3.5, Jagannatha Hora, Astro-Kundli, Jyotishya Deepika, Astracadabra, KPStarOne.

2. The drawback of the Raphael's Tables of Houses (first published in 1821) is that only ascendant position is given to the degree and minute and other cuspal positions to the nearest degree only. The current Universal Table of Houses, Michelsen Tables of Houses and AFA Tables of Houses give the cuspal positions up to the degree and minute and Krishman KP Tables of Houses up to the second. The manual calculation by using these Tables of Houses provides the cuspal positions very close to the SW results. In the new era of high precision drive by SWs like Astrodienst/KPAstro 3.5, the Raphael's Ephemeris and Table of Houses look like a historical record only.

3. The manual calculation of planetary positions from the American Ephemeris can give the nearest accuracy of Astrodienst/KPAstro 3.5. The Raphael's Ephemeris or Swiss online Ephemeris do not provide up to the second positions of all planets, except Sun and Moon, and so they cannot give the same accuracy of the American Ephemeris in manual calculation.

QUESTION (continued from last month)

Re: Bill Gates and time factor

From: Shirish Patel <snp9639@yahoo.com> [Chat now]

To: Tin Win <tw853@yahoo.com>

Dear mr tin win, yr reply creates more confusion rather than controversy. It also creates impression that k.p. ruling planets don't help in rectifying B.T. It also means that k.p. is not reliable system in rectifying the B.T. K.p. claims that in case of twins birth only k.p. answer that will not exist, if we accept even casting horoscope with taking different B.T; native experiences same results. Actually it is found that in case of twins birth, they enjoyed diversified results. Lastly can it be said that there is no solution in k.p. for rectifying the accurate B.T.?

ANSWER

1. Regarding the BTR methods, only 'at the end' of his Krishnamurti Padhdhati Vol. 2 of 1966 or KP Reader III, the sole forceful words user Guruji KSK said in a different tone, "I shall give some of the methods which are available.. How far you can rely on them, is entirely to you, to the readers and scholar and to the research scholars."

2. Perhaps the only one BTR article by Guruji KSK is rectification of Mrs. Indira Gandhi's chart in July 1971 issue of A & A where he rectified the TOB and dealt at length with about a dozen of events in her past life. It is learned that rectification was done on 3 May 1971 at 13:08 IST at Delhi and the rectified birth time was 11:39:36 PM for Mrs. Indira Gandhi, born on the 19th November 1917 at Allahabad. That birth time is significantly different from the commonly used 11:11 PM IST as shown in the attachment. This article is not found reprinted anywhere in the Astrosecrets and KP Part II or Part III or latest Part IV for the BTR only.

3, "To find birth time, there are various rules given in Hindu Traditional System; the Westerners follow pre-natal approach. All these methods are useless for such customers. Only the Ruling Planets at the moment of judgment will be useful and innumerable instances are given in the magazine "Astrology & Athrishta". -KP Reader VI page 138

4. The RPs and consequently RP-based rectified birth time could not be the same depending on time, location, astrologer, urge and methods as evidence by:

- 1) No common solution as far as Shri K.P. Kuppu Ganapathi's knowledge goes;
- 2) Four astrologers getting varied RPs and rectified birth times for the same chart by the same BTR rule (K. Baskaran: Secrets of RP & the Birth Time, 1999, pp 94-96)
- 3) Narhari Khake getting different RPs in three tests for the same doubtful chart by the same rule. (K.P. & Astrology Year Book, 1998, p 31)
- 4) Different astrologers getting different rectified birth times for the same chart in the KP group by using different RP-based methods at different times and locations.

5. It is to rectify birth time, if and only if it is doubtful, by using a well tested RP-based BTR method. If the cuspal sublord is adjusted, the chart should be recast to take into account of possible changes in significators, and the rectified or astrological birth time should be verified by major life events.

"Note the sublord of the sixth (6th) cusp. This needs correct moment of birth. If it is not available, then if you want to know the sub of the sixth, you take ruling planets at the moment when you have the urge to put the query. Mysteriously God will help you by eliminating the previous and the next sub to the one which you have to select." -A & A 1970 Jan p 27, 'Astrology and Disease' by Guruji KSK, also in KP Reader III p 281 (Old Edition, Practical Part p 118)

This case is from my file of records. One of my relative was worried for his son who was serving in Merchant Navy. He was sent home on punishment without pay and any future scope in sight. He asked me if his son would be re-instated in the job, as the job was good in long term. He gave me horary number 13.

The matter was taken up for scrutiny at 18:03:00 Hrs on 28-05-2003 at Bangalore. The chart was rotated to 5th house. The rotated chart is reproduced as follows.

Co-ordinates of judgment:

The prospects in a horary chart relating to the profession are primarily governed by the 10H, as this house decides the way the flow of karma takes place for matters relating to profession. The indications of 10th cusp are then verified by the examination of 6th cusp as it indicates the job in hand. In case if the ambition of the native under the framework of prashna is to be realized, the 11th cusp should support the matter in full.

In this query related to a job re-instatement, it is evident that the querent has already a job from where the re-instatement is sought, thus the 6th cusp in such a prashna chart relates to the present job.

In case, if the job has to be re-instated, the 6th and 10th cusp/house should have connectivity with the 11th house. These indications shall fructify to realization in proper spread of dasha-bhukti in line with the transits. Pratyantara dasha lord would matter for the fructifications in nearby periods.

In this case study, the 10th and 6th house refer to the present job in which the native was placed in, as he was not terminated from the job.

The Query:

Fundamentally, in any prashna, the lagna indicates the query, while the Moon indicates the status of mind and the matter on which the querist dwells about.

Look to the lagna Sbl-Jupiter, which being a strong planet gets placed in 12th house as 5th lord. This shows that the native finds himself lost.

Moon itself gets placed in 8H indicating a sense of choking and frustration. Moon falls in the star and sub of Venus, which is a weak lord of 3-10th house but placed in 9th house showing the native without job.

Thus, the question was well indicated in the prashna chart and it was comfortable to proceed further.

Analysis:

1. Examine lagna.

Lagna sub-lord is Jupiter, a strong planet and placed in 12th house. Jupiter as 5th lord falls in the star and sub of Mercury placed in 9th house. The Lagna sub-lord signifying 5-9-12th houses does point to the loss of job.

However, Mercury being lord of 11th house does keep some positive promises waiting.

2. Examine 6-10th cusp

6th cusp indicates the present job in which the native was facing punishment for low performance. 6th cuspal sub-lord is Venus (3-10th lord) which being in its own star gets placed in 9th house with its sub lord Jupiter placed in 12th house.

Saturn is the sub-lord of the 10th cusp, which as 6-7th lord gets placed in 10th house. Saturn falls in the star of Mars placed in 6th house, which seemed positive to get continued in the same job (6H). The sub of Saturn is Sun, which as Lagna lord is placed in 9th house close to the 10th cusp. This gave a hint that the native may continue in the same job.

Note that in general scenario of job prospects, 9th and 12th houses are negative which normally indicate loss of job. However, for the present case of job in Merchant Navy, the 3-9-12th houses actually define the job conditions

(A) - Planets in Occupant's stars

(B) - Occupant of house

(C) - Planets in Owner's stars

(D) - House Owner

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars

as the sailing job demands 3rd house (going out of the land), 9th house (long distance sailing) and 12th house (encountering new shores and environment).

Thus the 6-10th cusps signifying 3-9-10-12th houses were considered fruitful from the point of view of a job in merchant navy.

3. Look to the 11th cusp

11th cuspal sub-lord is Mercury, which is the lord of 2-11th houses also. Mercury falls in the star of Venus placed in 9th house and in the sub of Rahu placed in 9th house again.

Rahu is a strong planet, which also shares the sub-lordship of 2-7th cusp. Rahu also disposes Venus, which is the cuspal sub-lord of the 6th cusp.

Thus, 11th cusp's connectivity to the 6th house had sufficiently hinted towards a sailing job as continuation to the one in hand.

4. Look to the fortuna

Fortuna falls in the star of Mercury as 2-11th lord and as sub-lord of the 11th cusp. Mercury as analyzed above is positive. Fortuna's sub-lord is Moon, which as 12th lord is placed in 8th house presenting a lot of frustration on the way and the continuation of the job was not an easy job.

5. Look to the dasha sequence

The native was running Venus-Venus-Mars upto July 13, 2003.

On evaluation of pratyantara dasha Mars, it was noticed that Mars was in its own star placed in 6th house as 4-9th lord out of which the 4th lordship was found strong giving good scope of positive hopes through the intervention of some higher authorities in the organization (10th from 7th house). Jupiter as sub-lord of Mars placed in 12th house as strong 5th lord was noticeable and it was expected that the native could yet be punished to join at a low salary, if the job re-instatement comes through.

6. Conclusion

It was indicated to my relative that the job-reinstatement was looking positive but at a low salary.

7. A few facts of the case.

a. The matter of native's unemployment was taken up to some known higher authority in Merchant Navy for moderation. 7th cusp is the employer and a higher official could be represented by the 10th. Thus, 10th from 7th was 4th cusp whose sub-lord Jupiter would matter in this case. Since, Jupiter falls in the star and sub of Mercury (11th cuspal sub-lord), the intervention was to be successful.

b. The higher authority decided to call for an interview and reconsideration of the case. Note that the native was called for interview on a Wednesday (day of 11th cuspal sub-lord) and the case was decided in favor of the candidate but on low pay and limited perks as a measure of punishment.

c. The candidate was given a trial chance to sail in the first week of July 2003 in Mars pratyantara. Note the analysis of Mars in preceding paras.

d. After a trial period of 6 months, the candidate was absorbed in the job in the pratyantara period of Jupiter. Note that Jupiter is a strong planet signifying 9-12-2-11th houses, thereby giving results to its tone.

The candidate at present enjoys a senior position in Merchant Navy after continuing in the job.

Conclusion:

The KP principles are infallible and crystal clear, although, it requires genuine efforts for understanding and applying. Prof. Krishnamurthy has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

"... his Destiny is so intimately associated with such things that his name will be bound up with two of the bloodiest wars in human history; at the end of the second he will lose all he loves most, his immediate family will be massacred, and he himself will meet a violent death."

-Louis Hamon (Cheiro) (September, 1896)

".... I feel that I shall leave life before January 1, If I am killed by common assassins, ..., you Tsar of Russia, have nothing to fear,...if it was your relations who have wrought my death, then no one of your family, ...will remain alive for more than two years. They will be killed by the Russian people... Pray, pray, be strong, think of your blessed family."

--Grigori Rasputin's letter (December 1916)

Power

2. Nicholas Romanov, Tsar Nicholas II, was the supreme ruler of the Russian Empire from October 1894 until March 1917 when he was forced to abdicate his throne. He had been the most powerful man in the world, controlling one tenth of the earth's surface. His power is indicated by 1st cuspal sublord (CSL) signification of 10th power house at the star and sub levels (attached Table 1) and 10th CSL Sun being in mutual aspect to Saturn of strong 10th signicator.

3. Like Napoleon and Hitler he had Saturn in 10th house and reached the highest position at the age of 26 and fell down to a depth much greater than the height he climbed. (KP Reader III, page 129)

Richness

4. Tsar Nicholas II, had been the richest man with an estimated wealth of £290billion in today's inflation adjusted figures (nearly 10 x Bill Gates). The Tsar and his family lived in opulence, their St Petersburg palace boasted a thousand rooms and hundreds of servants attended their every whim. It is indicated by the KP richness rule of the 2nd cuspal sublord (CSL) connection to 2,6,10,11th houses. (KP Reader III pages 181-2/ KP & Astrology 1996 page 78; MP Shanmugam's Astrosecrets & KP Vol I, 2003, page 65)

5. In the attached Table 2, 2nd cuspal sublord is connected to 2nd house at all three levels of planet, star and sub for Czar, and all 2,6,10,11th houses for Czarina and Crown Prince Alexie etc. Simultaneous signification of Badhaka, 5, 8, 12th houses by 2nd cuspal sublord does not have negative effect in giving enormous wealth, as also found in the article 'Why they are rich?' in the KP-Ezine November 2009 issue.

Love Marriage

6. By marrying Alexandra, a German princess and granddaughter of Queen Victoria, Tsar Nicholas became an influential figure throughout the courts of Europe. They love each other very much and love marriage is indicated by the KP rule of 5th CSL connection to 7th house or 7th CSL connection to 5th house.

7. In Czar's chart, 5th CSL Ra(7) is in star Ke(1; 7 by Stl Ra) and sub Ju(2,1-2-12). In Czarina's chart, 5th & 7th CSL Ve+(12,1), having no planet in its stars, is in star Mo(1,4) and sub Ra+(1) Conj Su(1,5) & Ma(12,7).

Longevity

8. Longevity was found shortened by the 1st CSL connection to Badhaka (11th house for moving, 9th for fixed and 7th for common sign Ascendants), Maraka (2,7 houses) and 6,8,12 houses, without getting help from 1,5,11 signification. (Table 1)

Death by Execution

9. The death by execution is generally indicated by the unnatural death rule of 8th & 12th CSLs' connection to 8 (danger to life), 12 (Moksha), Badhaka, Maraka and Mars or Rahu/Ketu, Saturn, except in Chart 2 & 5 in Table 3 and Chart 4 in Table 4, as also found by our KP brothers Kanak Bosmia (KP-Ezine January 2008 issue) and Adrew Dutta (KP-Ezine February 2008 issue).

10. The 7th CSL signification of the same 8, 12, Badhaka, Maraka houses, except in Chart 5 indicates assassination or execution. (Table 5) Signification of 4th house (end of everything including life) is also found in forming 4,8,12 trigonal houses like in fatal accidents. (Astro secrets & KP Volume II, 2003, page 94; K.M. Subramaniam's Sublord Speaks-3, 2007, page 66)

Death Inflicting DBAS

11. The DBAS at the time of death by execution satisfied the KP death rule of signifying signified, Badhaka, Maraka, Moksha houses, along with 4,8 forming trigonal houses, and also 6 (injury) and 10 (retirement from this world). (Table 6; KP Reader III, pages 160-5; Chandrakant R. Bhatt's Further Lights on Nakshatra Chintamani, page 14, 47-48)

Transit of Death Inflicting DBAS Lords

12. At the time of death of entire family on 17 July 1918 at 2:30AM at Ekateinburg, Russia, the DBAS lords were generally found transiting in Sun, Moon, BDAS lords and planets signifying Badhaka, Maraka, 4,8,12 and 6,10 houses. (Table 7 and 8)

Retrogression

13. The results of CSLs and DBAS lords in retrograde or in star/sub of retrograde planets are found not effected by retrogression, as generally accepted in the KP natal analysis. (Table 1-15)

Rotation of Charts

14. Rotation of a chart is found generally applicable in predicting the fate of another family member (Table 9-15) but not always as found for 9th, 4th & 5th cusps in Table 11, 11th cusp in Table 12 and 9th & 4th cusps in Table 14.

Conclusion

15. The KP rules of power, richness, love marriage, longevity, death, transit, regression and rotation of charts are generally found valid in the analysis of the Romanov family's fate and the credit goes to our Guru ji KSK.

Om Gan Ganapataye Namah

This is my second article on this subject. It thus proves that if anybody applies the Krishnamurti Padhdhati principles in solving the query , then one will get correct prediction all the time. A 2nd yr student of MBBS came to me with this query. Let us see how I solved it.

Query : Result in MBBS 2ndYr Exam

Horary no. : 136/249

Date : 03-02-2009

Time : 19:57 PM

Place : Bhopal, Longitude 77E26 Latitude 23N16

Ayanamsa : KPNA 23:53:38

Hints and Rules

1. If the sublord of the 4th cusp is the significator of 4,9 and 11th house, the success in examination is promised.
2. Sublord of the 11th cusp when connected to the houses under consideration will give positive result; here in this case it needs to be connected to 4th & 9th house.
3. Mars , Mercury and Jupiter promise success when they are connected to 4,9 and 11th house .
4. For Failure the houses which are 12th from 4th and 9th house i.e 3rd and 8th must be considered .

Analysis

First of all one must check the position of Moon and Ascendant Sublord. The query is genuine if the Moon or Ascendant Sublord is connected to the houses under consideration. Moon is placed in 7th house, it is in the star of Sun which is placed in 4th house . So the Moon is connected to 4th house. Now let us see the Ascendant Sublord which is Sun and it is placed in the 4th house . Hence the query is genuine and now we must proceed to solve the query.

Cuspal Analysis

4th Cusp : (Capricorn : 19:16:14 --- Sa Mo Me)

Mercury the 4th cuspal sublord is in the star of Sun, which is placed in 4th house, and no planet is in the stars of Mercury, so Mercury is a strong significator of 4th house. Mercury's sublord is Moon which is also placed in the star of Sun hence signifying 4th house strongly. So it indicates success.

9th Cusp : (Gemini : 17:15:41 – Me Ra Ve)

Venus is the cuspal sublord of 9th house , it is placed in 5th house and it is in the star of Saturn which is placed in 11th house which is house of fulfillment of desires. So Venus is a strong significator of 11th house. Venus' Sublord is Mercury which as already stated above is strongly signifying 4th house. So success is indicated here also.

11th Cusp : (Leo ; 21:24:13 – Su Ve Ju)

Jupiter is the cuspal sublord of 11th house and placed in 3rd house. It is in the star of Moon, which is placed in 7th house and sub of Rahu, which is conjunct with Sun, as stated above strongly signifying 4th house. Hence Jupiter although is strongly signifying 3rd and 7th house but is also connected to Sun of 4th house significator. Hence it indicates success.

Dasa Bhukti Antara Analysis

Running Mahadasha is of Sun which as calculated is strong significator of 4th house. Bhukti is of Mars which is placed in the 3rd house and is placed in the star of Sun thus connected to 4th house strongly, also Mars sublord is Mercury which is cuspal sublord of 4th house and also signifying 4th house strongly. Antara is of Moon, which is placed in the star Sun signifying 4th house. So Mahadasha, Bhukti and Antara lords indicate success.

Conclusion

As per the above analysis, I told him not to worry about the result and surely it would be in his favour .

The Student called me three days later and told me that he passed the examination.

My pranam to Guruji and Lord Ganesha.

As per Rule-1

Asc CSL is Ketu. Ketu is in the star of Jup and sub of own.

Ke+(2), in the star of Ju(9, 7-8-11), in the sub of Ke+(2). Ke is agent of Ju(9, 7-8-11), Sa(4, 9-10), no planet in the star of Ketu and Ketu is sublord of 1,2,8.

Ketu signifies 10, 11

For Opponent:

Asc CSL is Ven. Ven is in the star of Moon and sub of Ven.

Ve(3, 12), in the star of Mo(9, 9), in the sub of Ve(3, 12)

Ven signifies 12.

As per Rule-2

3rd CSL is Ven, Ven is in the star of Moon and sub of Ven.

Ve(9, 6), in the star of Mo(3, 3), in the sub of Ve(9, 6).

Will David Miliband be next permanent Labour Party Leader after Gordon Brown?

Kanak Bosmia

For Opponent:

Period lords are Me-Ve-Me-Ma

Me(1, 7-8-11), in the star of Ve(3, 12), in the sub of Sa(10, 3-4).

Dasalord Signifies 10, 11.

Ve(3, 12), in the star of Mo(9, 9), in the sub of Ve(3, 12).

Bhukti lord does not signify any positive house.

My opinion:

From above analysis I have come to conclusion that Mr. David Miliband will be next permanent Labour Party Leader after Gordon Brown.

Arrest Bal Thackeray, Raj under National Security Act: Ramvilas Paswan, PTI, Wednesday, February 3, 2010 22:19 IST,

New Delhi:Attacking top leaders of Shiv Sena and MNS for its tirade against North Indians, the LJP today demanded the arrest of its chiefs under the National Security Act (NSA) for fanning divisive sentiments in Maharashtra. Maharashtra Government Mulling Action Against 'Saamna' & Raj Thackeray Congress-led Maharashtra government is planning legal action against Shiv Sena's mouthpiece Saamna for its inflammatory remarks. Home Minister RR Patil has shot off a letter to the state's advocate general seeking his opinion on what legal options are available. Patil said that the legal department had been given a fortnight to submit its response. If the legal department gives its go ahead, then action can be taken under - promoting communal disharmony and enmity. However, undeterred Samna's editor Sanjay Raut retorted that taking action against the party mouthpiece will not affect the spirit of the party.

Rule for treason

If Asc (Dangerous Activity) CSI signifies 1st (Dangerous Activity), 12(Treason/Punishment), 6th (Distressing Condition), One found guilty under Treason, During DBAS of 1,12,6.

Horary Details:

Horary Question: Is there any chance for Raj Thackeray to face any case under treason?

Horary No: 142/249

Horary Date: 6/2/2010

Horary Time: 16.46.25

Horary Place: Kankariya-Ahmedabad

Long/Lat: 23 N 00, 72 E 36

Analysis:

Asc CSL is Ketu, Ketu is in the star of Jup and sub of Own.

Ke+(8), No planet in the star of ketu and Ketu is CSL of 1,3,6,9,Ketu aspected by Jup & Sat, Ju(4, 3-5), Sa(11, 4) in the star of Ju(4, 3-5), in the sub of Ke+(8).

Asc CSL Ketu signifies 6th (Distressing Condition), 1st (Dangerous Activity).

Running dasa:

Jup dasa running up to 1/12/2014

Ju(4, 3-5), in the star of Ra(2), Rahu is in the sign of Jup in the sub of Sa(11, 4)

Jup does not signify 1,12,6 at all.

Because this concerns a recent activity, we don't need to check future dasas.

My opinion:

Even though Asc Sublord signifies 1,6 positive Bhava, because Dasa does not support, Raj Thackeray will not be found guilty or Maharastra Govt. will not register any case under treason.

Shri Amar Singh ji -

Finally Samajwadi party leader Shri Amar Singh ji and his lobby get dismissed by party honourables. Shri Kanak ji's prediction came absolutely true with his horary attempt in the last issue of KP Ezine Feb 2010. After reading this article, I was anxious to know what are the actual astrological circumstances that gave him dismissal. The soft media is paying more attentions to this kind of news for their stomach (TRP). The fate can never be straight as it appears, being something definite "give and take" game for the native. Let see what's the soil.

Suspension & Dismissal

5th (12th from 6 i.e. absence of regular attendance on duty), 8th (suspension as a form of penalty), 9th (12th from 10- absence of status, position, power and name) and 12th (loss in general) bhavas are to scrutinize by their significators. (Chandrakant R. Bhatt: Nakshatra Chintamani, page 14) Generally 5th cusp is much significant for being workless & dismissed in the DBAS of its significators.

Promotion & Supremacy

2nd, 6th, 10th and 11th bhavas are rulers for promotion. The height, supremacy and presidency are to be scrutinized by 10th more significantly when its significator's DBAS.

Here, I will apply honourable Kanak ji's rule for getting promotion in this natal chart.

To Get Good Position In Politics:

If 10th (one's position in politics) sublord signifies, 10 (one's reputation), 3 (one's ability), 11 (one's reputation as a winner) in the DBA of 3, 10, 11, one can get good position in politics.

10th CSL JUPITER

Ju has no planet in its stars and it is cuspal sublord of the houses 4th, 5th, 6th, 10th, 11th and 12th. Ju has occupied 7th and owns 3rd (ability) & 12th. Ju is in Ke star and Ra sub. Ke is signifying 5th, 2nd, 10th (position in politics), 7th by sign lord Ve and star lord Mo respectively. Ra is signifying 11th (reputation as a winner), 10th (position in politics), 4th, 1st, 2nd and 9th and 6 by conjunction with Ma and Sa, sign lord Ma and star lord Me respectively. Ju has satisfied the rule by all its stellar level. But it may also indicate the dismissal by the 'combined' signification of 1st, 5th, 9th and 12th, although 1st & 9th are supposed to be favourable for politics in the sense of an element of fortune and benefit. (KP Reader III pages 395)

Vimshottari Dasa Rule

Vimshottari DB are the soil for a particular event. An event will fructify at this platform.

"The Dasa lord is the most powerful commander. No Bhukti lord can offer a result, if the Dasa lord does not permit. What the Bhukti lord can do is to obstruct the Dasa lord from giving results but he cannot alter the result. The Antara and Sookshma lords can carry out the mandate of the Dasa/Bhukti lords, if they have similar significations as the Dasa/Bhukti lords. If not, the event cannot take place in their Antara or Sookshma and will have to wait for another Antara/ Sookshma periods when they can execute the results destined by the Dasa/Bhukti lords. Planets form a cabinet. The prime minister is the Dasa lord. The Bhukti lords are the ministers and the Antara lords are deputy ministers." (An Article by Honourable Tin Win Ji in KP Ezine Jan 2009 called 'KP for Beginners', Part-10, Page 40)

Dasa Lord VENUS (till 14/9/2016)

Having no planet in its stars, Ve is a self strong planet by its placement. Moreover Ve is cuspal sublord of 3rd (ability). Ve has occupied 2nd and has ownership of 10th & 5th houses. Ve is in star of Ra and sub of Mo. Ra signifying 11, 10, 4, 1, 2, 9 and 6 by conjunction with Ma & Sa, sign lord Ma and star lord Me respectively. Sub lord Mo has occupied 7th. Consequently, Ve has its significance of 2nd, 6th, 10th and 11th to rule and allows for march to headway. Dasa lord Ve doesn't signify 8th at all but the 'combined' signification of 1st, 5th and 9th may be undesirable to keep the present position, although 1st & 9th are assumed to be favourable for politics.

Bhukti Lord SATURN (till 13/9/2012)

Sa is in self constellation and so its placement is much significant. Sa is placed 10th and owns 1st & 2nd houses. Moreover it is the cuspal sublord of 1st & 7th houses. Sa is in the sub of Ke signifying 5,2,10,7 houses by sign lordship and star lordship respectively. Consequently, Bhukti lord obeys the order given by Dasa lord. Bhukti lord doesn't signify 8th at all but 5th signification is undesirable.

Strength of Chart for Politics

By a quick look the strength of this chart is found basically strong for politics as Ju, Me, Ma & Sa are strong and signifying 1,6,9,10,11 houses. (KP Reader III pages 395-6)

Conclusion

Based on-

- (1) the absence of 8th signification in this entire Ve-Sa Dasa-Bhukti;
 - (2) the hard influence of 10th cusp (presidency) allowed by Dasa lord and obeyed by Bhukti lord;
 - (3) the strong chart for politics; and
 - (4) 1st & 9th signification is supposed to be favourable in political carrier;
- the fate may give something higher by his party dismissal. My assumption is either Shri Amar Singh ji would come back as a president of a new party or would get all the lost posts back in with promotion Samajwadi party within this Bhukti.

This month I am going to discuss about Respiratory Disease Bronchitis. four practical charts are taken up (Source: Dr. Sheetal & Astrodatabank).

Acute bronchitis is an inflammation of the large bronchi (medium-sized airways) in the lungs that is usually caused by viruses or bacteria and may last several days or weeks. Characteristic symptoms include cough, sputum (phlegm) production, and shortness of breath and wheezing related to the obstruction of the inflamed airways. Diagnosis is by clinical examination and sometimes microbiological examination of the phlegm. Treatment for acute bronchitis is typically symptomatic. As viruses cause most cases of acute bronchitis, antibiotics should not be used unless microscopic examination of Gram stained sputum reveals large numbers of bacteria.

ADAM.

In Medical Astrology Natural Zodiac (Kalapursha), 3rd house, Gemini sign and Mercury are the rulers of respiratory system & bronchitis disease. (Rex Bill's Rulership and Judith Hill's Medical Astrology) Star: Punarvasu indicates lungs, respiratory system & bronchitis. The connection of 3rd house, Gemini sign and Mercury to the KP disease indicator VI CSL and how these three rulers are adversely affected for health are analysed in the following four charts.

singer and songwriter.

VI CSL Me(12,1,4) in Mo(4,2); III CSL
Mo(4,2) in own star; Me & Mo are aspected by Ju(7 Badhaka,7,10); Gemini located I CSL Sa(3,8,9) in Ke(4-11,6).
No planet in stars of Sa which is I & VII (Badhaka) CSLs. Thus involvement of Me, Sa, Mo, Ke has given chronic bronchitis-asthma during Saturn Major.

Conclusion: From the analysis of the above 4 charts for respiratory system (bronchitis) we can conclude that 6th CSL connection to adversely affected 3rd, Me, Gemini plays a significant role in this disease. In all the above cases Me happens be the Ascendant lord (Gemini particularly) and Sa, Ke, Moon (fluids) intensify the problem.

Astrosecrets & Krishnamurti Padhdhati, Part IV, Rectification of Birth Time, Edited and Published by

K. Subramaniam,

Krishman & Co., 2009-2010, 192 pages

1. This book is a collection of 21 old articles of birth time rectification by late Prof. K.S. Krishnamurti, KM Subramaniam, SN Mishra, Kudanthainathan, KC Subramaniam, A Balasekar, G Krishnan, JC Das, Ramesh Patel, NS Viswathy, TR Raghunath, Katakam Ramasamy, PS Mahesh Iyer, Narayana Rao, PR Sharma, AV Ramanamurthy, Tajendra Vikaasa. DV Subba Rao, PS Sastry, Pamkaj Himvan as indicated by 'thank you note'.

2. The book also includes 2 non birth time rectification articles, namely 'Hora and its Use' and 'Validity of Krishnamurti Padhdhati' in application of different dasa systems of Vimshottari, Astottari, Kalchakra and lagna dasa.

3. This is the third KP book of birth time rectification after 'Rectification of Birth Time' by K Hariharan, 1994, Krishnamurti Publication, 130 pages of 31 articles, and 'Secrets of R.P. & the Birth Time' by K Baskaran, 1999, Krishman & Co., 98 pages.

4. As per Guruji KSK, the Ruling Planet based RBT methods alone can be used, i.e. to find birth time--- only the RPs at the moment of judgment will be useful and innumerable instances are given in the magazine "Astrology & Athrishta." (KP Reader VI page 138)

5. Our beloved Guruji KSK had found and was correct to tell that the RPs alone can be well used for the rectification of birth time in charts. (KM Subramaniam and Vikari Ramamurthy in KP & Astrology 1997 and KPE-zine November 2009)

Question

Can the cuspal sub lord (CSL) divert the dasa lord?

Answer

1. The CSL can divert the result of dasa lord when the CSL is a strong significator and it is detrimental or 12th to the signification of dasa lord.
2. The CSL becomes a very strong significator of houses for whose cusps it is the sub lord, if there is no planet in its stars. (-KP Reader III p 309: KP & Astrology 1991 July p 1 & November p 8; PS Rao, KM Subramaniam, Vikari Ramamurthi, R. Mukunda Rajan, Kuppu Ganapathi, Kanak Bosmia and so on ---)
3. In a particular example chart, 10th CSL is Rahu and no planet is in the stars of Rau. Therefore Rahu is a strong significator of the 10th house, even though he occupies the 9th house. (Astro secrets & KP Part II p 197 in article 'The Golden Rule in KP')
4. In a particular example chart, 11th Badhaka bhava sublord Jupiter is in 10th. Therefore Badhakasthana loses its strength as 10th is Vraya-12th to 11th. (No planet in the stars of Jupiter.) (Astro secrets & KP Part II p 56/ Sublord Speaks-3 p 170 in article 'Sub-Lords who Diverts the Dasa Lords')
5. The cuspal sub lord of a house indicates whether the matter of the house is favorable or not. The significators point the time of event. Both dasa, bhukti and gochara must agree. (KP Reader V page 224/ Original Edition p 211, KP Reader III pp 226, 362)
6. If a bhava CSL gets the strong bhava signification of favourable houses 1,2,3,6,10,11, then it could not give the negative results, whatever dasa may be on or to come. The results indicated by a particular bhava CSL alone has to be implemented by the dasa lord. (Astro secrets & KP Part II p 54/ Sublord Speaks-3 p 168)

One of my colleagues in the office asked me to predict “What happened to him on 21-2-2010 at 1440 Hrs” while he was at home.

This was asked in a challenging tone and I was not mentally prepared to answer it. However, I mustered courage and cast a time chart on 22-02-2010 at 18-13-34 Hrs at Bangalore to anticipate what happened to the native known to me at the specified time.

The chart was rotated to 11th house. The rotated chart is reproduced as follows.

Co-ordinates of judgment:

The prashna chart aimed to find the event that happened at the asked time could be deciphered as below.

Principally, Lagna and Moon give sufficient clues to the nature of events that could have happened and the impact given. Beyond it, it could be read as follows.

1. Plot the RPs in the prashna chart and read through sub-lord or sub-sub lord. If it is too closer to some cusp, read from the cusp.
2. Read by the sub-sub lord of Moon
3. Read by the 11th cuspal sub-lord

Analysis:

1. Examine lagna.

Lagna sub-lord is Rahu in the star of Venus placed in 9H and in the sub of Mercury placed in 8th house. The Lagna thus signifies 9th house (some thing unexpected) resulting into an accident (8th house).

Moon is placed in its own star placed in 12th house with its sub-lord Saturn placed in 4th house. Thus it pointed out a loss (12th house) through some household item (4th house).

2. Examine RPs

At the time of judgment, RPs were Sun-Ket-Venus-Moon. I could plot it to Leo sign (Sun)-Ketu star-Venus sub and Moon sub-sub. This sensitive point falls in the 2nd house very close to the 3rd cusp. Thus, I intended to read from the 3rd cusp whose sub-lord is Rahu.

As indicated above, Rahu zeroes it down to some unexpected accident (8th house).

3. Note the Sub-sub lord of Moon

Moon has Mercury as its sub-sub lord. Mercury is a strong planet as there is no planet in its star, thus dictating on its positional status. Note that Mercury is placed in 8th house and thus it tends to dictate the 8th house results such as an accident.

4. Look to the 11th cusp

11th cuspal sub-lord is Jupiter, which falls in the star of Rahu and sub of Mercury.

At the stellar level, Rahu signifies 7th house and at the sub level, Mercury signifies 8th house by its positional status. This combination again indicated accident.

I did not get inclined to study further and declared that there could have been an accident causing loss of money.

I also noted that the native could have skipped the wrath of the accident and would have been safe without any injury, as the lagna lord was not involved strongly anywhere. Even though, Mercury was the lagna lord, yet the Mercury's lordship of Lagna is weak as Ketu occupies Lagna.

5. Fact of the case

My colleague told me that he encountered the blast of the coffee percolator in his kitchen and though some par-

Conclusion:

The KP principles are infallible and crystal clear, although, it requires genuine efforts for understanding and applying. Prof. Krishnamurthy has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

Here are the reasons not to worry about adverse effect of Pluto:

- Firstly, no planet is wholly benefic or malefic.
- Secondly, in KP the planet which is conjoined or 'aspected by' the signifiers of grade A, B, C and D is a 'weak' signifier of grade E. This planet is to give the results by itself as a weak grade E signifier only but not to change the results of the grade A, B, C, and D signifiers.
- Thirdly, it is not logical for a far away, tiny object Pluto to change the results of other real planets always for malefic through mere connection within 3° 20' orb. Pluto is also no longer considered as a planet in astronomy since 2006.
- Finally, the adverse effect of Pluto has not been found in the following charts as per courtesy of Astro-Databank, www.astro.com/astro-databank.

Sub Sub (Multi-Stellar Theory) A Marvel in KP - a Case Study

K S V Ramani

E-mail: kadavasalramani@gmail.com

This is a marriage query and general prospects of his daughter, who is in US. Her Horoscope is attached, Date of Birth: 1-9-1980; Time of Birth 9-59-45 AM: Place of Birth: Matunga, Mumbai. Birth time recorded is as per Hospital record.

The Analysis was done according to the Sub-Sub theory evolved by the late Shri K.R.Kar of Bolani, Orissa.

As per Rule of Origin explained by Dr. Andrew Dutta in KP E-Zine December, 2007, her birth Ascdt. was verified from her 9th cuspal position to see if her birth Ascdt. position is agreed with 9th cuspal position which indicates her father, who is giver (Beeja) and mother is taker (Kshetra) for her birth. This exactly agrees as follows:

Ascdt. Venus sign – Mars star – Venus SSLord.

IXth Mercury sign – Mars star – Mercury SSLord.

Mercury sign lord & SSLord of 9th is in the star of Venus posited in 9th house, who is sign lord and sub-sub lord of Ascdt. of the native; Venus is in the Sub-Sub of Rahu, who is the star lord of Mercury and also star lord for 9th sign & SSLord. Mercury is sign and SS lord for 9th while Venus is posited in the sign of Mercury and her star lord Jupiter is In conjunction with Mercury, Mercury is star lord of Rahu who is the star for Venus sub-sub of Ascdt. Mars is common star lord for both Ascendant and IXth cusp and Mars is in the Sub-Sub of Moon who is in the star of Sun at 11. Sun is Karaka for father and is posited in his own house along with Mercury 9th lord and Jupiter L/O 3&6 all in 11th bhava and all are in Venus star posited at 9th. Thus it exactly agrees with 9th Position. Hence her birth chart is taken as correct.

Brief of Multi stellar theory of Sub-Sub: For any cuspal SS Lord, whether it is beneficial or not is judged by 6 Formulas: F1;F2,F3&F4; DF3&DF4.

By MST F1 'A' Planet in the star of 'B' Star;

By F2 'B' is in 'C' star.

By F3 'A' is in the sub-sub of 'B' & 'B' in the star of 'C'. If 'C' is favourable, then all A,B,C are fruitful. Any planet in the star or SS of the ABC will also be fruitful. This is the beauty of MSTF. Similarly for all formulas by MST F4 'A' is in the SS of 'B', 'B' is in the star of 'C' and 'C' is in the 'D' star. If 'C' or 'D' is good then all the Planets from 'A' to 'D' will be good.

By DF3, 'A' Planet is in the SS of 'B' and 'B' is in the SS of 'C' & 'C' is in the star of 'D'. If 'D' is good then all from 'A' to 'D'

Generally F3 is preferred. Let us see how F3 works in this case of marriage. Principal cusp is 7th. 7th cuspal SS is Venus. Venus is in the sub-sub of Rahu and Rahu is in the star of Mercury at 11. Mercury is CSSL of 11th with positional status, one of the 3 required houses 2,7,11. So Mercury is favourable. When Mercury is favourable, the Venus and Rahu are also favourable for marriage. Any planet in the star of Venus, and Mercury and SS of all the 3 above, those planets are also favourable for marriage. This is the beauty of MSTF.

Sun, Jupiter and Mercury are all in the star of Venus, Mars in the star of Rahu, Rahu in the star of Mercury, Moon, Jupiter, Saturn, Rahu and Ketu are in the SS of Venus, Sun is in the SS of Mercury, Venus in the SS of Rahu are all favourable for marriage.

It is the rule in MST SS Theory, that if the Sub-Sub lord of the principal cusp (principal cusp means, for marriage 7th, for Profession 10th) is directly connected to the other beneficial cusp and if the 'C' and 'D' planet of the cuspal SSL of the principal cusp in MST (Multi Stellar Theory) is based on the work of Late Shri.K.R.Kar.

D in the star of E

MST formula say F3 becomes the cuspal SSSL of other beneficial cusps, then the CSSL of the principal cusp is a strong significator for the evnt/mtter for which the principal lord stands. In this case 7th CSSL (principal cusp) Venus is in the sub-sub of Rahu, who is in the star of Mercury at 11. by F3, and Mercury is the CSSL of 11th (other beneficial house). So Venus, Rahu and Mercury are all the beneficial significators for the marriage. Again Mercury lord of 9th is in the star of Venus and sub-sub of his own (Merc.) who is in the Star of Venus, CSSL pf VIIth (other beneficial house in the group of 2-7-11. More details can be seen under “marriage” below.

If the principal cusp in MST Formula F3, F4, DF3, DF4 becomes the CSSS lords of the other beneficial cusps, then the SSL of the principal cusp is a strong significator of the event/matter for which the principal cuspal lord stands. In this case 7th CSSL (principal cusp) Venus ends in Mercury by F3 as shown above and Mercury is the CSSL of 11th (other beneficial house). So Venus, Rahu and Mercury are all the beneficial significators for the marriage. The CSSL of 11th is Mercury. He is in the star of Venus, who is the CSSL of 7th cusp. 11th CSSL too is directly conneted to 7th cusp. So Mercury and Venus are beneficial significators for marriage. This is the beuty of MST. More details can be seen under “marriage” below.

At the outset I found that in this chart, all the 9 planets signify 11th house strongly. Sun & Mercury are in the star of Venus and sub-sub of Mercury with positional status (no planet in its stars) placed in 11th house. Moon, Jupiter and Saturn are in the sub-sub of Venus who is in the star of Jupiter at 11th. Moon & Saturn are in the star of Sun at 11th, while Jupiter is in the star and sub-sub of Venus, who is in the star of Jupiter placed in 11th. Their star lord too is in 11th. Mars is in the SSL of Moon, in the star of Sun at 11th. Venus is in the Sub-Sub of Rahu, who is in the star of Mercury at 11th Bhava. Lastly Rahu and Kethu the nodes are in the Sub-Sub of Saturn who is in the star of Sun at 11th. Thus it is a peculiar chart, where all the 9 planets signify 11th, which is for desire of fulfillment, success, profit etc, Not only Planets but cusps also mostly signify 11th as follows: Cusps I, III,V,VIIth, are in the sub-sub lord of Jupiter placed at 11th., in the star of Venus at 9, who in turn signifies XI thro; Jupiter. There is mutual exchange of stars between Venus and Jupiter, which is good. 11th significations attained by all the planets and cusps itself shows that the native will be successful in all her endeavours.

Longevity: 1,3,8 H. 1st & 3rd SSL is Venus in the SS of Rahu. Under TOS Rahu = Moon snf Moon is strong for 8th Bhavam. Hence Venius gets 8th signification. As such longevity is considered as fair. Though for Libra (movable rasi) Lagna native, 11th is Bhadhakasthana and its lord Sun is Bhadhakadhipathi, here no planet is in the SS of Sun to curtail her longevity. Lagna lord Venus too is good as stated above. Hence her Longevity is good well above 66 years.

Finance: As stated above, almost all the planets signify 11th house of profit. 2nd lord Mars is in the sub-sub of Moon with self strength at 8th who is in the star of Sun at 11th. 6th SSL is Saturn in the star of Sun at 11 as 11th lord. 10th house SSL is Rahu in the star of Mercury at 11; 11th CSSL is Mercury at 11th in the star of Venus Lagna, who has been found to signify 11th. Thus all 2,6,10,& 11th houses required for financial prosperity .are connected to 11th. 2nd lord Mars, 6th lord Jupiter, 10th lord Moon and 11th lord Sun too are in someway interconnected to each other. Jupiter, karaka for finance is well placed in 11th. Thus she is having sound financial position addition to family etc.

Education: Her 4th and also 9th Cusps (which are main Bhavas for judging her education including higher) Sub-Sub lords for both 4th & 9th is Mercury with positional status (no planet in its stars) and placed in 11th house of profit. Mercury is lord of 9th & 12th. His placement in 12 is negation of the effects of 12th. Mercury is conjoined with 2 planets. Mercury is karaka for education and skill. As he is very strong in 11th as cuspal 11th SSL Conjoined with a benefic, there is no surprise she had double graduation in her post graduate course. Mercury is in the star of Venus at 9th. Karaka for education and skill. 4th lord Saturn is also in the star of Sun, 11th lord and he is also in the sub-sub of Venus placed in 9th. As 4th, 9th, 11th Bhavas are all interlinked, she had a very good higher education with double MS (Master of Science) Degrees one in Electrical and another in Bio Medical Engineering. Mercury 9th lord is karaka for Electrical and Saturn is for Medicine placed in Hospital sign and in the star of Sun Karaka for medicine. Saturn is with self strength (i.e. no other planet in its stars). She had thus high level of education with many academic awards. I feel that this double post graduation is due to Mercury, karaka for education and skill is conjoined with Jupiter highly benefic planet and both are placed in the star of Venus lagna lord posited in 9th place for higher education.

Profession: Her 10th CSSL is Rahu in 10th itself in the star of Mercury karaka for matters as said above and placed in 11th Bhavam. Her 2,6,10th star lord is Saturn with self strength. Saturn signifies 11th. Thus all the required Bhavas 2,6,10 and 11 are interconnected to the Cusps and Planets. Her 2nd CSSL is Mars is in the star of Rahu at 10th, Xth Cssl is Rahu and placed in 10th itself. Thus this chart is very fine for profession, Honour, good income, status etc. Her higher education & job are in US. For which Planetary position is discussed as follows. Her first job was on 1-5-2006 in US. She was Running Rahu Dasa Mercury Bhukthi & Mercury Antharam. By TOS Rahu=Moon with self strength and 10th lord : Mercury is 9th lord in 11th in the star of Venus, who is in the sub-sub of Rahu (Read Moon) in 10th. DBA agrees with the date of entry in service.

Abroad Journey & stay: She left for US on 22nd August 2002 in the Rahu Dasa Jupiter Bhukthi Moon Anthara. Dasa lord Rahu is in the star of Mercury with positional status and lord of 9th in the star of Venus at 9th; Jupiter in the star & SS of Venus at 9th, Sun Anthara lord in the SSL of Mercury 9th lord in the star of Venus in 9th. DBA and event agree. For abroad journey 3,9,12 is the group of houses. 12th CSSL is Moon with positional status and is a watery planet and owning watery sign. Saturn at 12th aspects Lagna lord Venus, placed in 9th. 3rd lord Jupiter too is in the star & sub sub of Venus at 9th. 12th lord is Mercury is also in the star & SS of Venus at 9th. By TOS Rahu = Moon, & Rahu = Saturn. As both Moon and Saturn are related to 12th, Rahu is capable of sending the native to abroad. Thus 3,9 and 12 significations are inter-linked. First she went in student visa for higher education. 9th lord Mercury and also karaka for education has come in the picture as stated above.

As per KP House Grouping Part IV of Shri Tin Winji, for permanent settlement in abroad, Ascdt. and its SSL also are to signify 3,9,12 connected to each other. Ascdt. is Libra movable sign, its lord and SSL is Venus in 9th. SSL of Venus is Rahu who is in the star of Mercury lord of 9th and 12th with self strength so signfr. of 9th & 12th. 3rd Lord is Jupiter and Venus in 9th is in the star of Jupiter lord of 9th, who is in the star of Venus at 9th, Mercury lord of 9th & 12th also in the star of Venus at 9th. Mercury is conjoined with Jupiter lord of 3rd. Both 3rd & 9th lords are in conjunction with each other. So this rule is applicable in toto and I predicted that she will settle down in abroad permanently and there is no chance of her returning homeland.

Let us see MST Formula for 3,9,12 cusps for abroad journey. 3rd CSSL is Venus is in 9th in the star of Jupiter L/O 3. Sun, Merc. Juptr. are in the star of Venus. SS in Sun : None, SS in Merc. = Sun & Merc. SS in Jupiter is None. So Venus, Merc. Sun are strong significators. for 3rd. Bhavam. 9th & 11th CSSL is Mercury lord of 9th in 11th in his own SS & as sukh he is with positional status, strong by himself, Rahu is in Merc. star. Venus is in Rahu SS.. 12th CSSL is Moon with positional status. None is in the star of Moon. Mars is in the SS of Moon. Moon is with positional status in the SS of Venus, SSL of 3rd cusp. So Moon is strong and Mars next. So for 3,9,12 string significators are Venus, Mercury and Sun, Rahu. & Jupiter. The native left for foreign in Rahu Dasa; Jupiter Bhukthi, Moon Anthara (all are strong Significators. All 3,9,12 are interconnected. Strong significators are Mercury, Venus, Jupiter, and Rahu The DBA at the time of her leaving for abroad agrees.

Marriage.: About Venus, Principal cusp for 7th and how it is favourable may be seen from the above summary of MST 4 formulas explained in brief above. Other houses of the group for marriage is discussed below: 2nd CSSL is Moon and Moon is with positional status. So she herself is strong for 2nd. Even by F3, Moon is in the SS of Venus & Venus is in the star of Jupiter at 11. So Moon, Venus and Jupiter are favourable for 2nd. cusp. a Mercury is the CSSL for 11th. Let us analyse it under F3, Mercury is in the star of Venus at 9, principal cusp SS lord. Mercury and Venus both are favourable for marriage.

Let us scrutinize other Planets (other than the one discussed above) to see whether they are favourable or not for marriage.

- (1) Sun in the SS of Mercury with positional status and CSSL of 11th. So Sun is favourable under F3.
- (2) Mars L/O 2 and 7 in 1 in the star Mercury and sub sub of Moon in the star of Sun at 11th, So Mars and Moon are favourable for marriage.
- (3) Jupiter, L/o 3 & 6, is in 11th in the star and sub of Venus, who is CSSL of 7th and already found favourable.
- (4) Saturn L/O 4 and 5 is in 12th (close to 12th cusp) in the star of Sun at 11 and in the SS of Venus, cSSL of 7th. So Satur, Sun and Venus are all favourable for marriage.
(Note: About Saturn, there is no strong PP Dosha with Moon-Saturn connection. But Satn.aspects 2nd cusp and Venus 7th CSSlord, Hence delay is seen. Pl. see below for Satn's effect).
- (5) Nodes Rahu and Kethu, both are in the SS of Saturn. So they are Saturn connected planets. Saturn is in 12 in the star of Sun at 11. Nodes are also favourable. Now according to Theory of Substitution, Rahu is Moon (His Rasi lord) and Kethu is Saturn (his Rasi lord). Both Moon and Saturn have been discussed already and both are found favourable for marriage.

All the planets were scrutinized and found favourable under F3 Formula of MST

So Marriage is assured. The girl is 29 yrs. of age now. Why delay? Here Saturn comes in the picture. He is delaying planet. Saturn aspects 2nd Bhavam, one of the 3 houses for marriage. Saturn also aspects Venus Kalathrakaraka.

Saturn is SSL for the current Dasa lord Rahu. Both the nodes Rahu/Kethu are in the sub-sub of Saturn sign. Kethu acts as Saturn. He is in the star of Mars, 2 & 7th lord.. This is the reason for delay. As marriage is promised, it will take place during the last anthara of the planet connected to Saturn. Planets connected to Saturn are : Rahu and Kethu (in the SSL of Saturn). Venus is in the SSL of Rahu connected to Saturn thro' his SSL. Venus is aspected by Saturn. Sun, Mercury and Jupiter are in the star of Venus, who is connected to Saturn by aspect.

The present Dasa is upto 2016. Marriage cannot go beyond this period, as there is no PP Dasha. No direct connection of Moon with Saturn. Dasa lord Rahu is of course is in the SSSL of Saturn. Hence it has Saturn connection. Rahu Dasa is appropriate. Current Bhukthi is Venus who is directly connected to Saturn. Others in Venus' star are weak. Hence Venus Bhukthi is also appropriate. Now we are to see the last antharam period. connected to Saturn. It is Merc. as per backward theory (RRF) explained below. Saturn itself being strong with positional status I have taken Saturn as Antharam and Mercury as Sookshma lord. This comes to the month of August 2011 Sravana month, After 18t, when Transit also will agree. Sun will be in Leo her natal position; asa lord Rahu in Scorpio natal 2nd house, Bhukthi lord Venus will be in Leo, Anthara lord Saturn will be in Virgo sign, in Mars lord, who is lord of 2 and 7th in natal chart. Jupiter benefic lord is required generally to be looked into for marriage will be transiting in 7th house of natal chart (Aries). Thus I pitched up the marriage date after 15th of August, 2011 Sevana month.

Another method of extracting strong signification 7th cssl is Venus. Apply MST formula, backward to Venus. Then the 'A' Planet will be the strongest significator. As in this case all the 9 planets are favourable for marriage, let us pick up strong Significators for marriage for this native by means of above backward theory.

F 3 backward to Venus CSSL of 7th .:

Planet in the star of Venus.: Sun, Mercury, Jupiter.

Planet in the sub-sub of Sun : None..

Planet in the sub-sub of Mercury : Sun and Mercury.

Planet in the sub-sub of Jupiter : None.

So Mercury is the strongest significator as 'A'.

Mercury is the CSSL of 11th cusp.

So Sookshma lord will come as Mercury.

F3 backward to Mercury CSSL of 11th cusp:

Planet in the star of Mercury : Rahu alone.

Planet in the SS of Rahu : Venus – Venus is CSSL for 7th cusp.

So Rahu and Venus are strong significator.

F3 backwward theor to 2nd Cusp CSSL Mars.

Kethu is in the star of Mars.

Planet in the SS of Kethu : None.

So Kethu alone is for 2nd cusp favourable.

So Mercury, Rahu, Venus, Kethu/Saturn are strong significators. (By TOS Kethu can be replaced by Saturn.)

(Rahu, Venus, Saturn, Mercury will be Dasa, Bhukthi, Anthara and Sookshma respectively.)

(This Backward theory is due to research by Prof.K. Balachandran and christened by him as “REVERSE REACTION FORMULA” Source: KP Year Book 2010 on page 219)

About her prospective Husband: 7th Bhavam of Natal chart is Lagna of her husband. SSL of his Lagna is Venus in the sub-sub of Rahu. Hence he is a foreigner native, while the girl is from India to be settled in abroad. His 10th CSSL is Mercury (which is 4th to the native). Mercury is in own sub-sub placed in 5th to the husbands lagna in the star of Venus at 3., L/O 2 and 7th to him. Venus is aspected by Saturn. Mercury is in the combination of Sun, and Jupiter Lord of 5 and 9&12 respectively. Mercury himself is lord of 3 and .6. Thus 10th CSSL Mercury is connected to Venus, Saturn, Sun and Jupiter. Mercury is strong with positional status. Saturn is another Planet with positional strength. His Lagna lord is Mars and Kethu in Mars star is posited in 10th where Merc.is SSL of the cusp. I am of the opinion that his 6th lord Mercury in his own sub-sub in the Sign of Leo and lord Sun is Dhanwantry karaka for cure and connected to Saturn also with positional status in 6th natural zodiac sign of Hospital in the star of Sun, Karaka. Mercury is for skill. So he may be a good physician. His financial condition will be good as 2,6,10, 11 are all strong.

I have asked my client who brought this chart of his daughter, to propitiate Saturn lord to ward of his delaying effect. I have also asked him to match both her would be partner and her at the time of settlement of marriage. For her husband, he should have longevity, As her chart shows his Bhadhaka lord Satirn and the planets in its sub-sub will come in the way of curtailing his longevity from her chart. So I asked to select such a horoscope for her would - be partner, which has good high longevity.

Conclusion: Many K.P. Astrologers avoid analysis under Sub-Sub theory thinking that it will not give result as in the case of Sub Theory. Sub-Sub is finer tune than Sub and I commend late Sri K.R.Kar for propounding Multi Stellar Theory and so many others like Theory of Short Predictions etc. I find only 2 researches in KP Method K.R.Kar's Sub-Sub Theory by late Shri K.R.Kar of Bolani and the other Cuspal Interlinks by Sri Bhaskar of Madurai. I personally find that Shri Kar's Sub-Sub Theory is a fine research for correct prediction.

Longevity is a matter which according to me cannot be calculated easily. What I can analyse from birth chart is whether there is any threat or danger to life although Krishnamurti Paddhati stalwarts can do that. Here is one such case in which I knew that something bad was going to happen to the jataka. So I told him about the possible accident many months before it actually happened. Krishnamurti Paddhati's application to natal chart also justifies that it is a scientific and logical astrology.

Client Date of Birth : 09-12-1975

Dasa Analysis

The jataka met me in the month of March 2008, I told him that danger to life is indicated till Jupiter Dasa Mars Bhukti which was to end on 5-07- 2008.

In this natal chart my analysis of his longevity and why his Jupiter Dasa and Mars Bhukti posed danger to his life and longevity is as follows.

Dasa lord Jupiter itself is in 5th house as lord of 3rd and 5th house. But it is in the star of Mercury in 2nd (Maraka) house and lord of 11th (Badhaka) house, and in the sub of Venus in 12th house and lord of 1st, 8th and 12th houses. In addition there is no planet in the stars of Venus which is the sub lord of 1st, 6th, 10th and 12th houses. Thus Jupiter indicates accident by signification of 6th, 8th and 12th houses, and also denotes danger to life by Maraka and Badhaka signification.

Bhukti lord Mars is in 8th house as lord of 2nd, 6th and 7th (Maraka) houses, and posited in own star Mars and sub Ketu, which is in 6th. Ketu is aspected by Ve and Saturn as lord of 4th house, and Ketu's sign lord is Mars. So Mars signifies accident causing houses of 4th, 8th and 12th, and Maraka houses 2nd and 7th of danger to life. Mars is also karaka for accident.

Longevity and Accident Analysis

1st Cusp (Libra 28:35:14 –VE JUVE) sub lord (CSL) Venus is placed in 12th house as lord of 1st, 8th and 12th houses, in the star of Rahu which is also placed in 12th house and conjunct with Venus. No planet in the stars of Venus which is the sub lord of 1st, 6th, 10th and 12th houses. 1st CSL Venus is in the sub of Jupiter which aspects Mercury in 2nd (Maraka) house as lord of 11th (Badhaka) house and Saturn as lord of 4th house. Thus 1st CSL Venus indicates accident and short life upto 33 years by signification of 4th, 6th, 8th, 12th and Maraka and Badhaka houses.

8th CSL (Taurus 27:55:27 VE MA SA) Saturn is lord of 4, in own star Saturn, and sub of Venus in 12th house as lord of 1st, 8th and 12th houses. No planet in the stars of Venus which is the sub lord of 1st, 6th, 10th and 12th houses. It also denotes accident (trigonal 4th, 8th and 12th) with injury (6th).

DBAS at Time of Death

The jataka expired on 17-06-2008 at 10:00 am Nagpur due to injury in head as he fell down from 1st floor of his rented home. The Jataka was under the influence of Jupiter Dasa, Mars Bhukti, Moon Antara and Jupiter Sookshma at that time.

Dasa lord Jupiter and Bhukti lord Mars, as discussed above, strongly signified 4th, 6th, 8th and 12th houses of accident with injury and Badhaka and Maraka houses of danger to life and fatality. Antara lord Moon is in 4th house (end of everything), in star of Mars and sub Venus, which are strongly indicating serious accident and danger to the jataka. Jupiter as death inflicting planet through star and sub appeared again as Sookshma lord.

As it was his destiny at the end of short longevity of 33 years, he was unable to survive the Jupiter Dasa and Mars

Prof Krishnamurthy revealed his own theory, now widely accepted as one which gives amazing logical results, as results of deeply enquiry as to how to assess the difference in the lives of twins. Lord Parashar has something more to say from their mouth. It may not be wrong to believe that Prof Krishnamurthy was one such illustrater of an old age reborn in our midst, whom lord Parashar chose him to build some different land for enrichment.

This twin children's birth detail is been given by my honourable astrology mentor, and had wished an assessment from Krishnamurthy Paddhati. The second one is not alive. Birth detail is given below.

The Both twin Childs are Female.

DoB: 19/5/2008

ToB: 1st Child at 1:46 am,

: 2nd Child at 1:47 am (Day of Death: 20/5/2008)

PoB: Mumbai-018 N 57; 072 E 49

To Be a Co-Born

To be a part of twin sibling, it is needed to scrutinize 3rd (younger sibling) and 11th (elder sibling) house's signification to Mercury(Karaka for duality) and Dual signs for 1st and 2nd child respectively.

1st Child's 3rd CSL is Me.

2nd Child's 11th CSL is Mo in star and sub of Ju which is belongs to a dual sign.

KP Aphorism Regarding Longevity

(1) If the cuspal sublord of 1st, 3rd (8th to 8th) and 8th houses signify 1,5,9,10 along with 3 and 8, one will survive till long or can say above 64 years of age. (Avoid 9th for Fix Ascendant)

(2) If the cuspal sublord of 1st, 3rd and 8th houses signify 1,5,9,10-3,8 along with badhaka and maraka houses, one has to live middle span of life.

(3) If the cuspal sublord of 1st, 3rd and 8th houses signify much magnitude of badhaka and maraka houses, one have a very short of life span.

1st CSL Is Venus

It is remarkable that the both childs have only one minute of difference and therefore both the childs are getting the same ascendant cuspal sublord as Ve. No planet appears in Ve star and so it has much strong magnitude.

For 1st born baby, Ve has cuspal sublordship of 1st, 4th, 5th, 7th, 8th and 10th houses.

For 2nd born baby, Ve has cuspal sublordship of 1st, 4th, 5th and 10th houses.

Ve is in Su star and Ma sub. Ve is being lord of 9th (badhaka) and places 3rd houses. Star lord Su places 3rd and owns 7th (marak) house. Sublord Ma has its placement on 5th and owns 3rd, 10th houses. Consequently, Ve has satisfied second dogma of longevity.

3rd CSL Is Me

It is remarkable that both the childs have only one minute of difference and therefore both the childs are getting the same 3rd cuspal sublord as Me. Me is in the constellation of Ma and sub of Ra. Me owns 5th & 8th houses and placed on 4th house. Star lord Ma placed at 5th and owning 3rd-10th houses. Ra as its sublord having no planets in its star, placed at 12th and signifying 1st, 6th, 12th, 5th, 3rd and 10th by its signlordship and starlordship respectively. Moreover Ra is being cuspal sublord of 6th and 12th houses. Consequently, Me has also satisfied second dogma of longevity.

8th CSL Is Su In 2nd Child

We just have to hit the bulls eye, which is it? It is, why the second one died on just after her birthday? Here, 8th CSL will tell entire framework of destiny of the second child. I have already discussed that the main difference of this twin Childs is their birth time with one minute of difference. Therefore, the 8th sublord of the second child is appearing changed. 8th CSL is Su and it is in self constellation and Sa sub. When planet in its own star, it is been more powerful. Moreover, its power appears significant only while it is alone in the house or owned house has no placement of any planet. Su is placed at 3rd and owns empty house 7th (maraka). Consequently, Su has much magnitude of 7th(marak) house. Su has something more to do by being 7th CSL changed in second child. The 2nd child died on just second day of her birth. Dasa-Bhukti's are the platform where an event of life or death takes place. We can say both the babies are stood on the same of dasa-bhukti of life and death platform, where one is getting life's hand-shake and the other got divine peace of death.

Dasa-Bhukti Of Jupiter

Ju was in retrograde motion having Su in its constellation and sub of Mo. Ju has its placement on 11th and owning of 2nd (marak) house. Su as a star lord placed at 3rd and owns 7th(marak). Thus, Su is strong as marak cause 7th house has no planet in it. Mo is sublord of Ju and having no planet in its star. Mo is cuspal sublord of 2nd (maraka) house. Mo placed at 8th, owns 6th and close to 9th (badhaka) house. Consequently, it is signifying both positive and negative bhavas for life and death respectively.

Assessment Of Moon

Mo is in the star & sub of Ju. Mo owns 6th(ailment), placed on 8th house and it is close to 9th (badhaka). Sublord Ju at 11th (wish to survive) and owns 2nd(maraka) houses both. Malicious Sa and Ma are aspecting Mo with their special 3rd and 4th aspect respectively. Mo is placed in its enemy rashi and further badhaka lord Ve aspecting to it.

Conclusions

- (1) First baby would enjoy her pleasant life till long as called madhyayusya.
- (2) There is no need to run up to sub-sub while sublord presents the prudent and unerring consideration. We are all aware that cuspal sublord is a supremo to give significant fruits, some while without waiting the soil (Dasa-Bhukti).

OM GAJAANANAM NAMAMYAHAM

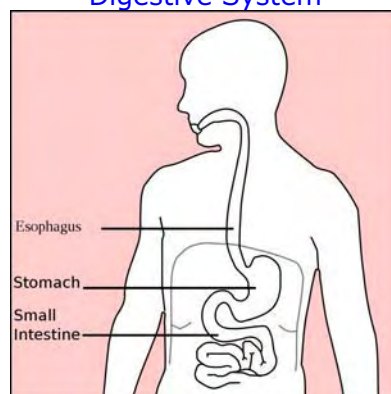

This month I am going to discuss about Gastritis relating to Disease of Stomach and 4 practical charts were taken up (Source: Dr. Bhamidipati Satyanarayana Murthy & Astrodatabank). Sri K Raghavendra Kumar M.Sc. B.Ed, was extended his assistance in preparing this article.

Gastrectomies are performed to treat cancer and perforations of the stomach wall. In severe duodenal ulcers it may be necessary to remove the lower portion of the stomach called the pylorus and the upper portion of the small intestine called the duodenum. If there is a sufficient portion of the upper duodenum remaining a Billroth I procedure is performed, where the remaining portion of the stomach is reattached to the duodenum before the bile duct and the duct of the pancreas. If the stomach cannot be reattached to the duodenum a Billroth II is performed, where the remaining portion of the duodenum is sealed off, a hole is cut into the next section of the small intestine called the jejunum and the stomach is reattached at this hole. As the pylorus is used to grind food and slowly release the food into the small intestine, removal of the pylorus can cause food to move into the small intestine faster than normal, leading to gastric dumping syndrome. Conclusion: From the analysis of the above 4 charts for Digestive System (Gastritis Stomach) we can conclude that 6th CSL connection to Mo, Ju, Sa, Nodes. In all the above cases 4th cusp happens to play vital role & VI CSL, Sa & Ke intensify the problem and Cancer Sign apart from 4th cusp from Ascendant plays a significant role in this disease. Punarvasu star Jupiter plays a vital role in deciding this disease. The commonly used gastritis rulers 4th house, Cancer sign, Ma and Mo (Judith Hill: Medical Astrology) are practically found connected mostly to 8th (serious disease) and 6th (disease) houses and to some extent to 12th, Mrk and Bdk houses.

1. In the Preface of this book, Shri Vaikari Ramamurthy has written that Guruji KSK in his KP Readers mentioned about Punarphoo only in some marriage matters. Vaikari Ramamurthy had lot of experience of this Sat-Moon combination, i.e. Punarphoo dosha not only in marriage aspect but each and every aspect of a man's life such as marriage, progeny, love affairs, inter caste marriage, delays profession, denial of marriage, betrothal, marriage agreements, mismatched marriage and also some miserable life of the native due to the presence of this Sat-Moon combination, i.e. Punarphoo....". The table of contents (above) gives a good, brief, description of its possible effects in 34 example charts in this pure research oriented book.

2. The whole idea of Punarphoo is condensed by Guruji KSK in one paragraph as follows: "Whenever Saturn has got any connection what-so-ever with Moon, there will be some obstacle or impediment, not only during negotiation but also at the time of fixation and even at the time of celebration of the marriage. This connection between Moon and Saturn causes delay, though ultimately both of them do much more good with a better partner." (KP Reader IV page 74)

3. Saturn-Moon connection is only part of the equation which can give very different results depending on their significations and relation with other planets. This connection may not be not benefic or malefic by itself, and inferring the conclusion other than delay effect by just relying on the mere Saturn-Moon connection might be baseless. Such conclusions are not yet proven by systematic research, and so it is not to worry about adverse effects of Punarphoo, which is open to empirical research.

4. Out of the first 10 horoscopes in Dr. B.V. Raman's Notable Horoscopes, 7 horoscopes are with Punarphoo, namely Sri Krishna, Sri Gautama Buddha, Augustus Caesar, Sri Adi Sankaracharya, Sri Jesus Christ, Prophet Mahamud, Sri Ramanujacharya and the author's chart with Punarphoo is at the end of his book.

5. There are plenty of other spiritual leaders with Punarphoo like Pope John Paul II, Swami Vivekananda, Sri Yogananda, Acharya Rajaneesh (OSHO), Swami Jananananda, Sri Arbindo Gosh of Pondichery, political leaders such as Napoleon Bonaparte, Queen Victoria, Abraham Lincoln, Franklin Delamo Roosevelt, Benito Mussolini, Joseph Stalin, Dwight D Eisenhower, Z.A. Bhutto, Martin Luther King, Jimmy Carter, Henry Kissinger, F.M. Ayub Khan, Indira Gandhi, Rajiv Gandhi, SWRD Bhandar Nike, astrologers like Michael De Nostradamus, K. Subramaniam, Sandy Crowther, Visti Larsen, successful celebrities such as Elvis Presley, Marilyn Monroe, Padma Shree Nargis Dutt, Raj Kapoor, Madhuri Dixit, Gina Lollobrigida, Greta Garbo, Sophia Loren, Raquel Welch, Whitney Houston, Angelina Jolie, Hugh Hefner and others like Karl Max, Jiddu Krishnamurti, Sir Jagdish Ch. Bose, Oscar Wilde, Steffi Graf, OP Jindal and R.P. Goenka etc.

Question I

Will you kindly clarify my doubt: For men, 7th house is for 1st marriage, 9th house is for 2nd and 11th for 3rd and so on, What house is to be considered for woman for 2nd marriage, after divorce? Whether the same method as for men will hold good?

Answer I

1. The 'same way' of counting from the last marriage e.g. 7th house is to be applied for 'both' men and women.
2. But there are two views of counting from the last marriage: first view is to take '8th' house from the last marriage e.g. 8th from 7th, '2nd house for 2nd marriage', and second view is to take 3rd house from the last marriage e.g. '3rd' from 7th, '9th house for 2nd marriage', as given under.

3.1. Second House for Second Wife

- a) Kalidasa: Utara Kalamrita, translated by Dr. D.S. Sastri, 2001, page 107 (Rationale: 2nd being 8th from 7th signifies death of first spouse or 7th house matters)
- b) KP Reader II, 1983, page 189
- c) KP Reader IV, 1984/2002, pages 83, 181 & 184 (the houses to refer to "ascertain the time of marriage, description of partner and the state of married life are the 8th house from the most recent spouse"; for 2nd marriage 8th-from-7th, i.e. 2nd house; 3rd marriage 8th-from-2nd, i.e. 9th house; 4th marriage 4th house, 5th marriage 11th house, 6th marriage 6th house etc.)

- k) <http://www.love-match-astrology.com/astrology-houses.html>

3.2. Ninth House for Second Wife

- a) Kanak Bosmia (Rationale: 9th being 3rd from 7th indicates second wife as a younger sister of first one.) (2nd house is also to be considered for second marriage in 'K.P. Muhurat', 2009, pages 78-79 & 108)

Pranam,

Dear Kanak Bosmia Ji,

Thank you very much for your great effort in making students as Visharads in KP Astrology.

This time you have selected an important topic, "Will Raj Thackeray face any case under treason?", from which you have given a personal exercise for me.

May Lord Uchista Maha Ganapathy bless for your long journey with us.

Dear Mr. Kanak Bosmia,

While fixing a muhurth for Sexual Intercourse for Conceive I could not understand the following. Can you please clarify sir?

In Analysis Y/N. This what I mean YES / NO. P- is in light green. Some times in some areas the dark green is there. What is the difference between light green and dark green?

Under PlaceDB "Elevation" which is containing some figures. What are the figures. How to use these figures. Whether these are to be changed or not from place to place?

Under Time Zone "Asia / Calcutta" is there for India. When I am fixing the muhurth for Chennai, will it effect sir?

Awaiting your prompt reply by return mail.

Your Muhurth book I bought and read. I is indeed very marvelous. I can proudly say that no such book will be there in the world at present.

Hats off to you sir.

May God give you health, wealth, prosperity and fulfilment of all your desires in your life.

With High Regards.

Padmakar D

Prediction

1. In the natal horoscope of Lech Kaczyński, the difficulties and threats will be seen only in 2010, when Uranus and Saturn come to square Sun, creating malefic causing half-cross configuration and Neptune square Ascendant. (Piotr Piotrowski, in "Gwiazdy Mówią", Stars Say, 6/2006 and 14/2008)

2. When Uranus square Sun in the natal horoscopes of the Great Twins, which may be a drop from overflowing cup, if the destiny written in the stars is to be fulfilled, then the world of Kaczyński Twins

National Tragedy

3. On 10 April 2010, a Tupolev Tu-154M plane was carrying Lech Kaczyński, his wife Maria Kaczyńska, and other members of a Polish delegation from Warsaw to commemorate the 70th anniversary of the Katyń massacre of Polish army officers and intelligentsia. The plane crashed while approaching Smolensk Air Base in Russia at 08:56 Eastern European Time (06:56 GMT). The plane hit trees in foggy conditions about 1 kilometre (0.6 mi) from the airport. There were no survivors of the crash. 96 people were killed in the crash, including many of Poland's highest military and civilian leaders.

Twin Brothers

4. Jarosław Kaczyński was born on June 18, 1949 at 2:00 am in Warsaw (Żoliborz), Poland and Lech Kaczyński was born 45 minutes later (at 2:45 am). This birth time information came from their mother's (Jadwiga Kaczyńska) statement in an interview to the press in 2005. Poland's identical twins Jarosław and Lech Kaczyński were the stars of a popular movie as children but as adult conservative politicians as prime minister (Jarosław, 14 Jul 2006 – Nov 16, 2007) and president (Lech, 23 Dec 2005 – 10 April 2010) By profession both are lawyers. Lech is married with one daughter and Jarosław is never married. In general, twins who are born earlier are more determined, and dominant blockbuster.

It is so in this case that of Jarosław is more resolute, determined and even explicitly that directs brother. He is better at creating ideas, concepts, programs. He is also a better orator and polemicist and has a greater ability to build contacts. Not everything is agreed, but united them indissoluble bond. "My life is already over" - he had to say shortly after the tragedy.

One of my acquaintances was desperate to have an important meeting with a top-notch official and was enlisted in the queue. The officer was available in station from 12th April to April 16, 2010.

The person did not get appointment for meeting till 13th April and in desperate mood, he contacted me on Tuesday: April 13, 2010 at about 1330 Hrs to find out, when will the meeting take place.

This prashna was attempted by the time chart given on next page.

The chart is being analysed as follows:

The Query

Look to the position of Moon to read the mind of the querist. Moon happens to be placed in 8th house, which shows the frustration of the querist for not getting time from the other end.

Moon was placed in the star of retro Saturn meaning that the native was apprehending that there would be no meeting so getting more frustrated.

Thus, the mental focus on the query was established in the prashna chart. Hence, it was OK to proceed for analyzing the query.

The co-ordinates for judgment

In this query, the native seeking appointment was represented by lagna and the official with whom the meeting was sought was represented by the 7th house.

The call intimation for the meeting is represented by the 3rd house. If the meeting has to take place, the 3rd and 9th house should link with the 11th house.

Analysis of the chart

- Calculate the significations for 3-9-11th houses.

3rd house is vacant and Sun is placed in the star of the owner Mercury. Hence, the 3rd house significators are Sun and Mercury. 9th house has Sun and Mercury placed in it tenanted Saturn and Mercury in its star respectively. 9th lord Jupiter tenants Ketu in its star. Thus Saturn, Sun, Mercury, Ketu and Jupiter are the significators of 9th house. 11th house is vacant and its lord Venus has Mercury and Rahu in its star.

Thus the joint significators of 3-9-11th houses are Sun, Mercury, Jupiter, Venus, Saturn, Rahu and Ketu.

- In order to filter the significators, the RPs were noted at the time of judgment which were Moon,

- Mercury, Jupiter, Saturn and Mars.

Thus, the common significators to be considered came out to be Mercury, Jupiter and Saturn.

- The significators were analyzed for fruitfulness as follows.

Mercury was placed in the sub of Mars who being a strong planet happened to be the sub-lord of 6-10th house and placed in 12th house. Thus, Mercury did not promote the fructification of meeting.

Jupiter falls in the sub of Ketu placed in 12th house; hence this is not taken as fruitful to establish the meeting.

Saturn is the sub-lord of the 3rd cusp, playing the important role for meeting but being retro would not allow the meeting to take place.

Thus none of the significators of 3-9-11th house agreed to establish the meeting.

- Note the 9th cusp for the desire of the officer to meet. 9th cusp sub-lord is Jupiter which falls in its own star placed in 8th house thereby having no desire to meet the querist. The sub-lord Ketu decided similarly, as said above.
- Note if 11th sub-lord has any scope of hope for materializing the meeting. Its sub-lord is Mercury and as analyzed earlier, it does not allow the meeting.
- Note Fortuna, which is placed in 12th house in the star of Jupiter placed in 8th house. Hence, it was sufficient to gather that the meeting would not take place.

Conclusion

Based on the analysis, it was concluded that the said meeting would not take place and it is futile for the querist to wait to meet the officer.

Facts of the case

Surprisingly, the officer flew to his headquarters on April 15, 2010 morning itself and did not honor many meeting commitments and did not forward any word of regret to any one of them. Yet, the querist was not even listed for meeting, as known through his secretary later after he left.

Would it be prudent enough to say that KP principles are perfect and errors in judgment are accounted to our lack of understanding, prompting us to look deeper into the invisible?

It was 14:10 pm of 23rd March 2010, when Kolkata's rich area Park Street got nation-wide media attendance because of large fire at Stephen Court Building. The Stephen Court caring hundreds of professional offices, call centres, shops including little residential houses. Fire brigade officials suspect a short circuit in one of the lifts led to the devastating fire. The people at Stephen court platform struggled a lot to survive though death toll of charred bodies had gone to 42, stricken count reached above 50, by the reference of news channels.

About 17:45 pm, the news channel Aaj-Tak put a news lines called "Ye Aag Kab Bujhegi? (When would the blaze been controlled?)". At once, i was ordered by the almighty to solve the question and have prepared a horary chart. The chart is not rotated. I picked a horary number by the box of 1 to 249 folded letters.

The 1st CSL Me is the star and sub of own Me. Me is places in 4th and owns 8th, 11th houses. The 4th house is considered as an expenditure of being rescued. 8th house is shows its devastating and struggling circumstances of Stephen Court. 11th house tells that the desire to get sustain power and its(Stephen Court) hope is still there.

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars

I considered the ascendant as Stephen Court's self or its existence and so the rule of implementation must be defined as health-favour (being rescued) of it.

Implemented Rule Regarding Rescue Of Stephen Court

When 1st CSL signifies 1st (self existence), 5th (being rescued) and 11th (fulfilment of desire), then during the DBAS and the transit of these signifacators, the fire would be controlled. Here 1st CSL Me is the star and sub of own Me and so it is strong by its placement and empty house. Me is placed in 4th and owns 8th, 11th, and 11th house has no planet.

Whether Today Or Not?

- To scrutinize, whether the event would fructify today or not, we have to assess the constellation of Mo.
- Mo is in the star of Ra. Ra is strong in significators and also appearing in RPs. Definitely, the blaze would be in control today.

Determining the Ascendant

- At the time of judgement, Leo was running at about 25 degree as an ascendant in transit. Lord of Leo is Su and Su is nobody within neither RPs nor significators.
- So 1st elimination would be the Leo. Further, next coming ascendant is Virgo. Me is the lord and existing as both RP and signficator .
- Now the Virgo is determined ascendant but its still to wait whether its star lord is within RP/significator or not for final stop.

Determining the Constellation

- The ascendant Virgo hase stars of Uttara Falguni, Hasta and Chitra and their lords are Su, Mo and Ma respectively.
- Star lord Su is already eliminated. Star Hasta of Mo is not in RP and signficator. Further, Ma lord of Chitra star is coming under consideration. Ma is lord of 1st cusp(self existence) and no planet coming in its stars and so it is strong.
- It is in both RPs and significators. Consequently, Virgo is the right ascendant and Ma would be an auspicious constellation.
- Constellation of Ma in any earth sign will appear between 23.33d to 30d.

Determining the Sublord

- In Chitra star of Ma, first coming sub is also Ma. Ma would be ignored because it was chosen just a while before.
- Upcoming sub is of Ra within the time 19:52:16 To 20:00:54. Ra is in both RP and significators.
- Just for take a look to the next sub, Ju which would be ignored because of not appearing in RPs. After Ju, the ascendant will be changed to Libra. Consequently, we have to stop searching the sub and presume Ra.
- Moreover, Ra cuspal sublord of 5th and 11th cusps is playing the role of Soil-the dasa lord.

Determined Time of an Event

I have decided to hit the bulls eye between 19:52:16 To 20:00:54 of chosen Virgo-Ma Star-Ra Sub.

Stephen Court (Kolkata): When would the blaze be controlled?

Fact of the Event

About 20:04 pm, the Aaj-Tak put-up the breakings news headlines that "Stephen Court Ki aag par kabu paya gaya (now the fire is controlled)". The readers may recognize the sound 4 minute time lag of communication between fire-fighters, reporters and the news-room fellows, who put the news.

Note

The planets which are in the constellation or in the sub of retrograde planet are considered as strong and fruitful significators.

Bottom Line by Honourable Tin Win ji in KP e-zine April-2009, page-8

Guruji KSK has brought us to that level of thought and used to say "My friends, we have come up to this- you should continue the research and you may reach to further truth". (KPA 1995 p 7 and 1996 p 63) So further research of a minimum of one hundred carefully documented Horary charts is required by taking a long time to form a credible opinion on retrogression whether it does matter or not in the Horary analysis. Mere reference of just several cases against plenty of supporting cases may not be sufficient yet to totally ignore retrogression widely mentioned in the astrological literature of East and West, especially its impact in short term prediction by Horary.

Our ancient maharishis contributed much to the principle, practice of astrology and now this science, art has grown in leaps and bounds and further thousands of Pundits all over the world are contributing to its growth by coming out with new aphorisms, new approach to the method of predictions, expanding its basic principles in tune with modern trend. Culmination of many decades of rich experience, profound knowledge in Jyotisha sastra of our great Guruji Sri KSKji, is the churned out nectar, the Krishnamurti Padhdhati. His concepts have given a new dimension to astrology and have opened up many more logical applications of his doctrine, offering precise results.

I would like to mention a few words about me; I am not an eminent scholar in astrology, still I am a novice and my learning curve continues. Here I would like to present my humble attempt in applying KP doctrines in relation to Vastu. My attempt can be termed as sowing a seed and I leave it to the insight of great scholars of astrology to nurture it further so that the seed sprouts and blossoms. I was contemplating on a view that there must be some revelation in an individual's natal chart about vastu vibration of his dwelling too; this concept is an extension of the truth that we could predict (1) when a person will have his own dream house, (2) when a person will sell his house, (3) when a person will mortgage his property, (4) will the person be able to redeem the property and (5) will a property come for an auction etc.

Before I continue further in scripting this article, I would like to highlight few basic concepts of Vastu sastra. What is Vastu? – Study of vibration of a dwelling place / earth, application of its principles. It is based on the pancha bootas i.e. 5 elements of nature – (1) earth (bhoomi), (2) water (jala), (3) wind (vayu), (4) fire (agni) and (5) ether (akasa) (the fifth and highest element after earth, air, fire and water, and how to derive their energy, anugaha (blessings) in a balanced level. Vastu Vidya (science of Vastu) is divided into 2 branches – (1) Gruha Vastu related to selection, shape of plots, its dimension, construction of building and (2) Devalaya Vastu related to selection, shape, purification of plot for construction of temples, iconography, iconometry, pratishta vidhi (installation systems) etc. Here silpa sastra, tantra sastra, mantra sastra, agama sastra are also integrated. Vastusutra Upanisad, which belongs to Atharvana Veda, is the first known text on iconography, iconometry. (Ref: Vastusutra Upanisad – authored by: Alice Boner, Sadasiva Rath Sarma and Bettina Baumer – published by: Motilal Banarsidass, New Delhi).

In Astrology, each zodiac sign has its own characteristic, which is given below in a table form:

Sl.No	Zodiac Sign	Planet	Direction	Element signified By Zodiac Sign	Element Signified By Planet
01	ARIES	Mars	East	Fire	Fire
02	TAURUS	Venus	South	Earth	Water
03	GEMINI	Mercury	West	Air	Earth
04	CANCER	Moon	North	Water	Water
05	LEO	Sun	East	Fire	Fire
06	VIRGO	Mercury	South	Earth	Earth
07	LIBRA	Venus	West	Air	Water
08	SCORPIO	Mars	North	Water	Fire
09	SAGITTARIUS	Jupiter	East	Fire	Ether
10	CAPRICORN	Saturn	South	Earth	Air
11	AQUARIUS	Saturn	West	Air	Air
12	PISCES	Jupiter	North	Water	Ether

Please note that all the 12 zodiac signs represent only 4 elements and does not represent ether; may be all the 9 planets, are in ethereal space above earth.

In Navagraha Mandala, the 9 planets indicate different directions when compared with zodiac sign directions, which is given as follows:

Sl.No	Planet	Direction in Navagraha Mandala	Direction in Astrology*
01	SUN	Centre, East	East
02	VENUS	East	South-East
03	MOON	South-East	North-West

* Your Horoscope and Your House by T. Rajendra Kumar, K.P. & Astrology, 2001, page 99

The 4 cardinal directions are EAST, WEST, NORTH and SOUTH and the 4 intermediate directions are NORTHEAST, SOUTHEAST, SOUTHWEST and NORTHWEST, which accounts to 8 corners or DIK. Our Hindu shastra allocates 8 deities to these 8 corners or directions and they are:

East – ruled by and presiding deity INDRA

South-East – ruled by and presiding deity AGNI

South – ruled by and presiding deity YAMA

South-West – ruled by and presiding deity NAIRUTI

West – ruled by and presiding deity VARUNA

North-West – ruled by and presiding deity VAYU

North – ruled by and presiding deity KUBERA

North-East – ruled by and presiding deity ESANA

CENTRE is called BRAHMASTHANA ruled by the Creator of the Universe. The First Creator was LORD SRI MAHAVISHNU and he created LORD BRAHMA in a blossoming lotus from his navel (nabhi chakra in Kundalini Yoga).

Hence in Vastu shastra, the 9 planets, 5 elements, 12 Zodiac signs, 8 directions and the Brahma Sthana play a vital role in determining the success /failure, happiness / sorrow, wealth / poverty, health / ailments, peace of mind / psychic disorders etc., of a person.

4th Bhava indicates – agriculture property, farms, fields, building and real estates, concerns related to land or earth itself, dwelling place, hereditary house, hereditary property, immovable properties, place of residence and the house that we live inetc. (Ref: KP Navratnamala – Series 1 – Matters Controlled by Bhavas by Sri Kuppu Ganapathi.

4th House – Graha (house), Vesma (home), Kshiti (land) The fourth house relates to one's home residence, domestic environments The fourth also shows one's landed or immovable property and those holdings which one takes on lease or rent as also those rented or leased out to other people. All permanent possessions such as fields, pastures, corn-fields, farms, orchards, mines, real estate, gardens, buildings, ancient dwellings, monuments and antiquities are influenced by this house. (Ref: Fundamental Principles of Astrology, Second Reader, authored by: Sri K.S. KRISHNAMURTI, published by: Mahabala Publishers & Booksellers, June 1975 edition).

8th House – Adhi (mental pain), Klesha (sorrow), Apavadha (scandal, illrepute), Vigna (obstacles, impediment). The author of Sanketanidhi calls the eighth house as the house of mystery and misery. It has to do with misfortune and mental anxiety, sorrow and strife and privations, delay and dejection, disappointment and defeat, loss and obstruction, blade and ill repute, quarrels and fights, wrong actions etc. (Ref: Fundamental Principles of Astrology, Second Reader, authored by: Sri K.S. KRISHNAMURTI, published by Mahabala Publishers & Booksellers, June 1975 edition).

12th House – Vyaya (loss, negation), Daridrya (poverty, penury), Kshaya (loss, decline) Dukkha (misery, shows loss and impediments, restraint and limitations, waste and extravagance, expenses outweighing income and drudgery and deception.

Hence we can arrive at a view that sign, star and sublord of 4th cusp, planets signifying 4th house, if they point at 8th house, the dwelling or business premises is under vastu defect and if they point 12th house the nature of defect, how it affects the native can be ascertained. I have observed that vastu's ill effect or good effect influences not only the owner who has occupied the house but also the tenant if the premises is let out on rent. Few may have different opinion that vastu will not affect the tenant since he pays rent and he is not the owner of the property. But I have observed in my study that the impact is applicable whether he is an owner or a tenant.

There are several Vastu manuscripts, as sloka, later published into books with commentary and explanatory notes. I am not elaborating on the vastu principles, here, since it may run to more than few hundreds of pages. Vastu Sastra is a very wide and deep subject. Hence I am giving only few guidelines given in ancient scriptures, as follows:

East – main entrance, drawing room
South-East – kitchen
South – bedroom
South-West – head of the family's bedroom
West – bedroom
North-West – children's bedroom or guest bedroom, kitchen
North – treasury, pooja room, main entrance, drawing room
North-East – pooja room, main entrance, drawing room

In those days the properties signified by vastu sastra were very limited but later, many eminent scholars have contributed much to its development based on practical study, application of basic principles and have added those properties in trend now, expanding its scope; e.g. generator / electricity room, boiler, drawing power through main distribution board, installing transformer, placing television etc., at south-east, placing heavy objects, keeping valuables, money, property documents, jewellery at south-west corner, at south-west room (in Dasa Maha Vidya Tantra, tantra sastra related to the 10 great cosmic powers, the presiding deity of southwest direction is KAMALATMIKA i.e. SRI MAHALAKSHMI), constructing toilet, placing telephone / fax instrument at north-west, constructing drinking water sump below ground at north-east etc. Similar to placement of objects at residence, the guidelines for placing objects at factory, business premises is also lengthy.

Agni could be used for kitchen, static objects, boiler, waste goods etc. If business goods are kept at this place, heavy losses would incur. (K.P. and Vasthu Sasthra by K. Baskaran, K.P. & Astrology 2000, page 89)

The only means to overcome the negative influence of a planet through Vastu is to satisfy the planets direction as per the vastu requirements. If Jupiter is causing trouble in one's horoscope (by occupying or owning 8/12 houses etc.), then satisfy Jupiter by keeping esanya clean, light and vacant. Try to arrange water in esanya by digging well or at least a stump. Your Horoscope and Your House by T. Rajendra Kumar, K.P. & Astrology, 2001, page 100-101)

I have applied the influence of 8 cardinal deities, 5 elements, directions signified by 12 zodiac signs (as per KP), directions signified by 9 planets (as per Navagraha mandala), 4th cusp sign / star / sub lords, planets signifying 4th house if they signify 8th and 12th house results (as per KP).

I have made an attempt to support my view with a case study and my observation / vastu effect is given as follows:

Case Study

Name: Mr A

DOB: 12-05-1957

TOB: 8.12 AM

POB: Jayapuram, near Periapalayam, TN - 13.8 N, 80.3 E

Cusp Analysis:

4th cusp - LEO – Sun / Venus / Kethu;

4th cusp sub lord Kethu is in 11th house and conj. Sun in 11th, lord of 4th house and Mercury in 11th, lord of 1st, 2nd and 5th houses; Kethu is in sub Venus in 12th, lord of 12th and own sub Kethu in 11th house and conj. Sun in 11th, lord of 4th house and Mercury in 11th, lord of 1st, 2nd and 5th houses.

In the 4th CSL signification, SUN is a powerful significator of 4th house; this person inherited ancestral property worth several crores through his father; SUN does not signify 8th or 12th house results and hence continues to own it by divine grace.

VENUS signifies 12th house results by placement and lordship;

KETHU signifies 12th house results by star lord.

The sign LEO indicates EAST;

VENUS indicates EAST, KETHU indicates North-West direction (as per Navagraha Mandala).

8th cusp – SAGITTARIUS – Jupiter / Sun / Mars; SAGITTARIUS indicates EAST. Jupiter signifies 8th house by lordship and 12th house as its cusp sub lord.

12th cusp – TAURUS – Venus / Sun / Jupiter; TAURUS indicates South; VENUS signifies 12th house results.

Planets signifying 4th Houses

Sun by placement of itself and its own star lord

Jupiter by its placement and star lord Sun

Rahu by star lord Jupiter

Sun is in ARIES - Mars/ Sun/ Moon; Sun does not signify 8th or 12th house results.

Jupiter is in LEO- Sun/ Sun/ Mars; Jupiter signifies 8th house by lordship and 12th house as its cusp sub lord.

Rahu is in Libra – Venus / Jupiter / Kethu; Venus signifies 12th house, Jupiter signifies 8th house and 12th house as its sub lord and Kethu signifies 12th house by its star lord Venus.

Vastu Analysis

In my experience and vastu study, I have observed that 8th house results offered by planets indicate the defects (few defects are rectifiable and some defects cannot be rectified) and 12th house results offered by planets indicates loss / problems, sorrow and unalterable, permanent vastu defect.

8th house result is indicated by Rahu and Jupiter.

As per navagraha mandala –

Rahu indicates south-west direction; main entrance of one of the properties owned by him is in south-west. This corner should be a closed point but whereas main door is located there. Since door is frequently opened daily, growth in savings will be very slow or minimal when compared to high earnings. The position of main door is such that it cannot be relocated to any other positive direction to derive positive results.

Jupiter indicates north direction, signifies wealth. Kitchen is in north which is a very bad vastu defect.

8th cusp is in Sagittarius; Jupiter is its lord, north is his direction in Navagraha Mandala, Dikbalaka of North is Kubera i.e. lord of wealth, resulted in less savings when compared to very high income.

12th house result is indicated by Mercury, Kethu, Venus and Jupiter.

As per navagraha mandala

Mercury indicates north-east direction; toilet is at north-east corner of the plot. This is a serious vastu defect. Relocating the toilet to other direction is not possible. Though he earned money in crores, he lost few lakhs in personal wealth.

Kethu indicates north-west direction; one of the properties has northwest portion cut. He faced monetary loss due to unproductive expenses. Shifting the main door is not possible since providing an opening at other sides is not at all possible.

Venus indicates east direction; one of the properties has toilet at east. Money lost due to unproductive expenses.

Jupiter indicates north direction; signifies wealth. Kitchen is in north which is a very bad vastu defect.

12th cusp is in Taurus; Venus is its lord, east is his direction in navagraha mandala, Dikbala of East is Indra i.e. lord of comforts, luxury, resulted in uncomfortable living.

From the above, the reader can easily understand that KP principles can be applied to study vastu effect and it is amazing that cuspal sub lord and signification theory reveals the vastu defects and its effects.

This is only an attempt to prove that KP's doctrines can be applied even in unexplored areas and can guide us precisely to pinpoint vastu vibrations. I request all eminent scholars of KP to apply their insight and guide me to enrich my knowledge.

Pranams to Guruji Sri KSKji.

This month I am going to discuss about Pancreas relating to Digestive System and 4 charts were taken up (Source: Dr. Bhadriddipati Satyanarayana Murthy & Astrodatabank). Sri K Raghavendra Kumar M.Sc. B.Ed, was extended his assistance in preparing this article.

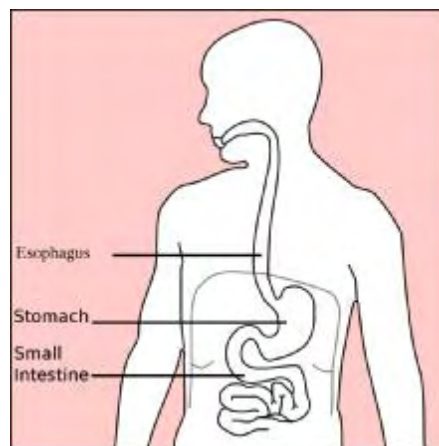

Pancreatic cancer: Pancreatic cancer is sometimes called a "silent killer" because early pancreatic cancer often does not cause symptoms, and the later symptoms are usually non-specific and varied. Therefore, pancreatic cancer is often not diagnosed until it is advanced. Common symptoms include:

- Pain in the upper abdomen that typically radiates to the back (seen in carcinoma of the body or tail of the pancreas)
- Loss of appetite and/or nausea and vomiting.
- Significant weight loss.
- Painless jaundice (yellow skin/eyes, dark urine) when a cancer of the head of the pancreas (about 60% of cases) obstructs the common bile duct as it runs through the pancreas. This may also cause pale-colored stool and steatorrhea.
- Trousseau sign, in which blood clots form spontaneously in the portal blood vessels, the deep veins of the extremities, or the superficial veins anywhere on the body, is sometimes associated with pancreatic cancer.
- Diabetes mellitus, or elevated blood sugar levels. Many patients with pancreatic cancer develop diabetes months to even years before they are diagnosed with pancreatic cancer, suggesting that new onset diabetes in an elderly individual may be an early warning sign of pancreatic cancer.
- Clinical depression has been reported in association with pancreatic cancer, sometimes presenting before the cancer is diagnosed. However, the mechanism for this association is not known.

The pancreas is a gland organ in the digestive and endocrine system of vertebrates. It is both an endocrine gland producing several important hormones, including insulin, glucagon, and somatostatin, as well as an exocrine gland, secreting pancreatic juice containing digestive enzymes that pass to the small intestine. These enzymes help in the further breakdown of the carbohydrates, protein, and fat in the chyme. The pancreas is a dual-function gland, having features of both endocrine and exocrine glands.

Diseases of the pancreas: Because the pancreas is a storage depot for digestive enzymes, injury to the pancreas is potentially very dangerous. A puncture of the pancreas generally requires prompt and experienced medical intervention.

Pancreatic cancer, particularly cancers of the Exocrine Pancreas remain one of the most deadly cancers, and the mortality rate is very high.

In Medical Astrology Natural Zodiac (Kalapursha), pancreas is ruled by the sign Cancer, 4th house and severe affliction to Cancer sign is one of the indications for pancreas cancer. Pancreas, which secretes insulin, is ruled by the 6th house while the secretions and glands are denoted by Venus. At the same time lack of exercise is also denoted by Venus. According to K.P. System if the sublord of the 6th cusp is connected to either Venus, Jupiter or Moon and houses 1, 6 and 8, and also the Cancer sign, one would be attacked by this disease of pancreas or diabetes. Venus also indicates diabetes due to excess of sugar, nephritis, syphilis, venereal disease, dropsy, impotency etc. Moon indicates breasts, lungs, left eye, kidney and liquid matter in the body and pancreas etc.

Why GSLV-D3 Got Failure ?

The Geosynchronous Satellite Launch Vehicle (GSLV-D3) would be the first ever home-made venture which had spent 330 crores of monetary cost and 18 years times of hard work but unfortunately the entire mission had been ruined in 8 minutes. The scientists could not get the data after 504 seconds. The Cryogenic engines were ignited 29 hours back from the day of launching at 14 April at 11:27 am by the Isro.

India's GSLV-D3 powered by entirely homegrown cryogenic engine for the first time failed in its mission as the rocket carrying a communication satellite deviated from its path and went out of control shortly after its lift-off from the spaceport in Sriharikota. Isro chairman K Radhakrishnan said, "We saw the vehicle tumbling uncontrollably and it developed deviation. Two venire engines would not have ignited. It is time not to gloom, we'll stand-up within a year."

These are the scientific and technical reasons of the failure but our astrology has different approach to see the native/thing/event whether it was an auspicious time to start. Shri Kanak Bosmia is a one who has revealed a new, unique and novel technique for muhurat in KP.

Launched Muhurt Time Detail of GSLV-D3

15/04/2010, 16:27, Sri Harikota, Nellore, A.P (14-24-N, 80-00-E)

KP Muhurat Rules for Launch of Rocket/Satellite

- (1) Do not select Chara (Moveable sign) lagna.
- (2) Asc CSL should signify 1, 5, 9, 11 for long life of event. (If you select dual sign lagna, do not consider 7th)
- (3) 12th CSL should signify 3, 9 and 12 for good and safe journey.
- (4) 3rd and 9th CSL should signify 3, 9, 12 for peaceful journey.
- (5) 8th CSL should not signify 8 and 12.
- (6) Dasa-Bhukti should signify 3, 9, 12.

Examining Rule 1

Do not select Chara (Moveable sign) lagna

The ascendant at the time of launch was common sign. So it is ok.

Examining Rule 2

Asc CSL should signify 1, 5, 9, 11 for long life of event. (If you select dual sign lagna, do not consider 7th)

1st CSL Sa is in the star of Su and sub of Me. Sa is placed in 1(self) and owns 5(health), 6. Su is in 7(Badhaka) and has lordship of 12(failure). Sublord Me owns 1 and 10 with its placement in 8(disappointment, obstacles). Here, 1st CSL Sa signifies favourable and unfavourable bhavas, also at stellar level. So, it is not much ok.

Examining Rule 3

12th CSL should signify 3, 9 and 12 for good and safe journey

12th CSL Mo is in the constellation of Ke and sub of Me. Mo owns 11(12th to 12th) and is deposited in 8(12th to 9th). Star lord Ke signifies 1, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10 bhavas with the signification of aspected planet, sign lord and star lord. Sublord Me owns 1 and 10 with its placement in 8. Moreover, Mo and Me have no planet in their constellations, so they both have strong magnitude at their placement of 8. So, it is definitely not ok.

Examining Rule 4

3rd and 9th CSL should signify 3, 9, 12 for peaceful journey

3rd CSL and 9th CSL Sa is in the star of Su and sub of Me. Sa is placed in 1 and owns 5, 6. Su is in 7 and has lordship of 12(abroad). Sublord Me owns 1 and 10 with its placement in 8th house. So, it is not ok with mere glance of 12 at the stellar level.

Examining Rule 5

8th CSL should not signify 8 and 12

8th CSL Mo has no planet in its stars and is deposited in 8. Its sublord Me has also no planet in its stars and is deposited in 8. Moreover, Mo is CSL of 4th, 8th, 12th bhavas of accident. Consequently, 8th CSL signifying 8th and 12th bhavas with strong magnitude. So, it is definitely not ok.

Examining Rule 6

Dasa-Bhukti should signify 3, 9, 12

Dasa Lord: Ke is in the constellation of Ju and sub of Sa. Ke signifies 1, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10 bhavas with the signification of aspected planet, sign lord and star lord. Ju is deposited in 6 and owns 4th and 7th. Sublord Sa is placed in 1st and owns 5th. It is not signifying 3, 9 or 12 at all.

Bhukti Lord: Me owns 1st and 10th with its placement in 8th and it has no planet in its stars. Me is in the star of Ve and sub of Ra. Ve is in 8 and owns 2, 9. Rahu signifies 8, 4, 2, 9, 6, 7 bhavas with the signification of star lord and sign lord. Although 9 is signified, no Bhukti lord can offer a result, if Dasa lord does not permit. (KP Reader IV, page 195)

Conclusion

If the native/thing/event is not about to go abroad/away from home pointed by 12th cusp, how could it go further by attending just few steps.

Bottom Line by Shri Kanak Sir

An auspicious time to start any event is a muhurat. The chart for that special moment is Muhurat Chart. We have to take the moment of starting of the event, not when it gets finished.

Shri Kanak Bosmia has given a really unique method to determine the muhurat to the KP fraternity. Moreover, they have opened the source of muhurt software from where anyone can get beneficial of it without paying anything. I hope our scientists may recognize it.

Astrologer Kanak Bosmia was born in small town of Saurashtra (Gujarat - India) - Amreli on 25th Feb 1961. He had completed His study up to 12th at Bhavnagar. In 1977 he came to Ahmedabad and started his own business. In 1979 his interest towards astrology started during his business visit of various cities of India, he did also referred many books of astrology and met many learned astrologers all over India.

He joined school of astrology and was honored by Jyotish Visharad, Jyotish Ratna, Jyotishaacharya, Jyotish Visharad. In the year 1996 he started astrology as a main profession; from 1999 he adopted totally KP Astrology and got mastery in Krishnamurthy Paddhati (KP).

Will Miss Shanika Madhumali win Super Star competition?

Sunaparantha Kalyan

Sri Lanka

sunaparantha@yahoo.com

Here in my country a famous TV Channel named "Sirasa TV" has been conducting a singing competition called "Siarasa Super Star". There were more than 100000 competitors at the beginning and the semi final was held on the last evening. For the semi final there were two boys and one girl. This TV channel has conducted two sessions of singing star prior to this and this is the third one. In last two sessions winners were only boys and there were no girls at all for even the semi finals. As such every body is interesting on this girl who is selected for the finals, scheduled to be held on 8th May 2010.

My wife and all family members voted for this girl and asked me to see whether she will win the competition by giving the Horary No. 24.

Based on Sri Kanak Bosmia's analysis " Will Shreyasi win Sa Re Ga Ma Pa L'I I champ competition?" appeared in Astro Vision Nov. 2009, my analysis is as given under.

Question: Will Miss Shanika Madhumali win Super Star competition?

Horary No. 24 (1 - 249)

Date - 25.04.2010

Time - 10.34.34 PM

Place - Marapola , Sri Lanka (80e02/07n09)

Ayanamsa - KPNA 23-54-39

Asc. - Taurus 1:13.:20

Dasa bal Su 2y,7m,15d

KP Rule

For singing we consider 5th cusp . If 5th cusp sub lord is a significator of 5, 6, 10 and 11 houses, one will become a popular and successful singer. If Venus and Mercury are connected to 5th cusp sub lord, one will be very intelligent in music. If 5 CSL is connection to Gemini or Sagittarius sign, one can render music to the intensive appeal of the audience. (Latha Mangeshkar, in Notable Persons & K.P. , by K. Hariharan, pp 108-112)

For Miss Shanika

5th CSL Me is L/o 3,6 in 12, no planets in stars of Me being the cuspal sub lord of 3,5,9 & 11 houses; Me is in the Star of Ve L/o 1, 2 in 1; and in the Sub of Mo L/o 4 in 5. Thus the 5th CSL signifies the relevant 5,6 & 11 houses.

Running DBAS on 8th May 2010: Su - Sa- Mo - Mo

Dasa lord Sun is L/o 5 in 12, in the Star of Ke in 2, Ke aspected by Ju L/o 9,12 in 11 & Sa L/o 10,11 in 5, and Su is in the Sub of Me L/o 3, 6 in 12, CSL of 3,5,9 & 11. So Su signifies all the required 5,6,10 & 11 houses.

Bukthi lord Sa is L/o 10,11 in 5; in the Star of Sun L/o 5 in 12 and in own Sub Sa L/o 10,11 in 5. Sa is closely conjoined with Mo who is armed with positional strength of 5 as no planet in her stars. Hence Sa is in well signification of the required 5,10 & 11houses.

sunaparantha@yahoo.com

Antara/ Sookshma lord Mo is L/o 4 in 5; in the star of Su L/o 5 in 12; in the sub of sa L/o 10,11 in 5, signifying the relevant 5,11 houses.

For Opponent Mr. Arjun (7th of the Horary Chart):

5th (5th from the 7th) CSL Me is L/o 9,12 in 6, no planets in stars of Me being the cuspal sub lord of 9,11,3 & 5 houses; Me is in the Star of Ve L/o 7, 8 in 7; and in the Sub of Mo L/o 10 in 11. Thus the 5th CSL signifies all the relevant 5,6,10 & 11 houses.

Running DBAS : Su - Sa- Su - Sa

Dasa lord Sun is L/o 11 in 6, in the Star of Ke in 8, Ke aspected by Ju L/o 3,6 in 5 & Sa L/o 4,5 in 11, and Su is in the Sub of Me L/o 9, 12 in 6, CSL of 9,11,3 & 5. So Su signifies the required 5,6 & 11 houses.

Bukhti lord Sa is L/o 4,5 in 11; in the Star of Sun L/o 11 in 6 and in own Sub Sa L/o 4,5 in 11. Sa is closely conjoined with Mo who is armed with positional strength of 11 as no planets in her stars. Hence Sa is in well signification of the required 5,6 & 11houses.

Antara lord Mo is L/o 10 in 11; in the star of Su L/o 11 in 6; in the sub of Sa L/o 4,5 in 11, signifying the relevant 5,6,10,11 houses.

Conclusion

Houses signified by 5 CSL and DBAS lords

Participant	5CSL	Dasa	Bhukti	Antara/ Sookshma
Miss Shanika	5,6,11	5,6,10,11	5,10,11	5,11
Opponent	5,6,10,11	5,6,11	5,6,11	5,6,10,11

- The opponent 's 5 CSL is better signified;
- But in timing, Dasa lord is better signified for Miss Shanika;
- Antara/Sookshma lord is much better signified for the opponent;
- But the Dasa lord is the most powerful commander. (KP Reader V p 195);
- 10 (achievement of name, fame) is not signified by Dasa & Bhukti lords of opponent;
- 8 (disappointment) is signified only in DBAS lords of opponent;
- It will be very tough competition and Miss Shanika is preferred to come out as winner.

On 23-06-2008 a student from Delhi asked me the question about admission in the engineering college of his choice near Chandigarh, for which he was trying and I asked him to choose a number between 1 to 249. He gave me the number 5. I made the calculation of horary chart on 23-06-08 at 9:54 pm (Chandigarh) and analysis as given under.

Firstly, as per the Gulbarga Theory, if Ascendant sub lord is the same as the Moon star lord, then the answer is affirmative. In this case, Ascendant sub lord is Mars and the Moon star lord is also Mars.

Secondly, as per KP in page number 191 of Horary Astrology, Sixth Reader by Shri K.S Krishnamurti, the 4th house indicates the educational institution and since his desire is to get admission, the 11th house shows realization of his ambition. Therefore, sub-lord of the 4th cusp is to be deposited in the constellation, which is the significator of 4 and 11 by occupation and lordship. Here in this case, 4th cuspal sub lord is Mercury, which is the significator of 4th house by lordship and Mercury is in the star of Moon, which is in the significator of 11th house by occupation. So the condition is fulfilled for getting admission in the desired college.

Thirdly, Moon is in 11th house and 11th cuspal sub lord Ketu is in the sign of Moon which is in the 11th house. Moreover Ketu is in the star of Mercury, which is the significator of 4th house by lordship. So his desire is to be fulfilled at the earliest as Moon is the fast moving planet.

Fourthly, the calculated horary chart Ascendant sign lord and sub lord is Mars and star lord is Ketu, which acts as agent for Moon. Mars and Moon are among the Ruling Planets at the time of judgment, i.e. Asc sign lord = Saturn, Moon star lord = Mars, Moon sign lord = Saturn, Day lord = Moon (Monday).

So I told him that he would get the admission in the engineering college of his choice.

ACTUAL RESULT - On 24-06-08 I got a message from the student that he had got the admission in the desired engineering college of his choice near Chandigarh.

Om Gan Ganapataye Namah

Time and again Krishnamurti Paddhati has proved that it is scientific and logical. In many case studies that I did using KP method, I wonder the great effort that Guruji Shri KS Krishnamurtiji had put in innovating a new approach to astrology. Here I present a recent case; a person came to me and told me that his wife had left him. So he wanted to know about when his wife would come back.

Let us look at how I had applied KP astrology in solving the query.

Query : Reunion with Wife
 Horary No : 93 (1 - 249)
 Date : 04-01-2010
 Time : 20:05 pm
 Place : Bhopal 77E26 , 23N07 (Geocentric)
 Ayanamsa : KPNA 23:54:35

HINTS

- 1 For reunion 7th Cuspal Sublord must signify 2 , 7 and 11th houses .
- 2 7th cuspal sublord must not signify the 12th from these houses i.e. 1 ,6 and 10th house.
- 3 7th house indicates wife , husband and marital happiness , 2nd house indicates Kutumba (domestic family) and 11th house indicates fulfillment of desire, reunion .

MOON

Moon always gives the indication of state of mind and queries. So one should only proceed when the Moon and Ascendant sublords signify the houses under consideration. Here Moon is placed in 12th house, it is in the star Magha of Ketu which is in 11th house , hence the Moon is connected to the relevant houses. Ascendant sublord is Venus which is placed in 5th house and placed in its own star Purvashada. It is in conjunction with Sun , Mercury which is lord of 2nd and 11th houses . So Venus too is connected to the relevant houses.

2nd Cusp -- Virgo -11:04:19 (Me -Mo- Mo)

Moon is the cuspal sublord of the 2nd house ; it is placed in the 12th house , which indicates that his wife has left him and he is concerned about that. It is in the star of Ketu which is placed in the 11th house . So it strongly signifies 11th house i.e fulfillment of desire, reunion.

7th Cusp - Aquarius -13:20:00 (Sa - Ra - Me)

Mercury is the cuspal sublord of the 7th house; it is placed in 5th house and is in the star purvashada whose lord Venus is also placed in 5th , so the Mercury is a strong significator of 5th house. Mercury is a weak significator of 2nd and 11th houses by lordship. Hence its indication is favourable for the client's query of reunion. There are no planets placed in 7th house; Saturn is the lord of 7th cusp , so it becomes a lone significator of 7th house.

11th Cusp - Gemini - 14:02:18 (Me - Ra - Me)

As discussed above the 11th cuspal sublord Mercury is favourable for reunion.

RULING PLANETS

As we cannot neglect the ruling planets at the time of judgement,

Lagna Signlord	Moon
Lagna Starlord	Saturn
Lagna Sublord	Venus
Moon Signlord	Sun
Moon Starlord	Ketu
Moon Sublord	Mercury
Daylord	Moon

As most of the planets which signify 2,7 and 11 are also amongst the Ruling Planets the indication of union is favourable. Ketu although signifying 6th house strongly but as it is placed in the house of Mercury, it will give the results of Mercury which is signifying the houses of reunion.

DASHA , BHUKTI ANALYSIS

Running Mahadasha is of Ketu , which signifies 6th and 11th house; 6th house signification gave his wife the mindset to leave him , 11th house signification stands for reunion. Bhukti is of Mercury till May 2010. Mercury is also favourable; so I predicted that his wife would return before this dasha period ends. Running Antara at the time of judgment was of Rahu which signifies 5th house but not favourable for reunion. Next Antara is of Jupiter which is also not amongst the significators. ,The following Antara is of Saturn which being a lone significator and also being in the Ruling Planets is strong for reunion. It started from 16th March 2010. So I predicted that during the period when Sun would also transit in Saturn star i.e 18th March to 2nd April 2010, there surely would be reunion.

The client came to me on 28th March and congratulated me, telling that his wife returned on 22nd March 2010 . It was Monday and the Moon star is Rohini.

My pranams to guruji and lord ganesha.

Here is a chart of daughter of my friend (attached) for analysis on the above subject and also for her prospects of marriage and married life.

Studies

Her 4th cuspal sub lord (CSL) Mercury, karaka for education, is in the star of Rahu in 11th house and in the sub of Venus being CSL of 11th without having any planet in its star. 9th CSL Jupiter is lord of 9th house and aspecting 9th his own house, and in the star and sub of Kethu in 5th house of intelligence with sign lord Mercury, karaka for education. Jupiter is also lord of 12th in 12th house. Such favorable signification of 4th and 9th CSLs gave her good position at school level and as well as higher education in India & abroad. She left for US on 24-7-2006. It was Rahu Dasa Mars Bhukthi and Jupiter Antharam & Venus Sookshmam. Rahu as agent of Jupiter, 9th & 12th lord in 12th, Bhukthi lord Mars in the sub of Jupiter, signifying overseas travel which agrees with the event.

For permanent settlement in abroad;

- 12th CSL Moon is closely aspected by Jupiter, 9th & 12th lord in 12th, signifying 9th and 12th foreign going houses;
- 1st CSL Mars is in the sub of Jupiter, 9th & 12th lord in 12th, signifying 9th and 12th foreign going houses;
- 3, 9 and 12th houses are connected with each other mutually; 3rd lord Mercury is in the star of Rahu, who is agent of Jupiter, lord of 9th and 12th. Jupiter is in the star and sub of Kethu, who is the agent of Mercury lord of 3rd house. Moon, 12th CSL, is mutually aspected by Jupiter, lord of 9th and 12th houses; Thus all 3, 9, 12 are interwoven with each other.
- So there is a strong indication that she would stay in US permanently.

Job Prospects

As she is destined to prosper in higher education, there was no problem, She got campus job to supplement her stay expenses there. Now she is continuing in US and searching for suitable job. What is her prospects in this direction? When she will get? This is the urgent matter to be probed, as her continuing there, getting Green Card and living peacefully with decent income are all dependent on her getting job first.

Her current running Jupiter Dasa- Saturn Bhukti is up to 02 April 2012. Dasa lord Venus, lord of 2nd in 6th house, is self strong with no planets in its stars and CSL of 6, 7 & 11th houses. Venus is in the star and sub of Jupiter, 9th & 12th lord in 12th. Bhukti lord Saturn is lord of 10 & 11th houses, aspecting his own 10th house is in the star of Mercury, 6th lord in 6th house. Thus chances are there to get a job during Jupiter Dasa- Saturn Bhukti up to 02 April 2012 as Jupiter and Saturn are also amongs the RPs.

(A) - Planets in Occupant's stars (B) - Occupant of house (C) - Planets in Owner's stars (D) - House Owner

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars

Current running Antara is Mercury up to 24 June 2010. Mercury, 6th lord in 6th house, in the star of Rahu in 11th house, and in the sub of Venus, lord of 2th in 6th house, also being 6 & 11th CSL with no planet in its star, is a strong Antara to get a real starting job as repeatedly signify by 6th of service, 2 & 11th houses of getting money, and 11th of fulfillment of desire. As Venus is conjoined to Mercury. And Mercury is in the star and sub of Venus itself. Hence Mercury is also taken as a RP.

Hence DBA of Jup-Sat-Mercury or Venus can be taken for timing of job. As Mercury is preceding and strong, I select the Jup-Sat-Mer DBA period. By 25th May, 2010, Mercury will be transiting in Venus star and Venus sub in Aries, aspecting natal Venus in 6th house, could be the date of materialisation of job, in my opinion.

Marriage Prospects

Her 7th CSL Venus is a self strong planet having no planets in its stars. Venus is lord of 2nd & 7th houses and CSL of 7th & 11th houses, and so marriage is promised.

Married life may be with some disturbances like misunderstanding, short separation etc. as 7th & 11th CSL Venus being in 6th and 6th CSL is in the star of Jupiter, lord of 12th in 12th house and Saturn is in 7th house as 10th lord.

Current running Dasa lord Jupiter is not a strong significator of marriage; Jupiter, lord of 12th in 12th house in the star and sub of Kethu in 5th house, agent of conj. Mars in 5th, lord of 1st & 8th house and sign lord Mercury, 3 & 6th lord in 6th house; the only connection to the 2, 7 & 11th marriage significator Venus is through close conjunction of Mercury and Venus. Current Bhukti lord Saturn, 10, 11th lord in 7th is in the star of Mercury, 3 & 6th lord in 6th house and in the sub of Mars, lord of 1 & 8th in 5th house. Not only Mercury but also Kethu Bhukti is not favourable for marriage. Saturn's occupation of 7th house, aspecting 2th house also indicates delay for marriage. So marriage can be expected only in Jupiter Dasa- Venus Bhukti, 16-Jun-2015 to 16-Feb-2018.

My daughter was very interested to know about Dharmesh Sir, who is selected in Grand finale of Dance-India- Dance Part-2 on 23 April 2010. As per my daughter, Dharmesh Sir will be the Winner and she also told me : "If your (my) prediction comes out negative, please do not tell me!" because she is very confident about Dharmesh Sir. Unfortunately my finding from KP Horary indicates a negative result for Dharmesh Sir.

Achieve good position in dancing

Dancing comes under 5th cusp. If 5th cusp sublord signifies 5 (Creative ability/Capability/), 10 (Accomplishment/Achievement/Aura of authority), 11 (Special consideration / Desire), one can achieve a good position in dancing.

DBAS for Opponent:

Ma+(1, 5-10) is in the star of Sa(2, 7-8), and in the sub of Ra+(6). Ra is agent of Ju(8, 6-9)

Dasa/Bhukti/Antra lord Mar signifies 5,10 which is stronger than Dharmesh Sir,

Ju(8, 6-9) is in the star of Ju(8, 6-9), and in the sub of Ve(10, 4-11).

Sooskhma lord JUP signifies 10,11

In general opponent looks stronger, so Dharmesh Sir will not win this final.

QUESTION- 1

Reg. matching of couple's charts for marriage, I would like to know whether malefic influences such as Mars, Saturn, Rahu, Kethu and Sun on the charts including Bhadhaka and Maraka positions are taken into account in the KPDP Rules framed by Shri K.P.Kuppu Ganapathi of New Delhi? Whether the percentage permitted for matching including the Rule 10, for which it is emphasized, should be above 50%? Whether the Rule 10 of KPDP Rules which is emphasized to be more than 50% also includes all malefic influences which is called Doshas & Samyam in traditional astrology. In KPDP how it is nullified of one Dosha with other?

ANSWER-1

1. As explained in the KP & Astrology Year Book 1997 pp 32-44, (KPEzine March 2007 page 8-9) the KPDP matching does not taken into account such mentioned malefic influences because in KP no planet is fully malefic or benefic.
2. The overall including the Rule 10 should be above 50% in order the couple can lead a happy , harmonious and prosperous wedded life.
3. The Rule 10 of the KPDP matching also does not include any kind of so-called Dosha in traditional astrology.
4. Longevity, health, finance, harmony, children, status of married life etc. are also to be analyzed as per KP rules.

QUESTION- 2

Clarification on the evilness of 8th house is sought for as follows. As per K.P. Rules on p. 13 "How to Judge Longevity", lord of 6 or 8 or 12 are malefics. If lords of 1, 5, 9 and 10 also rule 6 or 8 or 12, then the planet may be taken as mostly benefic. In respect of Aries Lagna, Mars is lord of 1 and 8 and placed in 8th Scorpio his own house. In such case, whether the planets in the stars of Mars or in the sub of Mars, can they inflict harm to the Aries native to curtail his longevity. Kindly clarify.

ANSWER- 2

As Mars l/o 1,8 is in 8th, it would be bad for longevity because 6,8,12 houses are generally malefic for longevity . Moreover planets in the constellation of evil planets in the 8th house, except Saturn, occupants of the 8th house, planets in the constellation or in the sub of lord of 8, lord of the 8th cusp and planets in any manner connected with them threaten (a) danger to one's life, (b) the cause of death and (c) the place of death. (KP Reader III, Practical Part p 12/New Edition p 165) If Mars l/o 1,8 is in any of 1,5,9 (not Badhaka) and 10, it would be good for longevity.

QUESTION- 3

In K P System what power/place is given to a combust planet and the planets situated in the star of a combust planet what about that cuspal sub lord which is situated in the star of a combust planet? Are they considered weak? If so, how much weak they are? How can we judge the strength & power of the planets? Pl make it clear for KP beginners.

ANSWER- 3

1. Combustion is well explained in KP Reader VI pp 147-154 based on the finding of the Stellar Astrological Research Institute, Madras, and at the end it is noted that a planet in combustion does not become malefic and does not fail to give the benefits if it has to offer.
2. Any practical application of combustion theory inside the KP framework has not yet been found and combustion is not having any place in the KP system.
3. The following empirical studies have supported the KP finding of a planet within a few degrees of the Sun not changing its effects or combustion being invalid:
 - G. Dean: Recent Advances in Natal Astrology, England, 1977, p 333
 - H. Beer: Les Cahiers Astrologiques No 6, Nice, 1946, pp 294-297

This is a unique book as no such book is published before. It clearly points out the concepts to assess the potential of each Bhava and also provides an effective tool to predict the event by natal or Horary using the method of cuspal interlinks.

At the end of the book, in Epilogue (pp 200-202), the author K. Baskaran has placed his points (KB) which differ from KP, for examples, KP: In Horary chart, if the 5th cusp sub lord is a significator of 2 or 5 or 11, the pregnancy is assured.

KB: In Horary chart, if the Ascendant sub lord is linked with 2 or 5 or 11, the pregnancy is assured.

KP: Various bhavas would be studied for a single question.

KB: A single bhava for single question, of course with the study of its inter-links to other cusps.

KP: No mention about the potential of a horoscope.

KB: Advocacy of determining the potential first, by using Lagna.

KP: In horary, 11th house counted from the Ascendant would bring success.

KB: 11th house counted from the concerned house in question would be studied for success for the concerned matter.

Dear Sir,
I am a retired Army Officer (Voluntary Retirement in 2000), currently appointed as Commandant, Sainik

I am a beginner in KP. I have been trying to learn for almost the past 10-12 years (off & on). However Shri
K S V Ramani's article(Sub Sub Multi-Stellar Theory - A Marvel in KP - a Case Study) in the April 2010 KP-Ezine was an eye opener for me in terms of the depth of study and the lucidity. To put it simply it has converted me to a beginner. Please allow me to put on record my appreciation and gratitude to Shri K S V respected and beloved guruji, i read regularly our kp-ezine magazine from our website and also all the books are having very valuable information. My humble request is only in my opinion our ezine having embeded with more fonts and also the file size will be too high. So i suggest only One or Two standard font will be used to prepare the kp-ezine magazine this will decrase the file size and also downloading time will be reduced. I know all the kp-ezine magazine having more than 6 fonts. I shall expect in future, the fonts usage in our kp-ezine having minimised. you know ji , all the website(above millions) having only verdana, Helvetica fonts only. Headlines and other important quotes are in bold and italic and size will be increase. but not they are using more fonts because of the file size will be increased and maintain a standard font usage. this is only for information purpose , all others will be decided by your end.

thanking you ji,
regards

reply from Sri Narayanan ji,

Dear Kanakji,

I would like to reply regarding the font issue / file size / download time, highlighted by Mr Vadivel, as follows:

1] All website are created using HTML / ASP / PHP / Dreamweaver but KP-Ezine is in PDF format; definitely there will be file size difference since the file format is totally different and also due to (1) inclusion of charts, (2) inclusion of picture images (similar to those used in medical astrology article), (3) inclusion of advertisements, (4) template design of each page / cover page where the intensity of image is more and (5) other features offered in the eBook (we have given hyperlink in contents page which will load the selected page).

2] In a website all elements / components are hyper-linked and load separately when the object is clicked / selected whereas in an eBook all pages (full of objects / components) are loaded as an whole object.

3] Most of the websites use Verdana / Helvetica / Tahoma fonts but whereas an eMagazine layout is different from a website layout design. eBook is nothing but a replacement to a printed book in digital format. Naturally it will have all colour / image depth, aesthetics. A web-page can be designed to load in stages but an eBook cannot be designed to load in stages.

4] I compose each issue by assembling objects to the layout with a lesser file size; hence we are able to maintain a file size of approx. 1.5 MB each issue. (ranging from 44 to 50 pages).

5] I presume that this gentleman would have downloaded KP-Navratnamala part 2 which is of a very large file size approx. 7.5 MB since proper technology was not applied at the time of creating / composing the eBook whereas KP-Navratnama part 1 was created with an amazingly lesser file of 750 KB. I was not involved in creating KP-Navratnamala Part 2; when I downloaded the file sent by you, I realised that it will create file size / lengthy download time issues.

6] My humble opinion in my experience is that embedding multi fonts will not increase the file size. I would like to differ in this aspect from the opinion given by Mr Vadivel. Comparing a web page to an eBook in PDF format is not correct since their properties differ.

7] Download time will vary from PC to PC based on the broadband speed / connectivity used by the reader.

8] Increase in number of pages also will increase the file size but to the maximum possible I have been able to retain the file size range between 1.50 to 1.75 MB, per issue. I will endeavour my best.

I suggest you to seek the views of Sri Rangarajan ji also in this regard since he is a technical expert.

Warm Regards

K S Narayanan

One of my friends, whose mother was hospitalized in ICU in a nearly collapsed condition telephoned me on May 17, 2010 to find if his mother was destined to survive. He preferred, if his mother could end her life soon as her suffering was beyond tolerance.

I was in Gurgaon on that day and I calculated in the night about the query keeping the question in mind "Will the native's mother survive?". I casted a time chart on May 17, 2010 at 20-08-18 Hrs IST at Gurgaon. The chart was rotated to 4th house and the lagna of the rotated time chart was taken as the lagna of the mother.

The rotated time chart is presented as follows for analysis.

Coordinates of judgment:

- While the lagna indicates the patient (native), the 7th cusp indicates the attending doctor.
- In the query when the survival of a patient is a question mark, the short life could be a case, if the lagna sub-lord gets linked to the maraka (2-7-12th houses) and badhaka houses.
- The span of life is primarily based on the disposition of the 1st house, though generally the span of life is delineated from the 1-3-8th houses.
- If the 1st cusp links with the maraka and badhaka houses, it portends a very short life after the chart is examined.
- In a query related to a patient under hospitalization, 12th house relates to the hospital and 4th house either denotes the house or the graveyard (as graveyard is also the house after death), discrimination being whether the patient is going to be cured or to face death.
- In any query for patient, a default scenario does exist for the recovery from the disease (5H) and release from the hospital (11H). Thus, if the patient is to recover and released from the hospital, the lagna should be linked with the 5-11th houses without any linkage to the maraka and badhaka houses.
- If the 6th house gets linked with the maraka and badhaka houses and if the patient does not have any longevity left, the patient dies with the disease itself.
- 12th house also indicates defects; hence the part of the body getting spoilt because of the disease is also shown by this house. Hence, if 12th house has a link with the lagna and 6th house, it shows the corresponding part of the body under defect/retardation in function.
- Dasha and bhukti should also tally with the maraka and badhaka houses to cause death. The relevant transits of luminaries make it happen.

The analysis of the chart:

A brief snapshot of analysis is presented herewith.

1. Examine Moon

Note that the Moon falls in the 4-6-12th cusp indicating the patient yearning for returning home (4H), struggling for disease (6H) and being uncomfortable in the hospital (12H). Moon does not have any planet in its star; hence its sub-lordship of the said cusps does have decided influence. Since, Moon is placed in 5th house it shows the desire of the patient to get rid of the disease.

At the outset of indications through Moon, the chart seemed correct and it was safe to proceed ahead.

2. Examine lagna

Note that lagna sub-lord is Venus. At the outset, Venus is a strong lord of the 4-9th house and is a badhaka lord for Aquarius lagna. Venus is placed in the star of Mars placed in 6th house but very close to maraka 7th house which indicates that the disease with which the patient is suffering is incurable. Mars lording the 3rd house could indicate the throat infection and might need surgical proceedings. The sublord of Venus is Venus itself; hence the stellar indications get affirmed.

Thus, by the examination of lagna the disease of the patient looks incurable and principally seems to be located in throat.

Since lagna sub-lord does not signify live saving 1-5-11th houses, it got evident that the patient did not have any lease of life from the time of judgment.

3. Examine the 6th house

Analysis of 6th house/cusp would indicate the status of the disease.

Moon lords the 6th house and is placed in 5th house close to the cusp. Thus, there seem to be some hope of cure but Moon lording the 4-6-12th cusp as sub-lord being positionally strong leave lesser hope towards the cure.

6th cuspal sub-lord is Moon and as observed in the preceeding section (1), Moon may not be relied for giving cure from the disease.

At the stellar level, note that Moon is the sub-lord of 6th cusp and its star-lord Rahu gets placed in 11th house whereas its sub-lord Moon itself gets placed in 5th house. On the face value, Moon does give some promise of relief to the patient. However, the life expectancy of the patient would decide whether the patient would survive or not.

4. Examine 7th house

The 7th house represents the attending doctor to the patient.

Note that Sun is the sub-lord of 7th cusp which is the lord of maraca house (7th house). Sun happens to be in its own star placed in 3rd house and in the sub of Jupiter placed in lagna as 11th lord, making the patient to struggle for life. Thus, the attending doctors would help the patient to recover.

However, Saturn also gets placed in 7th house which being a strong planet positionally would try to disable all the efforts of doctors by slowing down the recovery pace and drag the patient in the hospital (Saturn being strong 12th lord than lagna lord) and with slow and piecemeal recovery (Saturn aspect 5th house of cure). Thus, doctors would have to bow down to the desire of Saturn.

5. Examine 8th house

This house is also crucial for assessing the longevity and death.

8th house is unoccupied and its lord Mercury is placed in a maraca house (2nd house) in the sign of Mars which gets placed in 6th house, showing the chronicity of disease and perhaps the continuation of disease till the life ends.

8th cuspal sub-lord Saturn, a strong planet, dominates the hold on 8th house. Saturn, as said earlier, is the strong lord of 12th house, thus is a strong maraca planet. Saturn holds the sub-lordship of the 2-4-8th cusps thus is a strong maraca. Note that Saturn aspects Lagna lord Jupiter, 2nd house (maraca) and Venus (badhaka lord), thereby taking the sole charge of the maraca functions (2-7-12) alongwith badhaka functions.

Thus the struggle for life could be intense and the vitality of the patient seems to be low.

6. Examine the 11th house

The assessment of 11th cusp would indicate in overall context about the outcome of the query.

11th house has Rahu posited therein that influences this house. Note that Rahu disposes Jupiter (maraca lord as 2nd lord) and Venus (badhaka lord). At the stellar level, Rahu falls in the star of Venus and in the sub of Jupiter, thus Rahu gets dominated by Venus and Jupiter and is thus a branded maraca for the patient.

11th cuspal sub-lord is Mars which is placed in 6th house (disease) and aspects 9th house (badhaka house), 12th house (exit from the mortal coils) and lagna (patient's itself). At the stellar level, Mars falls in the star of Mercury (strong 8th lord) placed in the 2nd house (a maraca house). Rahu being the sub of Mars acts as a full fledged maraca, as explained in the preceding para. Thus, 11th house supports maraca effects and does not save the patient.

7. Examine Fortuna

Fortuna falls in the 8th house of the longevity of the patient, in the star of Mars and sub of Mercury, and as discussed in the preceding paras, both Mars and Mercury are against the longevity of the patient. Thus, there seemed no hope for the patient's survival.

8. Examine the dasha spread

The native was running the dasha of Rahu-Moon-Mars-Mercury upto May 20, 2010.

I checked up the RPs at judgment time that were Mercury-Rahu-Moon-Saturn. It occurred to me that the current dasha spread was fully operational for ending the life of the patient it was concluded that the patient would breathe her last before May 20, 2010.

9. Facts of the case

I am writing this article on May 22, 2010 after knowing the result of the case.

I received the information that the patient expired on Wednesday 19-05-2010 at about 0845 Hrs while being constantly complaining of her throat complaint in ICU after struggling for life for about 9 days.

It is to note that death occurred on Wednesday, when Gemini lagna was rising in Rahu star and Moon was transiting in Cancer in Pushya star. Here again, the RPs at death were Mercury-Rahu-Moon and Saturn; that fully tallied with the RPs at the time of judgment.

I conclude herewith with my sincere thanks to Prof. Krishnamurthy, who has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

Accurate Death Prediction

1. Accurate death prediction is the greatest mystery of all but astrology can predict this as we know it. Such prediction is considered as great achievement by great seers themselves and it makes them famous, for instance Varahamihira, Cheiro, Charles Carter, BV Raman, Guruji KSK etc.

2. Mihira was awarded the Varaha title for his historical and famous prediction about the death of King Vikramathithya's son to become famous as Varahamihira, and is praised "what he utters comes true". (KP Reader II pp19-22) In his prediction, Varahamihira also said that no human remedies could avert the danger and save him from the jaws of death. However, some are referring Varahamihira as saying, after proper remedies, even in a bad period, if one falls in the mouth of a lion, he can come out unscratched.

3. Cheiro correctly predicted the date of Queen Victoria's death, the year and month when King Edward VII would pass away, the grim destiny that awaited the late Czar of Russia, the assassination of King Humbert of Italy etc. <http://www.free-numerology.org/cheiro.php>

4. As a final flourish, in 1955 Charles Carter correctly predicted that his own death would be in 1968. "I confess I'd like to live to hear about man's first trip to the Moon but this seems rather improbable. In 1968 my p.Moon is conj. P.Sun and p.Mars, near rad. Moon and oppos. rad. Jupiter, which seems to indicate a heavy strain; also at this time...the whole family joins in with typical 'bereavement' directions! We shall see; but as a good astrologer I feel I ought to place on record my own forecast on this point! Uranus is also at this time on p.MC and the commonest sign of death seems to be a malefic on an angle, though of course this often happens without much effect on health." (He died at age 81, on 4 October 1968, nine months before man's first trip to the Moon.)

5. Dr. BV Raman had made correct and published death prediction in advance for many world leaders, Jawaharlal Nehru, Adolf Hitler, Benito Mussolini etc. (Astrological Magazine, Notable Horoscopes by Dr. BV Raman; 'Proof of Pudding' by KN Rao in "Astrology and the Hoax of Scientific Temper" pp 39-89)

6. Guru ji KSK's accurate death prediction for Jawaharlal Nehru, Bhahadu Sastri, a well known physician of Madras etc can be found in KP Reader II, pp xv & xvi, p 24 etc.

7. The Ministers' astrologer Haveli Ram Joshi astonishingly foretold an exact date for Pandit Nehru's death five years earlier. ("Nehru, The Invention of India", by Shashi Tharoor, 2003, New York, p 214)

8. K. Subramaniam and his brother K. Hariharan had done accurate death prediction for their mother, Mrs. K.S. Krishnamurti by Horary. ("Longevity", 1986, by K. Hariharan, pp 34-37) Present karma or free will may be reflected in predicting death by horary.

9. In old times, astrologers were also much more forthcoming in predicting the deaths of emperors or kings very precisely. For instance, after astrologer Ascletrario told emperor Domitian about his death, the emperor asked the astrologer about his own death. Ascletrario replied he would soon be torn apart by wild dogs. The emperor immediately called his guards and had the astrologer killed on the spot and gave orders that the funeral rites be conducted with greatest care as proof that astrology was fake. But during the funeral a sudden gale scattered the pyre and wild dogs mangled the half burnt corpse. Needless to say Domitian was killed on the appointed day.

Correct Determination of Longevity

10. The correct determination of longevity is very important and highly complex. Even sage Prasara has admitted "Knowing longevity is difficult even for Gods." (sloka 2 of chapter on Longevity, BPHS)

11. Charles Carter also warned that this whole area of predicting death is still one where angels might rightly fear to tread.

12. Our sages Prasara, Varahamihira, Jaimini, Mantreswar, Saravali, Jatak Parijat, Jathaaka Chandrika etc. have given substantial attention to longevity and astrology books are full of principles on longevity calculation.

13. Guruji KSK has opened his "practical part" of the Predictive Stellar Astrology with Badhaka, Maraka. (KP Reader III pp 161-167)

14. Richard Houck had tried to find an integrated West and East methodology for timing of death in his "Astrology of Death" using the KP ayanamsa (with a slight difference). He had studied all kinds East and West death prediction tools of natal and prenatal eclipses, transits, secondary progressions, Hindu dasa and bhuktis, Hindu marakas, stationary planets, catabolic planets, and so on by using practical charts. His contribution is tertiary progressions which are linked to the method of Hindu progression. (The Astrology of Death, Groundswell Press, 1994)

15. Charles E. O. Carter had tried to find the common pattern of the transits in sixteen kinds of serious accidents of the 168 charts in his book 'The Astrology of Accidents', Theosophical Publishing House Ltd, Reprinted 1977.

16. Noel Tyl has published the book 'Astrological Timing of Critical Illness', Llewellyn Publications, 1998, as early warning patterns in the horoscope through the study of 70 horoscopes.

17. Judith Hill has given 25 transits of death with a caution that timing of death would take several strong aspects to cook the goose, astrologically speaking. ("Medical Astrology", Stellium Press, 2004, pp 108-111)

18. Lt. Col. Raj Kumar has tested many tools of traditional astrology for determination of longevity and has tried to find their effectiveness on over two hundred fifty nativities. ("Longevity", Alpha Publication, 2007)

19. Richard Hauck (author of Astrology of Death) had predicted his own death on September 13th 2031, i.e., to live up to 84 years of age as his chart had Saturn in the 8th house and given via by Nadi Grantha reader, also supported by his own calculation (close to the result of an traditional formula). But he passed away on April 1st 2001 at the age of 54.

(Life & Death- East & West by Richard Hauck, in "Eastern Systems for Western Astrologers, 1997" pp 325-360)

KP Death Rules

20. "Death is indicated only by the significators of Marakasthana and Badhakasthana." (KP Reader VI p 155; also repeated in K. Hariharan: Longevity, 1986 pp 36 & 50)

21. Death comes during the conjoined dasa period of significators of primarily Badhaka (11 or 9 or 7), Maraka (2,7), Moksha (12), along with terminal or trigonal houses 4 = end of everything including life, 8 = accident, danger to life, and 12 = end of life especially in serious accidents or unnatural death and in some cases also 10 = retirement from this world or life and 6 = injury in accident). Badhaka house is 11th for moving sign Asc., 9th for fixed sign and 7th for common sign according to the cusp position in the Placidus bhava chart, not rasi chart. KP experience with death prediction is provided in the Appendix.

22. In a primary KP observation of three level death-related DBA of 40 notable horoscopes, Maraka (2 or 7H) is found by 90%, Badhaka houses 72%, 12H 70% , 6H 75% and 8H 62% in any level of DBA.

23. Longevity is to be considered as follows:

1. If Asc. sub lord signifies Badhaka, Maraka and 6,8,12 houses, short life up to 33 years. Three level signification of sub lord planet, its star and its sub is to be considered.
2. If Asc. sub lord signifies 1,5,9,10 houses and 6,8,12 houses, middle life up to 66 years.
3. If Asc. sub lord signifies 1,5,9,10 houses, long life over 66 years up to 100 years.
4. If 9th house is Badhaka, it is most harmful for longevity. If 11th house is not Badhaka, it is most helpful for longevity since 1,5,11 houses are saving houses from danger to life.

24. If the longevity is still there, one can survive from danger to life during the conjoined dasa period of significators of death inflicting houses. "If the longevity is promised, he will get over this (accident), and the conditions of the patient would be threatening..." (KP Reader VI p 159, 2nd para)

1. Male, 29 Oct 1949, 19:15 pm IST, Berhampur, India, 19N19, 84E47, Asc Ta 15:17:31 lived up to 60 years of age, death on 6 April 2010 after surviving dasa periods of Badhaka and Maraka.
Asc CSL Ju+(8,8-11) in star Su(6,4) and in own Sub Ju+(8,8-11) being CSL of 1,7 without having any planet in its star.
2. Female, 15 Sept 1950, 08:50 am (GMT + 1), Cieplce Śląskie Zdrój, Poland, 50N52, 15E42, Asc Li 03:04:52, is still surviving up to 60 years of life but suffering all the time from poor health since young age due to most Badhaka 11th signification.
Asc CSL Ve(Bdk 11 by close orb, 1-2) in own star & sub Ve(11,1-2) but Ve is CSL of "1,5,9" without having any other planet in its star.

25. The longevity is primarily to be considered by the Asc. cuspal sub lord other than 8th cuspal sub lord. The signification of 4,8,12 houses by 8th & 12th cuspal sub lords is an indication of possible unnatural or violent death.

Ethics of Offering Death Prediction

26. The ethics of offering death prediction to the client is a matter of...whether it is asked for it in full knowledge of what it means, will the client benefit from the knowledge and is he in the right state of mind for it? Another thing is how can the client plan his life if he doesn't know when he's going to die?

K. P. MUHURAT

— A Novel Technique in K. P.

Kanak. B. Bosmia

K. P. MUHURAT

KANAK B. BOSMIA

Shri C. Kadirvelu Ji has revealed a novel technique for gender determination where we are having lots of rule regarding sex of 1st, 2nd and so on child. Our esteemed KP has its only dexterity for birth-time rectification/verification and this canon can help astonishingly by assessing every individual cusp for siblings, parents, husband/wife and so on. Here is the rule.

CKV Rule

- (1) Take the CSL of 'Cusp'. Note whether it is deposited in Male or Female sign. Denote this gender by 'G', that is, G is either Male or Female. (Odd Signs Of Male: 1,3,5,7,9,11. Even Signs Of Female: 2,4,6,8,10,12)
- (2) Count the number of times Rahu or Ketu or Saturn appears as the 'Cusp' sign lord, star lord or subsublord. Let this count be K.
- (3) Count the number of times Rahu or Ketu or Saturn appears as the sign lord or star lord of the 'Cusp' CSL. Let this count be L.
- (4) Count the number of planets Rahu or Ketu or Saturn that appear in the sign where 'Cusp' CSL is deposited (i.e., conjoined with 'Cusp' CSL). Let this count be M.
- (5) Add K, L and M. Let the result be N.
- (6) If N is an even number, then G is the guessed gender of the blood relative (of the native) denoted by 'Cusp'. If N is an odd number, the opposite of G is the guessed gender.

Here I would like to furnish a natives' birth-detail and let us see whether his gender is right or wrong.

Gender: Male

Date Of Birth: 17/09/1980

Time Of Birth: 16:34

Place Of Birth: Surat

Assessing The Rules

- (1) Take the CSL of 'Cusp'. Note whether it is deposited in Male or Female sign. Denote this gender by 'G', that is, G is either Male or Female. We are checking gender of the native therefore 1st CSL should be scrutinized. 1st CSL Sun in even sign for Female, Hence G = Female
- (2) Count the number of times Rahu or Ketu or Saturn appears as the 'Cusp' sign lord, star lord or sub sub lord. Let this count be K. Saturn is an ascendant sign lord and Ketu is ascendant SSL, Hence $K = 1 + 1 = 2$
- (3) Count the number of times Rahu or Ketu or Saturn appears as the sign lord or star lord of the 'Cusp' CSL. Let this count be L. Sun's sign lord and star lord are not Rahu/Ketu/Saturn. Hence $L = 0$.
- (4) Count the number of planets Rahu or Ketu or Saturn that appear in the sign where 'Cusp' CSL is deposited (i.e., conjoined with 'Cusp' CSL). Let this count be M. Sun is conjoined with Saturn. Hence $M = 1$.
- (5) Add K, L and M. Let the result be N.
 $N = K + L + M = 2 + 0 + 1 = 3$.
- (6) If N is an even number, then G is the guessed gender of the blood relative (of the native) denoted by 'Cusp'. If N is an odd number, the opposite of G is the guessed gender. N is odd number so the gender would be the opposite of G and it is Male.

• Now we'll check 9th cusp for gender of the father. Definitely father must be male.

- (1) Take the CSL of 'Cusp'. Note whether it is deposited in Male or Female sign. Denote this gender by 'G', that is, G is either Male or Female. We are checking gender of the father therefore 9th CSL should be scrutinized. 9th CSL Sun in even sign for Female, Hence G = Female
- (2) Count the number of times Rahu or Ketu or Saturn appears as the 'Cusp' sign lord, star lord or sub sub lord.

+ These planets do not have any planets in their stars.

Let this count be K. Rahu/Ketu/Saturn are not appearing in 9th cusp as sign or star or sub sub lord. Hence $K = 0$

(3) Count the number of times Rahu or Ketu or Saturn appears as the sign lord or star lord of the 'Cusp' CSL. Let this count be L. Sun's sign lord and star lord are not Rahu/Ketu/Saturn. Hence $L = 0$.

(4) Count the number of planets Rahu or Ketu or Saturn that appear in the sign where 'Cusp' CSL is deposited (i.e., conjoined with 'Cusp' CSL). Let this count be M. Sun is conjoined with Saturn. Hence $M = 1$.

(5) Add K, L and M. Let the result be N.

$$N = K + L + M = 0 + 0 + 1 = 1.$$

(6) If N is an even number, then G is the guessed gender of the blood relative (of the native) denoted by 'Cusp'. If N is an odd number, the opposite of G is the guessed gender. N is odd number so the gender would be the opposite of G and it is Male.

• Now we'll check 4th cusp for gender of the mother. Definitely mother must be female.

(1) Take the CSL of 'Cusp'. Note whether it is deposited in Male or Female sign. Denote this gender by 'G', that is, G is either Male or Female. We are checking gender of the mother therefore 4th CSL should be scrutinized. 4th CSL Saturn in even sign for Female, Hence $G = \text{Female}$

(2) Count the number of times Rahu or Ketu or Saturn appears as the 'Cusp' sign lord, star lord or sub sub lord. Let this count be K. Rahu/Ketu/Saturn are not appearing in 4th cusp as sign or star or sub sub lord. Hence $K = 0$

(3) Count the number of times Rahu or Ketu or Saturn appears as the sign lord or star lord of the 'Cusp' CSL. Let this count be L. Saturn's sign lord and star lord are not Rahu/Ketu/Saturn. Hence $L = 0$.

(4) Count the number of planets Rahu or Ketu or Saturn that appear in the sign where 'Cusp' CSL is deposited (i.e., conjoined with 'Cusp' CSL). Let this count be M. Saturn is not conjoined with to Rahu/Ketu/Saturn. Hence $M = 0$.

(5) Add K, L and M. Let the result be N.

(6) If N is an even number, then G is the guessed gender of the blood relative (of the native) denoted by 'Cusp'. If N is an odd number, the opposite of G is the guessed gender. N is nobody as it appears as 0. Consequently G will be as it is as female.

We have seen the native's own and both major relations approved in this chart.

Bottom Line By Shri C. Kadirvelu Ji

We have proposed a new gender determination rule that can be used to predict the gender of any blood relative denoted by a cusp in the native's chart. One interesting contribution of this rule, we feel, is that it can be applied in the forward direction to predict the gender of child (or any blood relative) as well as in the reverse direction to use known genders to rectify birth time. Although the rule has been successfully tested in over a thousand cases involving newborn babies, wider experience is essential for validating the rule further. We request fellow KP astrologers to apply this rule in their daily practice and offer their comments and suggestions. Kindly email to kadirvelu@yahoo.com with a copy to ranga@kpastrosystem.com

Will Dhoni be removed as Indian Cricket Team Captain?

Sahakar-2, Flat No: 28, Jagabhai park, Ram baug, Maninagar, Ahmedabad 380 008,

After losing badly in the recent ICC 20-20 world cup 2010, all the media discussed about Dhoni and his captainship. Actually I am not much interested in Cricket, but I am fan of Dhoni, so I decided to know what is in the fate of Dhoni regarding Captainship.

I used my own below-mentioned rule:

Achieve good position in Sport

For achieving good position in Sports. Sports come under 5th cusp. If 5th cusp sublord signifies 5(Creative ability/Capability/), 10 accomplishment / Achievement / Aura of authority), 11(Special consideration / Desire) one achieve good position in Sports.

Horary details:

Horary Number: 128/249

Horary date: 14/5/2010

Horary Time: 18.10.25

Horary Place: Kankariya-Ahmedabad

Long/Lat: 23N00, 72E36

Analysis:

5th CSL is Rahu. Rahu is in the star of Ven and sub of Jup.

Rahu is in 3, no planet in the star of Rahu and Rahu is CSL of 5, 11. Rahu is agent of Jup. Ven is in 8 lord of 1, 8. Jup is in 5 lord of 5, 3.

Rahu signifies 5, 11

Running Dasa:

Running Dasa is Sun.

Su(7, 11), in the star of Su(7, 11), in the sub of Ra+(3). No planet in the star of Rahu and Rahu is CSL of 5, 11. Ra is agent of Ju(5, 3-6).

Sun signifies 5, 11 so Dasa agree with rules and also with RP.

Running Bhukti:

Running Bhukti is Mer till 7/12/2010

Me(7, 9-12), in the star of Ke(9), Ke is agent of Sa+(11, 4-5) in the sub of Ju(5, 3-6).

Mer signifies 5, 11. And also in RP.

My conclusion:

There is no problem with Dhoni, he will continue as Captain of Indian Cricket team.

Note: Latest News indicates no threat to his captainship. But we need to wait till next team declares.

OM GAJAANANAM NAMAMYAHAM

This month I am going to discuss about Appendicitis relating to Intestine and 8 charts were taken up (Source: Dr. Bhamidipati Satyanarayana Murthy & Astrodatbank). Sri K Raghavendra Kumar M.Sc. B.Ed, was extended his assistance in preparing this article.

Appendicitis: Appendicitis is a condition characterized by inflammation of the appendix. It is classified as a medical emergency and many cases require removal of the inflamed appendix, either by laparotomy or laparoscopy. Untreated, mortality is high, mainly because of peritonitis and shock. Reginald Fitz first described acute and chronic appendicitis in 1886, and it has been recognized as one of the most common causes of severe acute abdominal pain worldwide. A correctly diagnosed non-acute form of appendicitis is known as "rumbling appendicitis."

Rovsing's sign: Continuous deep palpation starting from the left iliac fossa upwards (anti clockwise along the colon) may cause pain in the right iliac fossa, by pushing bowel contents towards the ileocaecal valve and thus increasing pressure around the appendix. This is the Rovsing's sign.

Psoas sign: Psoas sign is right lower-quadrant pain that is produced with the patient extending the hip due to inflammation of the peritoneum overlying the iliopsoas muscles and inflammation of the psoas muscles themselves. Straightening out the leg causes the pain because it stretches the muscles, and flexing the hip into the "fetal position" relieves the pain.

Obturator sign: If an inflamed appendix is in contact with the obturator internus, spasm of the muscle can be demonstrated by flexing and internal rotation of the hip. This maneuver will cause pain in the hypogastrium.

Blumberg sign: Deep palpation of the viscera over the suspected inflamed appendix followed by sudden release of the pressure causes the severe pain on the site indicating positive Blumberg's sign and peritonitis.

Causes: On the basis of experimental evidence, acute appendicitis seems to be the end result of a primary obstruction of the appendix lumen. Once this obstruction occurs the appendix subsequently becomes filled with mucus and swells, increasing pressures within the lumen and the walls of the appendix, resulting in thrombosis and occlusion of the small vessels, and stasis of lymphatic flow. Rarely, spontaneous recovery can occur at this point. As the former progresses, the appendix becomes ischemic and then necrotic. As bacteria begin to leak out through the dying walls, pus forms within and around the appendix (suppuration). The end result of this cascade is appendiceal rupture (a 'burst appendix') causing peritonitis, which may lead to septicemia and eventually death.

Among the causative agents, such as foreign bodies, trauma, intestinal worms, lymphadenitis, and calcified deposits known as appendicoliths, the occurrence of an obstructing fecalith has attracted attention. The prevalence of fecaliths in patients with appendicitis is significantly higher in developed than in developing countries, and an appendiceal fecalith is commonly associated with complicated appendicitis. Also, fecal stasis and arrest may play a role, as demonstrated by a significantly lower number of bowel movements per week in patients with acute appendicitis compared with healthy controls. The occurrence of a fecalith in the appendix seems to be attributed to a right sided fecal retention reservoir in the colon and a prolonged transit time. From epidemiological data it has been stated that diverticular disease and adenomatous polyps were unknown and colon cancer exceedingly rare in communities exempt for appendicitis. Also, acute appendicitis has been shown to occur antecedent to cancer in the colon and rectum. Several studies offer evidence that a low fiber intake is involved in the pathogenesis of appendicitis. This is in accordance with the occurrence of a right sided fecal reservoir and the fact that dietary fiber reduces transit time.

Daivagnya Siromani

O V N Murthy, M.Com. FCS. &

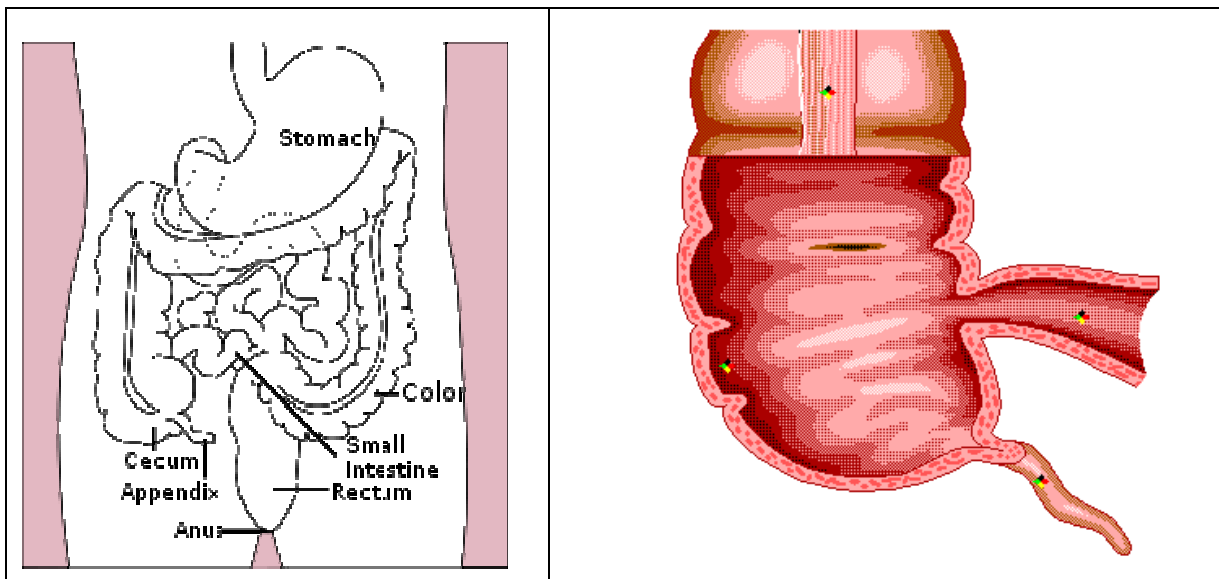

K Raghavendrakumar M.Sc B.Ed

Diagnosis is based on patient history (symptoms) and physical examination backed by an elevation of neutrophilic white blood cells. Histories fall into two categories, typical and atypical. Typical appendicitis usually includes abdominal pain beginning in the region of the umbilicus for several hours, associated with anorexia, nausea or vomiting. The pain then "settles" into the right lower quadrant, where tenderness develops. Atypical histories lack this typical progression and may include pain in the right lower quadrant as an initial symptom. Atypical histories often require imaging with ultrasound and/or CT scanning. A pregnancy test is vital in all women of child bearing age, as ectopic pregnancies and appendicitis present with similar symptoms. The consequences of missing an ectopic pregnancy are serious, and potentially life threatening. Furthermore the general principles of approaching abdominal pain in women (in so much that it is different from the approach in men) should be appreciated.

In Medical Astrology and as per the "Medical Astrology for All" written by Sri K Subramaniam S/o Sri KSK Guruji, regarding Appendix indicated the following information. Natural Zodiac (Kalapursha) the location of this part of the body is ruled by 6th sign Virgo /6th house from Ascendant. Mars is the chief planet for appendicitis. Mars if afflicted by Saturn or Rahu in Virgo or Scorpio may give rise to this disease. Mars desires to eliminate wastes and injurious substances from human body, by causing inflammation, fever etc. Mercury is concerned with those organs which carry out-ward things within the body, and tries to retain them without any consideration of their beneficial or injurious effect.

The sign Gemini, Virgo, Scorpio and Pisces are prominent appendicitis signs. The 6th, 8th, 12th houses are relevant to the disease. Mercury and Mars are vital appendicitis planets. The Saturn in 5th house makes a person voracious eater with consequent disease of over eating, and disease like appendicitis are caused.

Uttara 2-4: Intestines, Bowels & Liver. Tumours in the Bowels, Obstructions, Stomach disorder.

Hastha: Bowels, Intestines, Secreting Glands, Enzymes. Gas formation, Loose Bowels, Pain & disorders in Bowels, Obstructions, Worms, Mucui, Cholera, Diarrohea, Typhoid, Amoebic, Dysentery.

Chithra 1-2 Belly, Lower Part. Ulcers, Sharp & Acute pains, Worms, Irritation & itching.

109 sub Sun-Mercury: Appendix (t. of large & small intestines)

Mars: Blood disease, Fevers, Tissue breakages, Burns, Itches, Cuts (surgery) and wounds, Bone Fractures, Urine diseases, Boils, CANCER, Piles, Ulcer, Rectum, Plague, Small/chicken pox, Messels, Mumps, Fistula, Haemorrhage, Typhoid, Hernia, Malaria, Abortion, Bleeding, Muscular rheumatism, Septic, Tetanus.

Mercury: Disease of Nerves, Nose, disease from poison Itches, disease of Gall Bladder, Paralysis, Fits, Ulcers, Indigestion, Cholera, disease of Mouth & Skin, Neuromas, Leucoderma, Impotence, Vertigo deafness and skin diseases.

As the Appendix is attached to the Caesium near its junction with the large intestine shown by the star Hastha (bowels and intestine). Chita, (loose bowels, pain and disorder in his bowels, mucous, diarrhoea etc) any malefic planet in the above constellation will show this disease. As the function of appendix is more or less similar to tonsils, the planets on Rohini star (tonsils) at times contribute to this disease, also.

Daivagnya Siromani

Mars is the Karaka for all raptures, inflammations tumours, abscess, boils etc. Its desire is to eliminate waste and injurious substances, from the body through the above process. So in the case of appendicitis whether Mars is essential or not, it has to be appear to bring about the inflammations of appendix, fever, pain etc., besides the surgical treatment.

Mercury rules Ulcers; the most of this disease is sudden and unexpected including death also.

As Sun is the Karaka for bowels while Moon denotes colon, these two planets may also be connected to with this disease. As Venus is the Karaka for throat disease like Tonsils, Pharyngitis, Diphtheria etc there is no wonder if Venus is seen among the planets appendicitis more or less similar to the same.

Generally the 6th, 8th and 12th houses or lords of the above houses are relevant to this disease as the 6th denotes disease besides the house of location of disease. 8th house is the house of surgery, while the 12th is house of hospitalization, surgical treatment besides the location of disease, the houses 12, 8, 6 have to be taken into account besides the Lagna. Therefore the following signs in the zodiac, Pisces, Scorpio, and Virgo besides Gemini are prominent Appendicitis signs.

It has found that Jupiter, Mars, Mercury & Venus are relevant for this Appendicitis.

VI, VIII, XII, Virgo, Pisces CSL Sa (8,10,11) in Ve (10,1); Scorpio CSL Ve(10,1) in Ra(2-8,10,11 Sa aspect, 9,3,6/Me by sign lord); In Su-Ma(2/1925) the native underwent Appendicitis which has proved fatal. Sun as lord of 5 n 10 in Mo lord 4 in 3. Subperiod Ma is connected to Mo and at Sublevel Sa has given this Malady. Sun in 10th house has given the Crown with Majority in the Election but Ma as a lord of 7 in Virgo in 5 has given death by disease.

Conclusion: From the analysis of the above 8 charts for Appendicitis we can conclude that 6th 8th and 12th CSLs connection to primarily Ma, Me and Virgo, Scorpio signs, and also Ju, Ve, Scorpio sign. In all the above cases 6th cusp connection to Mars, Rahu happens to play vital role in one's susceptibility to appendicitis as found by S.K. Duggal's study of hundreds of charts in Revelation of Medical Astrology. . Extra finding is that 5 n 7 cusps also plays vital role in recovery or fatal.

BOOK REVIEW

Sublord Speaks, 3 Volume Set by late Prof. K. M. Subramaniam

Krishman & Co, 804 Anna Road, Chennai 600 002
476 pages (Volume 1: 152 pages, Volume 2: 153 pages and Volume 3: 171 pages)

<http://www.webspawner.com/users/astroclinic2/sublordspeaks3v.html>

1. In Volume 1, there is a Dedication to the author, a senior most KP Scholar and a Preface by Prof. Vaikari Ramamurthy. Thereafter follows a series of articles, each entitled Sub-Lord Speaks, 19, 20 and 21 articles in Volume 1, 2 and 3 respectively. They have been collected from the magazine KP and Astrology. This collection was first published in 2007-2008, and the articles discussing with practical charts appear to have been written in the 1980's and '90's.

2. KP is the sub lord theory only, nothing else. There is no KP system without considering sub lord. The cuspal sub lord of a house indicates whether the matter of the house is favorable (promised) or not. Planetary sublord indicates whether it is beneficial or not when the signifiers of dasa period lords point the time of event. In timing of the events, this planetary sublord, along with cuspal sublord gives clue to the astrologer for a correct future prediction.

3. Here the articles are found mainly relying on sublord and its starlord without giving much attention to the promise by the cuspal sub lord. However, the sub lord is considered as the deciding factor although the sub's star is used to know the signification of sub. The 4 step theory is developed on the basis of the Sublord Speaks articles by using sub's star as 4th step.

It is to note that Guru ji KSK has used the sub's star only in one place, one time and one example in the KP Readers to trace the signification of sub. It is to consider three level signification of planet, star and sub according to the KP fundamental rule, "The planet is the source, constellation indicates nature of the result and the sub is a deciding factor whether the matter is favorable or not".

Mr Tin Win answers to the question of Readers

Question 1: For finding whether a male native will be blessed with a child or not, which house is to be considered? Whether 5th or 11th? In Mr. Gondhalekar's 4 step theory, for the sex of the child, it is said that 5th is to be judged for wife's chart and 11th to her husband. Pl. let me know the correct approach.

Answer 1: In KP and Vedic, generally 5th cusp for mother and 11th cusp for father is considered in checking promise or sex of child. The rationale is that 11th house of husband is the 5th house of his wife, and it is SHE who bears the child for him to become a father. (KP Reader VI pp 224 & 233)

Question 2: Suppose two events are to be checked in a chart, are we to prepare two sets of RPs for two different times in which each is judged?

Answer 2: If two events are considered at the same time of sitting, one set of RPs at that time judgment is sufficient. If two events are analyzed at different times, two sets of RPs at different time of sitting are required. In Horary analysis, one chart is to be used for one query only using the RPs at the time of judgment. "We must take only the time of judgment.--- When the urge is there, note the Ruling Planets,---- Note the time when the urge is there ----- immediately work out --- the Ruling Planets." (Guru ji KSK)

Question 3: I am a regular reader of KPE-zine articles. Recently I read your KP navaratnamala part I & part 2 series. It's really helpful for me to understand about KP system and cleared my many doubts. My sincere wishes to your dedication and presenting the articles to KPE-zine. But I have some doubt about the retrograde planets. You didn't mention about retrograde planets in the articles. How it is important retrograde planets in prediction especially in KP?

Answer 3: Retrogression is written at length in the article "KP for Beginners- Part II, Reading a KP Horary Chart", under sub heading "3.2. Controversy of Retrogression" in points 17 to 30, in the KPE-zine April 2009 issue, concluding with: "29. Some scholars ignore the result of the retrograde planets by putting several examples in support to their opinions [K.M. Subramaniam (KPA 1997 p 51, Sublord Speaks- I p 84-5), Kanak Bosmia (KP Muhurat p 3), Sunil Gondhalekar (Four Step Theory p 54), Umang Taneja (Prashna), S P Khullar (Horary Astrology p ix)] But D.C. Ghose had found in hundred of Horary cases that the retrograde planet has failed to offer the due result. (Result of Planets in Retrogression, KPA 1995 p 6)

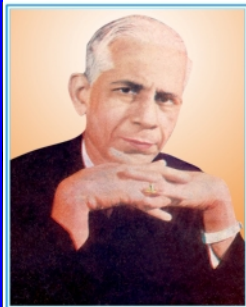

30. -----So further research of a minimum of one hundred carefully documented Horary charts is required to form a credible opinion on retrogression whether it does matter or not in the Horary analysis."

We are in the process of collecting the Horary cases where retrogression does not work with the help of our KP brother Kanak Bosmia.

Question 4: I am a regular reader of your articles that published in KPE-zine. In navratnamala 2 the article under the heading TIMING OF EVENT was not understood by me. Sir please explain me this article with an example that (HOW TO PREDICT TIME OF EVENT BY TRANSIT AND BY DASHA IN NATAL OR HORARY CHART). Thank you very much.

Answer 4: Timing of event is really a very difficult task even for a very seasoned and experienced K.P.Astrologer. The Step 5- Checking Dasa, Bhukti, Antara, Sookshma (DBAS) (point 53 to 56) and Step 6- Transit Check (point 57 to 63) in the article "KP for Beginners- Part II, Reading a KP Horary Chart", in the KPE-zine April 2009 issue, may be helpful to some extent. Next time this topic would be revisited with practical examples.

This case belongs to a head of the organization on deputation whose term was coming to an end on Feb 18, 2010 and as known to me, he was in extreme tension for further continuing in the office in the same status. There was a possibility of his continuance but nothing was heard till Feb 8, 2010.

Out of my astrological interest, I ventured to assess if the native would continue in the existing top position and I took horary number 81 for this question myself. The chart was casted on Feb 8, 2010 at 13-39-05 Hrs at Bangalore. The chart was rotated to 11th house to represent the native.

The rotated chart is as follows

Coordinates of judgment

Lagna in this chart represents the native and 9th cusp/house represents the superiors whom he reports.

The prospects in a horary chart relating to the profession are primarily governed by the 10H, as this house decides the way the flow of karma takes place for matters relating to profession.

It may be noted that the analysis of cusps of various houses along with the planetary significations represent the fixed promises of the chart but the results are dispensed by the suitable dasha-bhukti in consonance with the transits.

The Query

In the horary chart, Moon is placed in 6th house indicating the matter pertaining to the job. Moon in the star of Mercury falling in the 8th house indicates some impediments and anxiety to the native.

With the above, I took the chart OK to proceed for further analysis.

Analysis of the chart

Look at the promise indicated by the lagna.

Rahu is the lagna sub-lord, which by way of its placement in 8th house close to the 8th cusp makes the extension at the top position not so easy.

At the stellar level, Rahu falls in the star of 6th lord Venus placed in 9th house, which favors the native by the superiors.

Rahu disposes Jupiter (sign lord) and Venus (Star lord).

Jupiter as 11th lord is placed in 9th house, hence the favor from the superiors is assured.

In short, the indications of Lagna do promise the continuance of the job with the support of the superiors.

Look at the 10th cuspal sub-lord

10th cuspal sub-lord is retro-Saturn. Saturn is a strong 10th lord and its placement in the 4th house of stagnation actually favors the native, as the continuation of the native in the same position may be looked as the stagnation.

At the stellar level, Saturn falls in the star and sub of 3rd lord Moon placed in 6th house, which does promise favor the native for continuing at the same position.

Look at the 9th cuspal sub-lord

9th cuspal indicates the native's superiors and let us see what they have to do for the native.

Rahu as sub-lord has been discussed in the preceding para and it sound that the superiors do favor the continuance of the native in the office.

Look at the fortuna

Fortuna falls in the 10th house, a good sign. Fortuna falls in the star and sub of 2nd lord Mercury placed in 8th house. Thus, it does not sound for a long-term benefit.

Look at the 11th cusp

Mars is the 11th cuspal sub-lord placed in the star of Saturn (10th lord) and in the own sub placed in 2nd house. Thus, 11th cusp does establish clear link with the 2-10th houses indicating that the native would continue in the office at the same position.

Look at the dasha breakup.

Mercury-Moon-Saturn was running till May 05, 2010.

Dasha lord-Mercury falls in the star of Sun placed in 9th house and in the sub of 10th lord Saturn, thus favorable.

Bhukti lord – Moon is 3rd lord placed in 6th house. Moon in star of 2nd lord Mercury placed in 8th house and Moon aspected by 10th lord Saturn was considered OK.

Thus, the DBA was found suitable to favor continuance of the native in the same position in the office.

Conclusion

It was understood by examining the chart that there was a good possibility of the native to continue in the office on the same position. Prof. Krishnamurthy has devised a pioneering predictive model in astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

Some facts of the case

It was learnt that the native was informed on Feb 17, 2010 night by phone that his case was approved by the relevant ministry for continuing in the same position for 3 months.

Note that Moon was transiting in U Bhadra star (Saturn) and Lagna in Virgo (Mercury) at that time.

1. This article is to check the validity of three KP rules and seven Vedic rules regarding inter- caste, inter-community or inter-religion and love marriage on the basis of 60 charts. The Vedic rules are compiled by Sri R. Satish from the Astrological Magazine 2005/2006.
2. In checking the KP rules, the KP charts with KPNA (2003) by KPAstro 3.5 and the signification by occupation and lordship at all three levels of planet, star and sub are applied. For the CSL planet, Rahu/Ketu acting agents of planets in conjunction and aspect and sign lord are checked, and the CSL's star and sub are also considered. For Vedic rules, the Rasi charts are applied in taking house and lordship.

3. KP Rules

1. 7th CSL connection to Rahu/Ketu indicates inter- caste marriage. It is found valid in 54 out of 60 charts (90%).
 2. 5th CSL connection to Rahu/Ketu indicates inter- caste marriage. It is found valid in 48 out of 60 charts (80%).
 3. 5th CSL signification of 7th house or 7th CSL signification of 5th house indicates love marriage. It is found valid in 55 out of 60 charts (91.7%).
- Note: 7th or 5th CSL connection to Rahu/Ketu is found in 59 out of 60 charts (98.3%). Both 7th and 5th CSLs' connection to Rahu/Ketu is found in 44 out of 60 charts (73.3%).

4. Vedic Rules

1. The conjunction and aspect between 7th lord, Mars, Rahu with Venus indicates inter -caste marriage. It is found valid in 31 out of 60 charts (51.7%).
2. Lagna lord in 7th or the Moon aspecting 7th house indicates love marriage. It is found valid in 14 out of 60 charts (23.3%).
3. Retro Jupiter aspecting Lagna or occupying it indicates inter- caste marriage. Jupiter is found retrograde in 22 out of 60 charts (36.7%). This rule is found valid in 3 out of these 22 charts (13.6%).
4. 5th lord with Rahu /Ketu or in constellation ruled by them indicates inter- caste marriage. It is found valid in 22 out of 60 charts (36.7%).
5. Sat in 5th /9th house or in constellation of Rahu/Ketu is found valid in 19 out of 60 charts (31.7%).
6. Lagna lord and 6th lord in conjunction or aspect rule is found valid in 19 out of 51 charts (37.2%). (In 9 out of 60 charts, the same planet is both Lagna lord and 6th lord.)
7. 5th/7th lords, houses afflicted by Saturn, Rahu, Ketu rule is found valid in 53 out of 60 charts (88.3%).

5. Conclusion

1st and 2nd KP rules of inter- caste marriage and 3rd KP rule of love marriage and Vedic 7th rule of inter-caste marriage are found valid in this study of 60 charts.

He signed the Instrument of Accession with the Dominion of India on the eve of India attaining Independence in August 1947. The princely state of Mysore was merged with the Republic of India on January 26, 1950. He held the position of Rajpramukh of the State of Mysore from 1950–1956. After the integration of the neighbouring Kannada-majority parts of the States of Madras and Hyderabad, he became the first Governor of the reorganized or unified State of Mysore, 1956–64 and later was transferred as the Governor of the State of Madras (Tamil Nadu), 1964–66.

King-size Ascendant: 1st CSL Mo is in the constellation of Sa and sub of Me. There is no planet in Mo's stars, so its quantum will be significant as it is sub lord of 10th also. That is our Guruji's invention that the cuspal sublord will decide the native's status and thus dasa- the soil even can't impact. We will see this hard-line illustrated ahead. The 10th house denotes exalted birth, born to rule, apex position, esteemed life, achievement of titles, right of honour and power of political position.

"H.H Jaya Chamaraja Wodeyar, the last Maharaja of the erstwhile native State of Mysore, was great not just because of his birth. Greatness was not thrust on him. He was great not only because he belonged to a great and ancient dynasty. It is believed that his dynasty had its source in ancient times - in the Yadavas. Krishna was its moola purusha." (By HSK- The columnist)

They had pleased dasas of Sa, Me, Ke, Ve respectively. We'll illustrate them regarding the subject of the word "King".

Dasa Of Saturn (Up To 23/11/1932): From birth to 1932, they got the hail of such an affectionate word Maharajkumar. Sa is in Ke star and Mo sub. Sa owns 2nd and places in 8th house. Mo is crowning planet with no planets in its stars and have cuspal sub lordship of 1st and 10th cusps.

Dasa Of Mercury (Up To 23/11/1949): Me is in own star and has cuspal sub lordship of 6th (promotion). Me is placed at 7th (10th from 10th) and owning 6th again.

Dasa Of Ke (Up To 23/11/1956): Ke is in the constellation of Su and sub of Ve. Ve is in own star and lord of 10.

Dasa Of Ve (Up To 23/11/1976): Ve is in own star and lord of 10. Sub lord Mo as we discussed above has much magnitude.

Liberal Ascendant: 1st CSL Mo is in the constellation of Sa and sub of Me. Mo placed at 3rd and owned 8th, star lord Sa placed at again 8th and owned 2nd. The significance of 8th is contributor as his/her status, beneficial to others, always donating, investment for the mass. We will illustrate ahead that 5th and 8th cusp as donating and beneficial to the mass, not for degradation, just after determination of king-size ascendant.

Dasa Of Saturn (Up To 23/11/1932): Sa is in Ke star and Mo sub. Sa places at 8th (money for others) house. Ke placed at 5 (benefit to others) and also have signification of 8 by its sign lord Ve placed at 8th.

Dasa Of Mercury (Up To 23/11/1949): Me as it is in self star and placed at 7. Its sublord is Sa and tenants at 8.

Dasa Of Ke (Up To 23/11/1956): Ke is getting its disposition of 5, 8, 10 and 7 as sign lordship and star lordship respectively. Ke is in the constellation of Su and sub of Ve. Ve is lord of 5, 10 and placed at 8.

Dasa Of Ve (Up To 23/11/1976): Ve is in own star and placed at 8 (donation) and consequently it has much magnitude of 8, supported by lordship of 5.

Contributions As a Donator

- (1) He was responsible for the famous cricketer/off-spin bowler, Mr. E.A.S. Prasanna's visit to West Indies as his father was otherwise reluctant to send him.
- (2) They had helped a Russian composer Nikolai Karlovich Medtner to make a monumental piano concert.
- (3) Walter Legge was invited by him at Mysore for a week and was pleased by H.H.'s hospitality and was offered 1000 pounds (for three years) for piano concert and to open Philharmonia Orchestra. The help had changed Walter's fate.
- (4) Maharaja also enabled Richard Strauss's last wish to be full filled by sponsoring an evening at Royal Albert Hall by London's Philharmonia Orchestra with German Conductor Wilhelm Furtwangler in the lead and Soprano Flagstad singing his Four Last Songs (Going to Sleep, September, Spring, At Sunset) in 1950.
- (4) They had also given monetary assistance to Balakirev Symphoney, Roussel's Fourth Symphony, Busoni's symphony and Indian Fantasy.
- (5) Many noted Indian musicians received patronage at his court, including Mysore Vasudevacharya, Veena Venkata Giriappa, B. Devendrappa, V. Doraiswamy Iyengar, T. Chowdiah, Tiger Vardachar, Chennakeshaviya, Titte Krishna Iyengar, S.N.Mariappa, Chintalapalli Ramachandra Rao, R.N.Doreswamy, H.M.Vaidyalinga Bhagavata.

(6) They built three temples in Mysore city called Bhuvaneshwari Mandir, Gayatri Mandir and kaama kaameshwari Mandir.

(7) They had sponsored many spiritual and verdant treatises for translation in Kannada from Sanskrita. They also composed much literatures and treatise of Vedantas, Upnishads and Puranaas.

(8) H.H had personally translated and given sponsorship of its translation to many savants for 35 parts of Rig veda in to Kannada from Sanskrita, for the benefit of common mass of Karnataka.

(9) He helped Ramanathan Krishnan to participate at Wimbledon.

And so on...much more numbers are waiting for listing.

Artiste & Sportsman: If 5th CSL signifies 5,6,10 and 11, one can surmount achievements from art, without have connection with 8th house as it is degrading bhava of being popular in art or sports.

Here 5th CSL Sa(8, I/o 2) is in star Ke(5, 8, 7, 10) and sub Mo+(3, 8), being 10th CSL with no planet in its stars Despite negative indication of 8, strong 10th signification made him good pianist, pipe organist, deep analyser & composer in classical & western music, author in literature of Vedanta, tennis player, golf player and horse rider.

Paragraph in Wikipedia.com (link mentioned above): "Maharaja was equally a good critic of music. When asked by Legge to pass judgement on recent additions to the EMI catalogue, his views were as trenchant as they were refreshingly unpredictable. He was thrilled to Karajan's Vienna Philharmonic recording of Beethoven's fifth symphony, held Furtwangler's recording of the Fourth symphony in high esteem and was disappointed by Galliera's account of the Seventh Symphony which he would have preferred Karajan to record. Above all he expressed serious doubts about Toscanini's recordings. The speed and energy are those of a demon', he wrote to Legge, 'not an angel or superman as one would ardently hope for'. One of the reasons he so admired Furtwangler Beethoven was that it was 'such a tonic after Toscanini's highly stung, vicious performances'"

Devotee: After assessing 1st cusp, the CSLs of 5th and 9th cusps also to be considered for spiritual life and the CSL signification should include 5, 9, 10, 11 houses. Sa is karaka. 5= initiation for spirituality, 10= practicing of spirituality, 11= attainment of spirituality. (From KP House Grouping by Respected Tin Win Ji), Here 5th & 9th CSL Sa(8, I/o 2) is in Ke(5, 8, 7, 10) star and Mo(3, 8) sub, Moon being CSL of 10th with no planet in its stars Here, predominant signification of 8th house (in all planet, stellar & sub levels) and absence of 11th signification couldn't get him an attainment towards spirituality but made him deep thinker towards Vedanta with holding the hand of fascination by signification of 5th and 10th houses.

Spirituality in H.H's Words: "I was inclined towards vedanta almost right from my childhood. It was not at all difficult to change to the new situation. We are all parts of Paramatma — the Great Soul, Vishwatma — the Universal Soul. This is ruling over us. Democracy is a practical application of this universal principle."

"The sudden demise of my father and uncle had struck a severe blow on my mind. My mind leaned more and more towards Adhyatma(spirituality). I was face to face before the cycle of birth and death. I had to resolve the tangle".

"At that critical moment came succour -- "Isavasya Upanishad." I studied it with the help of its translation. My mind was steadied. I wanted to read the vedas and upanishads in their original Sanskrit language. I earnestly pursued the learning of Sanskrit.

"Then another thought crossed my mind. I had the good fortune of having the needed facility to learn Sanskrit How many people have that privilege? Our people must be enabled to have access to this great heritage through their own language."

Observations:

- 1) After vindication of the quantum of ascendant, we can recognise the mere influence of dasas having significations of the negative bhavas 5th and 8th for degradation/punishment/demolition.
- 2) Absence of 2nd (self-earnings, bank balance) and 11th (fulfilment of desire) houses at entire dasa level is vindicating no evidence of their earnings. That means to be just born to rule and contribute. They were having a deep knowledge of art but had not gained monetary influence of it.

3) They have large heritage of their great "Wodeyar" dynasty for self indulgence and to indulge others because of the soil (dasa) had played the role of ruling 10th house along with contributing 5th and 8th houses.

H.H 's Charisma (Experience Written By HSK - The columnist)

" At last, the Muhoorta had come. The auspicious moment after Rahu Kala. We passed through a row of arched doors and at last we were greeted by none other than the Private Secretary, beaming a wide smile. With him were Palegar and Satyagirinathan. No sooner we went before the front door of the room where the Maharaja was seated, than the benign king who ruled our hearts stood up, came forward and, before we could bow before him, he shook hands with us! Perhaps the Raja's men were flabbergasted. We exchanged pleasant greetings and the great Prince made us feel free with his disarming and enchanting smile.

"I know you will have many questions. I am afraid I may not have enough time. Would you come some other day?"

"I would be glad to come some other day also. I request you to spare as much time as possible today, as we have come all the way from Mysore."

The Maharaja just smiled, asked us to take our seats and sat with us. (What a surprise! No 'respectable' distance!). Born as a prince. Became the ruler of an old State. Earned the devotion and affection of his subjects (art, Vedanta, literature, sports). It was hard to believe that he had become just a commoner like others. Has he been able to accept it, I wondered."

I had written a detailed article on Tengana Issue. As Telangana Issue is still under sub judiciary, the advisory board suggested me to not publish that article. But recently Sri Dr. B. Kanagasabai asks me to write article on Country or State Creation issue with old events of countries.

Below is my created rule for this type of event. We have not found anything on mundane rule in the KP literature. I have given many effective rules for KP Mundane, but unfortunately a very few KP astrologers notice it.

OM GAJAANANAM NAMAMYAHAM

This month I am going to discuss about Duodenum complaints relating to Intestine and 3 charts were taken up (Source: Dr. Bhamidipati Satyanarayana Murthy & Astrodatabank). Sri K Raghavendra Kumar M.Sc. B.Ed, extended his assistance in preparing this article.

Duodenum: The duodenum is the first section of the small intestine in most higher vertebrates, including mammals, reptiles, and birds. The duodenum precedes the jejunum and ileum and is the shortest part of the small intestine, where most chemical digestion takes place. The name duodenum is from the Latin duodenum digitorum, or twelve fingers' breadths. In humans, the duodenum is a hollow jointed tube about 25-30 cm (10-12 in) long connecting the stomach to the jejunum. It begins with the duodenal bulb and ends at the ligament of Treitz.

Function: The duodenum is largely responsible for the breakdown of food in the small intestine, using enzymes. Brunner's glands, which secrete mucus, are found in the duodenum. The duodenum wall is composed of a very thin layer of cells that form the muscularis mucosae. The duodenum is almost entirely retroperitoneal.

The duodenum also regulates the rate of emptying of the stomach via hormonal pathways. Secretin and cholecystokinin are released from cells in the duodenal epithelium in response to acidic and fatty stimuli present there when the pylorus opens and releases gastric chyme into the duodenum for further digestion. These cause the liver and gall bladder to release bile, and the pancreas to release bicarbonate and digestive enzymes such as trypsin, lipase and amylase into the duodenum as they are needed.

New studies have shown that around 80% of obese people who had gastric bypass surgery (bypassing the duodenum) were cured of their type 2 diabetes. However, the disappearance of their diabetes came long before the actual weight loss. When the same operation was performed on diabetic rats, they too were rid of their diabetes. However, when the operation was reversed in the animals, the diabetes returned. This shows that preventing food from entering the duodenum can have a dramatic impact on people suffering from type 2 diabetes.

It is most likely that one of the digestive additives produced by the Duodenum on entry of food in to it (or a secondary product) is absorbed by the jejunum and ileum and spread into the body instead of passing through the digestive system. The presence of those chemicals causes the muscles to exhibit insulin resistance and ultimately Type 2 Diabetes. Identification of these chemicals may lead to a cure for Type 2 Diabetes.

Sections: The duodenum is divided into four sections for the purposes of description. The first three sections curve in a "C"-loop concavity in which the head of the pancreas lies. Only the first 2 cm of the superior part is mobile (covered by peritoneum) - the distal 3cm of the first part along with the rest of the duodenum is retroperitoneal (immobile).

First part : The first (superior) part begins , for approximately 5 cm, before making a sharp curve inferiorly into the superior duodenal flexure (the end of the superior part). It is intraperitoneal.

- Superior

Second part: The second (descending) part of the duodenum begins at the superior duodenal flexure. It passes inferiorly to the lower border of vertebral body L3, before making a sharp turn medially into the inferior duodenal flexure (the end of the descending part).

The pancreatic duct and common bile duct enter the descending duodenum, commonly known together as the hepatopancreatic duct (or pancreatic duct in the United States), through the major duodenal papilla (known as Ampulla of Vater). This part of the duodenum also contains the minor duodenal papilla, the entrance for the accessory pancreatic duct. The junction between the embryological foregut and midgut lies just below the major duodenal papilla.

Third part: The third (inferior/horizontal) part of the duodenum begins at the inferior duodenal flexure and passes transversely to the left, crossing the right ureter, right testicular/ovarian vessels, inferior vena cava, abdominal aorta, superior mesenteric artery and the vertebral column.

Fourth part: The fourth (ascending) part passes superiorly, either anterior to, or to the right of, the aorta, until it reaches the inferior border of the body of the pancreas. Then, it curves anteriorly and terminates at the duodenojejunal flexure where it joins the jejunum. The duodenojejunal flexure is surrounded by a peritoneal fold containing muscle fibres: the ligament of Treitz.

Duodenal cancer is a cancer in the beginning section of the small intestine. It is relatively rare compared to gastric cancer and colorectal cancer. Its histology is usually adenocarcinoma. Familial adenomatous polyposis (FAP) is a risk factor for developing this cancer. The duodenum is the first part of the small intestine. It is located between the stomach and the jejunum. After foods combine with stomach acid, they descend into the duodenum where they mix with bile from the gall bladder and digestive juices from the pancreas.

Treatment: Resection is sometimes a part of a treatment plan, but duodenal cancer is difficult to remove surgically because of the area that it resides in--there are many blood vessels supplying the lower body. Chemotherapy is sometimes used to try and shrink the cancerous mass. Other times intestinal bypass surgery is tried to reroute the stomach to intestine connection around the blockage. A 'Whipple' is a possible surgery that is tried sometimes with this cancer. Some patients are fitted with tubes to either add nutrients (feeding tubes) or drainage tubes to remove excess processed food that can not pass the blockage.

The cancerous mass tends to block food from getting to the small intestine. If food can not get to the intestines, it will cause pain, acid reflux, and weight loss because the food can not get to where it is supposed to be processed and absorbed by the body. Patients with duodenal cancer may experience abdominal pain, weight loss, nausea, vomiting, and chronic GI bleeding.

Duodenu

Duodenal Cancer

In Medical Astrology, as per the "Medical Astrology for All" written by Sri K Subramaniam S/o Sri KSK Guruji, duodenum part of the body is ruled by 6th sign Virgo /6th house from Ascendant. Moon and Venus are the chief governors for duodenal ulcers. Virgo rules the abdominal region, intestines, the lower lobes of the liver, the spleen, the duodenum, and the sympathetic nervous system. (Source: Medical Astrology: Message of the Stars by Max Heindel and Augusta Foss Heindel/ A Handbook of Medical Astrology by Jane Ridder-Patrick)

Virgo contains Uttara Phalguni 2-4, Hasta & Chitta 1-2 pada who rules the following anatomy of the body:

Uttara 2-4: Duodenum, Intestines, Bowels & Liver, Obstructions, Stomach disorder, Sore Throat and swelling in Neck. Tumours in the Bowels.

Generally the 6th CSL connection to 6th, 8th, 12th, Maraka, Badhaka houses and Moon, Venus, and the adverse effect of these houses on Virgo sign indicate duodenal ulcers.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Question- 1

While ascertaining the sex of the child to be born, as you said quoting Shri Gondhalekar, we see the even\odd sign of the planet in the 4th step. Please guide me in which horoscope this has to be seen , the traditionally erected horoscope (rashi chart) or the KP horoscope which is prepared according to the degrees of Placidus cusps (bhava chalit).

Answer - 1

It's to see the Rasi sign (from the beginning to the end of sign). For example, Mars at Leo 27-25-19 is the sub-lord of the 5th cusp.

1st step: Mars

2nd step: Star Lord of Mars is Sun;

3rd step: Sub lord of Mars is Moon;

4th step: Star Lord of Moon is Mercury.

If Mercury is placed in Scorpio (Female sign), female child is predicted.

Question- 2

While considering sex determination of child, Shri Gondhalekar's 4 step theory gives mostly correct result for the sex of 1st child. But in some cases, the sex differs in respect of 2nd issue when considering 7th for female and Lagna for male (in wife and husband of the same pair). Is there any exception for this difference?

Answer- 2

Any such significant difference is not found in our "Child Gender Prediction Analysis", KPE-zine July 2008 issue, i.e. the correct result by 4 step child gender prediction method is 56% for the 1st child and 49% for all children.

Question- 3

Jupiter and Mercury get directional strength i.e. Dig Bala when placed in Lagna (Lagna kendra). In such cases both the planets get good strength, when they are Lagna lords themselves. In KP House Grouping Part 1, when discussing about Lagna lord's strength, 1st house is not taken for the strength and only 2,3,9,10,11,4 are taken for very strong lagna lord. Is there no exception to Jupiter and Mercury in Lagna? Kindly clarify.

Answer- 3

There is no exception to Jupiter and Mercury in Lagna as such traditional idea of Dig Bala is not considered in KP.

Will the alliance/coalition between BJP and JD(U) continue?

Today all Indian news channels broadcast news regarding the return of Rs 5 crore to Gujarat Govt. by Nitish Kumar.

Nitish Kumar has returned the Rs 5 crore lying unspent in the CM's relief account that was received from Gujarat after floods devastated large parts of the Kosi river belt in 2008, officials said on Saturday.

The move comes after local papers last week carried advertisements about the help given by the Gujarat government for Kosi flood victims.

Asked if the decision would affect the relationship between JD(U) and the BJP, he said, "As of now I don't think there is any problem. That was a localised and on the spot problem that had cropped up. I think we are running the government efficiently so far. I do not think there is any problem as of now".

The decision to return the money comes at a time when the parties are preparing for the Assembly elections in Bihar due later this year.

After watching this news, a question arose in my mind about the present relations between two political parties. There are no rules in KP literature for this question, so I tried to make new rules for this mundane question.

Breaking of Coalition/Alliance in political parties

If Coalition=11 signifies unfortunate activity ; unfortunate circumstances=12, Breaking up=8, Interruption= 1, breaking of coalition/alliance in political parties is possible during DBAS of 1,8,12.

Coalition/Alliance in political parties

If Coalition=11 signifies relation with family = 4, supporter/support = 11, Alliance=7, coalition/alliance in political parties is possible during DBAS of 4,7,11.

Horary details:

Question: Will the alliance/coalition between BJP and JD(U) continue?

Analysis:

11th CSL is Mer.

Me+(7, 8-10), No planet in the star of Mer, Mer is CSL of 11, in the star of Mo(10, 9), in the sub of Su(7).

Mer signifies 8.

Mer also signifies 7,11.

We have found both significations, so we have to check DBAS to make a final decision.

Period lords are Su-Me-Ra-Ju.

Su(7), in the star of Ma(9, 1-5-6), in the sub of Ve(8, 7-11-12).

Dasalord signifies 1,8,12 = OK, also in RPs.

Dasalord also signifies 7,11.

Finding Nature of Death by KP -King Ludwig II

By: Tin Win (USA)

Email: tw853@yahoo.com

King of Bavaria Ludwig II

Brief Background

1. In the late 1860s, King Ludwig II, often referred to as "Mad King Ludwig" due to his purported insanity, on the day of his death in 1886, began building castles. From a practical point of view, such things were quite useless in the nineteenth century. The king ignored government and supposedly drained the treasury away; in fact he used his own money on his luxurious castles. By June 1886, Ludwig's extravagance had left the treasury severely in debt and some of his cabinet ministers conspired to have him deposed. Ludwig was declared insane by psychiatrist Dr. Bernhard von Gudden and three colleagues. He was deposed three days before his death, and was taken in custody at Berg Palace on the banks of Lake Starnberg.

2. On 13 June 1886 at around 6:10 pm, the King and Dr. Gudden went for a walk but they never came back. On the following day, their bodies were found in Lake Starnberg. Leaving the question open of whether it was murder, accident or suicide, Ludwig's watch had stopped at 6:45 pm. Here are the theories regarding nature of his death:-

- 1) Ludwig committed suicide as he had been talking of suicide all the previous day.
- 2) Ludwig tried to escape by swimming across the Lake to safety but died of an accident as the water was freezing, and he was overweight.
- 3) Ludwig and Dr Gudden were murdered to ensure the former ruler would not cause trouble in the future.

"Bouncing back from the setback of the unsuccessful launch of GSLV-D3 on April 15, Indian Space Research Organisation(ISRO) on Monday sent PSLV-C15 soaring in to space to place in orbit Cartosat-2B, a remote sensing satellite with applications in mapping and infrastructure planning.

It was another copybook launch of Isro's trusted workhorse PSLV(Polar Satellite Launch Vehicle), which lifted off from Satish Dhawan Space Centre, Sriharikota, at 9.22am. About 17 minutes later, it injected the 694-kg Cartosat-2B and four other satellites into orbit. Mission director Kunhi Krishnan said, "The mission to inject five satellites into a sun-synchronous orbit was precise. All the four stages performed well. Performance of the computers was good and all the events of ignition and separation happened at the predicted time. The satellite system is normal.

PSLV-C15, which was earlier slated for launch on May 9 was rescheduled after scientists noticed a marginal drop in pressure in the second stage of the vehicle in April. At the end of over 51-hour countdown, the 44-metre-tall four-stage PSLV-C15, costing Rs 260 crore placed in orbit one after another five satellites."(<http://timesofindia.indiatimes.com/india/Isro-launches-PSLV-C-15-with-5-satellites/articleshow/6157516.cms>)

Examining Rule 1

Do not select Chara (Moveable sign) lagna

The ascendant of Leo at the time of launch was fixed sign. So it is OK.

Examining Rule 2

Asc CSL should signify 1, 5, 9, 11 for long life of event. (If you select dual sign lagna, do not consider 7th)

1st CSL Ve is in the constellation of Ke and sub of Ju. Ve has its placement at 12 and lordship of 3rd and 10th. The starlord Ke has its placement at 11(success), conjoined with Su which is lord of ascendant(self), in the sign of Me at also 11(success). Aspect of Sa on Ke and its signification is 1st, 6th and 7th. Ke is in the star of Ra placed at 5(health). The sub lord of Ve is Ju having its placement at 7th and owning 5th and 8th. Here, 1st CSL Ve signifying all positive houses along with less negative houses. So it is OK.

Examining Rule 3

12th CSL should signify 3, 9 and 12 for good and safe journey

The 12th CSL Ju is in the star of Sa and sub of Ve. Ju is placed at 7 and owns 5 and 8. Star lord Sa is lord of 6th and 7th and its placement at 1st. And the sub lord Ve has its placement at 12th and lordship of 3rd and 10th. Here, 12th CSL is signifying 3th and 12th houses. So, it is OK.

Examining Rule 4

3rd and 9th CSL should signify 3, 9, 12 for peaceful journey

The 3rd CSL Ve is in the star of Ke and sub of Ju. Ve has its placement at 12 and lordship of 3rd and 10th. The starlord Ke is in Ra star and Ra is in the star of Ve, which placed at 12th and lord of 3rd. Now, the 9th CSL Su is in the star of Ju and sub of Ke, which signifies 3rd and 12th. 3rd and 9th CSLs signify 3rd and 12th houses for going away from home. So it is OK.

Examining Rule 5

8th CSL should not signify 8 and 12

The 8th CSL Ra in the star of Ve and sub of Ma. Ra is placed at 5 and has sign lord signification of 5, 7 and 8. Ve at 12 and lord of 3rd and 10th. Sub lord Ma is playing Badhaka role but placed on ascendant. Here, 8th CSL Ra signifying negative houses along with positive houses. So it is OK.

Examining Rule 6

Dasa-Bhukti should signify 3, 9, 12

Dasa Lord Ju

Ju is in the star of Sa and sub of Ve and Ve is placed at 12 and have lordship of 3rd.

Bhukti Lord Mo

Mo is lord of 12 and placed at its own sub.

Conclusion

If the native/thing/event is about to go abroad/away from home successfully pointed by 1st and 12th cusps, all the way of it made for definite auspiciousness.

All the credit goes to KP Muhurt Technique.

Missing Daughter

By: Kanak Bosmia (K.P. Astrologer & Editor-KPEzine)

Sahakar-2, Flat No: 28, Jagabhai Park, Ram Baug
Manainagar, Ahmedabad: 380 008 kanakbosmia@yahoo.com, contact@kpastrologer.com,

A father of married daughter came to me on July 15th 2010 evening with tears in his eyes. Generally I never like to discuss the postmortem cases in the KP Ezine, but this is a different case, also supported my thinking that if a question is asked by a deep urge we do not need to rotate the chart to any cusp. His daughter was married about 3 years ago, and she came to her father's house for 2-3 days with permission from her father-in-law. Unfortunately she ran away from her father's house at 3.30 PM on 15th July 2010 with her little child.

According to her father, before marriage she fell in love with his neighbor's son. But any how her father and other relatives convinced her to forget that neighbor's boy and marry with the person selected for her by her family. At that time this matter was then closed. Now he has having doubts that she runaway with that neighbor's boy, because that boy was not yet married.

Her father gave me a Horary number, details as under:

Horary Question: My daughter has run away from home, is she alive? If yes, then when she will come back home?

Horary No: 49/249

Horary Date: 15/07/2010

Horary Time: 20:27:32

Horary Place: Kankariya- Ahmedabad

Long/Lat : 23 N 00, 72 E 35

My Analysis:

Asc sublord is Sat

Sat is in 4, Lord of 8-9-10, in the star of Sun being in 1, Lord of 4, in the sub of Mer being in 2, Lord of 1. Sat not signifies Badhaka but signifies 1, 9, so there is not fear of longevity.

11th CSL is Moon.

Moon is in 3, Lord of 2-3, No planet in the star of Moon and Moon is CSL of 10,11, in the star of Ven being in 3, Lord of 5-12, in the sub of Sat being in 4, Lord of 8,9-10. Moon signifies 2,8,11, so she will come back for sure.

Period lords are Ve-Sa-Sa-Sa

Ven is in 3, Lord of 5-12, in the star of Ket being in 1, Ket is agent of Sun being in 1, Lord of 4, in the sub of Mer being in 2, Lord of 1. Dasalord Ven signifies 2 and also in RPs = OK

Sat is in 4, Lord of 8-9-10, in the star of Sun being in 1, Lord of 4, in the sub of Mer being in 2, Lord of 1. Bhukti-Antra-Sookshma lord Sat signifies 2,8, and also in RPs = OK

Sat Sookshma ends on 7/8/2010, so in my opinion she will come back before 7/8/2010.

Actual Outcome:

The Daughter came back on 19/7/2010 @ 12 PM at Vatva Police Station Ahmedabad.

Now if I rotate the horary chart to 5th as Asc and the result will go wrong.

Asc sublord is Ven.

Ven is in 11, Lord of 1-8, in the star of Ket being in 9. Ket is agent of Sun being in 9, Lord of 12, in the sub of Mer being in 10, Lord of 9.

Ven signifies 11,8,12, not good for longevity.

11th sublord Sat.

Sat is in 12, Lord of 4-5-6, in the star of Sun being in 9, Lord of 12, in the sub of Mer being in 10, Lord of 9. Sat does not signify 2,8,11 at all.

It shows that if question was asked with a "deep urge", we do not need to rotate the Horary chart.

OM GAJAANANAM NAMAMYAHAM

This month I am going to discuss about Kidney Stone complaints relating to Kidneys and 7 charts were taken up (Source: Dr. Bhamidipati Satyanarayana Murthy & Astrodatabank). Smt Geeta Vani Dhagay, was extended her assistance in preparing this article.

Kidney stone:

A 8-mm kidney stone.

Kidney stones (ureterolithiasis) result from stones or renal calculi (from Latin ren, renes, "kidney" and calculi, "pebbles") in the ureter. The stones are solid concretions or calculi (crystal aggregations) formed in the kidneys from dissolved urinary minerals. Nephrolithiasis (from Greek (nephros, "kidney") and (lithos, "stone")) refers to the condition of having kidney stones. Urolithiasis refers to the condition of having calculi in the urinary tract (which also includes the kidneys), which may form or pass into the urinary bladder. Ureterolithiasis is the condition of having a calculus in the ureter, the tube connecting the kidneys and the bladder. The term bladder stones usually applies to urolithiasis of the bladder in non-human animals such as dogs and cats.

Kidney stones typically leave the body by passage in the urine stream, and many stones are formed and passed without causing symptoms. If stones grow to sufficient size before passage on the order of at least 2-3 millimeters they can cause obstruction of the ureter. The resulting obstruction causes dilation or stretching of the upper ureter and renal pelvis (the part of the kidney where the urine collects before entering the ureter) as well as muscle spasm of the Ureter, trying to move the stone. This leads to pain, most commonly felt in the flank, lower abdomen and groin (a condition called renal colic). Renal colic can be associated with nausea and vomiting. There can be blood in the urine, visible with the naked eye or under the microscope (macroscopic or microscopic hematuria) due to damage to the lining of the urinary tract.

There are several types of kidney stones based on the type of crystals of which they consist. The majority are calcium oxalate stones, followed by calcium phosphate stones. More rarely, struvite stones are produced by urea-splitting bacteria in people with urinary tract infections, and people with certain metabolic abnormalities may produce uric acid stones or cystine stones.

The diagnosis of a kidney stone can be confirmed by radiological studies and or ultrasound examination; urine tests and blood tests are also commonly performed. When a stone causes no symptoms, watchful waiting is a valid option. In other cases, pain control is the first measure, using for example non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs or opioids. Using soundwaves, some stones can be shattered into smaller fragments (this is called extra corporeal shock wave lithotripsy). Sometimes a procedure is required, which can be through a tube into the urethra, bladder and ureter (ureteroscopy), or a keyhole or open surgical approach from the kidney's side. Sometimes, a tube may be left in the ureter (a ureteric stent) to prevent the recurrence of pain. Preventive and structive measures are often advised such as drinking sufficient amounts of water, milk and coffee, although the effect of many dietary interventions has not been rigorously studied.

Signs and symptoms:

Symptoms of kidney stones include

Localization of kidney stone pain

- Colicky pain: "loin to groin". Often described as "the worst pain [...] ever experienced". This can also occur in the lower back
- Nausea/vomiting: embryological link with intestine– stimulates the vomiting center.
- Hematuria: blood in the urine, due to minor damage to inside wall of kidney, ureter and/or urethra.
- Pyuria: pus in the urine.
- Dysuria: burning on urination when passing stones (rare). More typical of infection.
- Oliguria: reduced urinary volume caused by obstruction of the bladder or urethra by stone, or extremely rarely, simultaneous obstruction of both ureters by a stone.
- Postrenal azotemia: the blockage of urine flow through a ureter.
- Hydronephrosis: the distension and dilation of the renal pelvis and calyces.

Causes:

Kidney stones or calcium oxalate crystals in kidney can be due to underlying metabolic conditions, such as renal tubular acidosis, Dent's disease, hyperparathyroidism, primary hyperoxaluria and medullary sponge kidney. Kidney stones are also more common in patients with Crohn's disease. Patients with recurrent kidney stones should be screened for these disorders. This is typically done with a 24 hour urine collection that is chemically analyzed for deficiencies and excesses that promote stone formation.

There has been some evidence that water fluoridation may increase the risk of kidney stone formation. In one study, patients with symptoms of skeletal fluorosis were 4.6 times as likely to develop kidney stones.

A 1998 paper in the Archives of Internal Medicine examined the sources of a widely-held belief in the medical community that vitamin C can cause kidney stones, and found it to be based on several circular references, ultimately attributing the belief to a wider pattern of skepticism regarding efficacy of vitamin supplements. A more recent study suggested a causal relationship may exist, but it was not conclusive.

The American Urological Association has projected that increasing global temperatures will lead to greater future prevalence of kidney stones, notably by expanding the "kidney stone belt" of the southern United States. Astronauts seem to show a higher risk of developing kidney stones during or after long duration space flights.

Calcium oxalate stones:

The most common type of kidney stone is composed of calcium oxalate crystals, occurring in about 80% of cases, and the factors that promote the precipitation of crystals in the urine are associated with the development of these stones.

Common sense has long held that consumption of too much calcium could promote the development of calcium kidney stones. However, current evidence suggests that the consumption of low-calcium diets is actually associated with a higher overall risk for the development of kidney stones. This is perhaps related to the role of calcium in binding ingested oxalate in the gastrointestinal tract. As the amount of calcium intake decreases, the amount of oxalate available for absorption into the bloodstream increases; this oxalate is then excreted in greater amounts into the urine by the kidneys. In the urine, oxalate is a very strong promoter of calcium oxalate precipitation, about 15 times stronger than calcium.

Uric acid (urate):

About 5–10% of all stones are formed from uric acid. Uric acid stones form in association with conditions that cause hyper uricosuria with or without high blood serum uric acid levels (hyperuricemia); and with acid/base metabolism disorders where the urine is excessively acidic (low pH) resulting in uric acid precipitation. A diagnosis of uric acid nephrolithiasis is supported if there is a radiolucent stone, a persistent undue urine acidity, and uric acid crystals in fresh urine samples.

Other types:

Other types of kidney stones are composed of struvite (magnesium, ammonium and phosphate); calcium phosphate; and cystine. Struvite stones are also known as infection stones, urease or triple-phosphate stones. About 10–15% of urinary calculi consist of struvite stones. The formation of struvite stones is associated with the presence of urea-splitting bacteria, most commonly Proteus mirabilis. These organisms are capable of splitting urea into ammonia, decreasing the acidity of the urine and resulting in favorable conditions for the formation of struvite stones. Struvite stones are always associated with urinary tract infections.

The formation of calcium phosphate stones is associated with conditions such as hyperparathyroidism and renal tubular acidosis. Formation of cystine stones is uniquely associated with people suffering from cystinuria, who accumulate cystine in their urine. Cystinuria can be caused by Fanconi's syndrome. Urolithiasis has also been noted to occur in the setting of therapeutic drug use, with crystals of drug forming within the renal tract in some patients currently being treated with Indinavir, Sulfadiazine or Triamterene. Initially homeopathic remedies are good before going to Laser/Key hole treatments.

Diagnosis:

Clinical diagnosis is usually made on the basis of the location and severity of the pain, which is typically colicky in nature (comes and goes in spasmodic waves). Pain in the back occurs when calculi produce an obstruction in the kidney.

Imaging is used to confirm the diagnosis and a number of other tests can be undertaken to help establish both the possible cause and consequences of the stone.

Computed tomography: CT Scan

Computed tomography without contrast is considered the gold standard diagnostic test for the detection of kidney stones. All stones are detectable by CT except very rare stones composed of certain drug residues in the urine. If positive for stones, a single standard X-ray (digital) of the abdomen (KUB Kidney Ureter Bladder) is recommended. This gives a clearer idea of the exact size and shape of the stone as well as its surgical orientation. Further, it makes it simple to follow the progress of the stone by doing another X-ray in the future.

Ultrasound:

Ultrasound imaging is useful as it gives details about the presence of hydronephrosis (swelling of the kidney—suggesting the stone is blocking the outflow of urine). It can also be used to detect stones during pregnancy when x-rays or CT are discouraged. Radiolucent stones may show up on ultrasound however they are also typically seen on CT scans. Some recommend that US be used as the primary diagnostic technique with CT being reserved for those with negative US result and continued suspicion of a kidney stone. This is due to its lesser cost and avoidance of radiation.

Multiple kidney stones composed of uric acid and a small amount of calcium oxalate.

Bilateral kidney stones on abdominal X-ray. Not to be confused with phleboliths seen in the pelvis.

Prevention:

Preventive strategies include dietary modifications and sometimes also taking drugs with the goal of reducing excretory load on the kidneys:

- ◆ Drinking enough water to make 2 to 2.5 liters of urine per day.
- ◆ A diet low in protein, nitrogen and sodium intake
- ◆ Restriction of oxalate-rich foods, such as chocolate, nuts, soybeans, rhubarb and spinach, plus maintenance of an adequate intake of dietary calcium. There is equivocal evidence that calcium supplements increase the risk of stone formation, though calcium citrate appears to carry the lowest, if any, risk.
- ◆ Taking drugs such as thiazides, potassium citrate, magnesium citrate and allopurinol, depending on the cause of stone formation.
- ◆ Some fruit juices, such as orange, blackcurrant, and cranberry, may be useful for lowering the risk Factors for specific types of stones. Orange juice may help prevent calcium oxalate stone formation, black currant may help prevent uric acid stones, and cranberry may help with UTI-caused stones.

- ◆ Limit intake of caffeinated beverages, such as coffee.
- ◆ Avoidance of Cola beverages.
- ◆ Avoiding large doses of vitamin C.

For those patients interested in optimizing their kidney stone prevention options, a 24 hour urine test can be a useful diagnostic.

Om Gan Ganapataye Namah

Time and again Krishnamurti Paddhati has proved that it is scientific and logical. When one applies it correctly one will surely get the accurate result. Although timing the events is very difficult even in KP Astrology but getting an answer without opting for Mantra Jaap , Grah Shanti and Remedies , is indeed great . Sometimes things don't go according to the wish of the person even then performing any remedies won't change the equation. Hence KP Astrology is great.

One MBA student came to me on 16-03-2010 . He had appeared in exam and was skeptical about his result in one paper . Let us find out how I applied KP Astrology to get the right answer without opting for any shanti and jaap.

Query : Result in examination paper 1
Horary No : 27 (1 –249)
Date : 16-03-2010
Time : 12:04:00
Place : Bhopal 77E27 , 23N07 (Geocentric)

HINTS

According to Nakshatra Chintamani, if the sublord of the 4th cusp be the significator of 4th (Education , preparation for examinations , academic qualifications , regular attendance in school or college) , 9th (Deep Study and higher education) and 11th house , the house of success and fulfillment of desires , one will surely succeed in examination . It shouldn't be connected to 3rd house as this house is negation to 4th house.

MOON & ASCENDANT SUBLORD

Before proceeding to solve the query one must check out the position of Moon and Ascendant Sublord , so that the cusp under consideration must be signifying the relevant houses related to the query. Moon is placed in the 11th house with Venus Mercury and Sun being placed in same house. Sun is the lord of 5th house , Moon itself is lord of 4th house . Moon is the sole significator of 4th house . So Moon strongly signifies 4th and 11th house. Let us take a look at ascendant sublord which is Ketu , it is placed in the sign of Mercury which is conjoined with Moon in the 11th house. Hence Ketu also signifies the houses under consideration. So now we can proceed further.

CUSPAL ANALYSIS

4th Cusp : Cancer 23:17:51 – (Moon – Mercury – Moon)

Moon which is lord of 4th house is placed in 11th house , being lord of 4th house and Sublord of 4th house . It is placed with Mercury , Sun and Venus . Moon is in the star of Saturn which is aspected by Ve, lord of 6th house , the house of success in competition. Moon is in the sub of Mercury which is conjoined with Venus , lord of 6th house . So Moon is strongly signifying 6th house and 11th house.

9th Cusp : Sagittarius 27:18:17 – (Jupiter – Sun- Sun)

Sun which is placed in the 11th house , it is in the star of Jupiter which is placed in 10th house . Hence Sun strongly signifies 10th house and 11th house . So it has connection to 11th house , the house of fulfillment of desires.

11th Cusp : Aquarius 24:06:23 – (Saturn – Jupiter – Mercury)

Mercury is placed in the 11th house, and it is in the star of Jupiter which is placed in 10th house. So Mercury is strongly signifying 10th and 11th house. So it is connected to 11th house.

JOINT PERIOD

As Moon is in the star of Saturn at the time of judgment , running Mahadasha was of Saturn and Running Bhukti was of Mercury which as analyzed before is signifying 11th house . Saturn being lord of 10th house and 11th house is in the star of Sun which is placed in the 11th house . Hence Saturn is also signifying 11th house strongly . So both Mahadasha and Bhukti Lords are signifying 11th house.

PREDICTION

As per the analyses shown above, I told the Student that he would surely get the desired result i.e pass the examination.

By the grace of Guruji and Lord Ganesha , the Student called me in last week of April and told me about his success in examination.

Key Points in K.P. while Matching for Marriage

By: VSN. Murthy (K.P. Astrologer)

#404, Teja Gardens Appts.,

Prakashnagar, KURNOOL-4. (AP).

Mobile :- 09440220874. E-mail address :- vsnm_vdl@yahoo.co.in

While I was on shopping at Chandana Brothers, Kurnool on July 21, 2010, one of my best friends phoned and asked my opinion on matching horoscopes by giving the birth details of his daughter and a boy. By taking the birth details of both the girl and the boy, I told him to contact at 8-00 PM of the same day for obtaining my opinion. He phoned me exactly at 8-00 PM of 21-7-2010. Then I told him not to give his daughter to this particular boy. He asked me the reasons for it. Then I have explained my opinion to him as mentioned below

Boy's birth details: - 07-12-1984(Fri); 3-45 PM. (IST); Kurnool (15-50 N; 78-03 E)

Girl's birth details: - 07-06-1990(Thurs); 05-10 AM (IST); Kurnool.

(Both the natal charts are prepared by using KPAstro 3.5.)

- (1) The boy is getting a very good salary and highly educated. So he wants his daughter to marry this boy.
- (2) Traditionally there are 5 planets are in exalted signs and one planet is in its own sign. (Saturn, Mars, Moon, Rahu and Ketu are in exaltation and Jupiter is in his own sign.) Lagna is aspected by the both exalted planets (Sat & Mars) and also by Jupiter who is in its own sign. Two Pancha Maha Purusha Yogas are also seen in the boy's natal chart.
- (3) If we examine the Vadhu-Vara Gunamelana Chart, we will get 27 Gunas. Good.
(In this State, most of the astrologers follow this Vadhu-Vara Gunamelana Chart)
- (4) On July 21, 2010 the overall matching score 62.50%, above average matching, is indicated by the Shri Kuppu Ganapathi's KPDP Matching through KPAstro 3.5 developed by Dr. Rangarajan of Chennai. However, the last 10th criterion of the KPDP Matching (Whether the period lords now operating in both charts indicate desirability of matching for marriage?) is only 33.33%. After a year on July 21, 2011, the overall matching score will be 61.67% and the 10th criterion score only 25.00%. As per Shri Kanak Bosmia ji's experience of the KPDP matching in hundreds cases, marriage is not recommendable if the crucial 10th criterion score is not clearly above 50% whatever the overall average score may be high.

I am not satisfied with the above mentioned four points. My analysis is given hereunder for the benefit of the readers of the esteemed KP E-zine magazine which is edited by Sri Kanak Bosmia ji.

I have found the following minus points which are not helpful to lead a happy married life in the boy's natal chart.

(A) To find out debauchery astrologically: Saturn, Mars and Venus connected with 1st, 5th & 11th cusps, in other words, 1st, 5th & 11th cusps being ruled by Saturn, Mars & Venus. The Co-rulers of 1st, 5th & 11th cusps should be in anyway connected to Saturn, Mars & Venus. (Sri K.M. Subramaniam: Sublord Speaks- Part 1, page 53, second paragraph)

In the boy's natal chart, (1) the 1st cusp co-rulers are Mars, Venus & Jupiter as Sign lord, Star lord & Sublord respectively.

- (a) Mars is in the sign of Saturn (i.e.) in Capricorn along with Venus.
- (b) Venus is placed in Makara sign of Saturn along with Mars.
- (c) Jupiter is aspected by Saturn with his 3rd aspect. Besides that he is in the star of Venus and in the sub of Saturn. Both Venus and Saturn have exchanged their signs mutually.

(2) 5th cusp co-rulers are Sun, Ketu, and Mercury as Sign lord, Star lord, and Sublord respectively.

- (a) Sun is in Mars sign Scorpio. Mars is in Saturn sign (Capricorn). Saturn is in Venus sign Libra. Venus is in Saturn sign Capricorn.
- (b) Ketu is in Mars sign Scorpio. It is in Jupiter's star. This Jupiter is aspected by Saturn. (Saturn's indirect connection to Ketu). Ketu is in Rahu's sub. This Rahu is in the sign of Venus Taurus.
- (c) Mercury is in Ketu star and Rahu sub. (About Ketu and Rahu as explained in the above point- b) Saturn is aspecting Mercury with his 3rd aspect also.

Key Points in K.P. while Matching for Marriage

(3) 11th cusp co-rulers are Saturn, Rahu and Saturn as Sign lord, Star lord and Sublord respectively.

(a) Saturn is in Venus sign Libra.

(b) Rahu is in the sign of Venus (Taurus).

Thus all the co-rulers of 1st, 5th & 11th cusps are interlinked with each other as explained above of Saturn, Mars & Venus. Therefore it leads me to suspect the conduct and character of the boy.

(B) As per K.P., if the sub lord or the lord of the constellation in which the 7th cusp sub lord is situated in a dual sign or happens to be a dual planet, then the second marriage is promised. (KP Reader IV, page 181)

(i) The Sublord of the 7th cusp Saturn is in the constellation of Jupiter who is placed in a dual sign (Sagittarius). (ii) the sub lord of the 7th cusp is also a significator of 7th & 11th. (ii) The Sub lord of 2nd cusp Venus also signifies 7th by lordship. So it is an indication of more than one marriage to this native. That means, my friend's daughter may have to die, or to be divorced. This indicates that this boy is promised to marry another girl as his wife as per Hindu Law. So I do not like it.

(C) If the Sub lords of 7th cusp and 6th cusp are the same, this is an indication of more than one marriage. (Advanced Theory of K.P. - 4 Step Theory written by Prof. Sunil Gondhalekar ji- page 38). In the boy's natal chart, 7th & 6th cuspal sub lords are the same Saturn. This is also another indication for second marriage to this boy.

(D) In K.P. if the sub lords of the two cusps are the same then they are deemed to be connected. For example, in a horoscope if the 5th & 7th cuspal sub lords happen to be the same planet, it gives strong tendencies of a love marriage. (K.P. & Astrology Year Book 2002, page 45, by Shri T. Rajendra Kumar) As per this rule both 7th & 6th CSL is happen to be the same planet, i.e. Saturn. So both marriage and divorce are indicated.

(E) Saturn in 7th is Badhaka lord for this lagna. So he may not be able to do well with respect to the 7th house matters although in K.P. Badhaka is for health and longevity only.

(F) At present Rahu Dasa, Mercury Bhukthi is running to this boy from 18-11-2009 to 06-06-2012. Rahu+ the Dasanatha at 1 is in the constellation of Sun (8, 5). But regarding the nodes we have to follow the following rule in order of preference.

Rule: - A Node gives firstly the results of the planet or planets with which it is conjoined, secondly the results of the planet or planets aspecting it, thirdly the results of the lord of the constellation in which it is deposited and lastly the owner of the sign in which it is deposited.

As per the above rule, Rahu+ is conjoined with Moon. So he has to give the results of Moon firstly. Moon (1, 4) is in her own star and in her own sub. So through Moon, Rahu+ has to give the results of 1 and 4. These two houses are not good for leading a pleasant marital life. Moreover, Rahu is in the sub of Jupiter who signifies 9 and 12 which are also not helpful for happy married life.

Next let us see what Bhukthinatha Mercury indicates: Mercury (8, 3-6) is in the star of Ketu (7, 9-12) in the sub of Rahu. Rahu is already explained above.

By taking in to consideration of the above mentioned (A) to (F) points, I have come to a conclusion that this girl should not be married to this boy.

This case is a recent one when a native approached me on 17-07-2010 evening to ask me whether the house where he has recently shifted suits him for his safety etc.

The matter was taken up for scrutiny at 20:15:16 Hrs on 17-07-2010. I obtained horary number 202 from the native with a specific question being "Is the house safe for me?"

The Horary chart is on next page.

Co-ordinates of judgment:

In a query relating to the premises and its suitability to the native actually revolves around the 4th cusp/house. In order that the house/property is suitable in general, the 4th cusp should be favorably disposed to the lagna and linked to 11th house.

In case, if the 4th cusp links to the adverse houses from lagna, the native would get the trouble related to those adverse houses.

The Query:

Fundamentally, in any prashna, the lagna indicates the subject matter of the query, while the Moon indicates the status of mind and the matter on which the querist dwells about.

Look to the lagna Sbl-Venus, which is placed in the sub-sub of Mars (sub-sub lord taken as Star and Sub lord is same as the planet Venus itself) which is 4th lord placed in 8th house. This indicates that there is something unknown and troublesome related to the house.

Moon itself gets placed in 8H indicating a sense of choking, frustration and sense of unknown fear. Moon falls in the sub of Venus, which validates the indications as above, as seen from the lagna.

Thus, the query is taken as well indicated in the prashna chart and it was comfortable to proceed further.

Analysis :

Examine the 4th cusp.

4th cuspal sub-lord is Mars which is the 4th lord as well indicating the premises where the native has shifted. Mars is a strong planet as there is no planet in its star and its placement in 8th house would be dominantly giving the native a severe nightmare and the native would get scared to live in the premises.

Looking from the stellar angle, Mars falls in the star of 8th lord Sun placed in 6th house. Mars is in the sub of Mars placed in 8th house.

This gave a definite clue that not only the native would be scared to live in the house (8H), she would fall sick (6H) because of the scare.

Examine the 11th cusp.

11th cuspal sub-lord is Rahu which gets placed in the star of Venus placed in 7th house having its sub-lord Moon placed in 8th house.

Rahu also disposes Jupiter and Venus. Jupiter falls in the star of Saturn placed in 8th house. Other dispositor is Venus itself. As we discussed initially, Venus does not support the suitability of the premises to the native.

This confirms that there is a serious issue in the premises and the premises do not suit the native for a peaceful living.

Look to the 12th cusp

12th cuspal sub-lord is Jupiter which is 3rd and 12th lord. Jupiter falls in the star of 2nd lord Saturn placed in 8th house. Jupiter is in the sub of 5th lord Venus placed in 7th house. Jupiter being the lord of 12th house, being in the star of 2nd lord Saturn and being placed in the sub of 5th lord Venus, Jupiter is all set to cause financial loss. This was sufficient to conclude that there would be loss of finance after the native moved in the premises.

Look to Fortuna

Fortuna falls in the 10th house and falls in the Star and Sub of Saturn. Since Saturn is placed in the 8th house, the native is not expected to draw any luck from the occupied premises.

Conclusion

Looking to all logistics of analysis as above, it was concluded and told the native that it would be extremely difficult for the native to continue to live in the premises because of some unforeseen problems experienced by the native. The premises would also cause financial loss and the native is expected to fall sick consequently.

Some facts of the case:

Native indicated me the following facts of the case.

On the first night when the native slept in the premises taken on rent, the native felt that there was some invisible spirit following her, she was terrorized badly and was not able to sleep the whole night.

The native was gripped in the high fever consequent to the fear psychosis.

On pursuing with the landlord after a few days, the whole month's rent was absorbed and not returned even though the native pleaded for it. It caused a good amount to be lost from the pocket of the native.

Conclusion:

The KP principles are perfect and crystal clear, although it requires genuine efforts for understanding and applying. Prof. Krishnamurthy has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

Matter of Suspicion: Whether A & B are In Love with Each Other ?

By: Nicky Modi

This was just a suspicion and was doubted by my one of astrology mentors. A girl and a boy, who are close to my mentor and cohorts in the same firm and were already married to their own. My mentor had approached me regarding his own doubt and asked two different questions.

(1) Is the girl A in love with boy B ?

(2) Is the boy B in love with girl A ?

Horary No: 89

4/7/2010,

09:34:30,

Surat

(1) Is the girl A in love with boy B ?

Applied Rule: After assuming 1st cusp as girl's ascendant, if the 5th CSL signifies 11th house (ascendant of her aide/lover), then the girl is in love with this guy.

5th CSL Ra(5,8,12,10,3) is in star of Ve(12, l/o 10,3) and sub of Ma(1, l/o 4,9).

Here, the 11th house signification is absent.

(2) Is the boy B in love with girl A?

Applied Rule: After assuming 11th cusp as boy's ascendant, if the 3rd (5th from 11th) CSL signifies 1st cusp (ascendant of his aide/lover), then the boy is in love with the girl.

3rd CSL Ve(12, l/o 10,3) is in star of Me(11, l/o 2) and sub of Sa(2, l/o 6,7)

Here also the 1st house signification is in absence.

Conclusion

Now, that is crystal clear indication that no body is in love.

After the judgement being disclosed by me, I was told by my mentor that he had asked them individually and they both refuse such feeling.

I told (advised) them, if these two are confessing negative, there should not be given much space to the pluto-nian suspicion.

Today on TV and other print media news are regarding involvement of Gujarat Ex-Home minister Sri Amt Shah in one of so-called fallacy encounter case. Yesterday he resigned from his post. As per Gujarat CM Sri Narendra Modi's statement, Amit Shah is 'completely innocent' and all allegations against him have been 'fabricated'. I was very curious to know about what will happen to Sri Amit Shah.

To get answer of this query, I used my own rule as per KP System as below.

Arrest a person:

1) Police in horary chart is 6th Cusp; 2) Impersonator is 12th Cusp; 3) Law/Court is 9th cusp; 4) Court arrest Order is 11th (9th Court and order of court 3rd from 9 = 11th); 5) Runaway person is 7th cusp.

1) If 6th Sublord (Police) signifies 1 (self effort) , and 11(Success), police can be able to arrest a runaway person. in the DBA of 1,11.

2) If 11th Sublord (court order) signifies 6 (Victory on enemy),11 (success). during DBA of 6, 11, one can arrested by pPolice on court order.

3) If 7th Sublord signifies 5 (Gain to opponent), 10th (4th from 7th come back home) 6th (12th from 7thLost reputation.) during DBA of 5,6,10, one can be arrested by police on court order.

Horary Question: Will Amit Shah (Gujarat Ex-Home Minister) be arrested ?

Horary Number:168/249(Number taken random from KPAstro 3.5 Software)

Horary Date:24/7/2010

Horary Time: 10:48:15 AM

My analysis:

If 6th Sublord (Police) signifies 1 (self effort) , and 11(Success), pPolice can be able to arrest a runaway person. In the DBA of 1,11

6th Cuspal sub lord is Mercury.

Mercury is in 8, Lord of 7-10, No planet in the star of mercury and Mercury is Cuspal sub lord of 6,7,12. in the star of Ketu being in 7. Ketu is agent of Saturn being in 9, lord of 2-3 in the sub of Venus being in 9,Lord of 6-11.

6th Cuspal sublord signifies 11.

If 11th Sublord (court order) signifies 6 (Victory on enemy),11 (success). during DBA of 6, 11, one can be arrested by police on court order.

11th Sublord is Saturn.

Saturn is in 9, lord of 2-3 in the star of Sun in 8, Lord of 9, in the sub of Mercury being in 8, Lord of 7-10, No planet in the star of mercury and Mercury is Cuspal sub lord of 6,7,12.

Saturn signifies 6.

7th Sublord signifies 5 (Gain to opponent), 10th (4th from 7th come back home), 6th (12th from 7th Lost reputation.) during DBA of 5,6,10, one can arrested by police on court order.

7th sublord is Mercury.

Mercury is in 8, Lord of 7-10, No planet in the star of mercury and Mercury is Cuspal sub lord of 6,7,12. in the star of Ketu being in 7, Ketu is agent of Saturn being in 9, lord of 2-3 in the sub of Venus being in 9, Lord of 6-11.

7th Cuspal sublord signifies 6,10.,

Above all conditions match with the rules, so in my opinion Mr Amit Shah will be arrested on court order.

When?

Period lords are Venus -Moon-Saturn-Saturn.

Venus is in 9, lord of 6-11, in the star of Venus being in 9, lord of 6-11, in the sub of Jupiter being in 3, Lord of 1-4. No planet in the star of Jupiter and Jupiter is the cuspal sub lord of 2.

Dasa lord Venus signifies 6,11. Dasa lord is also in the Ruling Planets.

Moon is in 1, Lord of 8, in the star of Venus being in 9, lord of 6-11, in the sub of Moon being in 1, Lord of 8, Bhukti Lord Moon signifies 1,6,11 and is also in the Ruling Planets.

Saturn is in 9, lord of 2-3 in the star of Sun in 8, Lord of 9, in the sub of Mercury being in 8, Lord of 7-10, No planet in the star of Mercury and Mercury is Cuspal sub lord of 6,7,12.

Antra lord and Sookshma lord is Saturn. Saturn signifies 6,10, also in the RPs, but Sat is the day lord in RPs, so I prefer to select Saturn Antra and Mer Sookshma.

Sookshma of Mercury runs from 6 August to 20 August 2010.

Mercury is in 8, Lord of 7-10, No planet in the star of Mercury and Mercury is the cuspal sub lord of 6,7,12. in the star of Ketu being in 7, Ketu is agent of Saturn being in 9, lord of 2-3 in the sub of Venus being in 9, Lord of 6-11.

Sookshma lord Mercury signifies 6,10.

My opinion:

As per me Sri Amit Shah will be arrested during Mercury Sookshma period from 6 August to 20 August 2010.

Actual Out come:

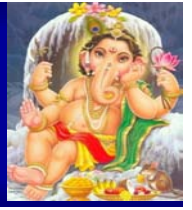

He was arrested on 26th July 2010 in Sat Sookshma, but I predict in Mer sookshma.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Question- 1

What are the cusps and planets to be seen for a girl to attain Puberty. Inspite of 15 years, a girl has not attained puberty stage. Parents are worried.

Answer- 1

1. As per Sri K.M. Subramaniam, in the article 'On Attaining Puberty', Astrology & Athrishta August 1980 (also in Astrosecrets & K.P . Part III, edited by K. Subramaniam, Krishman & Co., 2002, page 49 point 16):

A) In attaining puberty, the 5th (getting mental status and understanding full matters connected to sexual organs) cusp sub-lord should be the significator of the 5th or 8th (sex organs and their function) or both; and Mars also should be well connected to 5th or 8th in any manner since Mars represents blood in the body.

B) For fructification consider the conjoined period of the significators of 2 (getting status in the family members as an adult), 5 and 11th (fulfillment of desire) houses, together with Mars, which should have some connections in any manner.

C) Saturn is a delaying planet but not to deny, if other significations are fruitful.

2. According to Prof. B. Suryanarain Rao, in 'Strijataka or Female Horoscopy', Raman Publications, 1964, the astrological writers in Sanskrit have attached the great importance of the first menses in a girl or puberty which is called Ruthu in Sanskrit . When Chandra is not in upachayas, viz. 3,6,10 and 11 and when the Lagna is powerfully aspected by Kuja the appearance of first menses should be predicted.

Question- 2

From which house is a girlfriend seen in astrology? Is it 5th or 7th?

Answer-2

1. In fact, the lover is more accurately ascertained from the 11th house rather than from the 7th. This is so, as the 11th house stands for lasting friendship and intimacy that may end in marriage.

-KP Reader II , page 220, last para

2. boy friends/girl friends- 7th

Last year, one of my senior friends was very upset with his house which he wanted to sell. He had put up many advertisements in newspapers and even online estate agencies. Eventually, he approached me and I decided to judge with the blessings of almighty.

Rule to Sell the Property

- 1) If the 10th CSL (10th = 4th from 7 = house for purchaser) signifies 3 (12th to 4 = loss of house for the seller, expenditure of buyer for house), 5 (11th from 7 = fulfilment of buyer's desire, gain of house for the buyer), 10 (4th from 7 = house for buyer) houses, then in the DBAS of 3, 5, 10 one can sell his house.
- 2) The 11th CSL should also be scrutinized as well for fulfilment of desire.
- 3) They both (10th & 11th CSL) should not be residing in the star and sub of retrograde planets.

1st Attempt

Horary No: 63

Date: 16/9/2009

Time: 11:37:01

Place: Surat

Moon

Mo is in the star of Me and sub of Ra. Me is at 3rd (expenditure for buyer/sell of property) and owning 4th (one's immovable property or house) and 12th houses. Therefore the query is genuine.

10th CSL Ra

Ra is conjoined with retrograde Ju. Ra and Ju has their placement at 7 and Ju is ruling with 10th and 6th cusps. Ma has its special aspect on Ra. Therefore its 12th placement and 11th lordship signification would be considered.

Ra is in the star of Su and sub of Sa. Su and Sa is placed at 3rd house and Sa have the lordship of 7, 8 and 9.

So, it is OK with 10th and 3rd houses.

11th CSL Mo

Mo is in the constellation of retrograde Me and sub of Ra conjoined with retrograde Ju. Me has its placement at 3rd house and owns 12th and 4th house.

It is not OK with Mo being in retrograde constellation. It denotes denying of an event.

Dasa Lord Me

Me itself is retrograde and has its placement at 3rd house and owns 12th and 4th houses. Me is in the star of Su and sub of Ve. Su at 3rd and Ve at 2nd house with lordship of 5th house.

So Me is not OK with delaying nature by itself in retrograde motion.

Decision

I told him that there was no gesture seen to me that his house could be sold at that time.

After that verdict of mine, he was a little bit sad and had continued his attempts to sell his mansion. Again he came to me after about 25 days and asked the same question. After some denials, I made second attempt with the same.

Two Attempts, One Decision: "When Can I Sell My Mansion?"

2nd Attempt

Horary No: 110

Date: 9/10/2009

Time: 16:14:51

Place: Surat

Moon

Mo is in the constellation of Ma and sub of Ju. The Star lord Ma is at 10th (Property of opponent) and owner of 3rd (expenditure of buyer/sell of property).

The sub lord Ju is owner of 4th (one's immovable property or house) house.

So the query is genuine.

10th CSL Ra

Once again Ra is coming as 10th CSL. Ra is at 4th house and conjoined with Ju at 5th house. Ju owns 4th and 7th houses. Ra is in the star of Su and sub of Ju. Su is at ascendant and owns 12th house.

Ra is in the sub of retrograde Ju. So it is not OK.

11th CSL Ke

Ke is in the constellation of Ju and sub of Ra. Ju was placed at 5th and owned 4th and 7th houses. Ra is same as we have discussed above.

Ke is in the star of retrograde Ju.

Dasa Lord Ma

Ma is in the star of Ju and sub of Ra. Ma has made its placement at 10th and owned 3rd and 8th houses.

Decision

Please note that Ra is CSL of 4th as well and no planet is in its star and because of this retrogression once again I came to conclusion that the mansion would still remain his own.

Now almost a year has already passed and still he is not able to sell his house.

Man proposes and God disposes.

May Guruji K S Krishnamurthy bless us.

Death on the Eve of Marriage explained by KP

By: Tin Win (USA)

Email: tw853@yahoo.com

Case History

1. One of the most remarkable horoscopes that come into view under marriage and death indications is that a male, who died at the age of 35 on the eve of marriage. This horoscope is included in the "Thousand and One Notable Nativities" by Alan Leo or "A Thousand and One Notable Nativities" by Anonymous and analyzed by Sepharial in his "Astrology and Marriage" book.

2. The attached horoscope of the above native is calculated to the nearest positions of the Ascendent, Mid-heaven and planets as originally given and then converted into a KP chart by using the Placidus house system, KPNA and mean Nodes.

Longevity

3. 1st cuspal sub lord (CSL) is Ma+(6,11 Badhaka); no planet is in the stars of Ma which is CSL of 1,9 & 11 houses. Ma is in the star of Su(2,3) and sub of Mo+(2,1-2). Maraka, Badhaka and 6th signification of 1st CSL indicates short longevity up to 33 years of age.

The native had lived up to 35 years due to 1,9 signification.

Promise of Marriage

4. 7th CSL is Ra+(6) aspected by opposite Me(1,4-12) & Ju(1,6-10) and sign lord is Sa(2,7-8-9). Ra is in the star of Su(2,3) and sub of Ve+(12,5) aspected by opposite Ma+(6,11). As long as 7th CSL signifies 2,7,11, marriage is promised despite strong signification of detrimental to marriage 1,4,6,8,10,12 houses, indicating serious obstacles in getting married.

Dasa Analysis

5. Dasa lord Mo+(2,1-2) is in star of Ke(12) conj Me(1,4-12) & Ju(1,6-10), aspected by Ma+(6,11 Badhaka) and in sub of Ma+(6,11 Badhaka) opposite Ve(12,5). It signifies 2,11 houses for marriage, along with 1,4,6,10,12 houses against marriage, and death inflicting 2, 11, 12 (Maraka, Badhaka, Moksha) and 6 (disease), 4 (end of life) & 10 (retirement from this world) houses. Marriage is not possible due to strong signification of negative houses to marriage and possible death is indicated without a strong live saving signification of 1,5.

6. Bhukti lord Sa(2,7-8-9) is in star of Ke(12) conj Me(1,4-12) & Ju(1,6-10), aspected by Ma+(6,11 Badhaka) and sub of Ra+(6), sign lord Sa(2,7-8-9), no planet is in the stars of Ra, which is CSL of 3,7 houses. Saturn signifies 2,7,11 houses for marriage, along with 1,4,6,10,12 houses against marriage, and death causing 2,7,11 (Maraka, Badhaka), 4,8,12 (terminal/ trigonal houses) and also 6,10 unfavorable houses in case of death. So Bhukti lord Saturn cannot give marriage which is not allowed by Dasa lord Moon but it has to go along with Dasa lord for death.

Punarphoo and Venus-Mars Opposition

7. Punarphoo formed by closed conjunction of Moon & Saturn in Leo is supposed to be a cause of delay for marriage. When the native was to have been married at the age of 35, the running dasa period lords are Mo-Sa Dasa-Bhukti, which are generally found in the cases of Punarphoo for the event to happen. Saturn usually gives what has to give by itself in it's dasa or sub period without allowing other planets to give the result in it's place.

8. Venus, the ruler of love affairs in the 27th degree of Gemini is opposed to Mars in the 27th degree of Sagittarius. Such configuration of Venus in 12th house and Mars in 6th house may be regarded as a doubt for the marriage ever taking place.

Death on the Eve of Marriage explained by KP

By: Tin Win (USA)

Email: tw853@yahoo.com

Mode of Death

9. Mode of death indicator 8th CSL is Saturn which is in close conjunction with heart ruling planet Sun together with Moon in the heart ruling sign Leo. It indicates that heart failure is the cause of native's death during Mo-Sa Dasa-Bhukti.

Conclusion

10. After expiration of longevity, when marriage and death indicators of 2,7,11 (Badhaka) houses are denied for marriage and become solely death inflicting significators in combination of other terminal houses like 4,8,12, the dasa lords of 2,7,11 significators give death instead of marriage.

Om Gan Ganapataye Namah

As an astrologer I have come across many cases where the outcome looks completely clear and no doubts arise in mind. KP astrology is one such tool that Shri KS Krishnamurtiji has given to us to look at the future without any doubt and be prepared for it. I have earlier written two articles on promotion in job. Here again I present a new case.

Query : Promotion in job
 Horary No : 146 (1 –249)
 Date : 21-03-2010
 Time : 18:42:00
 Place : Bhopal 77E27, 23N07 (Geocentric)
 Ayanamsa : KP Original 23:54:34

HINTS

- 1 Cuspal sublord of 11th house must signify the houses 2, 6, 10 and 11 for promotion in job .
- 2 Ruling Planets must also be considered to check the strength of signifiers.

MOON & ASCENDANT SUBLORD

Before proceeding to solve the query one must check out the position of Moon and Ascendant sublord, so that the houses under consideration must be signifying the relevant houses related to the query. Moon is the cuspal sublord of the 10th house; it is placed in the 7th house, the house of opponents and competitors. It seems that the client is a bit more concerned about his opponents. Moon is in the star of Moon itself. So the query is justified as Moon is cuspal sublord of 10th house. Moon is also the Ascendant sublord .

CUSPAL ANALYSIS

2nd Cusp: Scorpio 29:29:48 – (Mars – Mercury – Saturn)

Saturn is the cuspal sublord of the 2nd house, it is placed in the 11th house which is house of fulfillment of desires . Saturn is in the star of Sun which is lord of the 10th house. Thus Saturn signifies both 10 and 11th houses very strongly and so it is favourable for promotion and increments.

6th Cusp : Aries 04:50:30 – (Mars – Ketu - Mars)

Mars is placed in the 9th house , it is in the star of Saturn , which is placed in 11th house. So Mars is signifying 11th house strongly. Hence the cuspal sublord Mars is connected to the 11th house.

10th Cusp : Leo 03:49:52 – (Sun – Ketu – Moon)

As discussed above Moon is placed in 7th house and is in the star of Moon itself. It is a weak signifier of 9th house. So it is not signifying any houses related to query.

11th Cusp : Virgo 06:0:48 – (Mercury – Sun – Mercury)

Mercury is the cuspal Sublord of the 11th house; it is placed in 5th house. It is in the star of Saturn which is placed in the 11th house. So Mercury is strongly signifying the 11th house which is house of fulfillment of desires. Hence it is favouring the concerned query.

Ruling Planets

Lagna Lord -- Mercury
 Lagna Star Lord – Moon
 Moon Sign Lord – Venus
 Moon Star -- Moon
 DayLord -- Sun

As per the Ruling planets we see the strong signifiers Mercury and Sun among them.

CONCLUSION

Looking at the strength of cuspal sublords of the concerned houses which mostly signify the houses 2,6,10 and 11 and the signifiers for the querist's success being strong and also being in RPs, I concluded that the client would surely get the promotion .

After about two months the he informed me about his promotion. I pray to Lord Ganesha and Guruji .

OM GAJAANANAM NAMAMYAHAM

This month I am going to discuss about Hernia complaints relating to Abdomen and 6 charts were taken up (Source: Dr. Bhamidipati Satyanarayana Murthy & Astrodatabank). K Raghavendra Kumar, M.Sc. B.Ed., was extended her assistance in preparing this article.

Inguinal hernia:

An inguinal hernia is a protrusion of abdominal-cavity contents through the inguinal canal. They are very common (lifetime risk 27% for men, 3% for women, and their repair is one of the most frequently performed surgical operations.

There are two types of inguinal hernia, direct and indirect, which are defined by their relationship to the inferior epigastric vessels. Direct inguinal hernias occur medial to the inferior epigastric vessels when abdominal contents herniate through the external inguinal ring. Indirect inguinal hernias occur when abdominal contents protrude through the deep inguinal ring, lateral to the inferior epigastric vessels; this may be caused by failure of embryonic closure of the processus vaginalis.

Type	Description	Relationship to inferior epigastric vessels	Covered by internal spermatic fascia?	Usual onset indirect inguinal hernia	protrudes through the inguinal ring and is ultimately the result of the failure of embryonic closure of the internal inguinal ring after the testicle	Lateral	Yes	Congenital
direct inguinal hernia	enters through a weak point in the fascia of the abdominal wall (Hesselbach triangle)	Medial	No	Adult

Inguinal hernias, in turn, belongs to groin hernias, which also includes femoral hernias. A femoral hernia is not via the inguinal canal, but via the femoral canal, which normally allows passage of the common femoral artery and vein from the pelvis to the leg.

In Amyand's hernia, the content of the hernial sac is the vermiform appendix.

In Littre's hernia, the content of the hernial sac contains a Meckel's Diverticulum.

Hernias present as bulges in the groin area that can become more prominent when coughing, straining, or standing up. They are rarely painful, and the bulge commonly disappears on lying down. The inability to "reduce", or place the bulge back into the abdomen usually means the hernia is 'incarcerated' which is a surgical emergency.

Significant pain is suggestive of strangulated bowel (an incarcerated indirect inguinal hernia).

As the hernia progresses, contents of the abdominal cavity, such as the intestines, can descend into the hernia and run the risk of being pinched within the hernia, causing an intestinal obstruction. If the blood supply of the portion of the intestine caught in the hernia is compromised, the hernia is deemed "strangulated," and gut ischemia and gangrene can result, with potentially fatal consequences. The timing of complications is not predictable. Some hernias remain static for years, others progress rapidly from the time of onset. Provided there are no serious co-existing medical problems, patients are advised to get the hernia repaired surgically at the earliest convenience after a diagnosis is made. Emergency surgery for complications such as incarceration and strangulation carry much higher risk than planned, "elective" procedures.

In men, indirect hernias follow the same route as the descending testes, which migrate from the abdomen into the scrotum during the development of the urinary and reproductive organs. The larger size of their inguinal canal, which transmitted the testicle and accommodates the structures of the spermatic cord, might be one reason why men are 25 times more likely to have an inguinal hernia than women. Although several mechanisms such as strength of the posterior wall of the inguinal canal and shutter mechanisms compensating for raised intra-abdominal pressure prevent hernia formation in normal individuals, the exact importance of each factor is still under debate.

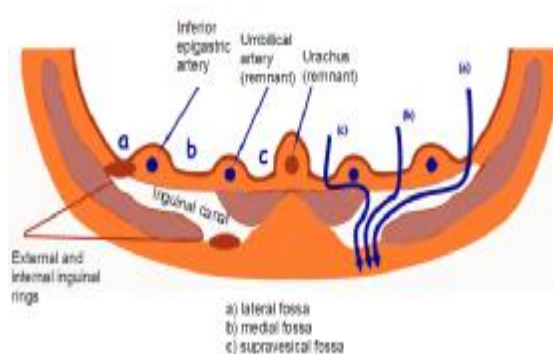

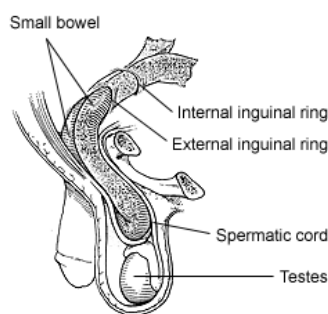

The hernia truss is intended to contain a reducible inguinal hernia within the abdomen. This device fell out of favour with the advent of hernia surgery. It is not considered to provide a cure, and if the pads are hard and intrude into the hernia aperture they may cause scarring and enlargement of the aperture. In addition, most trusses with older designs are not able effectively to contain the hernia at all times, because their pads do not remain permanently in contact with the hernia. The more modern variety of truss (medicine) is made with non-intrusive flat pads and comes with a guarantee to hold the hernia securely during all activities. Although there is as yet no proof that such devices can prevent an inguinal hernia from progressing, they have been described by users as providing greater confidence and comfort when carrying out physically demanding tasks. Their popularity is likely to increase, as many individuals with small, painless hernias are now delaying hernia surgery due to recently published reports on the incidence of Post Herniorrhaphy Pain Syndrome.

Surgical correction of inguinal hernias, called a herniorrhaphy or hernioplasty, is now often performed as outpatient surgery. There are various surgical strategies which may be considered in the planning of inguinal hernia repair. These include the consideration of mesh use, type of open repair, use of laparoscopy, type of anesthesia, appropriateness of bilateral repair, etc. During surgery conducted under local anaesthesia, the patient will be asked to cough and strain during the procedure to help in demonstrating that the repair is "tension free" and sound.

Images:

Inguinal Hernia

Symptoms:

Early symptoms can include nausea, vomiting - sometimes bile stained (green color), pulling legs to the chest area, and intermittent moderate to severe cramping abdominal pain. Pain is intermittent not because the intussusception temporarily resolves, but because the intussuscepted bowel segment transiently stops contracting. Later signs include rectal bleeding, often with 'red currant jelly' stool (stool mixed with blood).

and mucus), and lethargy. Physical examination may reveal a 'sausage-shaped' mass felt upon palpation of the abdomen.

In children or those too young to communicate their symptoms verbally, they may cry, draw their knees up to their chest or experience dyspnea (difficult or painful breathing) with paroxysms of pain.

Fever is not a symptom of intussusception. However, intussusception can cause a loop of bowel to become necrotic. This leads to perforation and sepsis, which causes fever.

This case is a recent one when one of my relative's son came home as guest who had to appear for the selection process interview at Service Selection Board for army.

Out of sudden curiosity, I wanted to find out if the native would be selected in the said interview process. I took horary number 13 myself and rotated the chart to 11th house for the guest in question. The matter was taken up for scrutiny at 10:59:13 Hrs on 04-08-2010 at Bangalore.

The rotated horary chart is as follows:

Co-ordinates of judgment:

In a query relating to the interview and the results thereof, the 3rd and 9th houses get most pertinent. The 3rd house indicates the performance from the native and 9th house indicates what is asked for from the interview panel. If these houses signify the 11th house, the native gets successful in the interview process.

The Query:

Fundamentally, in any prashna, the lagna indicates the subject matter of the query, while the Moon indicates the status of mind and the matter on which the querist dwells about.

Look to the lagna Sbl-Rahu, which is placed in the star of 9th lord Venus placed in 7th house, weak rasi sign for Venus. This was exactly in consonance to my worries, as the interview process at Service Selection board is normally tough. This indicated that there is something to worry. Moon itself gets placed in 3H indicating a scene of interview to be faced.

Thus, the query is well indicated in the prashna chart and it was comfortable to proceed further.

Analysis :

Examine the 3rd cusp.

3rd cuspal sub-lord is Mars which is a strong planet as there is no planet in its star. Note that 10th lord Mars gets placed in 7th house close to the 8th cusp, making the scene of professional success a difficult game.

At the stellar level, Mars falls in the star of Sun placed in 6th house which seemed OK but is in the sub of weak Venus in 7th house. In this situation, the ball was in the court of the examining party, though the native was destined to try his best.

Examine the 9th cusp.

9th cuspal sub-lord is Venus which is the strong 9th lord showing that the examining party was strong. Venus falls in the star of Sun placed in 6th house which again seemed OK but the sub of Saturn in which Venus was placed was the strong 12th lord placed in 7th house. This did point out the fact that there could be a situation for the native to suffer loss (rejection – 12th house) by the examining party and was a matter of worry.

Look to Fortuna

Fortuna falls in the 7th house, in the star of Venus and sub of Saturn. As observed in the analysis of the query, Venus and Saturn do not support the success.

Examine the 10th cusp

10th cusp indicates the job in question for which the interview is attempted. 10th cuspal sub-lord is Jupiter which is retro in motion, thus the job was understood to be non-available.

At the stellar level, it is noticed that Jupiter falls in Saturn's star which does not promote success because of Saturn lording the 12th house strongly. Venus, sub-lord of Jupiter, is weak by rasi position and placed in 7th house causing further damage and solely leaving the discretion in the hands of the examining party as the Jupiter is the sub-lord of the 7th cusp as well.

Examine the 11th cusp.

11th cuspal sub-lord is Mercury which is the strong lord of the 8th house. Mercury falls in the star and sub of Venus placed in 7th house by weak rasi position. Consider the sub-sub lord of Mercury as Saturn which is a strong lord of the 12th house, thereby denying success.

Note that the 7th house is the examining party and all along, in this chart, 7th house had a pronounced effect. Notice that 7th cuspal sub-lord has the Jupiter as its sub-lord, which is against giving success by being lord of 12th house and affects the native because of its placement in lagna itself. Thus, the examining party was expected not to behave well with the native.

Conclusion

Looking to all logistics of analysis as above, it was concluded that the native won't be finally selected and it would be a frustrating experience to the native though he may fare decently.

Some facts of the case:

Native was not selected and was rejected in the last round and sent back home.

The KP principles are infallible and crystal clear, although, it requires genuine efforts for understanding and applying. Prof. Krishnamurthy has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

Astrologer Kanak Bosmia was born in small town of Saurashtra (Gujarat - India) - Amreli on 25th Feb 1961. He had completed His study up to 12th at Bhavnagar. In 1977 he came to Ahmedabad and started his own business. In 1979 his interest towards astrology started during his business visit of various cities of India, he did also referred many books of astrology and met many learned astrologers all over India.

He joined school of astrology and was honored by Jyotish Visharad, Jyotish Ratna, Jyotishaacharya, Jyotish Visharad . In the year 1996 he started astrology as a main profession; from 1999 he adopted totally KP Astrology and got mastery in Krishnamurthy Paddhati (KP).

Election example: 1

Australia federal election August 21, 2010.

Opinion polls in Australia indicate the August 21 federal election will be a tight contest. The governing Labor party has asked voters to trust its economic expertise, while the conservative opposition argues the electorate must not be misled by a spendthrift government.

I am interested to know "will the governing Labor party win this election?"

Horary details:

Horary Question: will the governing Labor party win this election?

Horary No: 38/249

Horary date: 18/8/2010

Horary Time: 19:05:20

Horary Place: Kankariya- Ahmedabad 23 N 00, 72 E 36

Who will win election?

If 10th (One's position in politics) sublord signifies, 10 (One's Reputation), 3 (One's ability), 11 (One's reputation as a Winner) in the DBA of 3, 10, 11, one can win election.

My analysis:

10th CSL is Jupiter, Jupiter is in the star of Saturn and sub of Venus.

Jupiter is in 10, lord of 8-11, No planet in the star of Jupiter and Jupiter is CSL of 10. in the star of Saturn in 4, lord of 9-10, in the sub of Venus 5, lord of 1-6.

10th CSL Jupiter signifies 10,11. So chance of winning is there.

For opponent:

10th CSL is Jupiter, Jupiter is in the star of Saturn and sub of Venus.

Jupiter is in 4, lord of 2-5, no planet in the star of Jupiter and Jupiter is CSL of 4. in the star of Saturn is in 10, lord of 3-4, in the sub of Venus is in 11, lord of 7-12.

10th CSL Jupiter signifies 3,10,11.

After looking from both sides, we have found that chance of winning is indicated for both sides. Let us see what is stored in DBAS.

Dasa checking on 21 August 2010:

Period lords are Me-Mo-Ve-Sa

Mercury is in 4, lord of 2-5, in the star of Venus in 5, lord of 1-6, in the sub of Mercury being in 4, lord of 2-5. Dasalord does not signifies 3,10,11 at all, so not need to check Bhukti etc.

For opponent:

Period lords are Me-Mo-Ve-Sa

Mercury is in 10, lord of 8-11, in the star of Venus is in 11, lord of 7-12, in the sub of Mercury being in 10, lord of 8-11.

Dasalord Mercury signifies 10,11.

Moon is in 12, lord of 9, in the star of Mercury being in 10, lord of 8-11, in the sub of Moon being in 12, lord of 9.

Bhukti lord signifies 10,11.

Venus is in 11, lord of 7-12, in the star of Moon being in 12, lord of 9, in the sub of Saturn in 10, 3-4.
Antra lord Venus signifies 3,10,11.

Saturn is in 10, lord of 3-4, in the star of Sun in 9, lord of 10, in the sub of Venus in 11, lord of 7-12.
Sookshma lord Saturn signifies 3,10,11.

My opinion:

After checking both's 10th CSL we have found that both are strong, but in Dasa checking we have found that Labor party's dasa lord does not signify 3,10,11 at all but opponent's all DBAS signify 3,10,11. So I have come to conclusion that Labor party will not win this election.

Before publishing this article result will be out.

Election example: 2

Tuvalu election on 16 September 2010

Expect intense family rivalry in the Tuvalu election between a cabinet minister and his Prime Minister on the road to the September 16 elections. Both Prime Minister Apisai Ielemia and Communications Minister Taukelina Finikaso are standing in the Vaitupu constituency. Minister Finikaso, ISLANDS BUSINESS was told, had lodged a complaint against Ielemia with the Tuvalu Police. It is alleged that Ielemia had distributed registration forms in their constituency before the registration date. The Tuvalu police are investigating the case. Finikaso is also a close relative of Ielemia. The nature of Tuvalu's politics also tends to be fought on a more personal basis involving family ties and clans. Vaitupu constituency, is the largest in Tuvalu, which has 1200 voters, making the level of indoor lobbying quite intense. Without party politics, Tuvalu's campaign trail takes potential candidates straight into the homes of their small constituencies to seek votes. It's every man for himself during elections and Government is formed by those who actually make it into parliament. Expect some close-kept secrets to come out in the open as the battle lines have been drawn quite thinly in this contest. Already some of these secrets are making their way into the public domain. Ielemia declined an interview when he arrived in Suva for the Engaging Pacific Communities talks last month. Finikaso also declined to speak about the issue with the Prime Minister, but said he would tell his constituents about the government's struggle to keep its economy afloat during the global economic cash crisis. While it may not be obvious that tensions are running high between the families, sources on the island say Finikaso stands a good chance of winning his seat.

Who will win election?

If 10th (One's position in politics) sublord signifies, 10 (One's Reputation), 3 (One's ability), 11 (One's reputation as a Winner) in the DBA of 3, 10, 11, one can win election.

My analysis:

10th CSL is Moon, in the star of Mercury and sub of Mars.

Moon is in 7, lord of 3, in the star of Mercury in 4, lord of 2-5, in the sub of Mars in 5, lord of 7-12.

Moon signifies 3.

Sookshma lord Mars signifies 10 = OK.

My opinion:

Both look strong. But if we check it carefully, we have found that 10th CSL of Swedish Social Democratic Party signifies 3,10 and for opponent 10th CSL of signifies only 10.

Also DBAS for Swedish Social Democratic Party signifies 3,10,11 but for opponent its looks weak.

So in my opinion Swedish Social Democratic Party will win this election.

Guinea presidential elections pit Diallo against Condé in round two

The Supreme Court in Guinea gave the go-ahead for the second round of presidential elections late Tuesday night at a press conference. The landmark elections, seen as Guinea's first free election since its independence from France in 1958, will see former Prime Minister Cellou Dalein Diallo battle it out against his main opponent Alpha Condé. The court's ruling confirmed the provisional results of the 27 June first round of voting, which had been challenged by several of the eliminated candidates who had alleged fraud. No date was given for the run-off which was first due on 18 July but postponed following the fraud allegations. The court's final version of the first-round results credited Diallo with 43.69 per cent of the vote and Conde 18.25 per cent. Sidya Toure, a former prime minister, came in third with 13.62 per cent. His supporters were adamant that ballot-box stuffing in favour of Condé had robbed him of second place. On Wednesday, Barack Obama congratulated the people of Guinea following the first round of "historic" elections. In a written statement the US president urged all parties to "continue to choose the rule of law and peaceful political participation over ethnic division and violence. They can continue to count on the support of the United States as they move forward."

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Guinean_presidential_election,_2010

A presidential election was held in Guinea on 27 June, with a second round to be held on 19 September (delayed from 18 July 2010). This election is Guinea's first general multi-party presidential election since independence from France. It followed months of tension and unrest after a coup and an attempted assassination of the junta leader.

Antra lord Moon signifies 3,11.

Rahi in 7, in the star of Venus in 4, lord of 1-5-6, in the sub of Venus in 4, lord of 1-5-6.
Rahu is agent of Mars in 4 lord of 4,11,12.
Sookshma lord Rahu signifies 11.

My opinion:

Both candidates' 10th CSL is strong, but in dasa analysis we have found that for Cellou Dalein Diallo 10,11 are signified at all dasa levels but for opponent 3,11 are signified, so in my opinion Cellou Dalein Diallo will win this election.

Election example: 5

Parliamentary elections will be held in Latvia on 2 October 2010.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Latvian_parliamentary_election,_2010

After surviving a vote of no confidence in early February, PM Ivars Godmanis resigned on 20 February 2009 after the two largest parties (People's Party and the Union of Greens and Farmers) called for his dismissal. It is likely that an interim government will be formed, followed by emergency elections. President Zatlers stated on 23 February 2009 that early elections might be necessary. On 31 March 2009, Zatlers announced he would not dissolve parliament. The Saeima was to consider constitutional amendments as early as 9 April 2009. In the run-up to the election, three right-wing parties (New Era Party, Civic Union and Society for Other Politics) established an alliance called Unity on 6 March 2010. Furthermore, most of the parties constituting the Harmony Centre alliance (National Harmony Party, New Centre and Social Democratic Party – but not the Socialist Party of Latvia and the Daugavpils City Party) had merged into the Social Democratic Party "Harmony" on 10 February 2010. On 22 April 2010, the People's Party and the Latvia's First Party/Latvian Way formed an electoral alliance called For a Good Latvia. So far, there are five major electoral alliances running:

Unity: comprising the New Era Party, Civic Union and Society for Other Politics

Harmony Centre: formed by the Social Democratic Party "Harmony", Socialist Party of Latvia and the Daugavpils City Party

For a Good Latvia: of the People's Party, Latvia's First Party/Latvian Way and For a Good Latvia

Union of Greens and Farmers: consisting of the Latvian Farmers' Union and the Green Party of Latvia

National Alliance: of For Fatherland and Freedom/LNNK and All For Latvia

According to a poll[citation needed] conducted in June by Latvijas fakti, Harmony Centre would get 18.5% of the vote; Unity, 16.2%; Union of Greens and Farmers, 11.3%; For a Good Latvia, 5.3% and National Alliance, 4.4%.

I will check chance for Harmony Centre because this party got more percentage in poll.

10th CSL is Jupiter. Jupiter in the star of Saturn and sub of Venus.

Jupiter in 9, lord of 7-10, No planet in the star of Jupiter and Jupiter is CSL of 5, 10, 11. in the star of Saturn in 3, lord of 8-9, in the sub of Venus in 4, lord of 5-12.

Both's 10th CSL looks OK, but DBAS for Harmony Centre only 3rd is signified and for opponent all 3,10,11 are signified. So I prefer to predict defeat of Harmony Centre. even though Harmony Centre is top in poll. Time will tell us whether astrology is right or poll!!!.

Rahu in 11, Ra is agent of Mars in 9, lord of 4-11 in the star of Venus in 9, lord of 5-10, in the sub of Venus. Bhukti-Antra lord signifies 11,10.

Mercury in 8, lord of 6-9, No planet in the star of Mercury and Mercury is CSL of 4. in the star of Venus in 9, lord of 5-10, in the sub of Mercury.
Sookshma lord Mercury signifies 10.

My opinion:

Both candidates' 10th CSL signifies positive bhavas, but for Ivo Josipovic's 10th CSL signifies all 3,10,11 and dasa lords also signifies 3,10,11. For opponent dasa lords signify only 10,11. So in my opinion Ivo Josipovic will win this election.

Presidential election in Cote d'Ivoire on 31 October 2010

<http://www.afriquejet.com/news/africa-news/cote-d'ivoire-holds-presidential-election-31-oct-2010080654034.html>

Presidential election Cote d'Ivoire - Cote d'Ivoire will hold the much-awaited presidential election 31 Oct, Prime Minister Guillaume Soro announced Thursday. The date was chosen following the recommendation of the Independent Electoral Commission (CEI). On Wednesday, the CEI published a statement indicating the month of October 'as a favorable period' for to the organization of the presidential election. The election, which was due in 2005 when the tenure of President Laurent Gbagbo expired, has been postponed several times. It is widely expected that the election will help consolidate the restoration of peace to the West African nation, which was rocked by a political crisis in Sept 2002 that almost led to the break-up of the country.

Soro, as Prime Minister, is barred from standing as a candidate by the peace agreement. Describing himself as an "arbiter of the electoral process", Soro said in a March 2008 interview with Jeune Afrique that the New Forces would not back any candidate and its members could vote for whomever they wished. Rumors have suggested that Soro and Gbagbo have secretly agreed on an arrangement whereby Soro would support Gbagbo and, in exchange, Gbagbo would back Soro in the subsequent presidential election; Soro derided these rumors as "gossip".

Survey: Rousseff Headed for First-Round Victory in Brazil Elections

BRASILIA – The candidate of the governing Workers' party, Dilma Rousseff, has increased her advantage over opposition hopeful Jose Serra by 17 percentage points and is poised to win October's presidential election in Brazil in the first round of voting, according to a survey released Saturday. The poll taken by the Datafolha company indicates that Rousseff, who has the support of popular outgoing President Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva, has a voter preference of 47 percent compared with 30 percent for Serra, presidential candidate of the center-right Brazilian Social Democracy Party. In a poll taken by the same firm last month, the governing-party candidate had 41 percent and Serra had 33 percent of voter preference. The survey released Saturday shows that taking only valid voters into account, which means excluding those who say they would leave their ballots blank, Rousseff would get 54 percent, with the result that next Oct. 3 she would become the first woman to be elected president of Brazil.

Rahu in 12, Ra is agent of Mars in 9, lord of 4-11, in the star of Ve(9, 5-10), in the sub of Ve(9, 5-10).
Sookshma lord Saturn signifies 10,11.

For opponent:

When 10th CSL does not signifies 3,10,11 at all so no need to check DBAS for opponent.

My opinion:

For Dilma Rousseff 10th CSL Jupiter signifies 3,10 and for opponent 10th CSL does not signifies 3,10,11 at all
So in my opinion Dilma Rousseff will win this election very easily.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

By: Tin Win (USA)

Email: tw853@yahoo.com

Question- 1:

Rule: - If the 7th cuspal sub lord (CSL) is a significator of 2, 7 or 11, then only the marriage is promised to the native.

As per this rule, for a Girl's chart (born on 23 July 1980, 10:55 PM IST, 17N27, 78E30, Asc. Pi 20:45:36, KPNA 23:29:44, by KPAstro 3.5) the 7th cuspal sub lord Venus (in 3, lord of 3 & 8) is in the star of Mars (in 6, lord of 2 & 9) and in the sub of Jupiter (in 6, lord of 1 & 10). Star wise, 2nd is indicated as a significator; hence the marriage is promised to this native. OK.

Nevertheless the sub lord of the 7th CSL Jupiter is not at all signifying 2, 7 or 11. In K.P. star lord of a planet indicates the matter only and the sub lord is the deciding factor. So, the marriage may not be promised to this native. Could you give your opinion.

Answer-1:

As long as 2,7 or 11 house is signified at any level of planet or star or sub of the 7th CSL, marriage is found to be promised in many charts regardless of no positive signification of 2,7 or 11 or negative signification of 1,6 or 10 in the sub level.

But promise is not a guarantee for marriage, which can be materialized only during the DBAS of 2,7,11 fruitful significators. In judging the signification of dasa lords for marriage, the positive or negative signification in the sub level of dasa lord planet should be taken into consideration very cautiously. For instance, the current running Dasa for the girl is Venus (29 Apr 2004 to 29 Apr 2024). Dasa lord Ve(3,3-8) is in the star of Ma(6,2-9) and sub of Ju(6,1-10). Hence Venus Dasa would not be capable to give marriage by mere signification of 2 in the star level because of sub level signification of 1,6,10, which are detrimental or 12th to 2,7,11.

Question-2:

Generally speaking, connection of Sun with the Punarphoo causing planets (Saturn and Moon) results in cancellation of Punarphoo. Precisely speaking, cancellation takes place due to following conditions: -

Sat or Moon or both in association with Sun in one sign (could involve even two houses);

Sat or Moon in the star of Sun; Or Sun is in the star of either Moon or Saturn;

Sun is in a star, lord of which is near either Moon or Saturn;

Any planet near the Moon or Saturn, but is posited in the star of Sun;

Sat or Moon is in the sub-sub of Sun.

Does cancellation take place in my horoscope or not? Will this harm in future?

My details:- D.O.B---21/08/1975, TIME---01:45AM, PLACE—BALLIA (U.P)

Answer-2:

As any of the above mentioned Dr. Kar's Punarphoo cancellation conditions is not fulfilled, the cancellation of Punarphoo (formed by opposition of Saturn in Cancer & Moon in Capricorn) does not take place in your horoscope.

Dr. Kar's cancellation theory is to destroy the evil effects of Punarphoo by burning Sat or Moon by Sun's ray (combustion). But in KP Reader VI it is said that the planets in combustion do not fail to give their results. So Punarphoo cancellation theory appears not working in many cases.

Saturn-Moon connection is only part of the equation which can give very different results depending on their significations and relation with other planets. This connection is not benefic or malefic by itself and inferring the conclusion other than 'delay effect' by just relying on the mere Saturn-Moon connection would be baseless. Such conclusions are not yet proven by systematic approach or research and so it is not to worry about Punarphoo.

There are plenty of spiritual leaders with Punarphoo like Sri Krishna, Sri Gautama Buddha, Sri Jesus Christ, Prophet Mahamud, Pope John Paul II, Swami Vivekananda, Sri Yogananda, political leaders such as Napoleon Bonaparte, Queen Victoria, Abraham Lincoln, Franklin Delamo Roosevelt, Dwight D Eisenhower, Jimmy Carter, Indira Gandhi, Rajiv Gandhi, astrologers like Michael De Nostradamus, Dr. BV Raman, K. Subramaniam, Sandy Crowther, Visti Larsen, successful celebrities such as Elvis Presley, Marilyn Monroe, Raj Kapoor, Sophia Loren, Angelina Jolie and others like Karl Max, Jiddu Krishnamurti, Sir Jagdish Ch. Bose, R.P. Goenka.

Conclusion

6. Generally all life events under study, except one event, are found verifiable by the dasa analysis of Four Step Method, and so the Obama's official birth time 7:24 PM appears reliable for study of his horoscope.

A Case Study of Polar Region Chart

By: Tin Win (USA)

Email: tw853@yahoo.com

Introduction

1. The earliest manifestation of debate on Polar region charts occurs in Alan Leo's Thousand and One Notable Nativities, first published in the early years of the 20th century (page 33 regarding remarkable chart no. 909, same in A thousand and One Notable Nativities by Anonymous). Discussion concerned the chart of Marie Ahnighito Peary, daughter of the well-known Polar explorer Robert Edwin Peary. She was probably the first child of white parents born within Arctic Circle, and known world-wide as "Snow Baby". For her birth details of 6:45 p.m., 12 Sept 1893, Lat. 77.44N, Long. 76W, according to Regiomontanus house system the order of the houses is reversed compared to the usual order, e.g. in Sayana (Tropical) 1st house begins with its cusp at Pi 26 ¼ and covers the zodiac to Aq 26 at which point 2nd house has its cusp. As per Campanus house system, it is also in reverse way assuming that the cusps of 12,11,10,9,8 must be above horizon; Cusp 10th = Cn 3 ¼, 11th = Ge 26 ¾, 12th = Ge 14, 1st = Pi 26 ¼, 2nd = Cp 21, 3rd = Cp 9 ½. But H.S. Green and other astrologers around him could not agree and would call the cusps as given those of 4,3,,2,1,12,11 instead of 10,11,12,1,2,3 as given by these house systems. "A symposium of astrologers" had been then invited by Alan Leo to settle the matter but its conclusions were not to hand at the time when his book went to press.

2. According to Michael Wackford's study (see reference no. 6), any agreement was ever achieved seems unlikely since both sides are correct according to their own point of view. While the trigonometry of Campanus or Regiomontanus demands that the northerly degree be presented as an MC, astronomical principle suggests the southerly, even though this degree is below the horizon.

3. The nature of Polar region charts, the problems faced by houses systems and proposals for improvement can be studied in the given references. This article is only a case study of Marie's chart how different house systems and KP rules work for her life events.

Marie's Basic Chart

4. Marie Peary, 12 September 1893, 18:45 p.m. LMT, 4:34:12 (4.57) West of GMT, Anniversary Lodge, South shore of Bowdoin Bay (McCommick Bay), Inglefield Gulf, Greenland, 77 N 40, 68 W 30, Asc. Pi 03:56:02, KPNA 22:16:59, Mars Dasa balance 3y, 4m, 6d, by KPAstro 3.5

5. Source note is as follows: The house where Marie was born served as headquarter for Peary's 1893-1895 Polar Expedition. Peary named the house "Anniversary Lodge" because he and Josephine had spent their first wedding anniversary at this location, which was given by Peary at 77.40' N Latitude, for instance in 'Robert Edwin Peary: Northward over the great ice: a narrative of life and work along ..., Volume 2, page 206, F.A. Stokes Company, 1898'. According to the map of Peary's Polar Expeditions in 'Katherine Kirkpatric: Snow baby: The Arctic childhood of Admiral Robert E. Peary's daring daughter, Holiday House, 2007, page v', the nearest longitude position of "Anniversary Lodge" is 68 W 30. Marie's Chart by Different House Systems

6. The Marie's chart by different house systems of Campanus, Regiomontanus, Topocentric which provide the reverse order of houses and Alcabitus, Equal, Koch, Placidus, Propyry which give the usual order of houses are attached. Since the chart by Koch, Placidus and Propyry are exactly the same, only the Placidus chart is attached.

Findings

11. Most of Marie's life events are found verifiable by KP rules whether the chart is calculated by the house system giving the reverse order of houses or the usual order of houses. The reverse order of houses provides a little better fit in some events like serial number 10,11 and 29 in the above table 4.

A Case Study of Polar Region Chart

12. The bottom line is that KP rules can be generally applicable under any circumstances even for a Polar region chart, which needs to study the following references.

In 2005 in one of KP System group I predicted that Sri Narendra Modi would become PM of India before 2010.

http://groups.yahoo.com/group/k_p_system/message/5908

"AS PER CHART 10TH SUB IS SUN AND SIGNIFIES ONLY 10TH CUSP.SO IN MY OPINION HE WILL BE A PM OF INDIA BEFORE 2010."

Birth Details:

Name: Narendra Damodardas Modi

Birth date: 17/9/1950

Birth time: 12:21:30 PM (Rectified by me)

Nowadays, Narendrabhai is facing trouble from other political parties. I remember my prediction given in 2005, now I am going to discuss his chart with my New Rule.

Who can win election?

If 10th (One's position in politics) sublord signifies, 10 (One's reputation), 3 (One's ability), 11 (One's reputation as a Winner) in the DBA of 3, 10, 11, one can win an election.

10th CSL is Sun.

Sun is in 10, lord of 10, in the star of Sun in 10, lord of 10, in the sub of Rah which is in 4. Ra is agent of Jup in 3, lord of 2-5.

10th CSL Sun signifies 3,10. So 10th CSL promises to win election.

Running Dasa is also Sun.

We've discussed above about Sun.

Next Dasa is Moon: from 15/8/2010 to 15/8/2020.

Moon is in 12, lord of 9, no planet in the star of Moon and Moon is CSL of 9. in the star of Sat in 10, lord of 3-4, in the sub of Ven in 9, lord of 7-12.

Moon signifies 3,10. So this Dasa is also good for him and there is a very Good Chance to become PM of India.

This Moon Dasa also signifies 9 (Badhaka), 7 (Maraka), 12 (Moksha). So at the same time this period is not good for health wise. There is a chance of assassination, but I don't want to discuss this subject now. In future some time I will discuss this subject.

Ajay-Kajol: The Stars Have a Son: The Essential Life-Span of the Baby

Q. How is baby's health for now?

A. 1st CSL Mo signifies 6 (disease) along with 1 (self existence), 10 (12th from 11th –badhaka) and 5 (vitality). The 6th CSL Ve signifies 1st of native-the baby himself. For about three years, Ju will play the role of the running Dasa lord. Here Ju is lord of 6 (disease) and posited at the favourable house of 5 (immunity). However, Ju's sublord Me once again negates the health cause by being placed at 11 (badhaka) and lord of 12 (hospitalization). As we know, the sublord is the deciding factor.

Consequently, after assessing these three (1st CSL, 6th CSL & Dasa lord) aspects, the conclusion is that the baby would remain in poor health and any serious health related problem may rise to the baby.

Q. What about his longevity?

A. 1st CSL Mo signifies favourable 1, 5 and 10 (12th to 11-badhaka) to be healthy along with unfavourable 6, 2 (maraka), 7 (maraka). Note that all the nine planets signify either 6 or 8 or 12 or maraka-badhaka.

So, medium longevity up to 66 years of age would be there for the baby.

Q. How would be his education?

A. Nowadays children are starting their nursery educations at their age of about 2 1/2 to 3 years. Surprisingly, Ju dasa will come to an end at his age of 3 and then Sa dasa will start. For magnificent education, 4th CSL and relevant dasa lords should signify either 4 or 9 or 11. Here 4th CSL Me is good for education by signification of 3, 4, 11 along with 5, 12 (not good for serious study). The Dasa lord signifies 4 along with 5, 12 and absence of 11 (fulfilment of studying desire), indicating average (not so brilliant) education.

Consequently, the student would be average at his school plot and after school he can pass out with a Bachelor degree.

Q. Would he do further higher study?

A. 9th CSL Mo does not signify either 4 or 9 or 11, as discussed at the beginning of this article.

So, further higher study is not found astrologically

Q. Being star-son, would he go to film industry or somewhere else?

A. If the question is for art or films, the 5th cusp must be judged for its influence. The word "pleasurable pursuits" is well said by sages for 5th cusp. If the native's 1st & 10th CSLs and the relevant dasa periods should have the signification of 5th cusp. We have discussed above 1st CSL Su, 10th CSL Me and also relevant dasa lord Me at age of 22-39 years signify 5, 11.

Yes, the native may go to film industry.

Q. How would be his pre-marriage and married life?

A. Here his 5th CSL Ra does not signify 7 or 11 and so the native can't expect pleasurable love-life. Surprisingly, Ra is also 7th CSL but it has Ve & Ke in its star and cannot be a strong significator of 7. Now for married life once again we have to scrutinize Ra. Readers may note that Ra is not at all connected with 2, 7 or 11 for marriage. But it is not proper to conclude that marriage is not promised as Ra's star and sub lord Ve is closely conjoined with Ma, lord of 2, 7.

As per thorough judgement, the native may not have enjoyable pre-marriage and married life.

Q. What would be his success magnitude?

A. First of all, assessment of 1st cusp by Ascendant lord and 1st CSL should be scrutinized.

1. The Ascendant lord Ve has placed at 1st and its star lord Ra at 3rd bhava, so it is good.
2. 1st CSL Mo has a good magnitude of desirable signification of houses 2, 5, 6, 10 without 8.
3. Here neither 1st cusp signifies 11th (fulfilment of desire) nor 11th cusp signifies 1st.

Consequently, the chart has average status of success magnitude.

The native was born with the Ju dasa and we have already assessed it in respect of health. After Ju, Sa dasa concludes with the end of education, subsequently Me dasa will be excellent for enormous wealth and success with the signification of 5 (skill of art), 11 and absence of 8 (failure, disappointment) at all the planet, stellar and sub levels. After Me dasa, the next coming Ke, Ve and Su dasa periods are with the presence of undesirable 8 signification along with the auspicious 5, 6, 11 signification. So these 3 dasa periods would not give easy life to the native. Readers may note that the Me, Ke, Ve, Su dasa lords do not have signification of 10 for acquiring an apex position and publicity.

The dasa lords also confirm that success magnitude would be at the average level.

Different perspective

I am seeing some different fate to this native. With under mentioned significant reasons, in my consideration this chart is well-natured to be a spiritual person or Sannyasi.

1. 1st CSL Mo signifies 3 (mental trend, ability, forsake home forever away from home), 5 (poorva punya, spiritual transformation on initiation), 10 (Parlok Sadhna, Karmasthana, regular practice of spirituality) & 12 (directed towards Moksha or salvation, renunciation, service to others). (from 'KP House Grouping' in KPE-zine by Tin Win).
2. Sa's 3rd aspect on Mo is for deep concentration and conviction to the one.
3. All the dasa lords signify either 3, 10, 12 along with 5 & 9 (tapas, karmic influence, divine worship, higher knowledge), especially Dasa period (age of 22-46) lords Me and Ke signify 11 (siddhi, attainment in spiritual mind) in addition to 3,5,9,12.
4. Not much enjoyable pre-marriage and married life is found.
Sa (karaka for spirituality) is placed at 12 (moksha) and it is aspecting with its 10th aspect to Ke (another karaka for moksha).

A Study of Twenty Throat Cancer Charts

Introduction

1. This article is an attempt to find the astrological indicators of throat cancer, which was diagnosed only at the 4th stage even in the case of the Hollywood super star Michael Douglas. Also it is to try to find the clue why doctors were unable to see the reality of his health and the cause of his discomfort.

Theoretical Rulership of Throat Cancer

2. The nature of cancer is uncontrolled growth of cells. Such a process is connected to Jupiter, the planet of accelerated cell growth and tumor formation. Moreover Saturn is a planet for obstruction and malignant type of disease like cancer. Rahu is the planet responsible for malignant tumor or growth. Mars can trigger changes in the evolvement of the disease. Since cancer involves the mutation of cells that happen in an underground fashion, the Planet Pluto and the sign Scorpio may be prominent in the cancer chart. A cancer that commenced with a Mars connection may be cured, but one starting with a Saturn connection is more serious, and one commencing with a Pluto connection is likely to be fatal.

3. Sign Taurus governorship and planet Venus rulership of the throat are undisputed. But house rulership of the throat is taken 2nd or 3rd of different views. As per theory of relationship between sign and house meanings, it seems always to have existed in anatomical matters, such that the 1st house and Aries both relate to the head, the 2nd house and Taurus to the throat and so on.

4. The ruling or responsible signs, planets and houses for throat cancer should be studied whether they are connected with houses 6 (disease), 8 (serious disease, surgery) and 12 (hospitalization). The disease finder 6th cuspal sublord connection to these signs, planets and houses would play a crucial role. Also the sign lord and star lord of 6th cuspal sublord may be checked in addition to the 6th cuspal sublord, its star lord and sub lord.

5. Moreover the influence of Maraka (2,7), Badhaka (11 for movable, 9 for fixed and 7 for common sign Asc.) and Moksha (12) would be studied, since cancer is frequently a fatal disease. An additional indicators may be connection to trigonal or terminal houses of 4,8,12 or detrimental houses to cure or untreatable 12,4,10 (12th to 1,5,11). House 10 is also retirement from this world.

6. There are, of course, other things to be studied on case by case basis since something as varied as cancer is hard to pin down in the horoscope, because it strikes very differently in people's charts.

Findings

10. Connection to houses 6,8,12 or terminal 4,8,12 or untreatable 12,4,10 and death inflicting Maraka, Badhaka and Moksha houses has been found:

for Taurus in 18 charts (90%), except charts 10 & 17;
for 2nd house in all 20 charts (100%) without exception;
for 3rd house in 15 charts (75%), except charts 1,3,12,14 & 19;
for Venus, Jupiter and 6th cuspal sublord more or less almost all 20 charts (100%).

11 Connection to any of Ta sign, 2nd & 3rd houses, planet Venus, Jupiter and 6th cuspal sublord has been found:

for Saturn in 19 charts (95%), except chart 9;
for Mars in 19 charts (95%), except chart 14;
for Jupiter in 17 charts (85%), except chart 6,10 & 20;
for Venus in 14 charts (70%), except chart 4,5,8,10,11 & 20;
for Rahu in 12 charts (60%), except chart 2,4,5,6,11,12,15 & 17;
for Pluto in 6 charts (30%) only by occupation and opposition in chart 5,7,9,13,14 & 19;
for Neptune in 3 charts (15%) only by occupation in chart 2,5 & 7.

12. DBA lords, their star lords and sub lords have been found connected to:

Saturn & Venus in 15 charts (75%);
Rahu in 14 charts (70%);
Jupiter in 13 charts (65%);
Mars in 4 charts (20%) only.
death inflicting Maraka, Badhaka and Moksha houses in 15 (88%) out of 17 death cases, except chart 8 & 9 without signifying Badhaka.

Michael Douglas's Case

13. His case is chart no. 6 and his current running Jupiter Dasa, Saturn Bhukti (19 Apr 2009 to 31 Oct 2011) may be critical because of the following reasons:

Bhukti lord Saturn indicates death inflicting houses as shown in his chart no. 6 in the table 2 and mentioned in item 5 above;

As a positive indication of Dasa lord Jupiter, it does not basically signify Maraka, Badhaka houses. But Jupiter is closely conjoined with Mercury and closely aspected by Saturn, both of which signifying death inflicting houses;

Moreover 1st cuspal sublord is also Saturn, indicating average longevity of up to 66 years of age, which had been recently reached;

His wife Catherine Zeta-Jones (Asc. Sc 29:38:30, KPNA 23:20:40) is running Venus Dasa and Bhukti (18 Nov 2009 to 17 Mar 2013), signifying houses 2,4,8,10,11 possibly related to inheritance.

Introduction

1. This article is an attempt to find the astrological indicators of throat cancer, which was diagnosed only at the 4th stage even in the case of the Hollywood super star Michael Douglas. Also it is to try to find the clue why doctors were unable to see the reality of his health and the cause of his discomfort.

Theoretical Rulership of Throat Cancer

2. The nature of cancer is uncontrolled growth of cells. Such a process is connected to Jupiter, the planet of accelerated cell growth and tumor formation. Moreover Saturn is a planet for obstruction and malignant type of disease like cancer. Rahu is the planet responsible for malignant tumor or growth. Mars can trigger changes in the evolvement of the disease. Since cancer involves the mutation of cells that happen in an underground fashion, the Planet Pluto and the sign Scorpio may be prominent in the cancer chart. A cancer that commenced with a Mars connection may be cured, but one starting with a Saturn connection is more serious, and one commencing with a Pluto connection is likely to be fatal.

3. Sign Taurus governorship and planet Venus rulership of the throat are undisputed. But house rulership of the throat is taken 2nd or 3rd of different views. As per theory of relationship between sign and house meanings, it seems always to have existed in anatomical matters, such that the 1st house and Aries both relate to the head, the 2nd house and Taurus to the throat and so on.

4. The ruling or responsible signs, planets and houses for throat cancer should be studied whether they are connected with houses 6 (disease), 8 (serious disease, surgery) and 12 (hospitalization). The disease finder 6th cuspal sublord connection to these signs, planets and houses would play a crucial role. Also the sign lord and star lord of 6th cuspal sublord may be checked in addition to the 6th cuspal sublord, its star lord and sub lord.

5. Moreover the influence of Maraka (2,7), Badhaka (11 for movable, 9 for fixed and 7 for common sign Asc.) and Moksha (12) would be studied, since cancer is frequently a fatal disease. An additional indicators may be connection to trigonal or terminal houses of 4,8,12 or detrimental houses to cure or untreatable 12,4,10 (12th to 1,5,11). House 10 is also retirement from this world.

6. There are, of course, other things to be studied on case by case basis since something as varied as cancer is hard to pin down in the horoscope, because it strikes very differently in people's charts.

Charts and Source

7. The throat cancer charts under study and source of them are furnished as under.

A Study of Twenty Throat Cancer Charts

By: Tin Win (USA)

Email: tw853@yahoo.com

Note: Significator of order E by conjunction. & aspect is not included.

Findings

10. Connection to houses 6,8,12 or terminal 4,8,12 or untreatable 12,4,10 and death inflicting Maraka, Badhaka and Moksha houses has been found:

- 1) for Taurus in 18 charts (90%), except charts 10 & 17;
- 2) for 2nd house in all 20 charts (100%) without exception;
- 3) for 3rd house in 15 charts (75%), except charts 1,3,12,14 & 19;
- 4) for Venus, Jupiter and 6th cuspal sublord more or less almost all 20 charts (100%).

11 Connection to any of Ta sign, 2nd & 3rd houses, planet Venus, Jupiter and 6th cuspal sublord has been found:

- 1) for Saturn in 19 charts (95%), except chart 9;
- 2) for Mars in 19 charts (95%), except chart 14;
- 3) for Jupiter in 17 charts (85%), except chart 6,10 & 20;
- 4) for Venus in 14 charts (70%), except chart 4,5,8,10,11 & 20;
- 5) for Rahu in 12 charts (60%), except chart 2,4,5,6,11,12,15 & 17;
- 6) for Pluto in 6 charts (30%) only by occupation and opposition in chart 5,7,9,13,14 & 19;
- 7) for Neptune in 3 charts (15%) only by occupation in chart 2,5 & 7.

12. DBA lords, their star lords and sub lords have been found connected to:

- 1) Saturn & Venus in 15 charts (75%);
- 2) Rahu in 14 charts (70%);
- 3) Jupiter in 13 charts (65%);
- 4) Mars in 4 charts (20%) only.
- 5) death inflicting Maraka, Badhaka and Moksha houses in 15 (88%) out of 17 death cases, except chart 8 & 9 without signifying Badhaka.

Michael Douglas's Case

13. His case is chart no. 6 and his current running Jupiter Dasa, Saturn Bhukti (19 Apr 2009 to 31 Oct 2011) may be critical because of the following reasons:

- 1) Bhukti lord Saturn indicates death inflicting houses as shown in his chart no. 6 in the table 2 and mentioned in item 5 above;
- 2) As a positive indication of Dasa lord Jupiter, it does not basically signify Maraka, Badhaka houses. But Jupiter is closely conjoined with Mercury and closely aspected by Saturn, both of which signifying death inflicting houses;
- 3) Moreover 1st cuspal sublord is also Saturn, indicating average longevity of up to 66 years of age, which had been recently reached;
- 4) His wife Catherine Zeta-Jones (Asc. Sc 29:38:30, KPNA 23:20:40) is running Venus Dasa and Bhukti (18 Nov 2009 to 17 Mar 2013), signifying houses 2,4,8,10,11 possibly related to inheritance.
http://www.astro.com/astro-databank/Zeta-Jones%2C Catherine
- 5) Here one interesting thing is that her Venus is in house 8 as per Placidus house system. It will move to house 9 according to Equal and Koch house systems and then the result will be different because inheritance house 8 is Maraka house 2 for her husband and 9 is house 3 for him. Let us wait and see which house system is working for her correctly.

14. Anyway we wish the native success in his strongly determined fight against the disease.

A boy of Panchkula (Haryana), who has recently completed his MBA from a reputed institute after passing B.Tech. , got campus selection in Noida (New Delhi) for foreign country with a good package under the condition that he will serve MNC for at least 2 years and before joining it he will have to execute a 2 year bond with MNC.

His parents were divided in sending him abroad and filling of bond. The boy along with his parents approached me to check astrologically whether he will go abroad on job basis or he will do job in India. I asked the boy directly to give me a number between 1 to 249. Accordingly he gave me number 11. I made the horary calculation on date 16-06-2010 at 6:28pm at Chandigarh.

At the time of query Moon was in the 4th house, lord 4 & 5 houses. Moon was in the star of Mercury in house 2, lord of 3 & 6, and its sub lord Rahu was in 9. Rahu was aspected by Jupiter lord of 12. So the question relates to the foreign going and prospect of job in abroad or India and I proceeded further to solve the problem.

As per Horary Astrology 6th Reader page 300 by Sh. K.S. Krishnamurti:

Going to foreign country implies that one has to leave the present permanent place, shown by 3rd house (12th to 4th), make a long journey, indicated by 9th house, and stay for a short time or settling down in foreign, denoted by 12th house of new environment and surroundings.

For foreign going it is to check 12th cusp sub lord whether it is retrograde or deposited in a constellation whose lord is retrograde, if either is retrograde, one cannot go abroad in horary analysis. If the sub lord and lord of constellation in which the sub lord is situated are in direct motion and if the 12th cusp sub lord is also a significator of either 3rd or 9th or 12th house, one can go abroad.

Here is the case where 12th cusp sub lord is Saturn, significator of 6 by occupation and 10,11 by lordship and in star lord of Sun, significator of 2 by occupation, In addition Saturn is in his own sub Saturn to be strong in giving his signification.

Here in this case 12th cusp sub lord, its star lord and sub lord are not a significator of either 3 or 9 or 12 for foreign going. So I told him frankly that he would not proceed to foreign country as if then.

Further I checked whether he would get a job in India. Here 6th sub lord is also Saturn and as discussed above Saturn signifies 2,6,10,11, all houses required to get a job. I therefore told him that he would get a job in India. Further to check is whether his desire will be fulfilled on the basis of 11th cusp sub lord as under:

11th cusp sub lord is also Saturn, signifying 2,6,10,11, as discussed above. So I told him that there might be some delay in fulfillment of his desire of getting job due to the delaying nature of Saturn, although he certainly would get a job.

So Mars, Mercury & Moon are the ruling planets. As getting job was likely to be delayed due to Saturn, a delaying planet, he was likely to get a job in next 1-2 months. So I decided to move the position of Sun.

On date 16-06-2010 Sun was in Gemini(Mithun) and on date 16-07-2010 it was entering into Cancer sign. As the Cancer lord is Moon and Moon is in RPs, it was conformed that he would get a job during 16th July to 16th August 2010 as Sun generally remains in Cancer sign every year during that period. To further calculate the exact date I checked the position of all 3 nakshatras of Cancer sign as under:

Punarvasu (Jupiter)
Pusha (Saturn)
Ashlesha (Mercury)

As Punarvasu (Jupiter) and Pusha (Saturn) are not in RPs, I discarded both of them and I selected ashlesha nakshatra (Mercury). So I told him that he would get a job on date 10th August 2010 when Sun fell in ashlesha nakshatra (of Mercury) in Cancer sign.

Actual facts of the Case:

The boy was supposed to take flight to foreign country as all his papers were kept ready by the employer (MNC). But he did not proceed to foreign country due to family reason and it was further informed that he got a job in India on 10 August 2010 and joined the same.

It is specially noted that the boy who asked the query in ashlesha nakshatra on 16-06-2010 in Cancer sign got a job again in ashlesha nakshatra on 10-08-2010 in Cancer sign. It further verifies the famous saying of Sh. Krishnamurti that ruling planets at the time of fructification of event are the same as at the time of question asked. My Pranam to Sh. Krishnamurti for this wonderful Krishnamurti Padhdhati which is very accurate and also sincere thanks to Sh. Is it the possibility of war in the future for Iran?

One of our KPEzine readers Sri Husain ji asks me a question about his country: "Is there possibility of war in the future for Iran?" and also he gives me number 63. Other horary details in this article are given below.

Horary Details:

Question: Is it the possibility of war in the future for Iran?

Horary No: 63

Date: 18/9/2010

Time: 13.37.45

Place: L.G.Hospital- Ahmedabad (23 N 00, 72 E 36)

To check war from horary chart I was trying to fix some rules but that rule fails badly, and this time I have used my modified rule for war.

Rule-1

Is there any war? When?

If 3rd (relations with neighboring country) CSL signifies 4th (concern of national security), 9th (foreign relation), 7th (International disputes), there will be a war during DBAS of 4,9,7.

Rule-2

Who will win in War?

If 10th (national reputation) CSL signifies 4 (outcome of anything), 10 (national reputation, the end of war), 2 (enemy's death), one will win in war.

3rd CSL is Sat.

Sa(3, 7-8-9) is in the star of Mo(7, 1-2), and in the sub of Ra(6), Ra is agent of Ju(9, 10).
Sat signifies 7,9, indicating war.

Period lords are Su-Me-Ra-Ve.

Su(3, 3), in the star of Su(3, 3), in the sub of Ju+(9, 10).

Dasa lord Sun signifies 9 = OK, is also in RP.

Sun Dasa end at 9/5/2012 but Sat is in Moon star, which forms Punarphoo, and so I will select next dasa.

Next dasa is Moon but Moon is not in RP. So we have to go for next dasa Mars and Mars dasa will start from 2022, after 12 years. So in my opinion we don't need to check more details, and let me predict there is possibility of war but not now in near future.

Question:

Which Time Zone, IST or LMT, is to be used in calculation of India Independence Chart, Aug 15, 1947, 0:0:0 AM, 77E14', 28N40' (Delhi)?

Answer:

1. As far as my reading and web search go, only IST of August 15, 1947, 00:00:00 AM, Delhi has been used in astrological circles of both Western and Indian, as shown in the references at the end of this answer.
2. The rationale is that the already introduced IST since Jan 1st 1906 was operating at Delhi at the time of India Independence.
http://www.newworldencyclopedia.org/entry/Indian_Standard_Time
3. Any LMT used chart has not been come across, except the one proposed by someone in a letter to an astrological magazine, saying that Mr. Kanak Bosmia had used the 'wrong' IST time of the Indian Independence chart in his article of 'Railway Accidents in India' (KPE-zine Jan 2009).
4. For India Independence data, Aug 15, 1947, 00:00:00 AM, 77E14', 28N40' (Delhi):
 - 1) as per commonly used 00:00:00 AM (IST: 5:30 East), Ascendant is Taurus 7:52:25 (KP New Ayanamsa 23:02:08) and Saturn Dasa balance at birth is 17Y,11M,12D;
 - 2) as per not found using in astrological circles 00:00:00 AM (LMT: 5:08:56 East), Ascendant is Taurus 13:32:54 (KP New Ayanamsa 23:02:08) and Saturn Dasa balance at birth is 17Y,7M,19D. (In the above mentioned proposed chart Ascendant is Taurus 13:27:34 due to Geocentric latitude adjustment.)
 - 3) As the time difference of 21m:4s between IST and LMT is significant, the first chart as per IST, second chart as per LMT and third chart as proposed using LMT and Geocentric latitude adjustment are attached to see the differences in the sub lords and dasa periods.
5. In the following references, the IST based chart is indicated by Ascendant Gemini of around 00:54 min in the Western tropical (sayana) charts and Ascendant Taurus of around 8 deg in the Indian charts.

One person approached me on 23-5-2010 when I was on tour to Delhi and was staying in Gurgaon. He was searching a shop on rent for starting a business.

He had put up a simple question, When will I get a shop for starting my business? I prepared a time chart at 19:26:37 Hrs on 23-05-2010 at Gurgaon.

The time chart for the query is as follows:

Co-ordinates of judgment:

In a query relating for obtaining the shop or premises, the 10th house is important, as the 10th house is the 4th house (property) of the opponent (7th house). In case, the native is to obtain the premises on rent from the opponent, the 4th cuspal sub-lord must signify the 10th house (premises), 12th house (expenses on security and rent) and 11th house (for realization of the ambition).

On the other hand, the opponent (7th house) gets the money (2-6th house) yet retaining the premises in his name (4th house).

The Query:

Fundamentally, in any prashna, the lagna indicates the subject matter of the query, while the Moon indicates the status of mind and the matter on which the querist dwells about.

Look to the lagna SbL-Rahu, which is placed in the star of 7th lord Venus located in 7th house, indicating the subject matter of business in view. Look to the Moon which is placed in the 10th house, pointing to the profession.

Thus, the query is well indicated in the prashna chart and it was comfortable to proceed further.

Analysis

Examine the 10th cusp.

10th cuspal sub-lord is Saturn which is the lord of 3rd house and 4th house and represents the shop to rent. Retro Saturn shows a stubborn, unrelenting old man as the owner of the shop. Saturn falls in the star of Sun as 10th lord placed in 6th house. This shows the owner owning the shop (also 4th house from 7th) who may be renting it out for the financial gains (6th house). Saturn being in its own sub placed in 10th house affirms the availability of the property for native's work.

Note that Saturn has the sub-lordship of 3rd and 4th cusps also, thus directly linking these cusps. The signification of Saturn for 3-4-6-10 houses affirms the high availability of the shop.

Since the 4th sub-lord is also Saturn, the shop to be obtained was to be old one without cleaning and even not with a white wash.

Examine the 11th cusp.

11th cuspal sub-lord is Mars which is the strong lord of the lagna placed in 9th house indicating that the native could prevail upon the shop owner for better negotiation.

At the stellar level, Mars falls in the star of 11th lord Mercury placed in 5th house. The sub lord of Mars is Saturn signifying 6-10-3-4th houses. This shows that getting a prospective shop was a good possibility.

Look to Fortuna

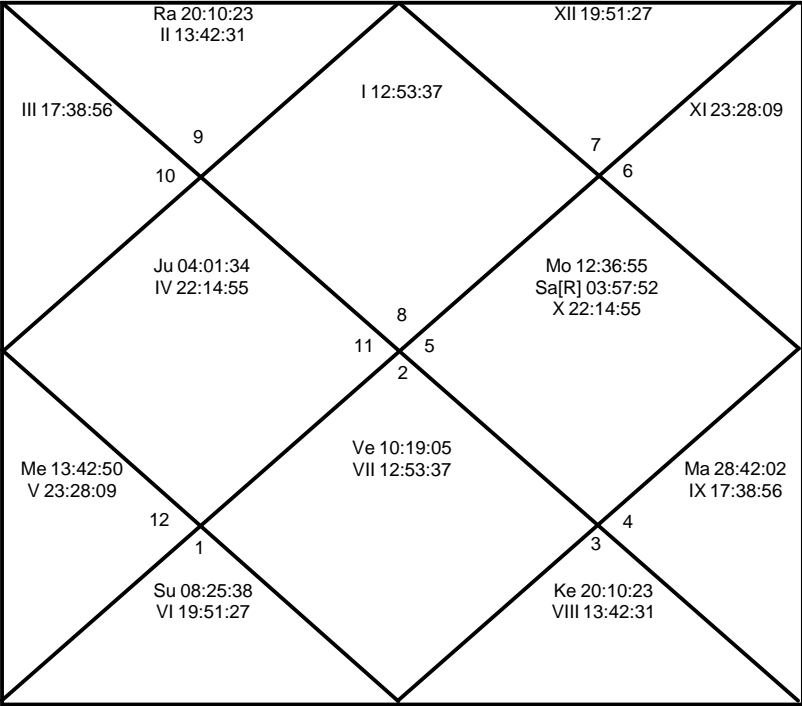

Fortuna falls in the 4th house which indicates the subject matter of the acquisition of shop/premises. Fortuna falls in the star and sub of lord Mercury, lord of 8th and 11th, thereby confirming to get the shop and also indicating the expenses to be done to the benefit of the shop owner.

Conclusion

Looking to all logistics of analysis as above, it was concluded that the native would get the shop quickly (11th sub-lord Mars being a fast moving planet) and he may have to spend a lot to maintain it.

Some facts of the case:

Native had seen the shop on Friday 28-May-2010, negotiated on Saturday 29-05-2010 and agreed to take it for usage.

The shop was earlier used by a restaurant and was yet not vacated. The walls were oil clad and the native had to take a lot of pain to clean it with heavy expenses before putting it to use. Whatever share of work was on the side of the owner was denied and the native had to spend further to complete the job at hand.

The KP principles are always reliable and crystal clear, although it requires genuine efforts for understanding and applying. Prof. Krishnamurthy has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

Astrologer Kanak Bosmia was born in small town of Saurashtra (Gujarat - India) - Amreli on 25th Feb 1961. He had completed His study up to 12th at Bhavnagar. In 1977 he came to Ahmedabad and started his own business. In 1979 his interest towards astrology started during his business visit of various cities of India, he did also referred many books of astrology and met many learned astrologers all over India.

He joined school of astrology and was honored by Jyotish Visharad, Jyotish Ratna, Jyotishaacharya, Jyotish Visharad. In the year 1996 he started astrology as a main profession; from 1999 he adopted totally KP Astrology and got mastery in Krishnamurthy Paddhati (KP).

Dear Kanak,

I read the article and went through all the Charts.

As usual, a nice & excellent work done by you.

Please accept my congratulation!!

I will check some more similar cases when I find free time and let you know my results.

To check for the Formation of Pakistan from India which Chart should be used ?; Definitely Indian Independence Day chart can't be used.

May be the Chart for the beginning of India under British Rule; but is there any definite date & time for it?

What do you suggest?

I hope you will write an article on "War between Countries" soon!

Kind regards

Case Background

Sara, the 15 year old of Avetrana, Taranto (Italy), disappeared on 25 August 2010 and her usual trick of to be back after 20 days to become famous was already excluded. The 20 days have passed and there was no trace of the girl. This is so because she always told her mother that she would go away and come back after 20 days. Friends asked me to predict whether Sara Scazzi was coming back home.

Prediction

I took a number of 9 myself and did not rotate the chart because the question was asked with a deep urge (Kanak Bosmia in KPE-zine) and started looking at the following chart.

Question : Is Sara Scazzi alive and will return to home?

KP horary no : 9 (of 249)

Date & Time : 23-09-2010; 23:42:50 DST (02:00 East of UT)

Place Name : Rome; Regione Lazio; Italy

Latitude : 041:54 N

Longitude : 012:29 E

First I checked her longevity by the Asc. sub lord signification; for long life the combination is 1,5,9,10,(3-8) houses, for medium life 1,5,9,10,6,8,12, and for short life 2,7,Bdk,6,8,12. Looking to the sub lord of Asc Mercury, it was found to be the significator of 2-7(maraka), 11 (bhadhaka), 4 (end of everything), 10 (retirement from this world) and 12(exit from this world). The longevity is so bad that I also checked the 3rd and 8th sub lord for confidence, the 3rd cusp sub lord is Venus (2,7,10,12) and 8th sub lord is Mars (7,11,6,8,10,12), which confirm me that her longevity is very short. Signification is taken by occupation and lordship at planet, star and sub level, and for the planets not having any planets in their stars the cusps for which they are CSL are also considered.

House grouping of return of missing person is that sub lord of 1st and 11th should signify 2,8,11. The sub lord of 1st and 11th cusps is mercury (1,2,3,4,5,7,9,10,11,12) and there is the signification of 2,11 but as discuss above her longevity is really bad and short. Moreover, the 8th cusp sub lord Mars (violent end) signifies Mrk,Bdk,8,12 , and 12th cusp sub lord Saturn also signifies Mrk,Bdk,6,8,12. The DBA period she disappeared was Sa, Ma, Sa (25 August 2010) and dasa period lords Sa and Ma are deadly as discussed above.

I therefore predict that she was not coming back and maybe murdered and not alive?

On date 07/10/2010 the uncle of Sara Scazzi confessed and was arrested for her murder and the body was buried in the countryside.

How Much Sunrise Time Definition Matters in KP ?

By: Tin Win (USA)

Email: tw853@yahoo.com

Introduction

1. As suggested by an elderly KP astrologer, sunrise times used in the KP supported astrological softwares and the computer generated Ascendant have been reviewed in this article for information of the KPE-zine readers.

Different Views

2. Generally four different views or formulas have been found in calculating sunrise and sunset times by computer softwares as furnished below, in order of earlier time to later time, based on the sunrise and sunset times on January 1, 2010, 10:00 am IST, 5:30 East of UT, for Chennai, India, 13N04, 80E17:

1. when Sun's upper tip/disc/limb/edge/ray is visible on the eastern horizon, taking the atmospheric conditions into account (This is default setting of KPAstro 3.5 and 3rd option of JHora 7.4 referring "The tip of Sun's disk appears to be on the eastern horizon"). under "Sunrise and sunset definition" options;
Sunrise 6:31:14 am, Sunset 5:53:24 pm
2. when Sun's disc center is considered (This is an option of KPAstro 3.5, namely "Consider Disc Center" under "Rising/Settting Options" and 4th option of JHora 7.4 referring "The center of Sun's disk appears to be on the eastern horizon").;
Sunrise 6:32:27 am, Sunset 5:52:11 pm
3. when Sun's upper tip is visible ignoring refraction (This is an option of KPAstro 3.5 mentioning "Ignore Refraction" and 2nd option of JHora 7.4 referring "The tip of Sun's disk is truly on the eastern horizon").;
Sunrise 6:33:38 am, Sunset 5:51:01 pm
4. when the Sun is half-risen on the horizon at so-called visibility of lower tip (This is the default setting and 1st option of JHora 7.4 "The center of Sun's disk is truly on the eastern horizon").
1. Sunrise 6:34:51 am, Sunset 5:49:48 pm

Difference in Sunrise and Sunset Times

3. The difference in sunrise and sunset times given by the most commonly used 1st view of earliest time and 4th view of latest time is from 2m:47s to 3m:37s i.e. around 3 to 3 ½ minutes as shown in the following table.

Difference between Latest and Earliest Sunrise Times on Different Dates of 2010

(difference in 5th row = 4th row minus 1st row)

Note: Calculation by KPAstro 3.5 and JHora 4.0

First View

4. Out of eleven KP-supporting softwares under review, five softwares KPAstro 3.5, JDeepika, MyKundli, Astraura and Smart Horary appear automatically providing the sunrise and/sunset times by default setting of upper tip time. Astraura gives 'both' upper and lower ray times of sunrise and sunset.

5. Mr. Sanjay Rath said that he traditionally follows Sage Varaha Mihira's first visibility of tip of the Sun's disc taking into account the semi diameter of the Sun and the refraction etc of the atmospheric conditions.

6. Moreover, in his opinion, if the sunrise is defined as as the center of the solar disc (sight of the semi disc), then Sage Parashara would have simply said 3 ghatikas before sunrise in the definition of Sandhya: "3 Ghatikas before the sight of the semi disc (half) of the rising Sun and a similar duration following the Sun set are called as morning twilight and evening twilight respectively." (BPHS Ch. 9 text 14; also Ch. 46, texts 44-49)

7. It is also found Sage Varaha Mihira saying in the definition of Twinlight Hours: "That period which precedes the moment when the Sun is just half risen and that which succeeds the moment when the Sun has just half set, during which the stars invisible is known as Sandhyakala or twilight period." (Brihat Samhita Ch, 30 text 1)

8. In line with the view in the point 5, the upper tip sunrise time is found used in the ephemeris of Jyotish Digest magazine, eg. sunrise time for Puri, 19n46, 85e51, on January 1, 2004 was 6:21:05 am and sunset time 5:17:51 pm.

9, In the Lahiri's Indian Ephemeris, the sunrise and sunset times (upper limb) for many cities in India are provided, eg. on January 1, 2009 sunrise time 5:42 am and sunset time 6:32 pm for Chennai; sunrise time 5:53 am and sunset time 7:14 pm for Ahmedabad. For each city LMT correction time is furnished to obtain the times of sunset and sunrise in LMT. There is also a foot note saying to apply correction of +3.5 min for sunrise and -3.5 min for sunset to obtain the times of sunrise and sunset for the center of the Sun.

10. In the Mahabala's (KP) Advance Ephemeris's, the table values of "Local Mean Time of Sunrise for Northern Latitudes" e.g. Table II on page iv for 1991 to 2000, almost the same of the table values of "Local Mean Time of Sunrise and Sunset" from the Lahiri's Ephemeris e.g. page 102 for 2009 where the timings relate to the visibility of the upper limb of the Sun on the horizon, and as such include refraction and limb-correction amounting to a total of 3 ½ minutes.

11. In the Raphael's Ephemeris, the given sunrise time (LMT) for London and a series of latitude are found as the 'upper' tip times, e.g. on January 3, 2010 for London sunrise time is 8:06 LMT (GMT).

12. The following sunrise and sunset calculators are found using the 'upper' tip time.

Second View

13. Out of eleven KP-supporting softwares under review, two softwares Astro 4.0 and Astrolcal-1 seem providing the 'disc center' time.

14. Mr. R. Santhanam is also found using such 'disc center' time of sunrise and sunset in his book Essentials of Predictive Hindu Astrology (Light on Gulika), e.g. page 19, Case No. 5- Male born On 2-12-1950, at 5 pm, in Delhi, sunrise 6:58 1m, sunset 5:24 pm.

Third View

15. Out of eleven KP-supporting softwares under review, one software Astro-Kundli and the panchang below are likely providing the 'upper' tip sunrise time 'ignoring refraction'.

Fourth View

16. Out of eleven softwares under review, three softwares KPStarOne, JHora 7.4 and Astraaura seem providing the 'lower tip' sunrise and sunset times by default setting. Astraaura gives 'both' upper and lower tip times of sunrise and sunset. True Astrology software is supposed to prefer the 4th sunrise definition, referring to the center of the Sun's disc and Lahiris Ephemeris (True Astrology, Basic & Traditional Concepts by SP Khullar, 2004, page 53).

17. Late Mr. Raichur's KP software is found not supporting calculation of sunrise and sunset time. It shows no serious requirement of sunrise time calculation in KP analysis.

18. Mr. P.V.R. Narasimha Rao has been found satisfied with shifting his preference of sunrise time calculation from-- the 1st view of the 'upper' tip time-- to the 4th view of the 'lower' tip time, based on his studies, as the first view is not well-defined in his opinion. (from Vedic Astrology: An Integrated Approach, first published in 2000, page 48, 5. Special Lagnas, 5.5 Comments- 3 to Kaala Dasa and Chakra Dasa, Nov 1, 2009, Four Parts of the Day, second paragraph) http://www.vedicastrologer.org/articles/vedic_astro_textbook.pdf

http://www.vedicastrologer.org/articles/kc_dasas.pdf

19 Accordingly the preference in his JHora software had been changed from - - the previously used 'Apparent rise - upper limb' - - to the current 'The tip of Sun's disk appears to be on the eastern horizon'. In addition to the previous three options of 1st, 3rd and 4th views, 2nd option is found also included, making them altogether four options.

20. A Vedic astrologer said about the possibility of the sight of the semi-disc of the rising Sun, quoted in the definition of Sandhya in the point to be the sunrise time.

20. In A Manual of Hindu Astrology (correct casting of horoscopes) by Dr. BV Raman Ch. V , page 62, it is explained that the sunrise time is the time when the Sun first appears on the eastern horizon but there is an interval of a few minutes between the time of first ray appearance and the time when the Sun is just clear off the horizon. The time when the center of the solar disc rises on the eastern horizon has been acknowledged as the sunrise time.

21. Sunrise time calculation by Hindu method and modern method using the tangent sunrise equation based on the 'center' of the Sun is described with an example in the above book pp 67-68 & 70-71.

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Sunrise>

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Sunrise_equation

22. Accordingly in the Astrological Magazine, the lower tip sunrise and sunset times for 'Bangalore' are found published, e.g. on Jan 1, 2005 sunrise time is 6:45 am and sunset time 6:01 pm (IST).

23. The following panchangs and links are found using the lower tip sunrise and sunset times.

Other Views

24. Mr. Visti Larsen said that he uses the 'upper' limb of Sun for sunrise and 'lower' limb for sunset, as day begins at first light and night begins after last light.

25. One can check which sunrise definition is applied in the software one used by calculating the above example for Chennai and comparing the result with four kinds of sunrise and sunset times furnished in the point 2.

Impact of Sunrise Time Definition on Calculation of Ascendant

26. The sunrise time has nothing to do with the Ascendant calculation by current softwares or modern manual calculation method as the sunrise time is not used in this process. The Ascendant remains exactly the same, e.g. Aquarius 10:23:56 (KPNA 23:54:23) by KPAstro 3.5 for January 1, 2010, 10:00 am IST, 5:30 East of UT, Chennai, India, 13N04, 80E17, irrespective of using any sunrise time definition (1 to 4 or any other).

http://www.trans4mind.com/personal_development/astrology/Calculations/calcAsc.htm

http://www.chrismitchell.bristolastrology.net/ascendant_calculation.html

27. Only in the Hindu traditional method of Ascendant calculation where the sunrise time is used, the Ascendant changes depending on the sunrise time used.

<http://www.vedicastro.com/astrology6.asp>

<http://www.astrojyoti.com/LagnaCalculationBasics.htm>

Casting a Horoscope, Practical Vedic Astrology by G.S. Agarwal pp 1-3

Other Impacts of Sunrise Times Definition

28. Different sunrise definition has impact on calculation of Vedic parameters of special lagnas like Bhava, Hora, Ghati, Vighati and upagrahas like Gulika, Mandi, Kaala, Mrityu, Arthaprahaara, Yamaghantaka, and Rahu Kalam etc, which are related with sunrise and sunset times.

29. When birth time is stated in ghatikas and vighatikas after sunrise (or sunset as the case may be) in a locality, sunrise definition impacts conversion to hours and minutes.

30. In the marginal cases, the Hindu day lord, from sunrise to sunrise, can change.

Conclusion

31. The sunrise time definition does not impact the computer software generating Ascendant and it can be found practically by switching the sunrise time definitions or options.

32. In the rare marginal cases, the sunrise time definition can change the Hindu day lord, which is used in the KP ruling planets and the KPDP matching calculation.

33. There is only a single reference to Gulika in the KP literature, i.e. KP Reader III page 215 (Original Edition Practical Part page 58) (same in original Krishnamurti Padhdhati Vol. 2 of 1965 Sagar Publications page 109), although approximate Gulikakalam, Rahukalam and Yamagandam are shown in KP ephemeris.

34. The bottom line is not to worry ourselves with the so-called delicate correct time of sunrise since the difference of around 3 to 3 ½ minutes is not a big deal with compared to the accuracy of birth time and different values of ayanamsas. One can use whichever sunrise definition he or she prefers.

Short details:

BCCI lodges complaint against Lalit Modi

Chennai, Oct 13 : The Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) Wednesday lodged a complaint with the city police against former Indian Premier League (IPL) commissioner Lalit Modi to probe irregularities pertaining to the T20 cricket event.

BCCI Secretary N.Srinivasan lodged the complaint against Modi with Chennai Police Commissioner T.Rajendra, citing misappropriation of funds to the tune of Rs.470 crore (around $105 million).

Srinivasan said the complaint has been lodged based on a decision taken by the BCCI.

The complaint has been lodged several months after the IPL scam broke out.

The contracts of Rajasthan Royals and King's XI Punjab IPL teams were terminated Sunday "for violation of the franchise agreement".

Arrest a person:

1) Police in horary chart is 6th cusp; 2) Impersonator is 12th cusp; 3) Law/Court is 9th cusp; 4) Court arrest order is 11th (9th is court and order of court is 3rd from 9 = 11th) cusp; 5) Runaway person is 7th cusp.

Rules used by me:

1) If 6th CSL (police) signifies 1 (self effort), and 11(success), police can be able to arrest a runaway person in the DBA of 1,11 significators.

2) If 11th CSL (court order) signifies 6 (victory on enemy), 11 (success) during DBA of 6, 11, one can be arrested by police on court order.

3) If 7th CSL signifies 5 (gain to opponent), 10th (4th from 7th come back home), 6th (12th from 7th - lost of reputation) during DBA of 5,6,10, one can be arrested by police on court order.

In this case Mr. Lalit Modi is out of country, hence the 3rd rule is used as follows.

Arrest a person:

3) If 7th CSL signifies 5 (gain to opponent), 10th (4th from 7th come back home), 6th (12th from 7th -lost reputation) during DBA of 5,6,10, one can be arrested by police on court order.

Analysis:

7th cusp sub lord is Venus.

Venus is in 4, lord of 4-11, No planet in the star of Venus and Venus is cusp sub lord of 1,4,7,8; in the star of Rahu in 6, Rahu is agent of Moon in 5, lord of 1, and in the sub of Moon in 5, lord of 1.

7th cusp sub lord signifies 5, 6 and so it indicates Mr, Lalit Modi will be arrested on court order by police.

When?

Rulling Planets:

Day lord: Mercury

Asc: Jupiter-Venus-Venus

Moon: Jup-Ketu-Rahu

Running Dasa is Ketu.

Ketu is in 12, Ketu is agent of Saturn is in 3, lord of 7-8; in the star of Rahu in 6, Rahu is agent of Moon in 5, lord of 1, and in the sub of Mercury in 3, lord of 3-12, No planet in the star of Mercury and Mercury is cusp sub lord of 5,11.

Ketu signifies 5,6 and it is also in the ruling planets

Ketu dasa runs up to 5 Nov 2013.

Running Bhukti is Rahu.

Rahu is in 6, Rahu is agent of Moon in 5, lord of 1; in the star of Ketu is in 12, Ketu is agent of Saturn in 3, lord of 7-8; and in the sub of Mercury in 3, lord of 3-12, No planet in the star of Mercury and Mercury is cusp sub lord of 5,11.

Rahu signifies 6,5 and it is also in the ruling planets.

Rahu Bhukti runs up to 24 Oct 2010.

This indicates arrestment during Rahu Bhukti but in this Horary chart Sat is in Moon star indicating PUNARPHOO combination. Generally PUNARPHOO combination indicates late result. So I will not select Rahu Bhukti and will check for next possible Bhukti.

After Rahu Bhukti in Ketu dasa we have Jupiter, Saturn and Mercury Bhuktis.

Jupiter and Mercury are in the ruling planets but Saturn is not in the RPs, so I reject Saturn and will check for Jupiter and Mercury.

Let us check Jupiter Bhukti frist.

Jupiter is in 9, lord of 6-9, in the star of Jupiter, and in the sub of Rahu in 6, Rahu is agent of Moon in 5, lord of 1.

Jupiter signifies 6,5.

Let us check Mercury Bhukti.

Mercury is in 3, lord of 3-12, No planet in the star of Mercury and Mercury is cusp sub lord of 5,11; in the star of Moon in 5, lord of 1, and in the sub of Sun is in 3 lord of, 2.

Mercury signifies 5.

From above two Bhuktis I select Jupiter Bhukti from 24 Oct 2010 to 30 Sept 2011. Jupiter is a ruling planet as Asc. sign lord and Mercury is daylord, so stronger ruling planet is Asc. sign lord.

To narrow this period we have to check Antra period. We have Venus two times in the RPs, so I select Venus Antra from 12/1/2011 to 10/3/2011.

Venus is in 4, lord of 4-11, No planet in the star of Venus and Venus is cusp sub lord of 1,4,7,8; in the star of Rahu in 6, Rahu is agent of Moon in 5, lord of 1, and in the sub of Moon in 5, lord of 1.

Antra lord Venus signifies 5, 6 and indicates Mr, Lalit Modi would be arrested on court order by police during 12/1/2011 to 10/3/2011.

My Opinion:

Mr. Lalit Modi would be arrested on court order by police during 12/1/2011 to 10/3/2011.

Background In Brief

Marilyn Monroe was an all-American success story. She rose from the ranks of orphan to onscreen sex idol. She was married to a sports legend, a literary giant, and was supposed to have affairs with both John and Bobby Kennedy. She had everything, yet according to her friends, scared for her life. Her fear was well founded.

On August 5th 1962, the world learned of Marilyn Monroe's death. She was discovered by her housekeeper in her bedroom, nude and facedown, on her bed. She died from an overdose of Nembutal and chloral hydrate and her death was ruled a suicide. Whether these substances were self-administered or not, still to this day, is one of debates.

Cuspal Sublord Significations for Suicide, Accident and Murder (from Hon. Tin Win Ji's article in KP e-zine August 2010, p 6)

(1) 1st & 8th CSLs' signification of 8(danger to life), 2(Maraka), 7(Badhaka/Maraka) houses and connection to Mars (violence, weapons, sudden death) indicate suicide.

(2) 1st & 8th CSLs' signification of 4(end of life), 6 (injury), 8(danger), 12(danger to life), 2(Maraka), 7 (Badhaka/Maraka) houses and connection to Mars (violence, weapons and sudden death) indicate unnatural/accidental death.

(3) 8th(nature of death) & 12th(homicide) CSLs' signification of 8(danger to life), 12(end of life), 2(Maraka), 7 (Badhaka/Maraka) houses and connection to Mars(violence, weapons and sudden death) indicate death by murder/assassination.

Assessment Of Ascendant CSL

1st CSL Ve is placed at 9, owns 4(end of life) and 11(badhaka). Ve is in the constellation of Ke and sub of Ra. Ve is in the Aries sign of Mars(violence, weapons and sudden death), Ke signifies 6(injury), 9, 7(maraka), 12 (end of life), 4(end of life), 8(danger) and 11(badhaka).

Ra has its signification of 12(end of life), 10, 3, 7(maraka), 6(injury) and 9. Ra has no planet in its star so it is strong by its placement. Her ascendant sub lord indicates the medium level(up to 66) of longevity and she died at age of 36.

Assessment Of 8th CSL For Nature Of Death

Me is 8th CSL and it is in the star of Mo and sub of Ju. Me placed at 10 and it has lord ship of 3 and 12 (homicide). There is no planet residing in the star of Me, therefore its strong as 8th CSL. The Ma(karaka for violence, weapons and sudden death) aspects Me by its 4th aspect.

The star lord Mo owns 1(involvement of self) and placed at 7(involvement of opponent, maraka). The sub lord Ju has its placement in 7(involvement of opponent) and lordship of 6 and 9. So, 8th CSL is signifying 8 and 12.

Here, star lord Mo indicates self involvement by being ascendant lord but at the same time Mo placed at 7 of opponent's involvement and sub lord Ju confirms star lord's indication. But still some suspicion will persist, let us go further for 12th CSL and DBAS assessment.

Assessment of 12th CSL for Homicide or Not

Ju is 12th CSL and it is placed at 7(maraka) with ownership of 6 and 9. Ju is in the star of Ma(karaka for violence) and sub of Ve. The star lord Ma placed at 8(danger) with ownership of 5 and 10. The sub lord Ve reside at 9 and owns 11(badhaka) and 4.

So, it signifies 8, 12, maraka, badhaka, Ma and indicates homicide. But still have to wait for DBAS scrutinization.

Death on 5th of August 1962(DBAS- Ju/Ma/Ra/Sa)

Dasa: Ju is placed at 7(involvement of opponent, maraka) with ownership of 6 and 9. Ju is in the star of Ma (karaka for violence) and sub of Ve. The star lord Ma placed at 8(danger) with ownership of 5 and 10. The sub lord Ve resides at 9 and owns 11(badhaka) and 4.

Bhukti: Ma(karaka for violence) is placed at 8(danger) with ownership of 5 and 10. Ma is in star of Ju and sub of Ve. Ju is placed at 7(involved of opponent, maraka) with ownership of 6 and 9. The sub lord Ve resides at 9 and owns 11(badhaka) and 4.

Antara: Ra is in the star of Ju and sub of Me. Ra has its signification of 12(end of life), 10, 3, 7(involved of opponent, maraka), 6(injury) and 9. Ra has no planet in its star, so it is strong by its placement of 12(homicide). The star lord Ju is placed at 7(involved of opponent, maraka) with the owning of 6 and 9. The sub lord Me is at 10 and owns 3 and 12(homicide). There is no planet found in the star Me and it is CSL of 4, 5, 8, 10 and 11.

Sookshma: Sa is in the constellation of Ju and sub of Ve. The star lord Ju is placed at 7(involved of opponent, maraka) with ownership of 6 and 9. The sub lord Ve resides at 9 and owns 11(badhaka) and 4.

All the DBAS have no connection with the ascendant but significant connection with 7th of opponent.

Findings

- (1) 1st and 8th CSLs are signifying unnatural death and medium age level of life.
- (2) 8th and 12th CSLs are signifying 8th and 12th with maraka-badhaka as well.
- (3) 1st, 8th, 12th CSLs and all the DBAS lords are connected with Mars(karaka for violence).
- (4) All the DBAS lords significantly shows 7th(involved of opponent) signification without signification of ascendant's (for suicide).

Consequently, all these points reveal that Monroe was murdered.

Suspicious Points on Murder or Suicide

Many interesting, non-explained phenomena surround Marilyn's death are too many to list. Below, however, are some of the most intriguing points to ponder.

- There was no suicide note ever recovered.
- How could Marilyn swallow Nembutal tablets when no water glass was found on her nightstand and the plumbing system in the adjacent bathroom was turned off?
- Why did it take four hours after the discovery of her death to inform police and why are there so many discrepancies as to what happened during that time by so many people?
- Her autopsy results showed no trace or residue of any tablet in her stomach or small intestines. Also toxicology studies on these organs were never done.
- She had a fresh bruise on her back that couldn't be ruled out as an act of violence.
- The autopsy showed a purple discoloration of the large intestine, suggesting that drugs may have been introduced here rather than being swallowed. This discoloration, as noted by one of the medical examiners present, was inconsistent and non-characteristic of oral barbiturate overdose death.
- Peter Lawford, the Kennedy's brother-in-law stated, "Marilyn took her last big enema".
- Marilyn's psychiatrist, in response to a reporter's question concerning her death stated, " I can't explain myself or defend myself without revealing things that I don't want to reveal.... because I can't tell the whole story. Listen.... talk to Bobby Kennedy."
- The sealing of her file by the government, the destruction and loss of the many records during that time and the death of many of the people involved.

OM GAJAANANAM NAMAMYAHAM

This month I am going to discuss about arthritis complaints relating to Abdomen and 5 charts were taken up (Source: Dr. Bhamidipati Satyanarayana Murthy & Astrodatabank). K Raghavendra Kumar, M.Sc. B.Ed., had extended assistance in preparing this article.

Arthritis:

Arthritis (from Greek arthro-, joint + -itis, inflammation; plural: arthritides) is a group of conditions involving damage to the joints of the body. There are over 100 different forms of arthritis. The most common form, osteoarthritis (degenerative joint disease) is a result of trauma to the joint, infection of the joint, or age. Other arthritis forms are rheumatoid arthritis, psoriatic arthritis, and related autoimmune diseases. Septic arthritis is caused by joint infection.

The major complaint by individuals who have arthritis is joint pain. Pain is often a constant and may be localized to the joint affected. The pain from arthritis occurs due to inflammation that occurs around the joint, damage to the joint from disease, daily wear and tear of joint, muscle strains caused by forceful movements against stiff, painful joints and fatigue.

Classification

Primary forms of arthritis:

- Osteoarthritis
- Rheumatoid arthritis
- Septic arthritis
- Gout and pseudo-gout
- Juvenile idiopathic arthritis
- Still's disease
- Ankylosing spondylitis

Osteoarthritis: Osteoarthritis is the most common form of arthritis. It can affect both the larger and the smaller joints of the body, including the hands, feet, back, hip or knee. The disease is essentially one acquired from daily wear and tear of the joint. Osteoarthritis begins in the cartilage and eventually leads to the two opposing bones eroding into each other. Initially, the condition starts with minor pain while walking but soon the pain can be continuous and even occur at night. The pain can be debilitating and prevent one from doing any type of activity. Osteoarthritis typically affects the weight bearing joints like the back, spine and pelvis. Unlike rheumatoid arthritis, osteoarthritis is a disease of the elderly. More than 30 percent of females have some degree of osteoarthritis by age 65. Risk factors for osteoarthritis include: prior joint trauma, obesity, sedentary life-style

Osteoarthritis, like rheumatoid arthritis, cannot be cured but one can prevent the condition from worsening. Weight loss is the key to improving symptoms and preventing progression. Physical therapy to strengthen muscles and joints is very helpful. Pain medications are widely required by individuals with osteoarthritis. When the disease is far advanced and the pain is continuous, surgery may be an option. Unlike rheumatoid arthritis, joint replacement does help many individuals with osteoarthritis.

Rheumatoid arthritis: Rheumatoid arthritis is a disorder in which, for some unknown reason, the body's own immune system starts to attack body tissues. The attack is not only directed at the joint but to many other parts of the body. In rheumatoid arthritis, most damage occurs to the joint lining and cartilage which eventually results in erosion of two opposing bones. Rheumatoid arthritis affects joints in the fingers, wrists, knees and elbows. The disease is symmetrical and can lead to severe deformity in a few years if not treated. Rheumatoid arthritis occurs mostly in people aged 20 and above. In children, the disorder can present with a skin rash, fever, pain, disability, and limitations in daily activities. No one knows why rheumatoid arthritis occurs and all treatments are focused on easing the symptoms. With earlier diagnosis and aggressive treatment, many individuals can lead a decent quality of life. The drugs to treat rheumatoid arthritis range from corticosteroids to monoclonal antibodies given intravenously. The latest drugs like Remicade can significantly improve quality of life in the short term. In rare cases, surgery may be required to replace joints but there is no cure for the illness.

Rheumatic fever has now seen resurgence in America primarily because of mass immigration of people from developing countries. The disorder can present with a migratory nature of arthritis with many other features like heart problems, skin rash, gait abnormality and skin nodules.

Lupus: This is a common collagen vascular disorder that can be present with severe arthritis. Other features of lupus include a skin rash, extreme photosensitivity, hair loss, kidney problems, emotional lability, lung fibrosis and constant joint pain.

Gout: Gout is caused by deposition of uric acid crystals in the joint, causing inflammation. There is also an uncommon form of gouty arthritis caused by the formation of rhomboid crystals of calcium pyrophosphate known as pseudogout. In the early stages, the gouty arthritis usually occur in one joint, but with time, it can occur in many joints and be quite crippling. The joints in gout can often become swollen and lose function.

Other: Infectious arthritis is another severe form of arthritis. It presents with sudden onset of chills, fever and joint pain. The condition is caused by bacteria elsewhere in the body. Infectious arthritis must be rapidly diagnosed and treated promptly to prevent irreversible and permanent joint damage. Psoriasis is another type of arthritis. With psoriasis, most individuals develop the skin problem first and then the arthritis. The typical features are of continuous joint pains, stiffness and swelling. The disease does recur with periods of remission but there is no cure for the disorder. A small percentage develop a severe painful and destructive form of arthritis which destroys the small joint in the hands and can lead to permanent disability and loss of hand function (Courtesy: Dr. Bhadmidipati Satyanarayana, MD)

In Medical Astrology, the significators for arthritis and rheumatism are Saturn, Mars, Moon, Jupiter and Mercury and also Sagittarius/9th house and Capricorn/10th from Ascendant. Mars usually leads to short periods of intense pain, while Saturn mostly means long periods of ache. (Encyclopaedia of Medical Astrology by H.L. Cornell) The stars representing the disease are Moola, Purvashada, Uttarashada and Sravanam.

Generally the 6th, 8th and 12th houses or lords of the above houses are relevant to this disease as the 6th denotes disease besides the house of location of disease. 8th house is the house of surgery, while the 12th is house of hospitalization, surgical treatment besides the location of disease, the houses 12, 8, 6 have to be taken into account from Lagna.

This case is a recent case of my relative's son who came home as guest and had to appear for the selection process interview as pilot in national airways.

Out of sudden curiosity, I wanted to find out if the native would be selected in the said interview process. I took horary number 70 myself directly targeting the native and did not find the need of rotating the chart. The question was "Will the native gets selected in national airways?" The matter was taken up for scrutiny at 23:03:49 Hrs on 11-08-2010 at Bangalore.

Co-ordinates of judgment:

In a query relating to the interview and the results thereof, the 3rd and 9th houses get most pertinent. The 3rd house indicates the performance from the native and 9th house indicate what is asked for from the interview panel. If these houses signify the 11th house, the native gets successful in the interview process. The securing a job is through 10th house as it governs the fructification of karmas.

Finally, the dasha sequence plays finally decisive role and for the positive results, the dasha planets should be well disposed towards fructification with favorable transits.

The Query:

Fundamentally, in any prashna, the lagna indicates the subject matter of the query, while the Moon indicates the status of mind and the matter on which the querist dwells about.

Look to the lagna SBL-Sun, which is placed in the star of 3-12th lord Mercury placed in 2nd house. This was exactly in consonance to my worries, as the interview process at airlines service selection board is normally tough. This indicated that there is something to worry.

Moon itself gets placed in 2nd house. Moon falls in the star of 11th lord Venus indicating high hopes, the native had in securing the job. Moon was the lagna lord that indicated the high self esteem.

Thus, the query is well indicated in the prashna chart and it was comfortable to proceed further.

Analysis :

Examine the 3rd and 9th cusp.

3rd and 9th cuspal sub-lord is Venus which is in the star and sub of Lagna lord Moon placed in 2nd House. This indicates high confidence level, the native had in facing the interview process (lagna signified).

However, in the placement of Moon in Lagna did not show fructification of success, as it negates the 2nd house of acquisition.

Look to Fortuna

Fortuna falls in the 5th house which indicates which negates the job promise (6th House).

Fortuna falls in the star of 3rd and 12th lord Mercury and being in the sub of 6th and 9th lord Jupiter placed in 9th house. This gave sufficient hopes with hurdles.

Examine the 10th cusp

10th cusp indicates the job in question for which the interview was attempted. 10th cuspal sub-lord is 8th lord Saturn placed in 2nd house and very close to the 3rd cusp, thereby generating sufficient hopes.

At the stellar level, it is noticed that Saturn falls in the star of Sun placed in lagna. Saturn falls in the sub of 11th lord Venus placed in the 3rd house. This gave sufficient hopes towards securing a job till then.

Examine the 11th cusp.

By the examination of the various cusps, the 3rd cusp of interview performance by the native and Fortuna seemed restricted though 10th cusp did indicate positive promise. The 11th cusp would now decide the over-all fructification of the result.

11th cuspal sub-lord is Mars which is a strong planet as it does not have any planet in its star. Positionally, Mars is placed in 3rd house, a progressive house, which seemed positive to start with.

At the stellar level, Mars falls in the star of Moon which is placed in the 2nd house of job acquisition. Mars is placed in the sub of retro-Jupiter which is a strong planet as there is no planet in its star. Jupiter placed in 9th house gives the toss in the hand of the interview board (9th house).

Note that Jupiter is positionally very strong and its placement in 9th house (own house) throws away all the promises of securing the job. This is because of the fact that the 9th house negates 10th house of profession in principle and secondly by way of the retrogression of Jupiter as sub-lord of the 11th cuspal sub-lord Mars. Both these points negate the fructification of the 11th cusp.

Thus, the securing of the said job was not thought to be possible.

Examine Dasha sequence

At the time of query, the dasha of Ven-Mars-Mercury was operating.

Briefly examining the pratyantara dasha of Mercury, it was noticed that Mercury was placed in the sub of retro-Jupiter, and as said for the retro-Jupiter in the preceding para, the positive fructification of securing the job was not possible.

Conclusion

Looking to all logistics of analysis as above, it was concluded that the native would not be finally selected and it would be a frustrating experience to the native though he might fare decently.

Fact of the case:

Native was not selected, was rejected in the last round of selection process and was sent back home.

The KP principles are always reliable and crystal clear, although, it requires genuine efforts for understanding and applying. Prof. Krishnamurthy has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

Heart Attack

Introduction

1. Heart attacks are the leading cause of death all over the world. According to the figures, released on June 19, 2009, by the Delhi Government's Economic Survey, heart disease is the single biggest killer in the National Capital, followed by diabetes, i.e. the survey, released on Friday, heart attacks killing approximately 15,442 people in 2007, in comparison to diabetes killing 3,920 people.

2. Heart attack is defined as a case of coronary thrombosis. This happens when the heart is unable to pump blood efficiently to all parts of the body.

<http://www.whereincity.com/medical/topic/heart/diseases/heart-attack-54.htm>

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Myocardial_infarction

Chief Rulers of the Heart

3. Sun is the undisputed 'ruling planet' of the heart, and consequently sign Leo owned by Sun becomes the 'ruling sign' of the heart. As Leo is 5th sign in the zodiac, the 5th house from the Ascendant is the 'ruling house' of the heart, consistently with the theory of relationship between sign and house meanings. These three chief rulers of the heart are accepted in the Vedic astrology where the 4th house is considered as a ruling house of heart. (Essentials of Medical Astrology by Dr. K.S. Charak, 2002, pp 163-164; Medical Astrology by Dr. Shanker Adawal, 2008, p 164)

4. Since there are many kinds of heart diseases and major heart attack risk factors, other rulers of the heart like Moon, Jupiter, Aquarius etc are also to be studied on case by case basis. In this paper only the chief rulers of the heart have been observed on the basis of twelve charts.

9. The above table indicates the following points:

1. The DBAS lords on date of death signify the death inflicting houses Badhaka, Maraka and Moksha houses almost in all charts up to chart no. 11, except chart no. 2 without signifying 12th house (Moksha);
2. Terminal or trigonal houses of 4,8 & 12 in combination are signified in 9 charts (82%) out of 11 charts, except chart no. 2 & 5;
3. 6th house is signified in 10 (91%) charts out of 11 charts, except chart no.3;
4. 10th (name, fame) is signified in 10 (91%) charts out of 11 charts, except chart no.2, here as retirement from this world (death);
5. Connection of DBAS lords to Mars is found only in 4 (36%) charts of 11 death charts;
6. But connection of DBAS lords to Mars is found in all 5 surviving cases of chart no. 12.

10. The star lord and sub lord in which the DBAS lords, Sun and Moon were transiting on the date of death from heart attack are as provided in the table 3 under.

* Transit at time of five surviving mild heart attacks

Note: Row 1 indicates Dasa lord Me was transiting in star of Ma & sub of Ve, Bhukti lord Su in star of Su & Sub of Ke etc., Mo in star & Sub of Ke.

11. The major points learned from the above table are as given under:

1. The DBAS lords and Sun and Moon were transiting, on date of death, in the star or sub of signifiers of death inflicting Badhaka, Maraka and Moksha houses almost in all death charts, no. 1 to 11;
2. But only in 5 (45%) charts out of 11 death charts, the DBAS lords and Sun and Moon were transiting, on date of death, in the star or sub of those running same DBAS lords;
3. The star and sub lords in which DBAS lords and Sun and Moon were transiting, on date of death, are connected to Mars in 7 (64%) charts out of 11 death charts.

Kenneth Lay (Ch. No. 11): Ordinary Heart Attack or Suicide?

12. The indicator of the death mode, 8th cuspal sublord is found connected to Mars in only 4 (33%) charts out of 12 charts, i.e. chart no. 1,9,11 (by sign lord) & 12 only, and to Saturn, representing obstructions and blockages in body metabolism, almost in all charts, except in chart no. 12. Three charts, no. 1,9 and 11, are found connected to both Mars and Saturn.

13. Kenneth Lay's 8th cuspal sub lord Saturn's signification of Maraka and Badhak house 7 and connection to Mars by sign lord of 8th CSL are interesting in relation to the conspiracy theory of his death.

<http://bear-star.com/article%20-%20Ken%20Lay.htm>

14. But suicide may not be astrologically (by KP) inconclusive as 8th CSL connection to Mars only by sign lord but not at star level (KP Reader III p 174/ Old Edition Practical Part p 21), no connection between 1st and 8th CSLs, and death from heart attack around typical 3 am "high tide in the universe" energy, in this case at 3:11 am local time.

http://medicalastrologybyeileennauman.blogspot.com/2009_06_01_archive.html

How many times can one person have heart attack?

15. Apparently, the Guinness World Records do not list the individual who has suffered the most heart attacks during his or her lifetime. But Dr. Gregg Fonarow, a cardiologist at UCLA's Reagan Medical Center. said he has patients who have had eight or nine and are still going strong.

16. In the case of Dick Cheney's survival of five mild heart attacks, the following points have been noted astrologically other than his own care and medical advancement in the US:

1. His longevity is in the medium arrange as 1st cuspal sub lord signification.
2. His ascendant is aspected by natal Jupiter. As long as Jupiter aspects Lagna there may be no fear. (KP Reader III p 174/ Old Edition Practical Part p 21) Napoleon with Jupiter in his Libra Lagna had fought sixty big battles and countless small ones, nineteen horses had been killed from under him, and yet he had only been wounded twice.
3. The strong signification of live saver or cure, houses 1,5,1 are found against disease and death houses.
4. Transit Jupiter is found aspecting Ascendant on the date of three heart attacks and natal Sun and Moon in other two heart attacks. However it has been found in many cases transit Jupiter alone cannot save the native from danger of life.

Conclusion

17. The major causes of the heart attack is astrologically found to be the connection of the chief heart rulers to 6,8,12 and Maraka, Badhaka houses in terms of natal chart, 6th cuspal sub lord, DBAS and transit.

Recently from last 2-3 days Maharastra CM Ashok Chauhan has faced a big problem due to the housing society flat allotment scam. Congress supreme Srimati Sonia Gandhi summons him to Delhi. As per media Ashok Chauhan would have to resign from his post of CM.

I am keenly interested to know whether CM Ashok Chauhan will remain as CM of Maharastra?

Getting Good Position in Politics

If 10th (One's position in politics) sublord signifies 10 (One's Reputation), 3 (One's ability), 11 (One's reputation as a winner) in the DBA of 3, 10, 11 significators, one can get a good position in politics.

Horary Details:

Horary Questions: Will Maharastra CM Ashok Chauhan remain as CM of Maharastra?

Horary No: 153 (out of 249) (Random from KPAstro 3.5 software)

Horary date: 30/10/2010

Horary time: 15:54:11

Horary Place: Kankariya-Ahmedabad

Long/Lat: 23N00, 72E36

Aynamsha: 23:55:05

Analysis:

10th CSL is Sun.

Sun is occupant of 11, owner of 10, no planet in the star of Sun and Sun is cuspal sub lord of 1,6,10; in the star of Rahu occupant of 2, Rahu is agent of Jupiter, occupant of 4, owner of 2-5; in the sub of Mercury occupant of 12, owner of 8-11, no planet in the star of Mercury and Mercury is cuspal sub lord of 5,11.

10th cus sub lord signifies 11,10. Thus he would remain as CM of Maharatsta.

Ruling Planet:

At the time of judgment ruling planets are as under:

30/Oct/2010 12:33:53 AM, KANKARIYA, AHMEDABAD, GUJARAT, India

	Day lord	Sign Lord	Star Lord	Sub Lord
Day: Saturday	Saturn

RP Asc.: Dhanu 01:47:33

RP Moon: karka: 9:46:35

Saturn	Sun	Jupiter
Moon	Saturn	Venus

Rahu is in Jupiter sign, representing Jupiter; Ketu is aspected by Saturn, thus Rahu represents Jupiter and Ketu represents Saturn. Final RP's are Sun, Moon, Venus, Rahu, Ketu

Joint period:

Period lords are Sa-Ve-Sa-Ma

Saturn occupant of 10 owner of 3-4, in the star of Moon occupant of 8 owner of 9, in the sub of Saturn.

Dasa and Antra lord Saturn signifies 3, 10 = Ok also in RP.

Venus occupant of 11, owner of 7-12, in the star of Rahu occupant of 2, Rahu is agent of Jupiter occupant of 4, owner of 2-5. in the sub of Saturn occupant of 10, owner of 3-4.

Bhukti lord Venus signifies 3,10. = OK, also in RPs.

Mars occupant of 12, owner of 1-6, in the star of Saturn occupant of 10 owner of 3-4, in the sub of Ketu occupant of 8. Ketu is agent of Mars occupant of 12, owner of 1-6, also agent of Saturn, occupant of 10, owner of 3-4.

Sookshma lord Mars signifies 10,3 = OK also in RP.

My Opinion:

He will remain as a CM of Maharastra.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Question & Answer

Q-1: I would like to know whether a person born in Alaska , North America will have the same 12 Bhavas as a person born in India or Malaysia ?

A-1: It may not be the same for a person born in the higher latitude over 60° N since Alaska is located in the arrange of latitude 51°20'N to 71°50'N. For those living in the higher latitudes in places such as Alaska, Norway, Finland and Greenland, the astrological house systems have failed to provide a bhava chart similar for a person born in India or Malaysia. This is the case where the astrology has been under criticism for it's limited perspective and so some astrologers are trying to improve the existing house systems with modifications for the proper calculation of horoscopes of those people living in the higher latitudes. (PI see the references given in the last month article on "A Case Study of Polar Region Chart")

Q-2: I have followed the tutorials on KP System published in the KPE-zine. No doubt they are very useful for the astrology circles. But I have few doubts on timing of the event for horary chart and deciding the fruitful significators and so I need additional guidance in this regard.

A-2: Timing of event is the most difficult task for an astrologer of any level. In selecting the fruitful signifiers, the following priority order of significators may be changed up to one's preference:

1. Significators of planets without having any planet in their stars, which are strongest to give the results of the houses by being the sub lord to them.
(Golden Rule: Take the planets which are posited in the sub of the significators whose constellations are not tenanted.)
2. Significators which are posited in the stars of the cuspal sub lords of required houses for a matter under consideration, e.g. 2,7,11 for marriage,
3. Significators which are common with the ruling planets and significators appearing many times amongst the ruling planets and significators themselves;
4. Significators which are the cuspal sub lords of the required houses.

In the timing of horary for short term prediction, it starts usually with analysis of the current running Dasa and Bhukti by checking whether their lords are signifying the required houses for an event under consideration and also whether they in the RPs. If the current Bhukti lord is not a fruitful significators or in choosing the fruitful dasa period lords such as Antra lords, the above four priorities will have to play the role, taking into consideration of delay effect by Saturn, e.g. forming Punarphoo in connection of Moon.

The practical way of learning is to follow Mr. Kanak Bosmia's approach of choosing timing in his hoary predictions in the KPE-zine, e.g. "Will Mr. Lalit Modi be arrested? If so, when?" in this issue, where signification of the dasa period lords by occupation and lordship at planet, star and sub levels is checked and the fruitful DBAS for timing of event are chosen with the help of the ruling planets.

It is to note that the RPs up to sub levels are taken not to fool oneself by recasting the chart when the RPs do not tally with the dasa period lords. Another fact is that the practical dasa period lords are not always in the RPs.

Q- 3: In casting a series of the AstroDatabank (ADB) charts by a KP software, I used to check the correctness of longitudes of Ascendant and Sun or Moon by comparing with data given by the ADB, after subtracting the KP New Ayanamsa. I could see another check point to determine the correctness of the erected chart is the given "Sidereal Time" in the ADB chart, and if this given Sid. Time is the same as in the erected chart, the chart is correct up to 100%. If this method is ok, I can save my time too. Sometimes the longitude of Sun/Moon seems to be in a small difference of 1 or 2 sec, which I think is negligible. I earnestly hope your comments in this method or any other short cut to check the correctness of the erected chart.

A - 3: It's true that the main check point is the "Sid. Time" is the same in the KP software output and given http://www.astro.com/astro-databank/Reding%2C_Serge

Second check point is the Ascendant position, which is roughly checked by a glance, in this example chart the "sayana" Ascendant given by the ADB is Scorpio 5°54', approximately 6°, and after subtracting NKPA 22°57', approximately 23°, the KP software should give "nirayana" Ascendant of approximately (Scorpio 6° minus 23° =) Libra 13° (in place of exactly 12°56' 18').

It does not need to check Moon or Sun position, which will follow in line and also no need to worry about a little bit difference in seconds of Sid. Time or Ascendant due to the different accuracy of softwares. It is to note that the time difference from UT or GMT in the www.astro.com TOBs are "Time Zone plus Daylight Saving Time " whenever DST is involved. In this example chart, TZ is 1hr East of GMT plus DST 1 = 2hrs East of GMT is the time difference from GMT.

It is to be careful with the TOB in LMT for manual entry of the time difference from GMT when the POB is not readily available in the software and the time difference from GMT is not automatically adjusted by the software.

Astro secrets & Krishnamurti Padhdhati Part V, Retrograde Planet

edited by K. Subramaniam
Krishnan & Co., 2010, 248 pages

This book is a collection of 37 articles listed in the contents by 23 authors, namely Keshab R. Kar, K.M. Subramaniam, M.P. Shanmugam, S. Balasundram, B.S. Chandrasekar, Bal Krishna Singh, N. Krishnamurthy, T. Suryanarayana Rao, Pronab Das, D.S.B. Patnaik, V. Ramamurthy, Kuppu Ganapathy, Sarma, M.S. Mani, K.C. Subramaniam, P.R. Muralidharan, Gerhard Zinn, P.S. Sastri, K.V.R. Anjaneyulu, V. Kachalingam, P.S. Mahesh Iyer, Kamala Sesharatnam and Mahendra Sarap, as per thank you note to the scholars.

A little less than half of these articles deals with the controversial role of retrograde planets in the K.P. horary. Among these articles some are in support of retrogression working in the horary and ruling planets, some are showing retrogression not denying in giving the fruitful results and two are Dr. Kar's theory of retrogradation. In a few articles horary number within 108 is found using.

Some are theoretical articles like simplicity of the stellar system of prognostication, direction method of timing of events applying Western aspects, educational aspect of K.P. etc. Some classical, Vedic and Western views are mentioned in the article on the role of retrograde Jupiter & horoscopy. Sub-Lord speaks is as usual K.M. Subramaniam's article. K.P. analysis of natal and horary charts without retrogression is also found in many articles.

I need Shri Chandrakant Bhattji's english book "Nakshtra Chintamani" for reference to further study and enhance my knowledge about the KP.

Request to help me in above and the procedure , how to obtain the same.

Thanks
God bless you,
Anil Rathor.

Dear Kanak ji,

Namaskar,
It is a miracle!. I just thought of U and the magazine and about my Guru ji Sri TW ji, and opened the machine. The first mail is yr kind gift.

Thank you very much.

Wishing you all the success at all the times
Kalyan

Dear Kanak ji,

From the time of my sitting to the computer today, still I am hanging with the value enriched KPEZ, with a most happy mood.

"A Case Study of Polar Region Chart" by Sri TW ji, is the first ever compendious article I come across in this field. We, the readers of KPEZ are most fortunate to follow the great theories profounded by Gurujji TW ji by this most educative article. It is marvellous. It is beyond the words to praise.

All the readers are indebted to this hard work done for the sake of new comers. This is the unbeatable and one and only KP Astrological E-Magazine to follow by all the KP lovers, if they need to be the Pundits of KP.

With Due Regards
Kalyan

Thank you one's again Mr Karnak Bosmia.

Dear Kanak,

Thanks for publishing the mail I sent to you regarding the article "Creation of a Country or State".

As I told you in my mail, I tried to try on few more countries but I noticed that you have already done on all the examples and I couldn't find any more in the Internet - reliable data for creating a Horoscope - but after long search, few days ago I found details for "Independence Day of Serbia" & "Kingdom of Serbia" and a few more.

But, as I am a bit busy these days because of my work I couldn't try any of that.

I'll let you know once I tried.

This month issue also carried an article on one of my favourite subjects - "War between Countries".

Thanks for that.

You've mentioned that you tried few Rules earlier but they failed.
Can you please let me know that too.

The Rule you have given in this month "KP E-Zine" is:

Is there any War? When?

If 3rd (relations with neighbouring countries) CSL signifies 4th (Concern of National security), 9th (Foreign relation), 7th (International Disputes), there will be a War during the DBAS of 4,9,7.

I'm just giving my thought below;

A country would start war with another country when the "Relationship" (Mutual dealings between the countries) between them breaks.

So, I think it should be 8th house instead of 9th house (for "Break of Relationship" - 12th house of 9th house which is the house for "Foreign Relation").
The 8th also indicates "Destruction, Death of people etc".

What do you think of it? You may have already tried this!

After watching you creating "Rules", I am also learning / trying to create rules.
This thought is purely a result of watching your way. Thanks for teaching !.

I may be wrong on this but I've got the "Idea / Principle" for creating the rules.

If you can explain why I'm wrong I would be very happy.

I hope to read more of these sort of Articles.

Thanks
Kind regards

Dr.B.Kanagasabai

Getting high Award

Any kind of award comes under 10th cusp. If 5th (Gain/ Winning) cusp sub lord signifies 5(Creative ability/ Capability), 10 (Accomplishment/Achievement/Aura of authority/Award), 11(Special consideration / Desire), one can be selected for higher award during the joint period of 5, 10, 11 significators.

Question: Shall I get Padmashree Award in January 2011? The names are usually announced on 25th Jan 2011 and awards are given in April each year.

Birth Details:

Birth date: 21/5/1969

Birth Time: 09.27.00 AM

Birth Place: Berhampur - Orissa

Lat/Long: 19N 19, 84 E 47

Analysis:

5th CSL is Saturn. Saturn is in the star of Ketu and sub of Jupiter.

Saturn is occupant of 10, owner of 7,8,9, Ketu occupant of 3rd. Ketu conjoins with Jupiter, Jupiter occupant of 3, owner of 6. Sub lord is also Jupiter.

5th CSL signifies 10. Thus it promises of getting award.

Ruling Planet:

At the time of judgment ruling planets are as under:

30/Oct/2010 10:13:22 AM, KANKARIYA, AHMEDABAD, GUJARAT, India

	Day lord	Sign Lord	Star Lord	Sub Lord
Day: Saturday	Saturn	-----	-----	-----
RP Asc.: Vrishchik 28:08:44		Mars	Mercury	Saturn
RP Moon: karka: 8:25:38		Moon	Saturn	Venus

Ketu is aspected by Mars and Saturn, thus Ketu represents Mars and Saturn. Final RP's are Mercury, Moon, Venus and Ketu.

Joint period:

Period lords are Ke-Ve-Ju-Me.

Ketu is occupant of 3rd. Ketu conjoins with Jupiter, Jupiter is occupant of 3, owner of 6. in the star of Sun, occupant of 11, owner of 2-3, in the sub of Saturn which is occupant of 10, owner of 7,8,9. Thus Dasa lord signifies 10,11. = OK, also in RP.

Venus is occupant of 9, owner of 4-11, no planet in the star of Venus and Venus is CSL of 3,4,10, in the star of Mercury, occupant of 11, owner of 12, in the sub of Rahu, occupant of 9. Ra is agent of Venus.

Bhukti lord signifies 10,11=OK and also in RP.

Saturn is occupant of 10, owner of 7,8,9, Ketu occupant of 3rd. Ketu conjoins with Jupiter, which is occupant of 3, owner of 6. Sub lord is also Jupiter.

Antra lord Saturn signifies 10 = OK, also in RP.

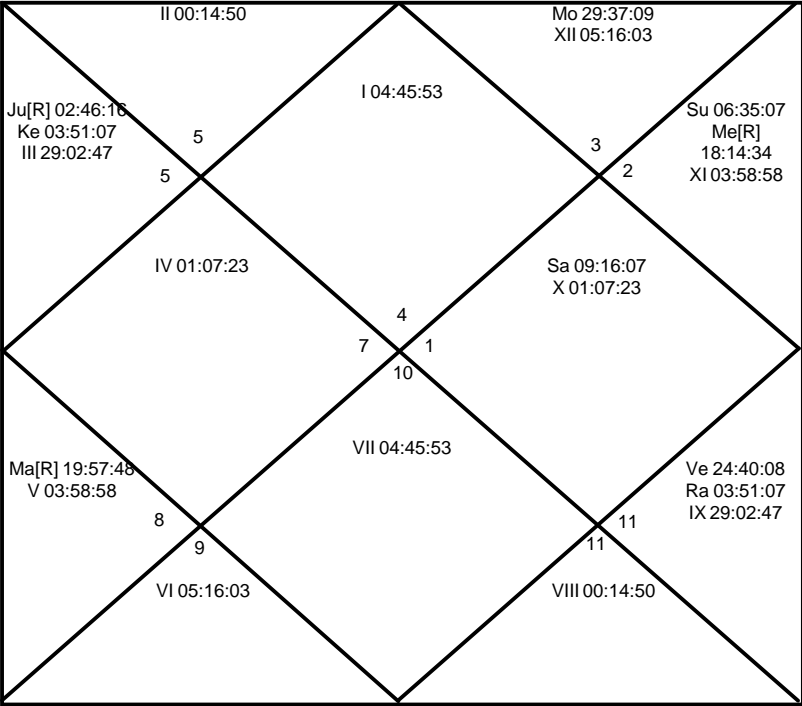

My opinion:

There is a chance for you to have been selected for Padmashree Award in January 2011.

Will my friend get married in foreign land?

Question : WILL MY FRIEND GET MARRIED IN FOREIGN LAND?
Event : Marriage, Marriage to Foreigner
KP Horary no : 10 (of 249)

In July 2008, a friend of mine came back from Thailand and invited me and my brother at his residence and asked me to guess what happened in that period in vacation in Thailand. I thought the event that could happen might be getting married for the second time in a foreign land. So I took a number 10 and tried to guess the probable event without rotating the chart.

Moon (mind) is the significator of (3,4,5,7,9,10) . There is presence of 7(marriage) and 5(love) so the question in mind is correct.

Asc sublord is Ve (2,3,4,5,7,11,12). There is presence of 2,7,11 and 5, so I proceed with the analysis of the chart.

Rule- 1 for second marriage, 7th sublord should be Me or in a dual sign.

Rule -2 for second marriage, 2nd sublord should signify 7,11.

Rule-3 for second marriage, 9th sublord should signify 2,9,11.

7th sublord for a second marriage should be in a dual sign or Mercury. 7th sublord is Mercury, so second marriage is possible. It's signification is (3,4,5,9,10,11,12) there is no presence of 7 but only 11 (fulfilled), 5(love) 3,9,12 (marriage with a foreigner in a foreign land). RULE -1, OK

2nd sublord : Rahu (1,5,8,9,10,11,12), only 11 . Rule-2 seems not to agree but Rahu is in opposition to Venus, lord of 2,7.

9th sublord : Rahu (1,5,8,9,10,11,12), there is 9,11 . Rule-3, OK.

Two of three rules agree fully and another one is also in line.

I checked also the D.B.A. for confidence, Dasha lord is Jupiter in 9th, lord of houses 9,10. in star of Venus in 4th, lord of houses 2,7, and in sub of Saturn in 5th house, lord of 11,12.

There is full presence of 2,7,11 and 5,9 (marriage with a foreigner),so dasha agrees with the probable event.

Bhukti lord is Mercury, as discussed above, agrees with the event.

Antara lord is Venus (Karaka of Marriage) is in 4th house, lord of 2,7(marriage) , in star of Saturn in 5th house (love) , lord of 11 (desire fulfilled),12, and in sub of Mercury (second marriage), in 3rd house, lord of 3,4. Even antara lord agrees with the event in question.

While myself and my brother were still at his residence, I told him to read the probable event on a paper given to him. My friend and his family were really surprised that I could guess the secret event that he was just married then.

The merit goes to this great system of Krishnamurti Pandhdhati.

HE GOT MARRIED IN THE LAST WEEK OF JUNE WITH A BEAUTYFULL THAI GIRL.

Why They Are Powerful? - KP Analysis

By: Tin Win (USA)

Email: tw853@yahoo.com

Background

1. While reading the article about the world's most powerful people in 2010, the top ten people are found interesting to check their horoscopes whether there is a common astrological pattern to be powerful.

2. The most powerful people were chosen on the basis of how they bend the world to their will in various ways. Here power is defined in four dimensions as shown under:

1. influence over a lot of people;
2. significant financial resources relative to their peers;
3. how they were powerful in multiple spheres;
4. wielding of their power actively.

Top Ten of Powerful People

3. The top ten of the world's most powerful people are as follows, together with the available horoscope links for seven of them:

1. Hu Jintao, Age 67, President, China
2. Barack Obama, Age 49, President, United States

3. Abdullah bin Abdul Aziz al Saud, Age: 86, King , Saudi Arabia
4. Vladimir Putin, Age 57, Prime Minister, Russia

5th or 10th House for Power

4. A view is that 5th house is naturally associated with the 5th sign Leo and its ruler the Sun and it is therefore the house of power and authority and knowledge among other things. But 5th house, which is also 8th from 10th house, is called padha chyuthi, loss of (status) power and authority in profession.
http://www.journalofastrology.com/archives/Gandhi_Family.htm

5. Another view is that the 10th house, also known as the midheaven or praxis, is the highest point on the ecliptic for a given location, represents authority. The other reason is that the 10th, Capricorn and Saturn have a natural affinity for each other and the midlevel also represents our highest potential, and our best achievements.

6. According to Dane Rudhyar, the 10th/midheaven is the height of the power axis. Because it is the highest point (on the ecliptic) and is also one of the most visible areas of the sky. Political power comes from this visibility, as well as fame, social responsibility, status and character. In the 11th house the power of society is released through the activities performed by the individual. (Dane Rudhyar: The Astrological Houses, Doubleday, 1972, pp 40, 117, 181)

7. The 10th house is the house of ruling over others or being ruled over by others, depending on one's chart. The 11th house in a horoscope promises success in election and reputation as a winner, realization of ambition and fulfillment of one's desire.

8. It has been therefore observed whether 10, 11th houses are signified by the 10th cuspal sub lord and the running Dasa-Bhukti lords and the results have been furnished in the table below. (KP Reader II pp 212, 219; Rex Bills: Rulership Book pp 420, 425; Dr. Onkar Lal Sharma Pramod: Astrology and its Utility pp 61-62)

+ Those planets do not have any planet in their stars.

*² No planet is in the stars of Saturn which is the CSL of 4,7 & 10 houses.

*³ No planet is in the stars of Venus which is the CSL of 2,8 & 10 cusps.

*⁴ Saturn is aspected by Ma+:5,10, which is the CSL of 2,5 & 11 houses.

8. The following salient points have been noted from the analysis in the above table:

1. Generally in all seven charts, the 10th cuspal sub lord signifies 10, 11th houses;
2. Similarly the Dasa-Bhukti lords of all seven charts signify 10, 11th houses;
3. The 10th cusp or house is also aspected or placed by planets signifying 10,11th houses, i.e. in the chart of Obama, the 10th is aspected by 10th lord Mars and placed by Fo, Putin: placed by 10th significator Ketu, Benedict: located by 10 & 11th significator Ketu, Merkel: domiciled by 10th significator Saturn+, Cameron: placed by Fo & 11th significator Moon, Gandhi: located by 10 & 11th significator Rahu, and Gates: aspected by 10th lord Mars;

4. The "planet with no planet in its stars" rule*5/ Golden rule in KP*6 (found valid by experience of Vi-kari Ramamurthi, Kuppu Ganapathi, PS Rao, R. Mukunda Rajan, Kanak Bosmia and others) has been essential in the cases of Vladimir Putin and Pope Benedict;
5. The signification is complete when it is considered not only at planet and star levels but also up to the sub level;
6. The weak order E significator of aspect/ conjunction could be helpful as a last resort in the cases of Barack Obama and Sonia Gandhi.

*5 The sub lord of a cusp is a strong significator of that house, if there is no planet in the stars of that sub lord (planet). (KP Reader III page 309/ Original Edition Practical Part page 145)

*6 Take the planets which are posited in the sub of the significators whose constellations are not tenanted. (Astrosecrerts & KP, Part II, 2003, pp 194-99)

Relocated Chart of Sonia Gandhi

9. In the transit analysis considering only the signification potential promised in the natal chart of the native, "One should not always calculate the Ascendant for the place of birth unless the native is permanent in his birth place." (KP Reader V page 162/ Original Edition page 155), i.e. a "relocated chart" is to be used for a native who has settled in a foreign country for a long time like Sonia Gandhi settling in India since January 15, 1968.

10. It is interesting that the relocated chart of Sonia Gandhi for New Delhi (28°N39', 77°E13') gives more accurate indications of her political achievements listed below other than the chart for the original birth place, Lusi-ana (45°N47', 11°E34'), as found in "A Research Study on Relocation Astrology by Kuppu Ganapathi in K.P. & Astrology Year Book 2006 pp 14-19".

1. elected as leader of Congress Party in Me-Ke-Su-Me (14/03/98)
2. elected to parliament in Me-Ve-Mo-Ve (06/10/99)
3. led her party to win the general elections in Me-Ma-Sa-Sa (18/05/04)
4. resigned from parliament in Me-Ra-Me-Ve (22/03/2006)
5. elected to parliament in Me-Ra-Me-Ma (22/03/2006)
6. led her party to win the general elections in Me-Ju-Ma-Ma (16/05/2009)

Me(2,1-10) is in the star and sub of Sa(10,5-6).

Ma+(3,3-8) is in the star of Ke(3) Conj Me(2,1-10) and sub of Ve+(2,2-9) which is the CSL of 11th house, having no planet in its star.

Ju(2,4-7) is in own star of Ju(2,4-7) and sub of Sa(10,5-6).

Sa(10,5-6) is in own star of Sa(10,5-6) and sub of Ju(2,4-7)

Note: Since the birth time is the same in Italian or Indian standard time, the planetary positions are the same in both original chart and relocated chart, but the caspal positions are different, i.e. original Asc. is Cn 27° 16' 39" and relocated Asc. Vi 18° 8' 6" (KPNA 23° 1' 34").

Finding

One can be powerful, if the 10th cuspal sub lord signifies 10, 11th houses, in the DBA of significators of 10, 11th houses.

When Would Be The Mininova Revived?

One of young friends had asked me about the website (<http://www.mininova.org/>) which is well-known for download stuff. These types of sites are recognized by the mass (who are uploading and downloading) as torrent sites which will allow you to download so many legal-illegal pirated softwares, e-books, animations, TV-shows, movies, games, music, images, mobile applications and so much more.

Since about one and a half year ago the site has been closed down by the court's order and all the pirated stuffs were blocked. My friend was one of its frequent user and so he asked me when the site would be expected to be active again.

Horary No: 217

Date of Judgement: 17/2/2010

Time of Judgement: 17: 41: 34

Place of Judgement: Surat, Gujarat

Applied Rules:

- 1) After presuming the chart as querent's ascendant, the 3rd cusp will be his efforts, communication and ability to access the site. So if the 3rd cusp signifies 3, 9 and 11, the site would be started again in the DBAS of 3, 9, and 11.
The second assumption for 3rd cusp is the internet, communication and website itself without taking consideration of ascendant for whom or what. This is for query whether this site would get activated or not.
- 2) Here 7th cusp would be presumed as an ascendant of website owners and 9th will be their efforts, communication and ability to activate the website.
- 3) The 3rd and 11th (querant's fulfillment of desire) should not be placed in the constellation or sub of retro-grade planet.

RPs

Me, Mo, Sa, Ju

Significators

3: Su, Ma

9: Ra, Ve

11: Ju, Ve, Ra, Ke

Assessing 3rd CSL

The 3rd CSL Me is placed at 12 and has lordship of 5 and 8. Me is in the constellation of Mo placed at 1 and owns 6. Me is placed in the sub of Sa which is at 7 and has lordship of 12 and 1. There is no planet posited in the star of Me placed at 12 (strong by position) and it is the CSL of 3rd and 9th.

Here, 3rd CSL Me does not signify any of the relevant houses 3, 9 or 11. At this point, the assessment would have to stop and to be determined that the site will not be activated. Let us see two more assessments of this Me.

- 1) If we take this CSL's (Me) indication nicely, it will be found that it is posited in the sub of retrograde planet Sa. Apparently, it is clear that the indication is not good for affirmation.
- 2) The Me as 9th CSL tells that the site owners will not take action or effort to restart it.

Assessing 11th CSL

Ve is the 11th CSL and it is posited at 12 and owns 4 and 9. Ve is in the star of Ra and sub of Me. Ra will signify 11, 12, 4, 9. Here Ra has a feeble positivity by signification of 11. But Me will be unfavorable as we have discussed above.

Dasa

Sa is the dasa lord and it is in the star of Su and sub of Ve. Sa owns 1 and 12 and is posited at 7. The star lord Su owns 7 and is placed at 12 and sub lord Ve owns 4 and 9 and is placed at 12.

Readers may note that the Sa (karaka for delay) itself is in retrograde motion for delay and it persists for a long time.

Conclusion

- 1) 3rd CSL's (also 9th CSL's) denial
- 2) 11th CSL's feeble signification
- 3) Dasa's delay

After analyzing the above mentioned points, I told my friend that the <http://www.mininova.org/> had no chance to be revived for its frequent downloaders/uploaders.

Fact

After this horary analysis, now 9 months have already passed and the site is not still activated. Readers may see the yellow strip on the top of the web page saying "From now on, only Content Distribution torrents are allowed"

Under the mentioned link it describes their defeat at the court.

This is a case from my file of records. One person asked me by mail that his son is looking for a decent position in a competitive exam for admission in medical discipline. Though he was very confident for his son to get admission in a professional college on merit, yet he wanted my opinion.

I analyzed the query by drawing a time chart at 27-02-2009 at 09:52:52 Hrs IST at Bangalore. The chart was rotated to 5th house to represent the native in question.

The horary chart is as follows:

Co-ordinates of judgment:

In a query relating to the higher education, the 4th and 9th houses get important. 4th house represents the basic fabric of education, which also supports the higher education. Thus, 4th and 9th houses need be supportive to give scope of higher education. If these houses signify the 11th house, the native get successful in the selection process. The securing of a seat through competitive exams is seen by the 6th house if favorably linked to the 11th house.

Finally, the dasha sequence plays decisive role and for the positive results, the dasha planets should be well disposed towards fructification with favorable transits.

The Query:

Fundamentally, in any prashna, the lagna indicates the subject matter of the query, while the Moon indicates the status of mind and the matter on which the querist dwells about.

Look to the lagna SbL-Sun, which is placed in the star of Rahu placed in 6th house meaning the subject matter to signify the competitive scenario.

Moon itself gets placed in 8th house. Moon falls in the star of retro Saturn placed in lagna indicating the self-prestige at stake with invisible fear of failure.

Thus, the query was well indicated in the prashna chart and it was comfortable to proceed further.

Analysis

1. Examine the 4th cusp.

Moon is the 4th cuspal sub-lord, which is placed in the star of Retro Saturn in Lagna. Moon falls in the sub of Venus placed in 8th house. This did not portend the educational activities to take off but actually indicates a break in education.

2. Examine 9th cusp

Mercury is the 9th cuspal sub-lord, which falls in the star of Moon placed in 8th house that did not show the domain of higher education to progress. Mercury falls in the sub of Venus placed in 8th house, thus sealing the option for the educational success of professional studies.

3. Examine 6th cusp

6th cusp indicates competition. 6th cuspal sub-lord is Saturn, which by way of retrogression does not fundamentally indicate success in competitive exams.

Saturn at the stellar level falls in the star of Venus placed in the 8th house whereas its sub lord as 11th lord Mercury is placed in the 6th house.

Admission to medical education

This indicates securing a good position in the competitive exam but the retrogression of the sub-lord of the cusp itself did not promise for securing of requisite desired seat in the admission process by competitive process.

4. Look to Fortuna

Fortuna falls in the 9th house. It falls in the star of lagna lord Sun placed in 7th house and in the sub of strong Ketu placed in the 12th house.

This clearly indicates the loss (12th house) of personal position and status (lagna) of the native. Thus, Fortuna did not support the fructification of event.

5. Examine the 11th cusp.

The 11th cusp would now decide the overall fructification of the result.

11th cuspal sub-lord is Rahu, which is placed in the star of 12th lord Moon placed in 8th house. Rahu is placed in the sub of 5th lord Jupiter in 6th house that did not show hopes as 5th lord defeats one in competitive scenario.

Thus, it was declared that securing of a seat for admission to the medical education was not possible for the native.

6. Examine Dasha sequence

At the time of query, the dasha of Saturn-Venus was running till August 2009.

As described in earlier paras, both Saturn and Sun were not conducive to confer success, as such the indications of failure were further affirmed.

7. Conclusion

Looking to all logistics of analysis as above, it was concluded that the native would not be finally selected and it would be a frustrating experience to the native though he might fare decently.

Fact of the case:

Even though, the native had got a decent position in the competitive exam but all the merit seats were exhausted for MBBS admission till his turn came for selection. He did not opt for the management seats, which were exceedingly costly in fees structure. The native thus dropped the idea of admission for the year 2009 and decided to prepare for 2010.

The KP principles are infallible and crystal clear, although, it requires genuine efforts for understanding and applying. Prof. Krishnamurthy has devised a pioneering predictive model in predictive astrology, which deserves sincere appreciation.

Swearing Ceremony Chart of Nitish Kumar: A Krishnamurti Paddhati Analysis

By: Dr Andrew Dutta (Sri Indrajit)

www.astroandrewkp.org

Sri Nitish Kumar has won the Bihar Assembly elections with landslide victory. His party, Janata Dal-United JD(U) along with NDA alliance partner Bhartiya Janata Party (BJP) has been able to win a total of 206 seats out of the required 243. The JD(U) was the leading party with 115 seats and BJP with 91 seats. Clearly, NDA emerged as the people's choice.

The swearing ceremony was conducted in Gandhi Maidan of Patna (in stead of Raj Bhavan) on 26th November 2010. The exact time of Sri Nitish Kumar reading his oath of office was 14:51 hours (IST) as confirmed by few people present in person during the swearing ceremony. He was administered his oath of office by the present Governor of Bihar, Sri Debananda Konwar.

Using this date, time and place a Krishnamurti Paddhati chart based on Placidus House Division and KP Old Ayanamsa with Geocentric Latitude correction was casted. The swearing-in chart with planetary positions and cuspal table is attached for all readers.

Let us now analyze the swearing-in chart of Sri Nitish Kumar government, which is forming the 32nd government of Bihar. The first and foremost factor to look for in the chart is the longevity of the government. According to KP principles, if the cuspal sublord of the Lagna cusp signifies the 1st, 5th, 9th and 10th houses without any connection to the Maraka (2nd and 7th house) and Badhaka houses (for Chara-Moveable Lagna it is 11th house as in this case), the longevity is expected to be maximum (KP Reader III pages 159, 165; Further Lights on Nakshatra Chintamani by C.R. Bhatt page 25; How to Judge Longevity by K. Hariharan pages 44-45). Here we see that the 1st cusp sublord is Moon. Moon is in the 4th house people in the natural 4th rasi of the zodiac-Karkata in its own rasi. Moon owns the 5th house of 'Parinati' or culmination of wishes. Moon is in the star of Saturn and sub of Ketu.

Saturn is in 6th house owning the 11th and 12th house. Saturn therefore, represents the Badhaka house. Moon's sublord is Ketu. Ketu being a node will primarily give the results of its representative planets and then results of itself. Ketu is represented by Mercury, Mars, Saturn and Jupiter. Mercury is in 9th house owning 3rd and 4th, Mars is powerful in Vrishchika as Lagna lord and being in 8th house with lordship of 1st and 8th. Jupiter is in 12th owning houses 9th and 10th.

So, the Lagna cusp sublord Moon is strong with significations of houses 1, 5, 9 and 10 and relatively weaker signification of the longevity harming houses. Moon only signifies the Badhaka house of 11th. This clearly indicates that Nitish Kumar government will survive the full five year term. As Moon's starlord shows 11th house but Moon's sublord shows full longevity, Nitish Kumar's government will find failed and foiled attempts of a weak opposition to create disciplinary havoc. The opposition will not be successful in creating any major loss to the Nitish Kumar government except giving it an administrative headache at times. Readers should not forget to observe that the Lagna cusp sublord Moon is totally unsuspected by any planet rendering it very strong.

This government will keep on performing as 'people's choice' and favorite (Moon's signification of 4th and Karkata rasi). It will find favor with the bureaucracy, improve health policy and health infrastructure in the state. Heavy industry and investment climate will improve (Saturn's signification of 11th house).

Nitish Kumar government is however a two-party alliance. Alliances are seen from the 7th house of partnership. We find that the 7th cusp sublord is Venus posited in the 7th house of Thula aspecting the Lagna. Clearly, the BJP is not only the most important ally; it is also quite powerfully placed in the horoscope. Nitish Kumar will find that it is not the opposition who will create any trouble really but its own alliance partner will 'sweetly' try to arm twist the government on various political issues. So, Sri Nitish Kumar is advised to take BJP seriously as an important partner who can create problems for the government, though BJP will not withdraw support from the Nitish Kumar led government.

Venus being the 7th cusp sublord is in Mars star and own sub and no planet is in the stars of Venus making it a strong significator of its cuspal ownership. Venus owns the 7th, 9th and 11th cuspal sublords. Mars is in the 8th house owning 1st and 8th and Venus in own sub signifies 2nd and 7th. Definitely BJP will have the power to disrupt the functioning of the government, but will not do so since the starlord Mars is signifying 1st and 8th and associated with the royal planet Sun. But BJP will do heavy bargaining with Nitish Kumar time and again and Nitish Kumar will have to deal it with valour.

www.astroandrewkp.org

Finally, it has been a political lesson to all in India that Sri Nitish Kumar has made this historical winning on the platform of 'development'. It is to be seen from this swearing chart whether his new government will be able to continue this. Development is seen from the 10th cusp. The 10th cusp sublord is Mercury, posited in the 8th house but in rapt conjunction with the 9th cusp. This shows economic boom, foreign business deals, increase in exports but also money laundering and manipulated economies. This Mercury is in Ketu star and sub. Ketu's occupation in the 3rd house shows progress in public school system, roads, transportation, communication and commercial trade. In short, development will not only continue, it will become faster and bigger. So, Bihar's new government under Nitish Kumar is well poised to take the state to newer heights of development and success. We wish him all the best in this endeavor.

QUESTION

From K.P astrological Book I understand that IF MOON AND SATURAN are in one house, it is called PUNAR-POO. Does this mean that any relation of MOON AND SATURN, by the 3rd, 7th and 10th aspect of SATURN with MOON also mean PUNARPOO? What is the effect of PUNARPOO. What is the effect of PUNARPOO on the native? Does this affect the matrimonial alliance settlement? If so, how the alliance for such horoscope native will take place? If two horoscopes are found matching and if both are having PUNARPOO in the same house or in different houses, can the alliance be settled?

What is FORTUNA in a horoscope? What is the effect of it on the native? Does this have any relevance or importance in horoscope matching?

It is said in astrological text books that karaka should not be in a place for which he is a karaka. That is VENUS (SUKRA) should not be in 7th place. but can be in 7th place in his own house. This is from LAGNA. Is it applicable for checking from MOON also. Kindly clarify.

RAHU and KETHU found positioned in LAGNA and 7th place or 3rd and 8th place in any horoscope, be considered for alliance with other horoscope where the positions of RAHU and KETHU are in different houses. or how such horoscopes to be considered.

All the above matters are not discussed in any articles. The articles written in ezine are pertaining to some event or asked by client. No one ever discussed about various planetary position and combination in a horoscope and its effect. Also the cuspal details with its sub lord pointing to various houses and its effect details. CUSPAL SUBLORD AND ITS DETAIL POINTING TO VARIOUS HOUSES TO BE KNOWN. Kindly reply.

ANSWER

Punarphoo

1. The whole idea of Punarphoo is condensed by Gururji KSK in one paragraph as follows: "Whenever Saturn has got any connection what-so-ever with Moon, there will be some obstacle or impediment, not only during negotiation but also at the time of fixation and even at the time of celebration of the marriage. This connection between Moon and Saturn causes delay, though ultimately both of them do much more good with a better partner." (KP Reader IV page 74)

2. Saturn's aspect on Moon is one of any connection of Saturn with Moon to form Punarphoo. The detailed definition of Punarphoo by Dr. Kar based on the KP Readers and also mentioned in the Punarphoo book can be found in the article on KP Marriage and Childbirth, under part 6 Punarphoo, in the KPE-zine July 2007 issue.

3. In the above article and also in the book review on Punarphoo in the KPEzine April 2010 issue and question & answer section of the KPEzine September 2010 issue, it has been explained not to worry about Punarphoo other than its possible delay effect.

4. The article and a short note on the KPDP Rules for Matching Marriage are available in the KPE-zine March 2007 issue and July 2007 issue (KP Marriage and Childbirth, under part 7 KPDP) respectively. It can be found that the KPDP matching does not have any relation with Punarphoo.

5. Similarly no validity of Mars Dosha in KP had been investigated empirically in the article on Analysis of Mars Dosha as per KP in the KPE-zine August 2007 issue, and theoretically in the article on Mars Dosha in KP in the KPE-zine December 2008 issue.

Fortuna

6. Fortuna is only a mathematical point in the chart, calculated in KP by the formula:

Fortuna = Moon + Lagna - Sun (in longitude) (KP Reader I, p 98)

Generally fortuna is supposed to improve the matters indicated by the house occupied by it. It may give fortune to one in the conjoined dasa period and sub period of the star lord and sub lord in which it is posited. (KP Reader III pp 178, 191/ Original Edition Practical Part pp 24, 36) Fortuna is not related to the KPDP matching.

7. As per the original Krishnamurti Padhdhati Vol 1 pp 472-474 of Sagar Publication, 1966, the positive results of favorably placed fortuna in the various houses are as shown below:

- 1st house - gain in enterprises, lead a happy life, come up by own efforts
- 2nd - gain through property, business, happy domestic life, enjoy good bank position
- 3rd - gain through brother, short journey, enjoy the good relationship with neighbors
- 4th - gain through landed property, hidden treasure and products of earth, metals, etc.
- 5th- gain through fortunate investments and children, young people and ambassadors
- 6th - lucky uncle and aunty, gain through servants, small animals and banking business
- 7th - gain through partners, contracts and dealings with others, victory over enemies
- 8th - gain by inheritance, insurance business, gratuity, bonus etc.
- 9th - higher studies, long journeys, gain through foreigners, foreign trade, publication etc.
- 10th- name, fame, reputation, promotion
- 11th- beneficial friends, helpful brother, profitable business, fulfillment of desire
- 12th - fortunate in purchases and sales, investments, gains from unknown sources

Karaka

8. In KP the signification of relevant house grouping is a deciding factor for an event to be promised and happen, and the Karaka can play only a supportive role, as demonstrated by the article, Imprisonment: A Study of 100 Prisoner Charts in the KPE- zine March 2009 issue.

Consideration of Lagna Alone

9. Moreover the limited use of karaka in KP is for matters only, not for houses, which are set according to the Placidus house system. That is why there is no problem of whether a karaka is placed in the house for which it is the karaka. The karaka e.g. Jupiter alone can't give the result of childbirth unless it signifies the required houses of 2 , 5 or 11 by occupation and lordship at planet, it's star and sub levels.

10. In KP the Placidus houses are always to be counted from the Lagnat alone, never ever from the Moon, as only the house cusps, including the Lagna, vary in twin births in consideration of whether the house matter will prosper or suffer. (KP Reader III 243-4, 432-3/ Original Edition Practical Part p 85, 259; Astrosecrets & Krishnamurti Padhdhati Part II, 2003, p 190; 30-6-69 dated Forward on Krishnamurti Padhdhati by Jyotish Marthand Shri K.S. Krishnamurti in the Astrological Tables for All by R. Eshwara Manu)

Rahu/Ketu Rules

11. The Rahu/Ketu rules practically applied in the KP Readers II, III, IV, V & VI was compiled in the article, Rahu/Ketu Rules in KP in the KPE-zine May 2007 issue.

Role of Sub Lord in KP

12. KP is the sub lord theory only, nothing else. The cuspal sub lord of a house indicates whether the matter of the house is promised or not. The planetary sub lord indicates whether the planet is beneficial or not when the signifiers of dasa period lords point the time of event. In timing of the events, this planetary sub lord, along with cuspal sub lord gives clue to the astrologer for analysis of the chart and future prediction. (KP Reader V page 224/ Original Edition p 211, KP Reader III pp 226, 362/ Original Edition, Practical Part pp 68, 194)

13. In support of considering whether a matter of the house is promised or not and when it could happen, the KP House Grouping Part 1 to 5 was compiled in the KPE-zine October 2007 to February 2008 issues. The timing of event was explained in the series of KP for Beginners articles especially Part 7 to 10 in the KPE-zine October 2008 to January 2009 issues. The KP learning materials of the KP House Grouping and KP for Beginners articles from the KPE-zines were compiled in the KP Navrtnamala part-2 (Revised), which is available for free download at the KPE-zine website.

14. The articles on the role of sub lord had appeared in the KPE-zines February 2007 issue (Role of Sub) and March 2008 issue (The Role of Sub Lord in KP).

15. In short, a serious KP learner can find a lot of study materials, both theoretical and empirical, in the KPE-zine.

Question -2

I am a 72 years old retired person from the engineering field and a pure follower of KP system and regular reader of KPE-zine. In KP Reader 5, page 175, it says that lord of 11th, transiting in 11th house, in constellation of lord of 11th promises all good results.

Luckily, I was going through my son's horoscope as he is passing through some difficult period. (DOB 01 Jan 1980; TOB 04-14 PM, BANGALORE, India, TAURUS born)

Now running JUPITER Main period, and MOON's Sub Period. JUP will be transiting from 6 Dec 2010 to 5 Jan 2011 in PISCES (Meena-11th house) In constellation of JUP (P-BADHRA) and he is the 11/8 lord. Please give me some hints about what other important points are to be studied to know more about this period.

Answer -2

1. Chart details are as below:

Male, 01 Jan 1980, 04:14 PM, Bangalore, 12N57, 77E34, Asc Tau 22:04:37, KPNA 23:29:15, Mars Dasa balance 0Y,6M,30D, by KPAstro 3.5

Ju-Mo DB: 01-Dec-2009 to 31-Mar-2011

Ju-Ma DB: 31-Mar-2011 to 07-Mar-2012

2. Some points which may be worthy to note are as follows:

1. The KP chart is the Placidus bhava based chart, not the rasi based chart. In this case, the 11th house is from the 11th cuspal sub lord @ Pi 16:26:18 to 12th CSL @ Ar 20:18:22, not from the beginning to end of Pi rasi sign;
2. Transit Ju will enter into the 11th house on 13 Mar 2011 after passing 11th cuspal sub lord @ Pi 16:26:18;
3. The cuspal sub lord of a house indicates whether the matter of the house is favorable (promised) or not. The significators point the time of event. Both dasa, bhukti and gochara (transit) must agree. (KP Reader V page 224, KP Reader III pp 226, 362) It implies that in KP the dasa is main and transit is useful in pinpointing the timing of event, and the transit alone may not be able to give the result which is not indicated by the running DBA.
4. Bhukti lord Mo(1,3) is in the star of Ma(4,7-12) and in the own sub of Mo(1,3). Thus it is understandable that the native is passing through some difficult period. It is also perhaps an evidence that 1st signification, which is 12 to 2nd, is not good for 2nd house matter of particularly money, whatever he is trying himself hard as some are saying.
5. It would be better in the next Bhukti Ma(4,7-12) but in star Ve(9,1-6) and in sub Ju+(4,8-11), which is in line with the indication of Dasa lord Ju.

Astro secrets & Krishnamurti Padhdhati Part VI, Ruling Planet

edited by K. Subramaniam

Krishnan & Co., 2010, 317 pages

1. This book is the second collection of the ruling planet articles after the first RP & KP book, 1985, of 41 articles by 24 authors, reviewed in the KPE-zine November 2009 issue. In this book there are 61 articles, as listed in the contents, by 38 authors, namely Dr. Prem Raj Shakun, R. Ramesh, Sunil D. Deo, Vaikarai Ramamurthy, Tegendra Vikasa, Ramesh Way Garikar, Ashok Trivedi, A.Y. Divakar, Dr. Balkrishna Sign, G.C. Vijayakumar, G.H.W. Silva, Pronob Dass, K.M. Subramaniam, C.H. Bhaskar, M.C. Khare, M.n. Sriha, L. Bebeitta, Nambiar, K.C. Subramaniam, Pirthi Raj Sharma, Hira Lal Sharma, N.D. Kedare, P.R. Muatodharai, A. Suvapattam, M.S.R. Murthy, Shankar Nayak, Umesh Verma, Manas Kr. Ghosal, A.V. Ramamurthy, Kamala Sesha Ratnam, B.K. Singh, J.N. Verma, M. Lakshmi Narayannan, D.N. Balasubramaniam, J. Ramanujam, Krishnan Singhal, A.Y. Divekar and K.A. Desai as per courtesy note to the scholars.

2. Looking at the dates of the examples from 1968 to 1991, the highest number of 8 articles each is found from 1978 & 1990, and 7 articles each from 1979 & 1981.

3. The ruling planets are the planets which rule the moment at the time of judgment of any query. In 48, out of 61, articles of this book, the RPs were used for:

1. selecting the fruitful signifiers assuming that the ruling planets at the time of judgment of query would be the same ruling planets at the time of fructification of the event in question;
 2. birth time rectification assuming that the ruling planets of the time of judgment would agree with the ruling planets at birth time;
- fast predictions based on the ruling planets alone without horary or time chart.

4. In the bulk of 30 articles, the authors had used only the 5 RPs (Lagna star lord, Lagna sign lord, Moon star lord, Moon sign lord and day lord) originally applied by Guru ji KSK. There are 10 articles where the authors had included the sub of Lagna - but not the sub of Moon as RP, in addition to the original five RPs. The inclusion of the subs of both the Lagna and Moon as RPs is found in other 8 articles.

5. The retrogression had been considered in 8 articles, and it is found in the retrogression example on page 164 that if the cuspal sub lord is the strong signifier of the relevant bhavas, the result is not denied, as experienced by C. R. Bhatt in his Prashna Jyotish, 1981, which Kanak Bosmia is translating into English from Gujarati in honor of his Guru.

6. Gulbarga theory was applied in 2 articles; the planet with no planet in its stars is a strong significator of houses for which it is the cuspal sub lord in 2 examples; the sub sub was used in 2 articles; the RPs by aspect and conjunction were taken into consideration in 3 articles; the delay effect of Punarphoo was found in one article; the selection from no 1-27 was applied in one article etc.

Your article in Nov. KP ezine "Will Maharastra CM Ashok Chauhan remain as CM of Maharastra ?" has wrongly Rulling Planet.
